The Daily Examiner.
THURSDAY, MARCH 31, 1887.

In one sense the people of Manitoba and the North West have themselves to blame. They listened to the promises of the Government and elected candidates to support them. They believed in White lies and now they are reaping the reward or rather punishment of trusting to the policy of indiscriminate promising which is the chief stronghold of Sir John's election policy. "Trust him not, he is fooling thee," is applicable in ninety-nine cases out of a hundred.

TIME after time anxious prospectors for hereditary windfalls are filled with enthusiasm, hope and humbug, in their hunt for hypothetical fortunes, fanciful castles in Spain and estates in the moon, and thousands are spent in wild goose chases by deluded expectants, in search of these myths. The Lawrence-Townley estate is a case in point and one not without local interest. An exchange states that the Lawrences and Townleys, of Belleville, after spending $925 in the fruitless endeavour to establish their claims to a portion of the Lawrence-Townley estate have given up the business. Judging by the report of Mr. J. N. Davis there is a Lawrence-Townley estate; but it is not looking for an owner. It became by Act of Parliament the property of Peregrine Edward Townley and is now owned by that gentleman's descendants. The Lawrence-Townley business had quite a boom both in Canada and the United States, claimants to a share in the property springing up in every city and town in the continent. Mr. Phelps, the American Minister to London, declared a year or so ago that the estates were in the possession of their legal owners, and the action of the Belleville Lawrences and Townleys would indicate that in their opinion Mr. Phelps was right.

Ontario Lumbermen.

A Special Meeting of Lumbermen to Consider Mr. Murray's Bill.

A special meeting of lumbermen was held in the rooms of the Ontario Lumber Company yesterday afternoon for the purpose of considering the propositions contained in Mr. Murray's bill for the regulating of the driving of saw logs. Mr. A. H. Campbell, of the Muskoka Lumber Company, occupied the chair. There were present Messrs. H. H. Cook, M. P.; F. Hammet, Ontario Lumber Company; J. H. M. Campbell, A. R. Christie, Jas. Tennant, G. Cook, W. Walsh and John Waldie, Toronto; Robt. Campbell, M. P. for South Renfrew; M. Burton, Barrie; H. L. Lovering, Waubaushene; R. A. Lyon, M. PP.; S. Armstrong, M. PP.; Mr. McBurney, Gravenhurst; James Scott, Wanbaushene.

After Messrs. Cook, Cockburn and others had spoken of the

for the purpose of regulating the driving of saw logs, Mr. Robt. Campbell, M.P., said that the lumbermen of the Ottawa district were all in favor of a bill except one and no person knew his reason for opposing it.

It was unanimously decided that the meeting was in favor of the general principle of Mr. Murray's bill. The afternoon was spent in considering the bill clause by clause, Mr. Murray, who was present, giving his assistance. Considerable discussion arose over a proposition to provide that where one lumberman drives another's logs down a river he could sort at any point on the route and the owner of the foreign logs should pay the expense. The clause was finally struck out, as it seemed to be the general opinion that it would operate unfavorably to the small lumbermen. Several propositions were rejected for the same reason, Mr. Murray objecting to them on the ground of principle and the general opinion expressed in each case was that unless the were rigidly guarded, said measure this bill could not be expected to go through the House.

On motion of Mr. H. H. Cook, the following committee were appointed to wait on the Special Committee of the Local Legislature to-day:—Mr. A. H. Campbell, Mr. Cockburn, Mr. Lovering, Mr. Scott, Mr. Burton, Mr. McBurney, Mr. Waldie and Mr. Hammet.—Globe.

SNOW BLOCKADE.

LAST WEEK'S MAILS FOR ENGLAND STILL DETAINED.

MONCTON, N.B., March 30.—The big snow storms of the past week have completely demoralized traffic on the Intercolonial. Another storm raged last night between Campbellton and St. Flavie, greatly retarding the work of clearing the road. Hundreds of men are engaged ploughing and shovelling through the snow but it will be many hours before their labor is completed. The train which left Quebec on Friday with the mails and passengers for England is moving very slowly and will not arrive at Moncton till to-morrow at the earliest, and the mails and passengers will have to remain in Halifax till next Saturday on the steamer Peruvian, after waiting for three days, provended. In some portions the snow was piled many feet deep and the road would be clear for only a short distance when another storm would completely block it again.

The Immigrants' First Experience.

QUEBEC, March 30.—The Intercolonial Railway trains are not in a much better position than they were last night. The Halifax express which was stuck near River du Loup, got through last night, but has been stuck nearly all day 11 miles east of St. Charles. Saturday's and Monday's trains, as well as all the English mails, are still at St. Flavie, with seven feet of snow to get through. The immigrants from the steamship Parisian to the number of nearly 400 are at Campbellton. It is doubtful if the road east of River du Loup can be cleared to-morrow, as there is a strong wind blowing which drifts the snow into the cuts almost as soon as it is shovelled out.

THE MISSING STUDENT.

A Montreal Reporter Get Tidings of Him but He Has Not Been Found.

MONTREAL, March 30.—Ever since young Hamer, the Bradford student at McGill, disappeared at Back River active search has been made and many stories regarding him have been put in circulation. This afternoon it was rumored in the city that he had been found dead in a barn at Back River and a reporter was sent to the scene to find out about the matter. He has returned and says the story of Hamer being found is not true. He traced the missing student up to last night, when he was seen in a French saloon in a state of insanity. There is no doubt of his being alive, but it is generally believed he has been made mad by over study accelerated by drink. He tried to take the train for Toronto at the Mile End Depot of the Canadian Pacific Railway last night, but had neither ticket or money and was turned out of the depot, being told the line was blocked by snow. At a saloon where his portrait was recognized by the barkeeper, he asked for hot water, which he got. Into this he poured some gin out of a bottle in his pocket and then asked for some sugar. This he was refused, and then he began to raise a row, wanting to break all the bottles in the place. With the help of several others he was put out of doors, and has not been seen since. The detectives are following up this clue, and it is believed he will be captured to-night.

ESCAPE OF A PRISONER.

A Juvenile Offender in Custody at Hamilton Gets Off.

HAMILTON, March 30.—After the Police Court was over this forenoon Police Constable Harris drove up with a patrol wagon, and the only prisoner to be taken to the jail was young Thomas Hughes, who had pleaded guilty to stealing books and had been remanded for a week by the Police Magistrate. Police Constable Ferris took his seat in the wagon beside the last, and Mr. Harris drove on. Hughes was as mute as a mouse all the way down, and the veteran officer had not the slightest idea what was passing in the youngster's mind, otherwise he would have taken hold of his prisoner. When the corner of Elgin and Barton streets had been reached, Hughes jumped up, grasped the hand rail of the wagon and threw himself over its side as nimbly as a cat, alighting safely on his feet. He then dashed down Elgin street, crossed over in the direction of the Hub and Spoke Works, and disappeared in the neighborhood of Messrs. D. R. Dewey & Co.'s coal yards, corner of Wellington and South streets. The escape was so sudden and unexpected that it took Harris and Ferris by surprise. The horse was stopped at once, and the officers went in pursuit. Harris soon afterwards returned and reported the escape at headquarters. Ferris continued the search.

"CLUTCH" DONOHOE.

Another Attempt by the Express Co. to Make Him Disgorge.

WELLAND, March 30.—The court opened this morning with the celebrated case of the United States Express Co. v. "Clutch" Donohoe, this being the third trial, Donohoe having beaten them both times before. They claim he stole $40,000 from them at Susquehanna, Pa., with part of which he purchased a hotel at Fort Erie which the Express Co. are trying to take from him. Donahoe is now serving a seven years' sentence for burglaries at Quebec and Galt.

Chief Justice Cameron did not allow the court any dinner and also held an evening session to expedite business. Harcourt & Cowper of Welland; J. K. Kerr of Toronto, and F. H. Platt of New York appeared for the plaintiff and B. B. Osler of Toronto and A. Williams of Welland for the defendant, the same counsel as in the former trials. The case for the plaintiffs consisted of written evidence from the previous trials. Hampton, who is wanted here but was granted immunity from arrest in order to obtain evidence, testified, and Bob Pinkerton's evidence was closed at 5 o'clock, the evidence being similar to that given at the former trials. The evening session of the court was occupied by the defence with Donohoe and others as witnesses to prove an alibi, that it was impossible for him to leave Fort Erie and commit robbery at Susquehanna. The court adjourned at 11.30.

KILLED BY A SQUAW.

A Fatal Shooting Affray in an Indian Camp Near White River.

WHITE RIVER, Ont., March 30.—A fatal shooting affray occurred about six miles north of White River C.P.R. station about 4.30 yesterday afternoon. A young man named Edward Maddon, accompanied by Mr. McDougall, fur trader, of this place, went to an Indian camp for the purpose, it is said, of collecting furs, where McDougall got into a fight with the Indians. Maddon, while assisting McDougall in the row, was fatally shot in the head by a squaw, one of the inmates of the camp. Maddon was employed as night-watchman at the C.P.R. station, and had the reputation of being an inoffensive and quiet young man. His parents reside in Toronto, and have been advised.

A Juror in His Own Case.

WINDSOR, March 30.—The case of Israel Desjardines, Warden of Essex County, charged with bribery at the recent election, came up at the assizes at Sandwich yesterday. Singularly enough Desjardines was drawn on the Grand Jury, and after listening to Judge Gait's charge in the bribery case retired with the jury to deliberate as to what was best to do in the matter. As Juror Desjardines could not consistently return a true bill against the Warden Desjardines, and as the surest way out of the difficulty, the case went over to the fall term.

Fire at Cayuga.

CAYUGA, March 30.—This morning about 2.30 the residence and the shop of Alex. Baird was totally destroyed by fire. Most of the stock of stoves and tinware and furniture was saved in a damaged condition. The fire brigade was promptly on hand and saved the Mason's Hall on the opposite side of the street. A young man named Barney Kenny was seriously injured by a chimney falling on him. Loss, about $1,200; insurance, $600. Cause of fire unknown.

Providential Relief.

HALIFAX, March 30.—A magistrate writing from Carbonear, Nfld., says: "Thousands of families in this and adjacent northern bays have been on the verge of starvation, but a providential relief has been wafted here in the shape of a vessel from Labrador, with 1,000 seals. Big Bays, with hundreds of seals have been captured by the landsmen. This timely supply will save people from starving for the next two months."

SPEAKER OF SENATE.

HON. MR. PLUMB WILL PROBABLY GET THE POSITION.

OTTAWA, March 30.—The Government have decided either to take Mr. Plumb into the Cabinet and make him leader of the Senate, or to make him speaker of the Senate and a member of the Cabinet without portfolio. Should he be made leader of the Senate one of the present ministers would have to retire. Which of the two courses the Government will decide on is to be settled at an early cabinet meeting, but it is likely that he will be appointed speaker.

The necessary amount has been subscribed for supporting the election of Mr. P. Purcell, Liberal, in Glengarry.

Reports to-day to the Marine Department from the Gulf of St. Lawrence signal stations indicate an outward movement of the ice. Anticosti Island reports the telegraph lines blown down east and west.

Cape Race, Newfoundland, reports the schooner Beadle of Boston, loaded with provisions for St. Johns, was forced into Trepassy Bay by ice. The crew left her with both anchors out, but in a critical position. There is a steamer, lobster-wise sea, with a strong gale of south wind.

Hon. John Norquay, Premier of Manitoba, arrived here this morning. His mission is said to be in connection with the anti-disallowance agitation now going on in Manitoba. Mr. Norquay fears that if the disallowance policy of the Federal Government is continued his ministry may be overthrown, and he also desires to have something done to strengthen his position in the Provincial Legislature which is now very critical owing to the attitude assumed by his old colleague Mr. Brown.

It is reported that at the approaching session of the Dominion Parliament some amendments will be proposed by the Government to the Chinese Bill. The bill at present admits of fraud and imposition being practiced on Government officials by the unlawful use of the certificates which are granted resident Chinamen who may wish to leave the country, they either being sold or given to their countrymen in China who may desire to come to Canada and who, when entering the country fortified with these certificates, escape the tax of $50 per head which is imposed on every new arrival of a Celestial.

THE STAR'S HOODLE CHARGES.

A Bill in the Assembly to Appoint a Commission of Enquiry.

QUEBEC, March 30.—In the Assembly this afternoon Mr. Hall, member for Montreal West, introduced a bill empowering the Government to appoint a Royal Commission to enquire into the Star's charges of hoodlumism against members of the Montreal City Council.

Premier Mercier, who is a law partner of one of the aldermen against whom the Star charges are believed to be levelled, opposed the bill because, as he said, it would create a bad precedent. He did not believe the charges and would not help to clear the Council.

Minister of Agriculture McShane, who only left the City Council when appointed a minister, supported the bill, and it was finally read a first time.

Its chances of passage are, however, believed to be very slight, and if it fails the whole blame will be on the shoulders of Mr. Mercier.

THE C.P.R. BRANCHING OUT.

A Preliminary Survey of the Boston and Quebec Line Completed.

SKOWHEGAN, Me., March 30.—A. T. Stewart, one of the principal engineers of the Canadian Pacific Railway, has completed a supplementary survey of the Boston and Quebec air line railroad route, to be built from Skowhegan to Moose River, and to connect with the Canadian Pacific line. He reports this a practicable and desirable route.

The Great Northumberland Stakes.

LONDON, March 30.—At the Northampton and Pytchley hunt meeting to-day, the race for the Ascott Plate of 500 sovs. for 3-year-olds, five furlongs, was won by Gen. Pearson's colt, Anarch, A. Taylor's colt, Pultygother, second, and J. Regan's filly, Lillybud, third. The event of the day was the Great Northamptonshire Stake, won by Middlethorpe. Summary:

THE GREAT NORTHAMPTONSHIRE STAKES of 600 sovs., added to a handicap sweepstakes of 20 sovs. each, 10 ft. for 3-year-olds and upwards; the winner of any race value 300 sovs. after Feb. 10, 5 lb., twice or one of 600 sovs., 10 lb. extra; entrance, 4 sovs., the only forfeit if declared; about one mile and three-quarters, 34 subs., 12 of whom declared.

A Strike in New York.

NEW YORK, March 30.—The masons, bricklayers, carpenters, plumbers and other laborers employed in the erection of the extensive additions to the Equitable building struck today. The strike was caused by the employment of two non-union men to put up electric wires. About 2000 men were working in the building. Four hundred have gone out and walking delegates are ordering the rest to quit work.

London Life Guilty of Libel.

LONDON, March 30. Heinrich Felbermann, proprietor of Life, was to-day fined £75 for libelling Dr. Bird, family physician to Lady Colin Campbell, by publishing under the caption "Cocklolly Bird," an article insinuating that the Doctor had been guilty of improper intimacy with his patient. The libel was published during the Campbell divorce trial.

The B. and O. Deal.

BALTIMORE, March 30.—Information was received here last evening from New York that Mr. Garrett and his legal advisor, Mr. Cowen, had succeeded in overcoming the difficulty that had arisen with the Stayner & Ives party, so that the latter have not exercised their right to demand back the payment made on the signing of the contract. The option, therefore, holds good, subject to the payment of $5,000,000 at the end of April.

Mutual Betting Allowed in France.

PARIS, March 30. The Cabinet have agreed to the adoption of the Derville betting system. This places mutual betting under the control of the racing societies, a portion of the profits from the sale of the privileges to be devoted to the encouragement of horse breeding or to charity.

The Count Struck the Deputy.

PARIS, March 30. A dispute which will result in a duel took place this afternoon in the corridor of the Chamber of Deputies. The disputants were Count Douville and Sans Leroy, deputy for Ariege. The count struck the deputy.

There Can't be Two Captains.

QUEENSTOWN, March 30.—Capt. Samuels, of the yacht Dauntless, attributes his defeat by the Coronet to the interference of Mr. Colt, the owner of the Dauntless, who was on board the vessel. Capt. Samuels and five of the crew have left the Dauntless and will sail for New York to-morrow.

Out on Bail.

NEW YORK, March 30.—George F. Parker, president of the "British American Claim Agency," charged with swindling, and whose trial resulted in the quashing of the indictment against him, was to-day released on bail. His wife was accepted as bail. She owns property in Brooklyn.

American Missionaries Attacked.

CONSTANTINOPLE, March 30.—A mob of Greeks last Sunday attacked with stones the residences of the American missionaries in Smyrna. The American legation here has asked the Porte to send a man-of-war to Smyrna to protect the missionaries.

Another Attack on the Czar.

BERLIN, March 30.—Authentic information has been received from St. Petersburg that a fresh attempt was made upon the Czar's life at the Gatchina Palace yesterday. The Czar was not injured.

Failure of a Montreal Shoe Firm.

MONTREAL, March 30.—J. A. Rolland & Co., large boot and shoe manufacturers of this city, have assigned with liabilities of about $80,000 and nominal assets. There are indirect liabilities in notes held by Bank of Toronto for $9000.

ONLY AN ELECTION DODGE.

The Calgary Tribune has this to say respecting the attitude of the Dominion Government on the question of the disallowance of local railway charters granted by the Manitoba and North-west Governments, before and after the Dominion elections:

"It was only when the Government wanted the votes of the people that they were willing to promise relief, but immediately that those votes have been obtained, broken promises follow. The Government is now basking in the glow of what it considers a good working majority. While they considered that majority in doubt, they were extremely patriotic and beneficent, but it only takes a few hours of sunshine to bring the serpent to life again.

The continuation of this determined policy of disallowance is going to have a disastrous effect on the settlement and progress of this western country. Fourteen years of bondage to a single great railway monopoly! Think of it! During that time they will be able to dictate just the amount of tribute the people will have to pay, how it shall be paid, what enterprises shall succeed, what shall fail, and generally to exercise autocratic powers such as no government could employ without exciting the nation to rebellion, which no modern monarch could exert without bringing his sceptre into peril. But it is permitted here under the gauzy plea of the sanctity of a bad and illegal contract."

THE Mail's "independence" is beginning to weaken, and the true colours are beginning to show. A few weeks ago it was so independent that it made the Government's majority, as a result of the February elections, thirteen. Now it gives the Government a majority of thirty-eight.

THE Ottawa Free Press with its wonted enterprise is publishing biographical sketches and excellent portraits of the city fathers. If Ottawa aldermen show any signs of following the footsteps of Montreal and New York aldermen, these portraits would make a handsome anticipatory addition to a rogues' gallery. By the way would it be "robin" the Toronto aldermen to omit to give them a claim to consideration in this connection?

THE recount in the Algoma election came up Tuesday. Mr. Dawson's agent filed four objections to the petition of the applicant. Three were set aside and one was allowed. By this one it was held that the necessary deposit was not made, inasmuch as, although the hundred dollars was deposited with the clerk of the court and his receipt given for the said hundred dollars, and the said receipt handed in by the applicant to the judge, yet the money so handed in was not altogether gold or legal tender. Mr. Dawson will now be declared elected by eleven majority.

"SUPERFLUOUS lags the veteran on the stage." This line from Samuel Johnson's "Vanity of Human Wishes," is generally applicable to men who seem to be unaware that they have had their day, and particularly applicable to the poet, Baron, Lord Tennyson, that is if we may judge by his last effort the Jubilee ode, portions of which have been cabled under the sea, where for all the literary merit there is in it, or for all the loss the world would have sustained, it might have stayed. Neither its rhyme nor its reason, neither its sentiments nor ideas, render it worthy of the gifted Laureate, to whose productions of his prime, it bears no more comparison nor resemblance than the bony skeleton of a beautiful woman to the full fleshed prime of her blooming youth. Years ago Tennyson's poems established for him a lasting fame, and it is a melancholy reflection that he will persist in selling its lustre by scattering over its brightness the ashes from the failed fire of his genius. Genius as well as every day human intellect can, it seems, pass into dotage.

LEGISLATURE OF ONTARIO.

Ninth Parliament--First Session.

TUESDAY, MARCH 29th.

Several bills were advanced a stage.

The House went into Committee of the whole on the bill respecting the administration of justice in Algoma and Thunder Bay (the Attorney-General). The bill was reported with certain verbal amendments.

The House went into committee of the whole on the Attorney-General's bill respecting the custody of documents relating to land titles. The bill was reported without amendment.

Hon. Mr. MOWAT moved the second reading of the bill for the protection of infant children. He said the bill followed the lines of the English law, and forbade persons taking in infants except under regulations and registration of the municipal councils. In cities the evils of baby farming were very great, most of the children dying within four or five weeks. The bill also provided for the holding of coroners' inquests in cases where deaths occurred. The bill was read the second time.

Hon. Mr. HARDY, in moving the second reading of the bill respecting the guardianship of minors, said it was principally a consolidation of our own Acts, excepting that it embodied the provision of an Imperial statute enacting that on the death of the father the mother shall become guardian. The bill was read the second time.

DISTRESS FOR RENT AND TAXES.

Hon. Mr. HARDY, in moving the second reading of the bill respecting distress for rent and taxes, said it provided not for the abolition of distress, went as farin that direction as was contemplated in the Attorney-General's bill of 1879. In many of the States they had in lieu of distress a process called attachment. This bill, however, provided that goods and chattels exempt from seizure under executions at law should be exempt from distress for rent and taxes. It also provided that goods of third parties found on the premises could not be distrained for rent, provided the restriction did not apply to the property of the wife or husband. There was also a provision for a set-of against the landlord of amounts due by him to the tenant. Having deprived the landlord of the right of distraining, it became necessary to give the landlord an easy means of getting rid of a tenant, and the bill provided that if the tenant would not go out, the goods otherwise exempt became seizable. The bill was read a second time.

LAND TITLES ACT.

Hon. Mr. MOWAT, in moving the second reading of the bill to extend the operations of the Land Titles Act, explained that it proposed to give municipal councils the power of putting the Act in operation within their districts. While the Act was admitted to be theoretically good, it was astonishing how few applications had been made to place property under the registration of the Act. Only 102 applications had been made in Toronto and York County, of which 79 had been granted. On the other hand, the applications represented a large amount of property, being upwards of a million of dollars in value. The County of York had made very little use of the Act, the applications coming mainly from the city. The bill provided that the counties which adopted the Act shall pay the expenses, and that there shall be a local Master of Titles in every case. It also provided that after the 31st December the local expenses shall be paid by the city of Toronto, the County of York. Read a second time.

POLICE MAGISTRATES.

Hon. Mr. MOWAT'S bill respecting the appointment and proceedings of police magistrates was read the second time. It provided for the appointment of more salaried police magistrates than one in counties where the Canada Temperance Act is in force and for their salaries, and for the temporary appointment of special constables.

The House then went into Committee of Supply.

On the item of immigration, $16,900.

Hon. A. S. HARDY said that this year there was a reduction of about $7,000 caused by the dispensing with the agent at Quebec and abolishing the allowance for assistant at the immigration shed in Toronto. This was in pursuance of the policy decided upon to abolish entirely the work done by the Local Government at the immigration sheds, the idea being that whatever might be done in this respect in future should be done as part of the system of Dominion immigration. Next year it was proposed to abolish entirely the through Ontario, the provision for immigrants in Ontario and the agencies in Ontario, unless something should occur to necessitate their retention. It was apprehended, however, that there would always be use for an agent in England. It was proposed to encourage the immigration of farmers possessing some capital, say five, ten or twenty thousand dollars, who would benefit the country by carrying on improved methods of farming and in other ways.

The appropriation was attacked by Mr. Meredith, Mr. Ingram, Mr. Marter and Mr. Clancy, and was defended by the Provincial Secretary, Mr. Fraser and Mr. Gibson, of Huron. Mr. E. F. Clarke entered a very fair criticism of the system. He urged the discontinuance of agents in Europe, and advocated a more generous distribution of literature instead. He thought there was something to be said in favor of maintaining agents at some points in the Dominion. Mr. Garson argued for the lowest possible expenditure on this service. Undoubtedly the general feeling of the House is with Mr. Garson, but it can be easily understood that the Government find it necessary to make some provision for immigrants arriving in this country and to assist judiciously the development of the new districts. The appropriation for immigration this year is only $16,000, and the Government have proved by their policy of recent years that if found practicable the expenditure on this account will be still further reduced. The item passed.

THE AGRICULTURAL COLLEGE.

On the item of $137,736, for agriculture,

Hon. A. M. Ross explained several small increases, and mentioned that a small grant was to be made to the "Ontario Experimental Union," an association of ex-students of the Agricultural College, formed for the purpose of carrying out experiments in farming. The experiment of allowing a student from each county to attend the college free had been much more successful than he had anticipated. Out of 40 countries 32 had nominated students to attend.

Mr. CREIGHTON quoted figures to show that there was a falling off in the number of students from Ontario, notwithstanding the increase of fees for foreign students.

Hon. A. M. Ross declared that the college was the most successful of its class in America, and he regretted that the criticism had taken a political tone. The Government had sought to remove the college from the realm of politics by appointing an Advisory Board of leading men of both sides of politics. The Advisory Board had examined the institution and had suggested some changes, which had been fully considered and some of them adopted. The item passed.

A Slight Mistake.

There are a great many windy patriots who mistake the echo of their own bragging clatter for the voice of fame.

Liver Complaint, Dyspepsia and Impure Blood

We are telling plain facts, of which hundreds upon hundreds can testify who have been restored to perfect health by its use. We would therefore advise you strongly if you are a subject of any of the above troubles to give McGregor's Speedy Cure a trial and be convinced. Change and Rest.

A northern man says: "I came down to Florida to get a little change and some rest." "Did you get it?" some one asked. "No, the waiters got the little change and the hotels got the rest."

Cure for Croup.

Prompt relief to prevent suffocation from the accumulation of tough mucous—the formation of false membrance—and the constriction of the air passages, is necessary in case of a sudden attack of croup. Hagyard's Yellow Oil should be used at once, afterwards Hagyard's Pectoral Balsam. 2w12d

Strictly True.

In every respect and attested by the testimony of thousands that Putman's Painless Corn Extractor is a sure and painless cure for corns. The claim that it is just as good made by those endeavoring to palm off imitations for the genuine only proves the superiority of "Putnams." Use only Putman's Painless Corn Extractor. Sure, safe, painless. 6dw13

A Limit.

When an Indiana man has had five wives in eleven years, and all having died under queer circumstances' the authorities begin to watch him, and if he begins to shine up to the sixth he'll get himself into trouble.

Mighty Spasms of

Mr. James M. Lawson, of Woodville, Ont., speaks in high terms of Yellow Oil for rheumatism, lame back, sprains and painful complaints. Yellow Oil is used internally and externally in case of pain; also coughs, colds, sore throat, etc., and has made many remarkable cures of deafness. 2w12d

The Story of Hundreds.

In a recent letter received from Mrs. Sarah A. Mills, of Wheatley, Ont., she says, "I was a sufferer for six years with dyspepsia and liver complaint. My food did not digest and I grew weaker every day. I lost appetite and had little hope of recovery. I tried many remedies, but all in vain, till I took Burdock Blood Bitters. The first bottle gave relief; after taking seven bottles, I am thankful that I now enjoy good health." 2w12d.

DARBY DONAN.

How He Was Made An April Fool.

"Good luck to you now Darby, and don't return until you come back a gentleman or a fool."

The above salute was uttered by good natured Darby Donan's mother as she brushed him off and started him for Dublin.

Molly Donan, as she was called by her neighbors, was very proud of her son Darby, and Darby was a very useless specimen of humanity; he was withal very generous and always wishing to be a great man, yet never would do anything that would make him great. If we except that he constantly roamed over the green fields of his native parish, prayed and wished that he might by some agency, spiritual or human, reach the acme of his ambition, which was to marry a "great" lady.

One day he heard the people talking of a great lord that lived up in Dublin, who had a daughter so handsome that her like was never seen, and all the fine young gentlemen were dying about her, but she would not take any of them. And he came home to his mother, and said: "I shall go see this great lord's daughter. Maybe the luck will be mine above all those fine young gentlemen that love her." "Go along, poor fool," said the mother; "how can the poor stand before the rich?" But he persisted. "If I die on the road," he said, "I'll try it." As he started off to get the "great lady," his mother gave him the good luck salute noted at the opening of this story.

He hadn't gone far when he met a poor man who asked him for a trifle for God's sake. So he gave him something out of the trifle of money his mother gave him, and went on. Again, another met him, and begged a trifle to buy food for the sake of God, and he gave him something also, and then went on.

"Give me a trifle for God's sake," cried a voice, and he saw a third poor man before him.

"I have nothing left," said Darby, "but a few pence. If I give them, I shall have nothing for food and must die of hunger. But come with me, and whatever I can buy with this I will share with you."

And as they were going on to the inn, he told all his story to the beggar man, and how he wanted to go to Dublin, but he had now no money. So they came to the inn, and he called for a loaf and a drink of milk. "Cut the loaf," he said to the beggar, "you are the oldest."

"I won't," said the other, for he was ashamed; but Darby made him.

And so the beggar cut the loaf, but though they ate, it never grew smaller, and though they drank as they liked of the milk, it never grew less.

"Now," said the beggar-man, "you have three times been good to me to-day, for thrice I have met you and you gave me help for the sake of God each time. See, now I can help you also," and he gave a gold ring to Darby. "Wherever you place that ring, and wish for it, gold will come—bright gold—so that you can never want while you have it."

Then Darby put the ring first in one pocket and then in another, until all his pockets were so heavy with gold that he could scarcely walk; but when he turned to thank the friendly beggar he had disappeared.

So, wondering to himself at all his adventures, he went on until he came at last in sight of the lord's palace which was beautiful to see. He went and bought fine clothes, and made himself as grand as any prince; and then he went boldly up, and they invited him in, for they said: "Surely, he is a king's son." And when dinner hour came, the lord's daughter linked her arm with Darby and smiled on him. And he drank of the rich wine, and was mad with love; but, at last the wine overcame him, and the servants had to carry him to his bed; and in going into the room, he dropped the ring from his finger, but knew it not.

Now, in the morning, the lord's daughter came by and cast her eyes upon the door of the chamber, and there close by it was the ring she had seen him wear.

"Ah," she said, "I'll tease him now about his ring."

But when Darby awoke and missed it, his heart was grieved.

"Now, indeed," he said, "my luck is gone."

And he inquired of all the servants, and of the lord's daughter; and she laughed, by which he know she had it; but no coaxing would get it from her. So when all was useless he went away, and set out again to reach his old home.

And he was very mournful, and threw himself down on the ferns near an old fort, waiting till night came on; for he feared to go home in the daylight, lest the people should laugh at him for his folly. And about dusk three cats came out of the fort talking to each other.

"How long our cook is away," said one.

"What could have happened to him?" said another.

And as they were grumbling a fourth cat came up.

"What delayed you?" they all asked angrily.

Then he told his story—how he had met Darby and given him the ring. "And I just went," he said, "to the lord's palace to see how the young man behaved; and I was leaping over the dinner-table when the lord's knife struck my tail, and three drops of blood fell upon his plate, but he never saw it, and swallowed them with his meat. So now he has three kittens inside of him, and is dying of agony, and can never be cured until he drinks three draughts of the water of the Baptist well."

So when Darby heard the cats talk, he sprang up, and went and got three bottles full of the water of Baptist well. So off he went to Dublin. And all the doctors in Ireland were around the bird, but none of them could tell what ailed him or how to cure him.

Then Darby came in and said: "I will cure him."

So they gave him entertainment and lodging, and when he was refreshed he gave of the well water three draughts to his lordship, when out jumped the three kittens. And there was great rejoicing, and they treated Darby like a prince. But all the same he could not get the ring from the lord's daughter. So he set off home again quite disheartened, and thought to himself "if I could only meet with the man again that gave me the ring, who knows what luck I might have?" And he sat down to rest in the wood, and saw there, not far off, three boys fighting under an oak tree.

"Shame on ye to fight so," he said. "What is the fight about?"

Then they told him. "Our father," they said, "before he died, buried under this oak tree a ring by which you can be in any place in two minutes if you only wish it; a goblet that is always full when standing and empty only when on its side; and a harp that plays any tune of itself that you name or wish for."

"I want to divide the things," said the youngest boy, "and let us go and seek our fortune as we can."

"But I have a right to the whole," said the eldest.

And they went on fighting, till at length Darby said:

"I'll tell you how to settle the matter. All of you be here to-morrow, and I'll think over the matter to-night, and I'll engage you will have nothing more to quarrel about when you come in the morning."

So the boys promised to keep good friends till they met in the morning, and went away.

When Darby saw them clear off he dug up the ring, the goblet and the harp; and in two minutes he was in the great hall where the lords and ladies were just sitting down to dinner; and the harp played the sweetest music, and they were all delighted; and he drank out of the goblet, which was never empty, and then when his head began to grow a little light, "it is enough," he said, and putting his arm around the waist of the lord's daughter he took his harp and goblet in the other hand and murmuring—"I wish we were at the old fort the side of the wood"—in two minutes they were both at the desired spot. But his head was heavy with the wine, and he laid down the harp beside him and fell asleep. And when she saw him asleep she took the ring off his finger, and the harp and goblet from the ground and was back home in her father's castle before two minutes passed by.

When Darby awoke and found his prize gone, he was mad, indeed, and roamed about the country till he came to an orchard, where he saw a tree covered with bright rosy apples. Being hungry and thirsty he plucked one and ate it, but no sooner had he done so than horns began to sprout from his forehead, and grew larger and longer till he knew he looked like a goat, and all he could do they would not come off. Now, indeed, he was driven out of his mind, and thought how all the neighbors would laugh at him, and as he roared and raged with shame, he spied another tree with apples, still brighter, of ruddy gold.

"If I were to have fifty pairs of horns I must have one of those," he said, and seizing one, he had no sooner tasted it than the horns fell off, and he felt that he was looking stronger and handsomer than ever.

"Now I have her at last," he exclaimed. "I will put horns on them all, and will never take them off until they give her to me as my bride before the whole court."

Without further delay he set off to the lord's palace, carrying with him as many of the apples as he could bring off the two trees. And when they saw the beauty of the fruit they longed for it, and he gave them to all, so that at last there was not a head to be seen without horns in the whole dining room. Then they cried out and prayed to have the horns taken off, but Darby said: "No; there they shall be until I have the lord's daughter given to me for my bride, and my two rings, and my goblet, and my harp all restored to me."

And this was done before the face of all the lords and ladies, and his treasures were restored to him, and the lord placed his daughter's hand in the hand of Darby, saying:

"Take her, she is your wife; only free me from the horns."

Then Darby brought forth the golden apples, and they all ate, and the horns fell off; and he took his bride and his treasures and was in the act of carrying them home, when his mother called out: "Darby, what are you doing there asleep with the sun high in the heavens, and the cows breaking into the cabbage garden?" Darby rolled himself over, rubbed his eyes and looked up greatly disappointed.

"Mother," said Darby, what day is this?"

"It is the 1st of April, of all the days in the year," said his mother.

"Well, well," said Darby, "If you'd only waited for a few minutes longer, you would have had me home, a gentleman, with a great lady for my wife, and now, with your cabbage garden and your cows, you have broke my luck, and here I am, and I suppose always will be an April fool."—Uncle Bubbs in Catholic Home.

Do not Forget It.

It is a fact that NERVILINE cannot be surpassed by any combination for the relief of pain. The reason is a good one. Nerviline contains the best, most powerful, and the most diversified remedies. It is a magic pain-curer. Inflammation, stiff neck, cramps, neuralgia, colic, in fact all pain, internal, external, and local, are subdued in a few minutes. Go at once to any drug store and get a trial bottle. It will only cost you ten cents and you can at a small cost test the great pain cure. Poison's Nerviline. Large bottles only 25 cents. 6dw13

Enjoy Life.

What a truly beautiful world we live in! Nature gives us grandeur of mountains, glens and oceans, and thousands of means of enjoyment. We can desire no better when in perfect health; but how often do the majority of people feel like giving it up disheartened, discouraged and worn out with disease, when there is no occasion for this feeling, as every sufferer can easily obtain satisfactory proof, that Green's August Flower, will make them free from disease, as when born. Dyspepsia and Liver Complaint are the direct causes of seventy-five per cent. of such maladies as Biliousness, Indigestion, Sick Headache, Costiveness, Nervous Prostration, Dizziness of the head, Palpitation of the Heart, and other distressing symtoms. Three doses of August Flower will prove its wonderful effect. Sample bottle, 10 cents. Try it. eodw6

EXTRACT FROM MONTREAL WITNESS, DATED DECEMBER 31st, 1886:—

THE LATE MR. McLACHLAN.

AN INSURANCE COMPANY PROMPT SETTLEMENT.

We have been asked by Mr. McLachlan to publish the following, and do so in view of the exceptional public interest taken in the case mentioned:—

To R. Macaulay, Esq., Managing Director of the Sun Life Assurance Company:—

DEAR SIR,—I have much pleasure in acknowledging the payment by you of $17,130.70, being the amount due under the policies held by your Company on the life of my brother, the late John S. McLachlan. A company's character is tested when an opportunity arises in which it has the power to take advantage of a technicality or inability (as in the present case) to comply with every condition and requirment, so as to occasion delay and expense, and perhaps finally defeat a just and honest claim. There is no doubt in the mind of any reasonable man that my brother and Mr. Sumner were unhappily drowned, and the affidavits produced abundantly support this; but although a careful search has been made, the bodies may never be recovered owing to the swiftness of the current and the low temperature of the water. It would, indeed, be a hardship if any company were, under the circumstances, to demand technical proofs which, from the very nature of the case, it is impossible to furnish. I have great pleasure in certifying to the honorable and liberal manner in which your Company has acted in regard to the claim. As soon as your board of directors was aware that the accident had really happened, you gave every facility for a prompt settlement. You have been the first of the companies interested to pay, and I thank you for the kind and satisfactory manner in which you have met me.

W. McLACHLAN.

The Dominion Safety fund, we understand, has also paid its policy of $2,000. The Sun Life has taken from the executors of Mr. McLachlan a personal bond to refund the amount of insurance with six per cent. per annum compound interest, should he ever turn up alive. Mr. J. S. McLachlan had in all $42,130.70 insurance on his life, and other companies resist the claims.

GOLDEN MEDICAL DISCOVERY

CURES ALL HUMORS,

from a common Blotch, or Eruption, to the worst Scrofula. Salt-rheum, "Fever-sores," Scaly or Rough Skin, in short, all diseases caused by bad blood are conquered by this powerful, purifying, and invigorating medicine. Great Eating Ulcers rapidly heal under its benign influence. Especially has it manifested its potency in curing Tetter, Rose Rash, Boils, Carbuncles, Sore Eyes, Scrofulous Sores and Swellings, Hip-Joint Disease, White Swellings, Goitre, or Thick Neck, and Enlarged Glands. Send ten cents in stamps for a large treatise, with colored plates, on Skin Diseases, or the same amount for a treatise on Scrofulous Affections. "THE BLOOD IS THE LIFE." Thoroughly cleanse it by using Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery, and good digestion, a fair skin, buoyant spirits, vital strength, and soundness of constitution, will be established.

CONSUMPTION,

which is Scrofulous Disease of the Lungs, is promptly and certainly arrested and cured by this God-given remedy, if taken before the last stages of the disease are reached. From its wonderful power over this terribly fatal disease, when first offering this now celebrated remedy to the public, Dr. Pierce thought seriously of calling it his "Consumption Cure," but abandoned that name as too limited for a medicine which, from its wonderful combination of tonic, or strengthening, alterative, or blood-cleansing, anti-bilious, pectoral, and nutritive properties, is unequaled, not only as a remedy for consumption of the lungs, but for all

CHRONIC DISEASES

LOCAL NEWS.

A Peterborough Gang Abroad.

An immense iron gang for cutting lumber, with 54 inch cash, and taking saws 3 feet 8 inches long, weighing in toto about 25 tons, was loaded to day ready for shipment via C. P. R. to the Charlemagne Lumber Co., below Montreal. This monster machine was made at the Wm. Hamilton Manufacturing Company's Works, and is of their own invention, similar to those shipped to various places in Canada last summer, which have met with unqualified success and given every satisfaction. The Wm. Hamilton Manufacturing Company are receiving orders every day for machinery of all kinds, which have accumulated until the capacity of the works is taxed to the utmost. They are shipping carloads of machinery almost every day. Quite recently they shipped two carloads of general machinery to the Victoria Harbour Lumber Co., and will, as soon as it is completed, despatch a band saw mill to the same firm. Their trade constituency extends as far west as the Pacific ocean; their agent at New Westminster, B C., writes that their new engines and boilers are attracting a great deal of attention, and he (the agent) is encouraging parties to either go or write direct to the home agency. There are also numerous enquiries made concerning the gangs, one of which was shipped there last summer, and is exciting much attention from mill-owners.

The Orange and the Green.

Trouble is brewing between the True Blues and young Roman Catholics of the town. Already there have been one or two eruptions, but if their enmity is not controlled, worse results will surely follow. At the police court this morning Michael Larone and A. Webster, better known as "Cap," were charged with being disorderly in a public place. Tuesday afternoon, according to the evidence, Larone and Webster became embroiled in a fight at the corner of Hunter and Water streets, the former calling "Cap" a "d—— Protestant blank of a blank," at the same time piling into him. Webster merely defended himself as best he could, and did not strike back, and Larone was fined $50, or 20 days in goal. He went up. Larone, it seems, was one of the men the True Blues were after Sunday night, when Cartin's restaurant was attacked, in connection with which ten arrests have been made, and the case will come up for trial at the police court to-morrow.

Peterborough Rinky Dinkeys Nibble A Victory for the Home Curlers by Sixty Shots—Hooray!

Five rinks of curlers from Lindsay met with decisive defeat at the Charlotte street rink yesterday afternoon, and the Peterborough men are now content to let the season's sports cease and rest themselves on their laurels, which, though won late, are still most acceptable. And besides, they claim that this match has considerably enlightened them as to the best way to play Lindsay. No two rinks of Peterborough curlers can successfully compete against the strongest team of Lindsay men; but in a five or six rink game, the Peterborough men are confident that they can wax Lindsay every time. And their claims are not in the least presumptuous—Peterborough has one of the best, if not the best, all-round curling clubs in Ontario. In five and six rink contests they almost invariably win, and it is only in cases where two rinks or less are pitted against outsiders that they sometimes suffer defeat. If the present cold snap continues there will likely be more curling matches. Following is the score of Wednesday's game:—

Good Bye, Ed.

Mr. E. B. Clegg is given a Good Send-Off by His Peterborough Friends—"For He's a Jolly Good Fellow."

Last evening about forty young men assembled at Mr. John Millar's rooms in the Cox block for the purpose of saying farewell to Mr. Ed. Clegg, who left on the 10.53 C. P. R. train for Montreal. Mr. Clegg has for a long time been employed in Fairweather & Co's dry goods store, which place he leaves for the more lucrative position of book-keeper in the wholesale house of Lonsdale, Reid & Co., St. Helen street, Montreal. Ed. has been a life-long resident of Peterborough, and his invariably pleasant disposition, straightforwardness and strict integrity have won for him the golden opinions of both old and young. While "am-m-ong the b-b-boy-th-the-boys" his affable and genial manners completely captivated their hearts—and the same thing may be safely attributed to the the tender susceptibilities of the young ladies, among whom Ed. was a general favorite. In business likewise he was the soul of honor. He will be missed on every band—and to none more than to the two remaining members of the celebrated trio, Bert and Art. (The pertinent question is now asked, which one of them will be the first to take unto himself a partner for life in order to make up the deficiency.) In his own home Ed's absence will be generally felt and regretted, where he has always been a kind and dutiful son and affectionate brother.

At last nights' gathering the red-coats of No. 2 Company, 57th Batt., of which Mr. Clegg was an efficient and popular member, were conspicuous. There were besides a goodly number of civilian friends, who, though not attired in outward shining raiment, were just as sincere in their expressions of regret and good-will.

The following address was read by Mr. Arthur Turner:—

DEAR ED.—We your old friends and companions desire to express our deep regret at your departure from among us after so many years of pleasant association together.

We have always found you not only a warm friend and genial companion, but one whose steady habits we could point to as a model for the young men of the town. It is therefore, with more than the ordinary feelings of parting, that we bid you farewell, but we trust that what has been a loss to us may be a gain to you.

As a token therefore of our friendship and respect, we ask you to accept this watch, which may occasionally recall to your mind the pleasant years spent in Peterborough.

Wishing you, in your new field, all the success and happiness you deserve, and assuring you that, wherever you may be, your career will be watched with interest.

We are, most sincerely,

(Signed by about fifty of his most intimate friends.)

The presentation was made by Mr. A. E. Thompson. The gift was a beautiful gold watch, purchased from Mr. W. A. Sanderson, and inscribed on the inner case as follows:—

Presented to
E. B. CLEGG,
BY SOME OF HIS PETERBOROUGH FRIENDS,
MARCH 30TH, 1887.

Mr. Clegg very briefly, but in broken voice, attested his appreciation of the gift, which could not fail in itself to be a constant reminder of the good times and warm friends he left behind in Peterborough. Such a reminder was, however, scarcely necessary, as the pleasant recollections of his past enjoyment were too deeply impressed upon the heart to be erased. He assured them that he would ever keep their kindness fresh in his memory, and hoped to meet his friends again soon, if not in company, at least individually.

Afterwards the boys went in for a couple of hours of enjoyment, and at 10.30 formed in line and marched with military precision to the station, where they sang, whistled and joked away the time until the train arrived. A final shake of the hands, "Auld Lang Syne" by the company, a shrill whistle from the engine, and Ed. was gone, the night's breeze wafting to his ears the expiring strains of "He's a Jolly Good Fellow." As Ed. stood on the car platform taking a final survey of his jovial comrades, his countenance expressed the regret and sorrow he experienced at having to break off such many warm friendships in the pursuit of worldly prosperity.

Order of march was re-formed, George street again echoed the measured tramp of a score of feet, and the boys filed into Craig's restaurant, where they spent an hour in discussing John's willies and the many good qualities of their departed comrade, who carried with him the best wishes of a Hundred friends. May he live long and prosper, is their wish, which is heartily endorsed by the EXAMINER.

SURELY the place to get kid boots is from the Kidd, next door to Messrs. Mills' hat store.

The Worth of a Man.

Rev. Mr. Towell on the above Subject to another Large Audience.

In the George street Methodist church last night another Gospel temperance meeting was held, at which a large audience assembled. After opening by singing, (Mr. White playing the saxophone) and prayer, Mr. White called for volunteers for the choir. Mr. White, who was in the audience, came forward at his request and joined in the singing. "Happy on the Way," was sung, guitar accompaniment by Mr. White, who then began his discourse on "The worth of a man."

He spoke of Temperance, and said that when he took up the subject it set him on fire. What is the worth of a man, was asked by the Psalmist ages ago. Well, I ask you, what is the worth of a girl, the worth of a boy, the worth of a man; second, whence am I, what is my origin? If I ask the scientists, they answer that in the beginning there were four germs, but they won't tell us where these germs came from or who formed them. They say they developed a polly wog, next a reptile, then a monkey, then man. I feel like saying to those that want to trace the origin of man outside the Bible, go and do so; as far as I have gone, and from my mother's knee, I was taught that God made man, that man is God's masterpiece in the whole creation, man is superior to the mighty angels, as he was made in the image of his Maker, and he breathed into him the breath of life, of his own life; therefore man was the most wonderful piece of the whole creation. Take a mechanic for example. Sometimes he is careless how he does his work, another is careful and does his best to make his work perfect, and values it highly. The sculptor stands before the marble, and works at it with mallet and chisel and after long, patient and earnest work, a beautiful statue is seen—this is his masterpiece. The artist studies before his canvass, and after labor and his best efforts have been put forth, he sees before him a beautiful and costly picture, worth perhaps thousands of dollars. So it is with poetry and music. I am bringing you up to a higher life. God has laid out and built a beautiful city called Man's Soul. He says, "Here is my best building, here is my master-piece." Well, if we are God's best work in creation, am I worth saving, is my fellow-man worth saving? God help us as Christians to rouse up and put forth our hands and save those that are being ruined by intemperance.' After a storied song by Mr. and Mrs. White and the choir, "The Gipsy Boy," with guitar accompaniment, the speaker resumed, remarking that this gipsy boy was converted by hearing the Gospel preached once in a tent, and that he died shortly after and went home to heaven; and, said he, I want you all to tell to others this simple story. He then called on the Rev. Mr. Towell to give an address, while he took a breathing spell.

Rev. Mr. TOWELL said: "I scarcely know what to say, as I have left myself open to speak by inspiration, and some say that is rather dangerous to do. But I have been deeply impressed by this discourse, and while my friend has been addressing you therefrom has been this text running through my mind, 'what will it profit a man if he gain the whole world and lose his own soul.' What could be given in exchange for a soul? Wealth amounts to nothing, although wealth is of value; John Wesley says, 'make all you can, save all you can, spend all you can'—that means, to keep the poor, and assist the cause of Christ. Some persons spend all on pleasure and seem to try to see how much they can take out of the sinful pleasures of this life. Some one asks, where is the line, what shall we do, where shall we go? I answer, we are not to live for the pleasures of this world, such as are found in fashionable life and society. As regards temperance, I repeat what I have said before the Scott Act is not to blame for the false swearing and other troubles that have arisen through trying to enforce it. Show me one single case of a person engaged in the liquor traffic to-day who can stand up and truly say, 'I am a Christian.' I have never yet found one who could do so; nay, rather, their convictions are, if they were called to account by God, that they would go to hell. Let every Christian see that it is his and her duty to do everything in their power to lead men up to the light, and bring them to a loving Saviour."

A hymn, "Glory to His Name," led by the saxophone, was sung, and Mr. White resumed his discourse. Temperance was founded on the Bible, and that was the line on which he intended working. All honor to the Bible! Man was created in the image of God with God's character, a living soul in harmony with God, but sin came and broke it up. Christ came into the world and brought him back again to God and restored harmony between them. God made man his instrument, which soon got out of tune and was sold to Satan, and Christ bought him back with his own blood. All instruments that go to heaven must be in tune. 7,000 men are destroyed in Canada, and 60,000 in the United States every year by the liquor traffic. Oh! rum was a terrible curse! Mr. White illustrated his address by several striking anecdotes.

The meeting was closed by a few more remarks of the speakers, singing and prayer.

Rev. Mr. White speaks in St. Paul's church to-night.

WRECK OF A SEALER.

THE EAGLE, OF ST. JOHNS, LOST WITH A CREW OF 250 MEN.

ST. JOHNS, Nfld., March 31.—All hope of the missing sealing steamer Eagle has been abandoned and this vicinity is in deep mourning over the loss of 250 lives. The Eagle was a Dundee built vessel equipped specially for the Newfoundland seal and Northern whale fisheries. She had new boilers placed in her and was thoroughly refitted this spring at an expense of £500. She sailed from this port on the morning of March 10 in company with the steamers Arctic, Aurora, Terra Nova, Wolf, Neptune, Esquimaux, Hector and Vanguard. Next day a frightful storm swept the coast. That night the Eagle and Aurora were in company in Bonavista Bay, 140 miles north of St. Johns. The seas are said to have been the most terrible ever experienced by the oldest sealers. Forty miles off Cape Bonavista lies Funk Island, which for miles around is surrounded by dangerous breakers. The last seen of the Eagle was in the vicinity of this island during the hurricane of the night of March 11. It is believed that the ill-fated vessel was driven on these fatal rocks and pounded to matchwood within a few moments, going to the bottom with her 250 men. Funk Island is a huge rock rising out of the sea, about two miles in extent, and by all odds the most dangerous locality along the whole coast of Newfoundland.

Sealing steamers usually keep each other's company and are never out of sight of one another for more than two days at a time, but the Eagle has not been seen or heard of for three weeks, and as the ice is all in shore the seals are all inside the headlands. All the rest of the fleet are among the seals, but nothing has been seen of the Eagle since she parted company with the Aurora. The commanders of the steamers Hector and Vanguard, however, have sent, through the lighthouse keeper at Cabot Island, the startling intelligence that they have passed a quantity of wreckage of a steamer, including spars, forecastle, etc., also a name board with the word "Eagle" painted on it, thus leaving no reasonable doubt of the doom of the ill-fated ship. Great excitement prevails in this city, and friends of those on board have given up hope of the return of their bread-winners. The loss of this steamer with 250 lives will be a terrible blow to St. Johns.

Captain Jackman, the Eagle's skipper, formerly one of the most successful commanders of the sealing fleet, has been particularly unlucky the last two years. The year before last he returned home clean, and his crew of 280 men lost their whole season's work. Last year his steamer, the Resolute, was crushed in the ice and lost, with 2000 seals, but her crew of 360 men escaped. Next he took command of the steamer Falcon and broke her shaft. Now the skipper and his 250 brave men have undoubtedly met their doom on the fatal Funk's breakers.

EXTENSIVE FIRE IN DETROIT.

Pingree & Smith's Shoe Factory Completely Destroyed.

DETROIT, March 31.—The large shoe manufacturing establishment of Pingree & Smith, corner of Woodbridge and Griswold streets, was destroyed by fire last night. Fortunately the fire department was able to prevent a spread of the flames, and the damage to adjoining property is trifling. Loss estimated at $250,000, and the insurance $200,000. Nearly 600 employes are thrown out of work. The concern was one of the finest and most complete plants in the United States, some of its machinery being very expensive and difficult to replace. While Truck Company No. 3 was doing service in the alley between the burning building and structures abutting a large section of the wall fell outwards with a tremendous crash. Leaning against this was a ladder upon which were five men. The ladder, by the giving way of the wall, was thrown against the opposite building. Two of the men clung to the ladder, but the other three were thrown violently to the ground. Their comrades hastened to their aid and found two of them, Michael Brenahahan and John Gilmore, nearly buried in the debris. Unless there are internal injuries both men will be about in a few days. At 1.45 this morning a large section of the front wall of the building fell outward in the street, burying Charles L. Chase and J. F. Causley, both firemen of the same company, under the debris. Other firemen rushed to the rescue and soon had them extricated. Causley is badly crushed about the hips, and Chase is bruised from head to foot. A remarkable feature of the fire is that in less than 40 minutes from its discovery the extensive building, 85x125 feet and four stories in height, was reduced to ruins. The fire is thought to have originated by spontaneous combustion. Amongst the insurance companies interested are the Western and British American, of Toronto; the Sun, London, Liverpool & Globe, North British & Mercantile, Northern, Commercial Union, London Assurance, Phœnix, Imperial, Scottish Union and National & Lancashire, all English companies.

The Last Days of the Bond-head.

PITTSBURG, March 31.—Through trains over the Pennsylvania Railway and Pennsylvania Company's lines to-day were crowded with dead-heads. All passes expire at 12 o'clock to-night. On one of the trains from Chicago there were twenty-five ladies who carried passes. They were issued on twenty-five different companies. The ladies came from Philadelphia and New York principally, each were getting home while they could ride for nothing. The officials during the past month have issued passes to almost every person who applied, regardless of former regulations.

LAND PURCHASE BILL

AS PROMISED, IT FOLLOWS THE COERCION MEASURE.

LONDON, March 31.—In the House of Lords to-night Earl Cadogan, Lord of the Privy Seal, presented a bill providing for the purchase of Irish holdings, or, in other words, for the abolition of the system of dual ownership created by the act of 1881. It was proposed, he said, to admit leaseholders to the benefits of the act of 1881. [Cheers.] The leaseholders whose leases expired prior to 1881, numbering 100,000, were to be admitted to the benefits of the act of 1881 in the same manner as those whose leases expired in that year. It was also proposed that a landlord must issue notice in the form scheduled in the bill when he obtains an ejectment writ from the court, and that he be required to serve the tenant with that notice in the manner prescribed by the courts, either by service or by posting; that when the tenant receives this notice he shall become upon the caretaker of his holding for the period of six months and that the redemption shall run as from that date.

Earl Cadogan said the Government found it impossible to adopt the Land Commission's recommendation that a period of five years for the fixing of judicial rents be substituted for that of fifteen years, according to the present law. The Government agreed with Lord Hartington that it was an open question as to the Irish rents were excessive or not, or whether excessive rents were exacted. Therefore, it would be unreasonable to deal anew with the settlement of rents fixed by the act of 1881. If these settlements should be disturbed the landlord and tenants would be led to believe that there was no finality to such a settlement. The Government believed the time had arrived to formulate a further measure dealing with tenants' purchase of holdings and looked to that mainly for a settlement of the question which remained agitated in country. In that alone they believed would be found the solution of the grave questions. [Cheers.] The Government proposed to deal with the question in its parts. The first was the bill which had just been described, dealing with questions of urgency and the great difficulty arising from the Land Act of 1881. The latter which it was hoped would reduce the number of eviction cases, would be followed by bill relating to the purchase of holdings. This latter bill the Government hoped would permanently settle the difficulty. The Government asked their Landlord friends were landlords in Ireland, and those connected with them, to make heavy sacrifices. They must strictly regard the rights of property and was, though an earnest desire to remedy complaints arising from the land laws, drawn in a spirit of fairness and justice. They proposed to relieve tenants who were insolvent through no fault of their own, but through misfortune. For extravagant, improvident tenants the Government proposed a County Court, the judge of which, while granting the landlord judgment, shall be empowered to reasonably stay execution for a period to be decided by the judge, the tenant meanwhile not to be removed from his holding. The Government would constitute the County Court judge a judge in bankruptcy within the area of his ordinary jurisdiction.

In reference to those tenants who are insolvent through no fault of their own the court might order a composition upon an insolvent's old debt, the debtor continuing to occupy his holding for as long a period as the judge might decide, and to pay a fair rental fixed by the court. The principle here was leniency to the innocent insolvent, of whose good faith and rectitude the Court should be assured, but extravagant and idle insolvents would be left to the ordinary laws. The rates of landlords who had not received their rents, or whose land had not been occupied owing to intimidation, would be remitted.

The bill passed its first reading, and the second reading was fixed for April 21.

Meeting of Liberal Unionists.

LONDON, March 31.—Lord Hartington, at a meeting to-day of the Liberal Union members of both Houses of Parliament, explained that the Government had made the Irish Crimes Act Amendment Bill a question of confidence, and if the Liberal-Unionists failed to support the bill and in that way brought about its defeat, the result would be the advent of Gladstone to power. It was the imperative duty of the Liberal-Unionists to prevent this. The meeting decided to support the bill. Several members were absent.

The meeting hall was crowded. Among the prominent persons present were the Earl of Derby, Mr. Chamberlain and Baron Rothschild. The meeting, with the exception of two dissentients, unanimously adopted Lord Hartington's proposal that the Liberal-Unionists support the second reading of the Crimes Bill on condition that members be allowed to criticise the measure in committee. Mr. Chamberlain approved the proposal.

The Easter Recess to be Short.

LONDON, March 31.—At the meeting of the Conservatives to-day it was decided that the House of Commons shall sit until the Irish Criminal Law Amendment has passed its second reading and that the adjournment at Easter shall be from Thursday next to the following Tuesday.

Two hundred members of Parliament attended the meeting. Among them was Lord Randolph Churchill. The meeting enthusiastically supported the decision of Mr. W. H. Smith, the Conservative leader in the House of Commons, to have a division to-morrow night on Mr. Parnell's amendment to the Irish Crimes Act Amendment Bill, providing the House resolve itself into committee to consider the state of Ireland on the first reading of the measure, even if closure had to be enforced.

An Important Point Abandoned.

LONDON, March 31.—The Cabinet have decided to abandon that clause of the Irish Criminal Law Amendment Bill which provides for changing the venue from Dublin to London in certain classes of criminal trials, thus practically removing the greatest cause of the Liberal-Unionists' opposition to the bill.

THE QUEEN'S JOURNEY TO CANNES.

A Slight Accident to the Train Delays Her Majesty's Arrival.

LONDON, March 31.—Queen Victoria's arrival at Cannes has been delayed to-day by an accident to the train conveying her thither. It was discovered last night that the springs of the railway coach occupied by Her Majesty were heated. The discovery was made when the train reached La Roche. Her Majesty's carriage was here stopped and it was decided to await daylight before proceeding. This morning the Queen removed to another carriage and continued the journey. She will reach Cannes to-morrow. The British men-of-war Thunderer, Calcutta, Agamemnon and Dreadnaught, with the Duke of Edinburgh and Prince George of Wales on board, lie at anchor in the Bay of Cannes awaiting the Queen's arrival.

The Missing Student.

MONTREAL, March 31.—Up to a late hour to-night nothing had been learned as to the whereabouts of young Hamer, the missing McGill student. Several of his relatives arrived here to-day and have gone to the Back River to make enquiries. There is still hope of finding him, but it is feared by some that he has wandered away into the snow drifts.

RELIEF OF EMIN BEY.

DESPATCH FROM STANLEY, LEADER OF THE EXPEDITION.

LONDON, March 31.—Stanley, in his despatch, says: "At Zanzibar the British fleet has given way to the German and German traders, who outnumber the British. There is a restless aggressiveness about the Germans that is confusing. Their manner is haughty and overbearing, and carries an air of 'you must.' The natives look on in wonder while the British affect utter indifference. Zanzibar was like a ripe plum, ready to drop into the pale of British belongings as a reward of the patient nourishing of upholding a feeble state and at the first sign of a German gunboat it is abandoned. It is no business of mine, but I confess to a sentimental regret that English statesmen should be so easily vanquished. I found Tippoo Tib, the uncrowned king of the region, between Stanley Falls and Tanganika Lake, commanding thousands of fighting Arabs. He was equally ready to fight or to be employed. I chose the latter not with a view to his helping me to reach Emin Bey, but to assist me in bringing Emin's store of ivory, which is of the value of £80,000. In presence of the British Consul I contracted with Tippoo Tib to supply me with six hundred carriers. I also, after receiving consent from King Leopold by telegraph, appointed Tippoo Governor of Stanley Falls at a regular salary. Tippoo Tib guarantees to defend the station against the Arabs and to defeat and capture all persons raiding for slaves, and to abstain from engaging in the slave traffic below the Falls. A European officer will be appointed resident at Stanley Falls to insure adherence to the contract and to stop Tippoo Tib's salary upon any breach of engagement. So far there has been no hitch in the expedition. Everybody has shown the utmost sympathy, and our difficulties have been smoothed by the prevailing good feeling. I have sent a letter to Emin Bey, giving him the probable date of our arrival. Tippoo Tib has ordered his people to concentrate at Stanley Falls in readiness for marching."

NATIONAL BUILDERS' CONVENTION.

Affiliated Associations Asked to Secure a System of Payment by the Hour.

CHICAGO, March 31.—The Builders' National Convention adjourned to-day to meet in Cincinnati next February. Officers have been chosen and a board of directors, composed of representatives from the leading cities, appointed. The resolutions adopted recommend that a uniform system of apprenticeship should be adopted by the various mechanical trades; that manual training schools should be established as a part of the public school system and trade night schools organized by the various local trade organizations for the benefit and improvement of apprentices. All affiliated associations are asked to secure, as soon as possible, the adoption of a system of payment by the hour of all labor performed other than by piece work or salary work, and to obtain the co-operation of associations of workmen in this arrangement.

THE RAHWAY MURDER.

The Girl Found Dead in the Road Identified by Two Persons.

RAHWAY, N.J., March 31.—The body of the young woman murdered on Friday night has at last been identified. Supt. Harrison of the Newark City Home, who visited the morgue last evening, recognized the body as that of Mary Maltbey, an orphan, who had been an inmate of that institution. She was given leave of absence recently and went to Elizabeth to enter the service of a lady named Winans. This lady was brought to Rahway and also identified the body. Anthony Knoll, the man arrested at the ferry entrance having in his possession a blood-stained knife, admits having been in Rahway Friday last. The murder was committed Friday night.

THE SHINING "SUN."

To those of our readers, interested in reliable life assurance, is commended the last annual meeting of the Sun Life Assurance Company. As an institution, affording remarkable beneficiary advantages and illustrating the development of financial ability, it is a credit to Canada. To specify the grounds upon which the "Sun" can justly claim distinction, it may be pointed out that within six years it has increased its annual earnings from $141,000 to $373,000, while at the same time it has not only disbursed its death claims, matured endowments, etc., but has achieved a cash surplus of $143,360. To emphasize this showing and its importance in confirming the standing of the company, the following from the columns of the Montreal Trade Bulletin is adduced:—

"What first brought the Sun Life to the notice of the Trade Bulletin and its readers, was the highly honorable course which the Company pursued in the prompt settlement of the claim on the life of Mr. J. S. McLachlan for $17,180.70, notwithstanding that of this amount the Citizens refused to pay a re-insurance policy of $5,000, and are still contesting it. It was the action of the Sun Life in connection with the above case that led us to pay a high compliment to Mr. R. Macaulay, the managing director, and to recommend his Company to our readers as "the right kind in which to take their life risks."

The following table is submitted as an evidence of the rapid progress of this enterprising company:—

	Income.	Assets.	Life Assurances in Force.
1873	$ 48,310.93	$ 146,461.26	$1,084,250.00
1874	68,072.89	231,302.31	1,729,709.40
1876	102,822.14	715,944.84	3,214,963.00
1878	177,360.87	773,395.71	3,374,0-3.43
1880	141,468.81	911 132.03	3,981,479.14
1882	254,841.73	1,073,517.94	5,849 289 19
1884	273 379.05	1,274,397.34	6 841 604 04
1885	318,927.06	1,441,004.28	7,930,878.77
1886	373,500.21	1,973,627 10	9,413,358.07

This is evidence of thrift and of acceptability to the public which precludes all idea of gainsaying and is additionally gratifying when it is added, that the Sun Life is a purely Canadian company and invests all its funds in Canadian securities, thus directly adding to the capital of the country, and promoting the advancement of those enterprises dependiny on capital for their motive power. The present standing of the Sun Assurance company is one of which it may be proud. At present it has a total bona fide and effective business of $12,428,158 of which $9,413,358.07 is represented by Life assurance and $3,015,800 by Accident insurance. The position and prospects of the "Sun Life" must, not only be most gratifying and satisfactory to those holding its policies, but must naturally tend to strengthen public confidence, enlarge the area of its operations and increase the already formidable number of its clients.

Omemee.

(From Our Own Correspondent.)

March going out like a lion, still good sleighing.

Rev. J. Ewing and Geo. Morrison, elder, attended the meeting of Presbytry in Peterborough last week.

Mr. Ewing has asked for an assistant during the ensuing season, having too large a charge to look after for his advanced years. Mr. Might of Ashburnham is spoken of.

Certain parties here have been smuring fish in large quantities during the winter in Pigeon River. Inspector Cochrane was informed, and tried to have those parties prosecuted, but nothing could be found against meeting fish.

Jas. A. Telly an old Omemee clerk has been filling a position of salesman in Georgetown, and speaks very well of the way the worshipful cheap man conducts his business.

As it has become generally known that the Queens Own is to be at Peterborough for the 24th May. Could it not be arranged for the neighbouring volunteer corps to visit and enjoy a days manoeuvring with the finest regiment?

Sun Life Assurance Company of Canada.

Annual Meeting—A Highly Satisfactory Report.

The annual meeting of this company was held at its office on Wednesday, 16th March. There was a very large attendance.

The President, Mr. Workman, read the annual report as follows:—

The Directors are pleased to report that the company has enjoyed an unusually successful year. The business of 1886 in the several departments far exceeded that of any previous year.

The total assurances submitted were for $5,299,993.77. Of that amount $3,927,556.77 was life, under 2,441 applications, and the balance of $1,711,460 was accident; of the former, $323,208.27 was declined and $80,460 was under enquiry when the books were closed. The life policies issued were 2,256 for $3,714,768.40.

The effective business remaining in force was $12,428,186.07. Of this $9,413,358.07 under 6,226 policies, is life, and the balance, $3,015,900, is accident.

As shown by the accompanying schedule the year's net income was $373,500.21, and the disbursements, which include death claims, matured endowments, surrender values, etc., were $220,140.17, leaving a cash surplus of $143,360.14 to carry to the assets.

The progress made evinces how thoroughly the company enjoys public confidence, and augurs well for the future.

In claims paid the experience of the year has been favorable, the amount being considerably under that of 1885, although the number of lives and amount at risk were much greater. As usual all claims are paid immediately after the receipt of the proper claim papers without any further delay whatever. In the accident branch the year's operations have been unfavorable, but it must be remembered that $5,000 of the amount paid was a reassurance on the late Mr. J. S. McLachlan, which we paid, but for which we look to the Citizens' Insurance company for reimbursement.

The quinquennial profits are now in course of division. The surplus thus available, as shown by the accompanying schedule, is $94,452.97. Participating policies have hitherto received only 80 per cent. of the surplus in that branch. In the present division, however, they have been allowed 90 per cent. And the better to insure that only actually available profits should be divided, the reserves have been calculated by the Government actuaries at Ottawa, and verified by the company's own actuary, according to the Government standard. The certificate of Mr. W. Fitzgerald, Insurance Superintendent for the Dominion Government, is attached hereto.

The usual careful audit of the books and vouchers was made by Mr. P. S. Ross, and in addition thereto he has communicated with the individual mortgage borrowers, and thereby verified in a most thorough manner the assets held by the Company. Subsequently the assets were minutely examined and verified by a committee of directors, and their report is attached hereto.

The three directors whose term of office expires this year are: Messrs. A. F. Gault, Alexander Macpherson, and the late Mr. J. S. McLachlan.

Audited. P. S. ROSS.

In moving its adoption, Mr. WORKMAN expressed the great satisfaction he felt in pointing to such a very prosperous condition of affairs as these accounts show. The year 1886 had been the most successful in the company's history, and the progress made had not only been very rapid, but very substantial. The company is now second to none in the Dominion, and the future prospects are of the brightest.

Mr. A. F. GAULT seconded the adoption of the report.

Mr. M. H. GAULT drew attention to the fact that 90 per cent. of the total profits are now divided to the policyholders and only 10 per cent. to the stockholders. This is very important; formerly they were 80 and 20 per cent. respectively.

Mr. CHAS. CUSHING said he had been looking over some of the old reports, and had made one or two extracts therefrom. In 1872 the income amounted to $48,000, and eight years later (1880) it had reached $141,000, which was a very large increase indeed; but six years later the figures had increased to $373,500. These are tremendous results, and show the wonderful progress the company has made. The life policies in force in 1872 amounted to about $1,000,000, and in 1880 they had increased to $3,900,000, while in 1886 they had reached $9,400,000; so that while they had increased $2,800,000 in the first eight years, during the last six years they had increased about $5,000,000. These are great strides to make, and they reflect credit on the management. The average rate of interest earned upon the investments, as per the report, was over 6 per cent. (6 06 per cent.). This is a remarkable rate to get at the present time, and moreover, we are told that almost every security owned by the company could be sold at a premium, and that they are still increasing in value. This state of affairs should be very gratifying, indeed, to the shareholders. There was a point brought up at last year's meeting by the late regretted director, Mr. J. S. McLachlan, who stated that it was a pleasure to see with what promptness the Sun settled its claims. He little thought that he would lose his own life by accident before the next meeting and that his own claim would be settled before them. The prompt settlement of the claim on the life of Mr. McLachlan under the special circumstances of his drowning and the non-recovery of the body had come as a revelation to the insuring public and has spread the name and honor of the

Mr. MACAULAY replied on behalf of the directors. The ground had already been so well covered that little remained for him to say. It was somewhat difficult for directors, who are business men, to spend two hours a week, but the time was given cheerfully.

Mr. MACAULAY, the managing director, spoke at length. He bestowed a high compliment on Dr. Wilkins, the company's chief medical officer. He said that it was ever the aim of anyone it was eminently true of Dr. Wilkins that he is the right man in the right place. Thoroughly posted in all that relates to the medical department of life assurance, he is an efficient officer, and in discharging his duties he is ever genial and courteous to all. As to the office staff it has been his special care to select only men in whom he could place the fullest confidence, and he feels sure that there exists as much sterling character in the Sun's office group as can be found in any office group in the city of Montreal. He never feels any anxiety about the business when leaving the city, as everything is in trusty hands. Of the agents he must speak at greater length. While much of the success and character of an institution is derived from its directorate and executive, it must be confessed that the real work is done by the agents. No one person, be he ever so well and favorably known, can have much influence throughout the ever widening constituency embraced in a life company's operations. In itself a company has neither character nor reputation. These are borrowed from its representatives. For years he had been seeking out men of high character, and to-day the Sun Life can boast of a band of general agents whose friendship is a source of genuine pleasure to him. The magnificent business of 1886 is a result of their zeal and loyalty. The Toronto branch, under the able management of Mr. Gilbert and the staff associated with him, did very effective work last year, and they are pledged to yet greater results in 1887, and the same is true of the other branches in Central and Eastern Ontario, Quebec and the Maritime provinces. The foreign department has been put under the superintendence of Mr. W. H. Fyfe, and a good business is expected from his section this year. He mentioned by name many of those who had assisted in building up the company to its present proud position. As to the $5,000 claimed from the Citizens company for reassurance on the late Mr. J. S. McLachlan, he believed the Sun's position to be exceedingly strong. They had secured the opinion of an experienced insurance expert who asserts that all the available authorities and precedents are in our favor. The matter is now in the hands of the company's solicitor. The surplus is in course of distribution, and each participating policy-holder will shortly be notified of the amount placed to his credit. It is expected that the profits of the current five years will greatly surpass even those now being divided, as matters which operated to reduce them in past years have now been finally disposed of. The large and satisfactory business secured by the company and the high rate of interest received on its investments, which are of the very highest order, give a guarantee to those now insuring that they may safely reckon on a magnificent profit for the future. He was pleased to state that, although the business of 1886 was far ahead of any previous year that for 1887 promises to surpass it considerably, the life applications being already nearly $215,000 ahead of this time last year, while the accident business is also $206,000 ahead.

Mr. A. H. GILBERT returned his hearty thanks for the vote which had been passed. He and the agents associated with him have become much attached to the Sun and have done their utmost in its interests. Last year they promised one-third of the total business obtained by the company, and this has been fulfilled, and they could safely promise the same proportion in future. He was much pleased to note the change of the percentage of profits to policy holders, and felt sure it would do much good. Our worthy president frequently drops in to see them while in Toronto, and they are always glad to see him. He considered the prospects brighter than ever before.

Mr. CHAS. ALEXANDER was much pleased to see the prosperous state of affairs.

Many other gentlemen spoke, after which a vote of thanks was passed to the chairman for his conduct in the chair, and the meeting dispersed.

Do not Forget it.

It is a fact that NERVILINE cannot be surpassed by any combination for the relief of pain. The reason is a good one. Nerviline contains the best, most powerful, and the best known pain relievers in the world. Rheumatism, neuralgia, pain in the back, colic, in fact all pain, internal or external and local, are subdued in a few minutes. Go at once to any drug store and get a sample bottle. It will only cost you ten cents and you can at a small cost test the great pain cure, Polson's Nerviline. Large bottles only 25 cents. 6dw12 from a common Blotch, or Eruption, to the worst Scrofula. Salt-rheum, "Fever-sores," Scaly or Rough Skin, in short, all diseases caused by bad blood are conquered by this powerful, purifying, and invigorating medicine. Great Eating Ulcers rapidly heal under its benign influence. Especially has it manifested its potency in curing Tetter, Rose Rash, Boils, Carbuncles, Sore Eyes, Scrofulous Sores and Swellings, Hip-Joint Disease, White Swellings, Goitre, or Thick Neck, and Enlarged Glands. Send ten cents in stamps for a large treatise, with colored plates, on Skin Diseases, or the same amount for a treatise on Scrofulous Affections. "THE BLOOD IS THE LIFE." Keep it thoroughly cleanse it by using Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery, and good digestion, a fair skin, buoyant spirits, vital strength, and soundness of constitution, will be established.

GOLDEN MEDICAL DISCOVERY

CURES ALL HUMORS,

CONSUMPTION,

which is Scrofulous Disease of the Lungs, is promptly and certainly arrested and cured by this God-given remedy, if taken before the last stages of the disease are reached. From its wonderful power over this terribly fatal disease, when first offering this now celebrated remedy to the public, Dr. Pierce thought seriously of calling it his "Consumption Cure," but abandoned that name as too limited for a medicine which, from its wonderful combination of tonic, or strengthening, alterative, or blood-cleansing, anti-bilious, pectoral, and nutritive properties, is unequaled, not only as a remedy for consumption of the lungs, but for all

CHRONIC DISEASES OF THE

Liver, Blood, and Lungs.

If you feel dull, drowsy, debilitated, have sallow color of skin, or yellowish-brown spots on face or body, frequent headache or dizziness, bad taste in mouth, internal heat or chills, alternating with hot flashes, low spirits and gloomy borebodings, irregular appetite, and coated tongue, you are suffering from Indigestion, Dyspepsia, and Torpid Liver, or "Biliousness." In many cases only a few of these symptoms are experienced. As a remedy for all such cases, Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery has no equal.

For Weak Lungs, Spitting of Blood, Shortness of Breath, Bronchitis, Severe Coughs, Consumption, and kindred affections, it is a sovereign remedy. Send ten cents in stamps for Dr. Pierce's book on Consumption. Sold by Druggists.

The Daily Examiner.

FRIDAY, APRIL 1, 1887.

LOCAL NEWS.

The Ladies

of St. Andrew's church intend holding a sale of useful and fancy articles on the 21st April in St. Andrew's School Room. Particulars later.

GLADSTONE has written criticism on Tennyson's new poem, but forget to say anything about Kidd's cordovan boots, handsewed, for $3.90 per pair.

King Solomon's Mines

May have contained its dazzling treasures, but even they had nothing so suited to every day life as China Hall. Coloured tea sets at $6.50, and glass sets (6 pieces) at 30 cents.

Short Nights.

As the days become longer, we can afford to use more artificial light, and reading or sewing by lamp light may become a new pleasure by buying China Hall's famous Coal Oils. Same prices as inferior oils.

Life, Love and Death.

25 births, 11 marriages, and 5 deaths were registered with the town clerk during March—the largest monthly birth-rate registered here in ten years. During the first quarter of 1887 the registrations were 58 births, 22 marriages and 21 deaths.

A choice assortment of Scotch and Canadian Tweeds, Worsteds, and West of England Pantings to select from at Turnbull's. Remember, there is a first-class tailor always on the premises to execute work promptly.

SURELY the place to get kid boots is from the Kidd, next door to Messrs. Mills' hat store.

Weddings.

As May is considered an unlucky month for weddings, those contemplating matrimony had better avail themselves of April and tell their friends to patronize China Hall for wedding presents.

Presbyterial Missionaries

The Presbyterian Board of Home Missions have assigned the following students to labour in the Presbytery of Peterborough:—Messrs. M. Turnbull, J. McArthur, J. W. C. S. Campbell, McLean, McDonald.

Gospel Temperance Meeting.

St. Paul's church was crowded last night. Addresses were delivered by Rev. Messrs. Wallace, Wilson and White. The singing was greatly improved, and the services throughout interesting. To-night services will be held at Auburn.

The Nicholls Hospital Report.

Number of patients in Hospital for the month ending March 31st, 1887, 9. Diseases—hip joint disease, 1; periostitis, 1; frost bite, 1; paralysis, 3; rheumatism, 1; spinal disease, 1; erysipelas in foot, 1. Discharged cured, 7. Incurable 1. Total number treated during month, 17. From Peterborough, 9; from the county, 8. Pay patients, 9; free patients, 8. Dr. Halliday attending physician for March, Drs. Kincaid and King in attendance on private ward patients.

CHILDREN should not be allowed to go with wet feet, because a pair of solid kip boots from Kidd's new store costs only 70 cents.

Mr. Hudspeth, South Victoria, Resigns.

It appears that Mr. Hudspeth, M. P. elect for South Victoria, is disqualified, by his neglect to resign his position as Revising Officer previous to his election. A protest was entered against his return, and he has resigned the seat. His resignation has been accepted and the writ issued for a new election—the nomination will be held April 19th and the polling April 20th. Mr. Hudspeth will be the Conservative candidate, and the Liberal candidate—probably Mr. Londesborough—will be nominated at the convention to be held next Tuesday.

Knights of Labor Platform.

An Immense Gathering of Labourers Gladdened—"In Union is Strength"—Organization for the Working Classes.

There were few vacant seats in the Knights of Labor hall on Water street last night at the public meeting called in the interests of the Workingmen.

Mr. WESLEY MILLAR was called to the chair, and briefly stated the object of the meeting.

Mr. EMMERSON first took the floor and read the following declaration of principles and objects of the Knights of Labor of America:—

I. To make industrial and moral worth, not wealth, the true standard of individual and National greatness.

II. To secure to the workers the full enjoyment of the wealth they create, sufficient leisure in which to develop their intellectual, moral and social faculties: all of the benefits, recreation and pleasures of association; in a word, to enable them to share in the gains and honors of advancing civilization.

In order to secure these results, we demand at the hands of the STATE:

III. The establishment of Bureaus of Labor Statistics, that we may arrive at a correct knowledge of the educational, moral and financial condition of the laboring masses.

IV. That the public lands, the heritage of the people, be reserved for actual settlers; not another acre for railroads or speculators, and that all lands now held for speculative purposes be taxed to their full value.

V. The abrogation of all laws that do not bear equally upon capital and labor, and the removal of unjust technicalities, delays and discriminations in the administration of justice.

VI. The adoption of measures providing for the health and safety of those engaged in mining and manufacturing, building industries, and for indemnification to those engaged therein for injuries received through lack of necessary safeguards.

VII. The recognition, by incorporation, of trades' unions, orders and such other associations as may be organized by the working masses to improve their condition and protect their rights.

VIII. The enactment of laws to compel corporations to pay their employees weekly, in lawful money, for the labor of the preceding week, and giving mechanics and laborers a first lien upon the product of their labor to the extent of their full wages.

IX. The abolition of the contract system on National, State and Municipal works.

X. The enactment of laws providing for arbitration between employers and employed, and to enforce the decision of the arbitrators.

XI. The prohibition by law of the employment of children under 15 years of age in workshops, mines and factories.

XII. To prohibit the hiring out of convict labor.

XIII. That a graduated income tax be levied.

And we demand at the hands of Congress (or Parliament):

XIV. The establishment of a National monetary system, in which a circulating medium in necessary quantity shall issue direct to the people, without the intervention of banks; that all the National issue shall be full legal tender in payment of all debts, public and private; and that the Government shall not guarantee or recognize any private banks, or create any banking corporations.

XV. That interest-bearing bonds, bills of credit or notes shall never be issued by the Government, but that, when need arises, the emergency shall be met by issue of legal tender, non-interest-bearing money.

XVI. That the importation of foreign labor under contract be prohibited.

XVII. That, in connection with the post-office, the Government shall organize financial exchanges, safe deposits and facilities for deposit of the savings of the people in small sums.

XVIII. That the Government shall obtain possession, by purchase, under the right of eminent domain, of all telegraphs, telephones and railroads, and that hereafter no charter or license be issued to any corporation for construction or operation of any means of transporting intelligence, passengers or freight.

And while making the foregoing demands upon the state and National Government, we will endeavor to associate our own labors.

XIX. To establish co operative institutions such as will tend to supersede the wage system, by the introduction of a co-operative industrial system.

XX. To secure for both sexes equal pay for equal work.

XXI. To shorten the hours of labor by a general refusal to work for more than eight hours.

XXII. To persuade employers to agree to arbitrate all differences which may arise between them and their employees, in order that the bonds of sympathy between them may be strengthened and that strikes may be rendered unnecessary.

Mr. EMMERSON also read some figures from the published statistics computed from returns made in April and October:—

In 1884, 1342 men, employed 278 days, earned $454 each; cost of living, $336; surplus, $116.

In '86, 1621 men worked 278 days and earned each $431.87; expenses, $330.50; surplus, $101.37.

In 1884, 1265 men worked 260 days, earned $331.51 and disbursed just $331.51.

In 1885, 710 men, employed 271 days, earned $321.50 and spent every cent.

In 1884, 246 men worked 214 days, earned $260.96; cost of living, $320 42; deficit, $66.46.

In 1885, 309 men, working 230 days, earned $317, while their cost of living was $368; behind $51.50

No other evidence was needed to show the position of the workingman. From statistics from 19 towns in Ontario the following average items of expenditure yearly were taken: Rent, $74.41; fuel, $40.53; clothing, (without family) $19.00, with family $35.00; food $47.67; or a total average yearly cost of $417.75. How many workingmen were earning that much wages? Workingmen were not getting their fair dues, which could only be gained by organization. He instanced the advantages of organization by pointing out the moulders, who had a union and were the best paid class of men all over.

The CHAIRMAN invited discussion. The Knights of Labor only wanted a fair share of the profits of their labor, and the only way to secure that was by organization. Mens' labor was his capital, and he should receive for it its worth. The Knights of Labor didn't want to take the manufacturers by the neck—they wanted only their rights.

Mr. E. C. HILL wanted some of the younger men to speak. Workingmen should at all times be ready to speak in their own behalf.

Mr. F. W. MILLER in a few words advocated union as the only remedy for the present unfair state of things.

Mr. BOWEN said, though not a K. of L., he soon would be. Organization was the thing wanted.

Mr. O'BRIEN, secretary of the lodge, and Mr. Thos. Pitman both favored organization for the workingmen, the latter advocating the election of true friends of the workingmen to the town councils and Parliaments.

Mr. E. C. HILL then took the floor and delivered an impassioned address, beginning with a little gem of poetry which he had picked up in his early days. Mr. Hill dealt with the learned professions "without gloves." They, he said, considered the workingmen as their tool and slave. But let the rising generation of workingmen be educated, and they must stand to-day of the lawyers or doctors in the land. They had unions; why hadn't the laboring classes? Workingmen should organize, and above all things, eschew politics. He favored either the 8-hour-a-day system or an extra holiday each week.

Mr. Hill's sentiments were coincided with by another gentleman, who, however, differed with him on the 8-hour system, which he said would break up small manufactories and new mills. For large cities though it was a good plan.

Mr. BRAVIS favored organization, but no good would accrue from pulling down the unions of the learned or other professions. Let's have union all round. He was supported in this by another gentleman, who argued that organization among the workingmen had an example to follow in the other unions.

The meeting was brought to a close, and it was decided to hold another open meeting next Thursday evening. Regular lodge night is every Wednesday.

Grass Linens Table Linens, Table Napkins, Linen Handkerchiefs, etc. fresh from the looms in Belfast, Ireland, now opened out at Turnbull's. Grand value. See them.

Twenty-nine Years Ago.

Here we are, All Fools' Day, and snow galore, the sleighing, off the principal streets, and in the country splendid—as good as at any time last winter. The coal stoves and furnaces in full blast, and coal-heavers as busy as beavers. Mr. Joseph Landy is reminded, by the present weather out-look, of the state of things that prevailed in the spring of 1858. That year the branch of the Midland R. R. from Millbrook to Peterborough was completed, and Mr. John Fowler, the builder, gave the Port Hopers an excursion to this town on May 24th, and another to the Peterboroughonians to Port Hope on June 1st. Though, poetically speaking, it was "leafy June," yet actually, so backward was the season, not a single bud was visible on the trees, till the excursionists came to within four miles of the lake. Nature seemed dead but afterwards revived as usual. Is it probable that we shall have a repetition this spring? Let us hope not; if we have, it will be a cold day for spring millinery and duck pantaloons.

A BEAUTIFUL photograph given away with every pair of child's boots at Kidd's.

The Lindsay Concert.

A Correspondent Gives an Account of Mr. MacDuff's Concert.

A number of Peterborough's talented musicians gave a concert in Lindsay Wednesday evening, under the direction of Mr. D. B. MacDuff, and it might also be added, under divers difficulties. Though the concert was one of the highest merit it was not a success, the audience being very limited, and much was wasted on vacancy. Special services in two of the local churches and a civic public meeting no doubt preventing many from attending. The company was composed of Miss Vair, Messrs. T. Dunn, Chas. Baguley, J. E. Jaques, J. S. Parker and D. B. MacDuff. The singing of Miss Vair, who contributed two charming solos, was much admired and appreciated. Mr. Dunn ably maintained his enviable reputation as a sentimental singer, while Messrs. Baguley and Jaques won high encomiums. Mr. Parker played the accompaniments in his usual form, while Mr. MacDuff, who contributed several numbers, showed to advantage his ability as a skillful manipulator of the magic bow. Encores were numerous and were cheerfully responded to. Mrs. Harrison, of Hamilton, who was billed for the occasion was unavoidably prevented from filling her engagement.

Turnbull's dress goods counter and shelves are now filled with new goods in every conceivable shade, with trimmings to match. His prices are the lowest and styles the best. Look through and be convinced.

DOINGS IN OTTAWA.

DEPUTATIONS WAITING TO INTERVIEW SIR CHARLES TUPPER.

OTTAWA, April 1.—Mr. John Small, M.P., and Mr. F. D. Barwick are in the city, to arrange for a deputation of the pickle and sauce manufacturers to wait on the Ministry in connection with the readjustment of duties on their products. They also represent the Dominion and the Hamilton Bridge Company, who wish to arrange for an interview with the Government with reference to a change in the existing duty on bridges and structural metal work, which they desire to be made specific instead of ad valorem, and to have the special steel known as klonian blanks, used only for the manufacture of steel eye-bars, placed on the free list.

Interviews with Sir Charles Tupper, who is still snowed up, will take place next week to obtain a readjustment of the tariff on galvanized iron goods for household furnishings, which are now being extensively manufactured in this country, and also to arrange for a meeting with the Ministry of a deputation representing the Harbor Commissioners in connection with the winter basin at Queen's wharf, the ownership of which is at present in dispute. The commissioners are anxious to have the title to the property vested in them [illegible].

The Government cruiser Northern Light, now stationed at Prince Edward Island, has been ordered to commence her round trips from the Island to Pictou on Monday next, as the captain has reported to the department that no ice can be seen, and the agent of the vessel at Pictou also reports that no ice can be seen from the Pictou shore. The mails are being carried across from Cape Tormentine to Cape Traverse by the Government ice boats. The Marine Department are of the opinion that the Northern Light will run continuously between the Island and Pictou, making a round trip each day.

A deputation from the Montreal Bar, consisting of Hon. Senator Lacoste, Q.C., Mr. W. W. Robertson, Q.C., and Hon. Mr. Laflamme, Q.C., waited upon Sir John A. Macdonald and Hon. Mr. Thompson, Minister of Justice, this afternoon to press on the Government the necessity of an increase in the salaries of Quebec judges.

LABOR TROUBLES IN LONDON.

Prospects Point to a General Strike in the Building Trade.

LONDON, Ont., April 1.—The painters' and paper hangers' unions have received no reply from the employers to whom their proposition for increased pay was submitted, and unless terms are agreed to the men will go out on Monday.

The bricklayers have asked for 33½ cents an hour, an advance of 3½ cents over the old rates, which has been refused, and they have decided to strike on May 1 unless their demand is granted. The hod carriers want 20 cents instead of 17, and the carpenters are asking for an advance, while the bosses are trying to restore the ten hour system for the same rate of pay.

The prospect appears to point to a general strike in the building trade in this city.

C. S. Hyman & Co. have closed down their factory, and a large number of men are idle. In conversation with one of the men to-day it was learned that there was but little prospect of more than a couple of weeks' work per month during the summer.

At a meeting of the Trades and Labor Council on Thursday night the committee reported that the master painters and paper-hangers would not meet them to discuss the situation, and the council, after receiving and discussing the report, resolved to boycott the employers, to throw all the work they could into the hands of the journeymen, and to make the boycott general in all the labor organizations.

THE CONSUMPTION CURE.

Exaggerated Reports of What Has Been Done at Philadelphia Hospital.

PHILADELPHIA, April 1. — The Medical News says recent articles extensively published throughout the country announcing the cure at the Philadelphia Hospital of a number of patients suffering with consumption through treatment by injections of carbonic acid gas and sulphuretted hydrogen, greatly exaggerated the success of the treatment.

The paper says: So far as we know there have been no "cases cured," certainly not at the Philadelphia Hospital, and even those of Burgeon's patients, who were most benefited, continued to have slight expectoration containing bacilli.

The results at the Philadelphia Hospital in the limited series of cases which have been under treatment have been in the reduction of fever and sweats, the lessening of expectoration, and in the increase of weight. These are gains to be thankful for, and encourage us to hope that we may have here a remedial measure of some value, but further than this nothing can be said.

A Brave Girl.

HELLERS CREEK, Pa. April 1.—Nettie Fink, a 15-year-old girl, while returning home from the village store Wednesday night, was seized by a man on the highway, who dragged her toward the woods. She struggled bravely and having some pepper among her purchases she found the presence of mind to dash it into his face, thus blinding him and enabling her to escape. On reaching home the neighbors were summoned and a posse have scoured the woods ever since for the miscreant. If caught he will be badly treated.

ASSASSINS AND CZAR.

A SECOND ATTEMPT TO KILL THE RUSSIAN EMPEROR.

BERLIN, April 1.—Russian advices state that the execution of the persons actually concerned in the recent attempt upon the Czar's life has been postponed, in the hope of obtaining further disclosures from them regarding the plot. The chief prisoners are confined in the Schlusselburd fortress, and the remainder in the St. Petersburg citadel. Quantities of explosives and numerous compromising papers have been found in the house of a sister of one of the prisoners. A general's wife and a doctor's wife, who were compromised in the murder of the late Czar, are implicated in the present plot. Some of the prisoners are students in female colleges. They had a quantity of money when arrested. They refused to give any information. Threads of the conspiracy were discovered at Charkoff, Kieff, Warsaw, Moscow, Odessa and Novo Tcherkash.

The Emperor Shot At.

BERLIN, April 1.—Advices from St. Petersburg fully confirm the report that another attempt had been made upon the life of the Czar. It is learned that on Tuesday, while the Czar was exercising in the park connected with the Gatschina Palace he was fired upon by an officer of the army, the ball passing close to his person. The officer was immediately seized and imprisoned.

Army Officers Implicated.

COPENHAGEN, April 1.—King Christian has been informed from St. Petersburg that another unsuccessful attempt was made upon the Czar's life. News also has been received of the discovery of a conspiracy in the Caucasus. One hundred officers of Tiflis garrison have been arrested for complicity in the plot.

Unconfirmed in England.

LONDON, April 1.—Sir James Fergusson stated in the Commons this evening that the Government had received no news confirming the report that another attempt had been made upon the life of the Czar.

EXPELLED BY THE GERMANS.

An Act Which Has Caused a Profound Sensation in Paris.

PARIS, April 1.—M. Antoine, a Protestant delegate to the Reichstag from Metz, has been expelled by the German Government from Alsace-Lorraine and conducted to the frontier. The expulsion of Antoine has caused a profound sensation here. It is regarded as a fresh provocation intended to exasperate and induce the French people to commit some act of retaliation which might be declared beyond toleration. The press, with perfect unanimity, expect the people to maintain a calm demeanor. It is reported that Antoine will not come to Paris, but will go to Berlin by way of Belgium and insist upon taking the seat in the Reichstag to which he was elected.

O'Brien and Davitt's Opinion.

DUBLIN, April 1.—William O'Brien, editor of United Ireland, ridicules Lord Cadogan's land bill. He says: "If this bill should be made law then these tenants would not be relieved until they should declare that they were unable to pay the rents demanded of them. Probably 300,000 tenants in Ireland would make this declaration. This would give each judge 15,000 rent adjustment cases to take care of. It would take years to dispose of them. Meanwhile the landlords would obtain nothing. The bill offered by Mr. Parnell was mercy in itself to the landlords compared with this measure."

Michael Davitt says the bill is certain to make confusion worse confounded and therefore likely to bring nearer the only possible and the final solution of the whole question Irish state ownership of the land in Ireland.

Bulgarian Rebels Seek Revenge.

BUCHAREST, April 1.—Three Bulgarian refugees, one of whom is a brother of a man under condemnation for participation in the recent insurrection, yesterday attacked the prefect of Rutschuk, whom they met in one of the streets of this city. They fired at him with revolvers, wounding him, and then fled. Two of them were overtaken and imprisoned, but the other took refuge in the Russian legation.

The Queen Arrives at Cannes.

LONDON, April 1.—The Queen arrived at Cannes to-day. The houses were decorated with flags and people filled the streets and enthusiastically cheered Her Majesty. The French Mediterranean squadron, which had been ordered to Cannes, saluted the Queen on her arrival.

Prosecution Abandoned.

DUBLIN, April 1.—The prosecution against Messrs. Dillon, O'Brien, Crilly and Redmond for their connection with the Plan of Campaign has been abandoned.

The Apology was Accepted.

WINDSOR, April 1.—The slander suit of ex-Mayor McWhinney of Sandwich against Magistrate Bartlet of Windsor, was set for yesterday at the assizes, Sandwich. The matter was settled by Mr. Bartlet, acting under the advice of his attorney, writing an apology, withdrawing the words spoken at a meeting of magistrates held in Sandwich on June 8 last, charging Mayor McWhinney with receiving certain moneys. The suit grew out of a heated political discussion.

A Gang of Thieves Working South.

ATLANTA, Ga., April 1.—It is believed that the gang of thieves who have been committing bold robberies in various places in Georgia are the same that committed the famous fur robbery at Cleveland and afterward shot officer Halligan at Ravenna, Ohio. Two of the gang, Pat Hanley and a companion, are under arrest and others are likely to be captured.

The Missing Student.

MONTREAL, April 1.—Word was received here to-day that Hamer, the missing student, was at the Mile End. Detectives and friends of the missing gentleman at once proceeded there only to meet with disappointment, as the person taken for Hamer was only a tramp who was trying to make his way to Lachute.

Attempt at Suicide.

LA CROSSE, Wis., April 1.—The wife of ex-Senator Cameron attempted suicide last night by jumping into the Mississippi River, but was rescued. She has suffered from a nervous disease since she was injured in a ferry-boat collision at New York.

Sir Charles Arrives at Montreal.

MONTREAL, April 1.—Sir Charles and Lady Tupper arrived in the city to-night. Lady Tupper however returned to Nova Scotia, having received word of the death of Miss Fullerton, daughter of W. F. Fullerton, Q.C., of Amherst.

Resignation of an M.P.

LINDSAY, Ont., April 1.—Adams Hudspeth, M.P. for South Victoria, has resigned owing to his being disqualified as a revising officer for North Victoria. Writs have been issued for nomination on April 13, polling on April 20.

Business Failures.

NEW YORK, April 1.—Business failures throughout the country number for the United States 168, and for Canada 27, or a total of 223, as compared with a total of 209 last week.

CRIMES ACT UP AGAIN

MR. PARNELL RESUMES THE DEBATE IN THE HOUSE.

LONDON, April 2.—Mr. Parnell upon rising to resume the debate on the Crimes Bill was loudly cheered. He said that with the production of the Land Bill yesterday Parliament had been put in possession of the complete plan of the Government in all its nakedness and dishonesty. The Land Bill had revealed the extent of the plot and the gravity of the conspiracy through which the Conservatives and Liberal-Unionists intended to try to coerce tenants in Ireland into the payment of impossible rents and compel them to purchase their landlords' interests at exorbitant rates. If the House should ever give the Government power thus to coerce the people the result would most certainly be wholesale repudiation involving immense loss to the British taxpayer. The Government were pressing on coercion with indecent haste. They had refused to carry out the recommendations of the Land Commission. If the Coercion Bill were passed the last defence of the tenants against wholesale robbery would be removed. In just land purchase lay the only hope of settling the land question. If it was done at fair prices and in the absence of coercion Irish tenants would fulfil their obligations to the last penny. Proceeding to discuss the provisions of the bill, Mr. Parnell contended that the powers given the magistrates would enable them to send political opponents to prison for six months, to a plank bed and prison diet. No part of previous coercion acts has ever excited so much distrust of English justice as the proposal to change the venue of trial and bring the Irish before special English juries. The proposal meant a reign of judicial murders. Secret Societies would spring up, fostered by the sufferings of an oppressed nation and those who had been persistent in counselling the people to observe patience and moderation might counsel in vain. But he would still counsel them to submit to injustice rather than retaliate or do anything that might drive Mr. Gladstone from their side, or increase his difficulties, or place him in a false position with the Liberals. Their battle was now won in Ireland. [Cheers]. The party which alone could gain by civil war, by the people of Ireland going beyond the law was, the present Government. That was the reason this bill had been brought forward. Its object was to strengthen the Government's own miserable position. Let not the people of Ireland fall into the toil thus set for them. He greatly feared the results of the bill, but he would not cease to tell them that the situation was entirely different from that of five years ago, and that for them victory was certain. The people of Ireland would again bear the strain with patience. Gladstone would not find his action hampered or his hands sullied in the great and glorious work he had undertaken. [Cheers.] He concluded by moving that the House resolve itself into committee to consider the state of Ireland.

Mr. Harrington, amid great laughter, read letters from the Knight of Kerry, Lord Mouck, and others, applying, on behalf of friends and relatives, for stipendiary magistracyships in Ireland. When asked where he had obtained the letters, he replied that he had bought them at auction. This answer was received with shouts of laughter. Mr. Harrington proceeded to explain that the principal qualifications urged in behalf of the applicants were poverty and large families. On being interrupted by cries of "Divide," the speaker said he was not surprised at the impatience shown by the gentlemen opposite upon the exposure of these unpalatable facts, but he had a right, he said, to show the character of the men at whose mercy it was proposed to place the liberties of Irishmen.

T. P. O'Connor moved to adjourn the debate.

Mr. Gladstone in supporting the motion said there were strong reasons for it. He defended Mr. Parnell's delay in moving his amendments and said this was a grave and serious case, demanding another night for discussion. With reference to Mr. Parnell's speech, Mr. Gladstone said he had never known of an instance in which the case made for such a bill had been so completely torn to rags. [Loud cheers.]

W. H. Smith complained because the Parnellites had not risen sooner and said he was unable to accede to Mr. O'Connor's request.

Mr. Parnell supported Mr. O'Connor's motion.

Mr. O'Connor's motion was rejected by a vote of 361 to 254.

Upon Mr. Smith putting the question Mr. Gladstone rose and walked down the floor into the Opposition lobby, all the members of the Opposition standing and cheering him as he did so. On returning to the House he was again loudly cheered.

The motion of closure was carried by a vote of 361 to 253, and the first reading of the bill was agreed to without a division.

The announcement of the result of the closure division was received with cheers and counter-cheers and cries from the Parnellites of "tyranny" and "shown with the Speaker," and all the members on the front Opposition bench, with Mr. Gladstone leading, left the House, followed by a large body of Liberals.

English Press Opinion.

LONDON, April 1.—The News says the land bill introduced by Lord Cadogan in the House of Lords yesterday evening convicts the Ministry of the grossest inconsistency and entirely justifies the Parnellite action during last autumn's session of Parliament. The first thing that strikes the reader in Cadogan's speech is that, inadequate as the bill may be, it will entirely dispense with the necessity of coercion, or rather it would, if necessity existed. Mr. Balfour argued that illegal combinations prevent tenants in Ireland from paying rents. Lord Cadogan formally admits that tenants are evicted for not paying impossible rents.

The Standard says: The Parnellites regard Lord Cadogan's land bill with as much disfavor as they do Balfour's coercion bill, and consider that the eviction clauses in the former could operate entirely to the disadvantage of the tenants.

SENT TO DO PENANCE.

A Friend of Dr. McGlynn's Punished by Archbishop Corrigan.

NEW YORK, April 1.—The Mail and Express says: "Dr. James Curran, the staunch friend of Dr. McGlynn, has been sent to the monastery in Hoboken to do penance because of his action in appearing upon the platform with Dr. McGlynn at the Academy of Music on Tuesday night. Archbishop Corrigan hopes this may serve as a warning to the disaffected parishioners of St. Stephen's. Should Dr. Curran persevere in his contumacious conduct after being released, more severe measures will be resorted to.

Dr. McGlynn's friends are greatly excited over this action of the Archbishop, and a meeting of the parishioners of St. Stephen's will be held to-night to protest against it.

Jacob Sharp the Next.

NEW YORK, April 1.—It is stated that Jacob Sharp will be the next one of those indicted for complicity in the Broadway steal to be brought to trial. This has been definitely decided upon by District Attorney Martine, and the impression of the case for prosecution to a jury is now in active progress. Mr. Sharp's trial was decided upon because the district attorney does not wish to run the risk of another disagreement in the Cleary case.

DUTIES OF THE RICH TOWARDS THE POOR.

The present distress among the poor, particularly in large English cities, and the widespread evils of Socialistic and Communistic doctrines among the working classes, the increasing poverty on the one hand, and the rapidly accumulating riches of the higher social grades on the other, are causing much comment in England and turning the attention of the truly philanthropic to methods and plans by which the poor can be assisted.

A number of clergymen in London have adopted an unusual plan of calling attention to the duties of the rich towards the poor. They have addressed an appeal or remonstrance to their brethren, which is well worthy of brief comment. The document points out, in very sweeping fashion, that the rich members of society do not fulfil their Christian duties. It says they waste their lives and their wealth. They give nothing to the poor but alms; they neither deny themselves nor follow Christ. Yet, as a class, these rich people go to church and are supposed to be typical Christians. As long as this is the case, we cannot expect that the poor will be moved by their example to seek in Christianity help, or solace, or comfort.

The writers of this remonstrance classify offenders against the Christian religion in four divisions. There are those, first, who possess beautiful objects or luxuries, who do not share them with the poor. There are women, too, who do not inquire into the cost, in the full sense of the word, of the fine clothes they wear. Thirdly, there are employers who take their profit and do not concern themselves to know how the employed live. And, lastly, there are those who, having earned or inherited a livelihood, plead that they have no time to make friends among the poor, or to perform public duties. The memorial then continues:—

"Many are driven to think that only by the use of force will the poor obtain from the rich the means to develop their capacities for knowing, feeling, and doing. We believe, on the contrary, that by the use of force the poor would grow in greed and selfishness, gaining with the wealth many of the vices which have gone with the riches. And our hope, is, therefore, that the rich, moved to follow Christ themselves, may offer such sacrifices and make such personal efforts for the sake of their brethren that the rich and poor may be able to live their life as God's children."

There is no denying the truth, that although there is perhaps some exaggeration in these statements, there is also a great amount of solid fact. And we believe, that to a certain extent, the remonstance applies to our Canadian towns and cities, although here happily, we know but little of the dire misery and wretchedness which exists in Europe.

Much good is effected by means of charitable organizations and social reforms, but in many cases they are, we fear, devices for shifting on to the community generally, those burdens which should be borne personally and individually. It is pleasant to some people to be on committees, and it matters little to them whether the business is political or charitable. Now our duty towards the poor and struggling and needy is not fulfilled by acting on committees, or by bringing cases of distress before the council or other authorities. We can only fulfil our Christian obligations aright when we assist the distressed ourselves and know something of personal sacrifice and personal action. Few indeed there are, among the rich who take any pains to make friends of the poor, or to help them as true friends always can. These clergymen say, the rich should share their good things with the poor; we suppose they mean owners of parks and gardens should throw them open to those who cannot have such things for themselves. This we admit, and we believe such actions would help to elevate the poor. But if they mean that the rich should entertain the poor, feast them and give them pleasures in other ways, it must be admitted that there are only very few who can mix freely with those beneath them in the social scale without producing a feeling of patronage and awkwardness. Still much good is done even in this line at present, and it has been said with truth that in few countries is there less restraint between the rich and poor than in aristocratic England. The large number of schools and exhibitions, free libraries and museums, parks and recreation grounds given annually to the public in England is some answer to the insinuation made in the memorial.

We have no ready-cut-and-dried plan to put an end to poverty and wretchedness as the Socialists claim by the equal distribution of wealth. We know that in a very short time indeed, even were this done some would be richer and others poorer, some successful and others falling in the rear again. "The poor shall never cease in the land."

But we believe that if every Christian congregation looked carefully and in a Christian spirit after its own orphans, and aged and poor, sought out cases of distress within its own bounds, and distributed its charity wisely, and not without due discretion, the reproach which lies at the door of the rich, would be hurled away and those in need would always receive that care and attention which the Divine Founder of Christianity inculcated both by precept and example.

A Visit to the Cemetery.

SERMON BY LAYMAN.

(Written for The Examiner.)

If any man is ambitious, if he is selfish, if he possesses the love of money, let him visit the Little Lake Cemetery and look upon the graves of his departed friends and relatives and he will learn a useful lesson of the uncertainties of human life, a lesson that will do him good. There he will see the end of all worldly things. There he will see the folly of ambition. There he will learn the uselessness of selfishness and the love of money. There he will see all that remains of those, who, like himself, passed their days in ministering to their own wants and in accumulating wealth which they never enjoyed. They have all gone to their last home. They have had to leave money and relatives and friends behind them. And the places which knew them once now know them no more. Father and mother, sister and brother there lay side by side. They have come and gone like the flowers that bloom for a day and are seen no more. All their bright dreams of pleasure and happiness have gone the way of all worldly aspirations. They see the sun rise and disappear no more. They feel its warmth and heat no longer. They cannot see the green grass nor hear the birds sing, nor look upon the moon and stars, nor wander forth admiring nature's loveliness any more. You look upon their graves, where the once busy forms lie stark and still, and you can hear their voices and listen to their friendly conversation and advice no more. Although you are surrounded with the graves of the dead you stand in the midst of solitude, and you go home, and back to the busy world with solemn thoughts and with feelings of sorrow and with the knowledge that in a few years at most you will be lying there also. Many is the time that you and those who now lie in the Little Lake Cemetery walked together and talked together and spoke of the death of others, but you and they little thought that they would so soon be gone to their eternal home. Some of those who lie there were the pioneers of this town and country. They came here and endured privations and hardships and were among the first to open up pathways through the woods where now are broad and paved streets with fine buildings on every side. We, their descendants and successors, will never know what trials and troubles they have passed through. But now they have passed away. They were not to witness the fruits of their labours. And if the present generation wants to know more about them they can go down to the Cemetery where their bodies lie in rest and loneliness, and these visits ought to be a lesson to the living, and should teach them the uncertainty of human life and the inevitable certainty of death. There is nothing so solemn and so sad as a visit to the graves of our relatives and friends. And one by one the living pass away and are laid by the side of those who have gone before. In passing along some of the streets in the cemetery not long ago, I saw on every hand the graves of old friends whom I once knew so well. As I looked upon these graves my thoughts were carried back to the long time ago when the ones who now lie there were young and active, and when they were amongst the foremost of our citizens. I called to mind how often we used to be together, to walk together and to talk together, and I could, in imagination, see them as they stood before me years ago, and I could almost fancy I could hear them repeat the words which they spoke long years ago. I thought of those happy times and wished I could live them over again. I thought of what Peterborough was then, when we were all sociable and friendly, and what it is to-day, when people are too busy to stop and speak to you. Then all was friendly intercourse. Now there is little friendship, and all is hurry and bustle. Then you could rise with the morning's sun and go out and view and enjoy the quiet of nature on every side, and all was peace and harmony. And the birds were singing their joyful songs on every tree and bush. Now the trees and bushes are all gone, and in their places are houses, and life, and activity, and business. How often, in those early days, have I wandered down upon the river's side and stood upon its banks and watched the water as it passed by, and how often have I laid myself down upon its peaceful banks and thought of the time when I was a little boy playing in the green door yard, and looking at the yellow grain and the men in the harvest fields, and hear the bleating of the sheep and the lowing of the cattle, and then at night sitting by my mother's side telling her of the events of the day, and then being put to bed with cheerful words of kindness and comfort, and in the morning getting up and going the same rounds again. But these happy times are all past and gone now, and poor, good old father and mother are gone, too, and who can tell how soon I must follow? And yet, when you pass along the streets of the town, you see no indication that the thoughts of the people ever tend in the direction of their dead relations and friends. No indication that they ever think that they are but mortal and that they must sooner or later go the way of all flesh, and that they, too, must lie in the silent grave. And how unaccountably strange this is. When we consider that the death rate of our town is equal to twenty-five each year in each thousand, and that the number of our population is nearly nine thousand, we realize the fact that there are two hundred and twenty-five persons die every year in death. Now, whence do all these two hundred and twenty-five come. Do the people ever think that these deaths must be supplied by them, and supplied by them every year too. And do they not know that death takes one here and one there, and gives them no warning. Every few days they see the funeral car pass along the streets to one or other of the cemeteries bearing to their last home their relations and friends. Sometimes it is a little child, sometimes its brother or sister. And the living look upon these scenes with indifference and take no warning, although the next day and the next hour, some of these may be stricken down and go the same road. Death comes unexpectedly and he cuts down to-day one here, to-morrow one there and the next day one some where else. He comes without warning or mercy. And so the graves continually multiply and in a few years the country is nearly filled with those who, in common with ourselves, were accustomed to walk our streets and take part in all our business and pleasures. It is a pity that these things are so little thought of. Because, if the living would but think of them more they would do better and be better prepared for their own end when it comes. I see a woman mourning for the death of her husband, she feels lonely and sad. Her life long friend and companion has left her and now she sits in loneliness and sorrow mourning for the life of one who was once her comfort and her joy. In the darkness of the long night she mourns and cannot be comforted. She rises in the morning and goes about the house seeing evidences every where of him who is no more. Her sorrow and her tears will not bring him back again. I see an old man whose life's long companion has been suddenly taken from him, taken, too, at a time when he could least spare her. He has borne her to the grave, and when he returns to his home again he sees not the old familiar face, and the house is desolate and sad. His life is now lonely and full of trouble. All his joy and all his happiness now lie in the Little Lake Cemetery, by the side of her who was all to him, his conforter and friend. And the long nights grow longer as his years increase, and he would like to be once more with her and see her pleasant face and hear her cheerful voice once more. And by and by death will come and take him to the other world. And then all his cares and all his disappointments and troubles here will be over.

A fair little child sang bye and bye,
Dreamily watching the far-off sky.
Her voice was free as the morning air,
Her life undimmed by loss and care,
Thus joyously oh, happy childhood,
The time is spent, all things seem good,
And in thy heart you know not why
You sing to-day of bye and bye.

But 'tis passing, 'tis passed,
And womanhood years are reached at last,
And now a lady, whose thoughtful brow
Tells of something, I know not how,
Infinitely dear as she sings with a sigh,
In soft, low tones, bye and bye,
And above the song hope bears away
The heart's tender dreams of a future day.

Then from mid-ocean of life again,
The song was sung from lips of pain,
It told of hopes forever dead,
Of all the fond dreams by fancy fed,
That had vanished in the long ago,
And left an impress that none could know,
Save her, upon whose heart they lie,
Sadly singing bye and bye.

Once more, when the ocean was almost crossed,
And the waves were calmed that had madly tossed,
O'er a tired life now sinking to rest,
It rose again and the tones were blessed:
It no longer spoke of disappointment and woe,
But a beautiful land of crystal glow,
Where Jesus and loved ones are waiting nigh,
In Heaven's own bye and bye.

Satisfied Confidence.

J. B. H. Girard, of St. Edwidge, Clifton, P. Q., says, "I am well satisfied with the use of Burdock Blood Bitters; it has cured me of dyspepsia that I had for three years. I used five bottles, and shall tell every person I know that may be attacked with similar sickness, and should not be afraid to guarantee every bottle used." 2w12d

FOR THE RELIEF and cure of the inflammation and congestion called a "cold in the head" there is more potency in Ely's Cream Balm than in anything else it is possible to prescribe. This preparation has for years past been making a brilliant success as a remedy for cold in the head, catarrh and hay fever. Used in the initial stages of these complaints Cream Balm prevents any serious development of the symptoms, while almost numberless cases are on record of radical cures of chronic catarrh and hay fever after all other modes of treatment have proved of no avail. eodw14

AGNES HERNDON'S ESCAPE.

Poisoned by Partaking of Some Fruit Presented to Her.

NEW YORK, March 31.—A basket of fruit was left at the box-office of the Union Square Theatre by a district messenger last night for Miss Agnes Herndon, and between the second and third acts of the "Commercial Tourist's Bride" the actress ate a portion of the fruit. She was shortly afterward attacked with nausea, and her maid hastily summoned the manager. The latter tasted the fruit and noticed a peculiar flavor, and discovered a quantity of white powder under the peel of a banana. An emetic was administered to Miss Herndon, and after profuse vomiting she finished the play with difficulty. At midnight she was resting quietly. Her physicians think the poison was strychnine, and will preserve the banana for analysis. Since last January the actress has been annoyed by the receipt of letters from an infatuated crank, who in a recent epistle threw out a mysterious hint that he was about to do something uncommon, if not indeed desperate. The address on the basket corresponds with the handwriting of the letters. The district messenger clerk is positive that he can identify the man who left the basket to be delivered, and has given the police a description of him.

QUEERED BY THE VOODOO.

What Came to a Negro Family Because They Sneered at a Colored "Doctor."

MILLEDGEVILLE, Ga., March 30.—John Harris, colored, the sixth victim of the Voodoo poisoning, died in the lunatic asylum here yesterday. Harris and his brother-in-law, Bonner, lived in a colored settlement in Baldwin county. For years Bonner has made a living as a Voodoo doctor, and so great was the terror inspired by him that the negroes did his bidding with implicit obedience. John Harris declined to believe in Bonner, saying he could do no more than other men. This enraged Bonner, and he declared that what the Harris family ate would henceforth act as a poison, and that before a new moon should come not one of the family would be alive.

Two days later the Harris family, which consisted of eleven persons—father, mother and nine children—grew violently ill after breakfast. By 9 o'clock one of the children was dead. At noon a second victim was laid by the side of the first, and by dark a third was dead. Instead of taking action against the Voodoo, the Harris family now look upon him as having a divine agency, and they endeavored to keep the matter secret.

Before the funeral of the three dead children could take place a fourth was added to the list, while the seven other members of the family were dangerously ill. That evening the mother died, and a day later still another child was added to the list. The father alone, who had not eaten much of the fatal meal, recovered sufficiently to move, but when he recovered he was a raving maniac and had to be confined in the asylum. News from the settlement is that the survivors cannot live much longer.

Bonner has been hidden by the colored people and cannot be found.

PRESBYTERIAN HOME MISSIONS.

The Labors and Financial Grants Made by the Committee Yesterday.

TORONTO, March 31.

The Home Mission Committee of the Presbyterian Church was engaged yesterday in voting grants to mission stations and augmented congregations for the ensuing year. An amount of $19,000 was voted for work in Quebec and Ontario for the half year ending March 31, 1887, and $12,000 for 1887-8. The Convener read letters showing the satisfactory progress of the work in British Columbia; the churches in New Westminster and Victoria were reported self-sustaining. These grants were made for that section: Spallum Chief $450, Kamloops $300, Nicola $250, Chilliwhack $400, Langley Grudy $400, Victoria $400, Alberni $200, and Richmond $300.

The transference of Donald to the British Columbia Presbytery from that of Regina was remitted to the presbyteries especially interested to report on at next meeting. Rev. G. C. Patterson of Beaverton was transferred to the British Columbia staff. In reference to the salaries of the clergy in Manitoba and the Northwest, a number of replies were read, deprecating any reduction thereof in view of the large outlay of the missionaries and the expense of living. The consideration of the subject was postponed till to-day. It was announced that $290 had been received from the Presbyterian Church in Ireland and $300 from the Free Church of Scotland, and the donations were ordered to be fittingly acknowledged.

Hung by Thieves.

LITTLE ROCK, Ark., March 29.—At Hagen, Ark., on Saturday unknown thieves strung up Benj. Mobbs, a wealthy farmer, and made him tell where his money was concealed. After securing the booty they left hurriedly, leaving Mobbs hanging. When found he was dead.

Enjoy Life.

What a truly beautiful world we live in! Nature gives us grandeur of mountains, glens and oceans, and thousands of means of enjoyment. We can desire no better when in perfect health; but how often do the majority of people feel like giving it up disheartened, discouraged and worn out with disease, when there is no occasion for this feeling, as every sufferer can easily obtain satisfactory proof, that Green's August Flower, will make them free from disease, as when born. Dyspepsia and Liver Complaint are the direct causes of seventy-five per cent, of such maladies as Biliousness, Indigestion, Sick Headache, Costiveness, Nervous Prostration, Dizziness of the head, Palpitation of the Heart, and other distressing symtems. Three doses of August Flower will prove its wonderful effect. Sample bottle, 10 cents. Try it. eodw4

Remarkable.

There have been many remarkable cures of deafness reported from the use of Yellow Oil. The proprietors of this medicine have a large number of such testimonials. It is the great household remedy for pain, inflammation, lameness, and soreness of every description, and can be used internally and externally. 2w14d

Sent Home Again.

Canadian Salvationists Found in India.

In October last, as many of our readers will recollect, seven Salvation Army officers left Canada to enter upon a life's work in India. They were prepared to suffer anything, even to death itself. The father of one of them, in Toronto, has received a letter from Rev. W. G. H. Ellison, of Bombay, informing him that his daughter (Lieut. Nicholson, who delivered the affecting "Farewell Forever" address in Bradburn's Opera House) and her companions had been left on the shores of India and been saved from a very painful death by the doctor of the steamship Clan Nugger. Sufficient money was raised to send them home. Mr. Ellison, in his letter says: "I trust it will be a lesson to them and to others to throw their Christian zeal into channels more genuine and true than those of the Salvation Army, who, if the truth were known of their methods in this country, are far from what they appear to be. We are doing our best to make the matter public at home in England. Perhaps you can help us in America and so save some from entering on a wild crusade, the end of which they know not. These two girls have been saved this time by an appeal to the charitable public, but we cannot promise the same should many similar cases occur."

The names of the party who left Canada for India were: Males—Lieut. Jordan, of Coaticooke; Lieut. Scott, of Ottawa; Lieut. Parke, of Simcoe; Lieut. Locke, of Bowmanville. Females—Lieut. Orchard, of Stroud; Lieut. Nicholson, of Toronto; Lieut. Leech, of Chatham, and Cadet Squires, of Trenton. Lieut. Scott, however, who tramped through the streets here barefooted and in Indian attire, did not go to the inhospitable shores of heathendom. He stopped in England, threw up his commission, and is now out of the Army ranks. It was said he had returned to Canada, and was in Kingston, but the statement is incorrect.

A Salvationist says that he has little faith in the statements of Chaplain Ellison. The only female officer from Toronto who went was a Miss Nicholson, and she was sick on the way, and on arriving at Ceylon was sent at once to the hospital there, and is there now. An extract in the War Cry gives glowing reports of the Army's successful work in Ceylon.

"Oppress not nature, sinking down to rest,
With feasts too late, too solid, or too full."

Armstrong, when he wrote these lines, gave good scientific advice. Half of our people suffer from dyspepsia in some of its many forms. Life becomes a burden, and business worries and annoys. The "Golden Medical Discovery," invented and prepared by Dr. Pierce, is an effectual remedy for indigestion. By druggists 6dw13

Comforting Assurance.

When you enquire anxiously after the health of the furnace fire in the morning, it is not exactly comforting to be told that it is "well enough to be out."

Do not Forget it.

It is a fact that NERVILINE cannot be surpassed by any combination for the relief of pain. The reason is a good one. Nerviline contains the best, most powerful, and the latest discovered remedies. It is a magic pain cure, Rheumatism, stiff neck, cramps, neuralgia, colic, in fact all pain, internal, external, and local, are subdued in a few minutes. Go at once to any drug store and get a trial bottle. It will only cost you ten cents and you can at a small cost test the great pain cure. Polson's Nerviline. Large bottles only 25 cents. 6dw13

Cure for Croup.

Prompt relief to prevent suffocation from the accumulation of tough mucous—the formation of false membrance—and the constriction of the air passage, is necessary in case of a sudden attack of croup. Hagyard's Yellow Oil should be used at once, afterwards Hagyard's Pectoral Balsam. 2w12d

Strictly True.

In every respect and attested by the testimony of thousands that Putman's Painless Corn Extractor is a sure and painless cure for corns. The claim that it is just as good made by those endeavoring to palm off imitations for the genuine only proves the superiority of "Putmans." Use only Putman's Painless Corn Extractor. Sure, safe, painless. 6dw13

Highly Spoken of.

Mr. James M. Lawson, of Woodville, Ont., speaks in high terms of Yellow Oil for rheumatism, lame back, sprains and painful complaints. Yellow Oil is used internally and externally in case of pain; also coughs, colds, sore throat, etc., and has made many remarkable cures of deafness. 2w12d

Gamblers' Tools.

Twenty thousand dollars' worth of gambling apparatus, seized by the New York police during the past year, was burned by the city authorities Saturday.

The Story of Hundreds.

I a recent letter received from Mrs. Sarah A. Mills, of Wheatley, Ont., she says, "I was a sufferer for six years with dyspepsia and liver complaint. My food did not digest and I grew weaker every day. I lost appetite and had little hope of recovery. I tried many remedies, but all in vain, till I took Burdock Blood Bitters. The first bottle gave relief; after taking seven bottles, I am thankful that I now enjoy good health." 2w12d.

TO DEPOSITORS—Deposits are received by this Company both on current account and for periods of one year or longer. The rate of interest paid on amounts deposited on current account and which may be withdrawn by check in such sums as the depositor may from time to time require, is FOUR per cent., either paid or compounded half-yearly, and the rate on yearly deposits is FIVE per cent.

TO INVESTORS—The five and ten year FIVE PER CENT DEBENTURES of this Company which are issued in denominations of $100, $200, $500 and $1000 each, transferable by endorsement, with half-yearly interest Coupons attached, payable at the Head Office of the Company in Peterborough, or at any Branch of the Bank of Toronto in Canada, afford a safe and convenient mode of investment.

The funds of the Company being invested in first mortgages on Real Estate, no better security can be offered to depositors or debenture holders, they having a first claim or mortgage on the whole Assets of the Company, the shareholders having the second. The annual statement shows that the amount so invested was over $800,000, and on the security of real estate at least double that value.

By the laws of Ontario, Trustees, Executors and Administrators may deposit Trust Funds of the estates which they control in this Company, and are free from all further liability, a privilege of which many have largely availed themselves.

TO BORROWERS—Money is obtainable from this Company on approved Real Estate security at the Lowest Current Rates of Interest.

The Mortgage may be repaid by yearly instalments, or otherwise as may be agreed upon, the interest ceasing at once on all amounts paid on account of the sum borrowed.

GOLDEN MEDICAL DISCOVERY

CURES ALL HUMORS,

from a common Blotch, or Eruption, to the worst Scrofula. Salt-rheum, "Fever-sores," Scaly or Rough Skin, in short, all diseases caused by bad blood are conquered by this powerful, purifying, and invigorating medicine. Great Eating Ulcers rapidly heal under its benign influence. Especially has it manifested its potency in curing Tetter, Rose Rash, Boils, Carbuncles, Sore Eyes, Scrofulous Sores and Swellings, Hip-Joint Disease, White Swellings, Goitre, or Thick Neck, and Enlarged Glands. Send ten cents in stamps for a large treatise, with colored plates, on Skin Diseases, or the same amount for a treatise on Scrofulous Affections.

"THE BLOOD IS THE LIFE." Thoroughly cleanse it by using Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery, and good digestion, a fair skin, buoyant spirits, vital strength, and soundness of constitution, will be established.

CONSUMPTION,

which is Scrofulous Disease of the Lungs, is promptly and certainly arrested and cured by this God-given remedy, if taken before the last stages of the disease are reached. From its wonderful power over this terribly fatal disease, when first offering this now celebrated remedy to the public, Dr. PIERCE thought seriously of calling it his "Consumption Cure," but abandoned that name as too limited for a medicine which, from its wonderful combination of tonic, or strengthening, alterative, or blood-cleansing, anti-bilious, pectoral, and nutritive properties, is unequalled, not only as a remedy for consumption of the lungs, but for all

CHRONIC DISEASES OF THE

Liver, Blood, and Lungs.

If you feel dull, drowsy, debilitated, have sallow color of skin, or yellowish-brown spots on face or body, frequent headache or dizziness, bad taste in mouth, internal heat or chills, alternating with hot flushes, low spirits and gloomy borebodings, irregular appetite, and coated tongue, you are suffering from Indigestion, Dyspepsia, and Torpid Liver, or "Biliousness." In many cases only part of these symptoms are experienced. As a remedy for all such cases, Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery has no equal.

For Weak Lungs, Spitting of Blood, Shortness of Breath, Bronchitis, Severe Coughs, Consumption, and kindred affections, it is a sovereign remedy. Send ten cents in stamps for Dr. Pierce's book on Consumption. Sold by Druggists.

Y. M. C. A. Conference.

The Young Men's Christian Association of the Peterborough District, will hold a conference at Port Hope on Monday and Tuesday, April 11th and 12th. It is expected that quite a number will go from this town, including a male quartette or double quartette.

A choice assortment of Scotch and Canadian Tweeds, Worsteds, and West of England Pantings to select from at Turnbull's. Remember, there is a first-class tailor always on the premises to execute work promptly.

Auction Sale of Boots and Shoes To-night.

Mr. Stapleton, Auctioneer, has received a consignment of Boots and Shoes, which he will offer by public auction in the premises next Chamberlain's Restaurant this evening, commencing at 7 o'clock. No reserve; everything must be disposed of.

Do you want any more soles? If so you can get them at Kidd's. Get your boots repaired there always!

Is it Leap Year?

Thursday evening a large party was held at a certain house in the western limits of the town. It's get-up was out of the usual style. The young ladies only were invited, with the request that each should bring along with her a gentleman. They did so, each inviting a gentleman to accompany her to the scene of jollification, to which, of course, the gallant young men at once acquiesced, though considerably surprised by the novelty of the affair. The question now asked is, "is it leap year?"

A Record of Fires.

A correspondent writes that on March 21st the house of Mr. Robert Thompson, of Cardiff, and most of the contents, were burned; Mr. B. Wood, of Cheddar, narrowly escaped being burnt out on March 27th, for before the fire was extinguished a part of the roof and end were destroyed; the house of Mr. James F. McMillan, of Cardiff, took fire from the stove-pipe in the roof on the 27th ult., and it and the contents were destroyed, Mr. McMillan having some trouble in rescuing Mrs. McMillan from the flames.

Change of Base.

To-day, Saturday, April 2nd, Mr. J. J. Sheehy closes his dry goods establishment on George street and assumes the management of the dry goods business formerly carried on by T. Dolan & Co., which will hereafter be conducted under the style and firm name of Sheehy & Co. During the eighteen months Mr. Sheehy has been in business here he has worked up a large circle of customers. His geniality, obliging disposition and business capacity have earned for him an enviable popularity, which has made his former premises and business too small for his expanded trade. In his enlarged sphere he will be better able than ever to meet the demands of his customers, and the EXAMINER wishes him a proportionate increase of the business popularity he has acquired during his former business career. Mr. Sheehy's old customers will hereafter find him in the Cluxton block, George street, backed by an immense stock of the finest goods ever placed on the market here.

New Business.

Mr. H. Sheppeard, late of Aurora, has opened out a new store in the town clock buildings, in the premises lately occupied by Gough. Mr. Sheppeard has an experience covering over 25 years. For the last 2 years he has been in business at Aurora, and for several years previous to that was with Sampson, Kennedy & Co., Toronto. His new store has been entirely refitted and remodelled, plate-glass fronts placed in, the cellar elegantly fitted up as a carpet and oil-cloth room, the upstairs painted, papered and piled full of general dry goods, ready-made clothing, hats and caps, the electric light added—in fact, a first-class store throughout. He was open for business to-day, but by Wednesday he will be thoroughly settled and prepared to do a strictly cash trade with his customers.

The many friends of Mr. John Craig—the people's John—will be pleased to learn that his fruit and confectionery business has so enlarged that John has been obliged to branch out. He has taken possession of the store lately occupied by Wm. Ruth, two doors north of his present stand, and opened out with a fine stock of fruit, confectionery, etc., such as only he knows how to keep. John is a hustler, and no mistake.

Forces in a Sunbeam.

At the George street church last night Bishop Warren lectured to a fair-sized audience on the above subject. The brilliancy and character of the lecture deserved a larger assembly of listeners. The Bishop possesses a commanding voice, easy and impressive delivery, attractive personnel and excellent dramatic ability—all combining to make him a first-class lecturer in every sense of the word. It is impossible to give a fair report of the lecture—more depended upon the eloquent delivery than the subject, which, though interesting, was rendered doubly so by the way in which it was handled. He dealt with his subject in a style that at once amused and instructed, interspersing his remarks with numerous little anecdotes and aphorisms. At the conclusion Rev. Mr. Tovell made a few remarks. The church (and particularly the pastor) deserve every praise for bringing Bishop Warren to Peterborough. Seldom if ever has a finer lecture been delivered here.

Business College Concert.

The Business College Literary and Debating Society held a very successful meeting Friday evening. The programme consisted of the following:—Song by M. Reid, recitation by H. F. Clarke, readings by D. S. Sawyer, Miss Munro, Miss Ratcliffe and W. C. Moore; selections on the violin by J. Martin, M. Ruth and S. Carter; songs by P. H. Clarke, M. Ruth and H. F. Clarke; duet by Mrs. and Mr. Sawyer; music on mouth organ by J. Martin; duet by G. M. Ruth and H. F. Clarke. The fourth number of the College Mirror was read by the publisher. This journal is improving with every issue. This being the best meeting of the term, the entertainment committee received a hearty vote of thanks. The next meeting will be held on the 7th inst. After singing the National Anthem the society adjourned.

Foresters' Funeral.

The members of Court Peterborough, No. 29, C. O. F., are requested to meet in their Hall on Sunday afternoon at 1.30 for the purpose of attending the funeral of their late Brother George Mabbett. The members of Court Little John are also invited to attend. Members will provide themselves with white gloves. By order of the Chief Ranger. A. D. RUSSELL, Sec.

New Orleans Jubilee Singers.

Mr. W. T. Richardson, advance agent, was here yesterday making arrangements for a visit of The Original University Singers of New Orleans, the best double quartette of jubilee singers in America. They will appear here on Easter Monday, and we would advise those who wish to hear them to secure their tickets as soon as they can.

Evangelistic Temperance Meetings Continued.

Meetings will be held as follows:—Sunday, 4 and 8.30 o'clock p.m.; Monday, Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday evenings at a quarter to 8. All in the Opera House, conducted by the Rev. J. Judd White, assisted by local clergymen and speakers, and a large choir.

GET your kid boots at Kidd's! Get your calf boots at Kidd's. Get your kip boots at Kidd's. GET ALL your boots at Kidd's.

The Terrible Circular Saw.

Mr. Wellington Rombough, foreman at the Ontario Canoe Works, while running a saw on Thursday touched the middle fingers of his right hand against the whizzing steel. One of the digits was split up the centre and the other was cut across, making very painful wounds.

A Social.

A social under the auspices of the Ladies' Aid Society of St. Paul's Church, will be held in the Sunday School room on Thursday evening, April 7th, at half-past seven. Refreshments will be served during the evening, and a very good musical programme provided. Admission, 25c.

Turnbull's dress goods counter and shelves are now filled with new goods in every conceivable shade, with trimmings to match. His prices are the lowest and styles the best. Look through and be convinced.

The Account

of business done by R. Stinson & Son since the commencement of their closing out sale has shown a largely increased majority in the number of the electors who have secured bargains since the 1st of February.

YOU can get Dack & Son's best goods from Kidd at Toronto prices; leave your order in time.

King Solomon's Mines

May have contained its dazzling treasures, but even they had nothing so suited to every day life as China Hall. Coloured tea sets at $3.50, and glass sets (6 pieces) at 30 cents.

Help for the Indians.

Rev. Mr. Brick confidently expects to raise at least $100 in Peterborough towards his grist mill fund for the Peace River, N. W. T., mission.

The Ladies

of St. Andrew's church intend holding a sale of useful and fancy articles on the 21st April in St. Andrew's School Room. Particulars later.

Boating Club.

Annual meeting of the Peterborough Boating Club will be held on Monday evening, 4th April, at 7.30 p.m.

WE notice that Messrs. Breese & Bain have just published a very complete line of bird cages and baby carriages.

News Nuggets.

—There was a lively market this morning.

—Easter cattle were displayed in large numbers on the market this morning.

Butchers' Linen, per aprons, now to be found at Turnbull's.

—Horses take wings when advertised in the "To Let" column of the EXAMINER.

—Rochester Fruit and Confectionery Store, George street, north. E.G. STONE.

—West's Cough Syrup, a sure cure for coughs, colds, croup and consumption. dwd —Call at the Rochester Fruit Store for confectionery, if you want the choicest kind.

Every lady should see those new Jersey Corsets Turnbull is introducing.

—The Hamilton Helpers are in Colborne. They organized a Council of R. T. of T. at Newtonville.

—George street Methodist church to-morrow—a. m., Rev. Mr. Wallace; p. m., Rev. Mr. Tovell.

—George street to-day has been a "living stream." There is force enough in the sunbeam for that.

A full assortment of Embroideries, Torchon and Oriental Laces, in all the new patterns, now being shown at Turnbull's

—West's Cough Syrup, a certain and speedy cure for coughs, colds, and all throat and lung diseases. dwd

—Some remarks in Friday's report of the K. of L. meeting, through a clerical error credited to Mr. Pitman, were uttered by Mr. F. Fairin.

—A big cow on the market this morning gave her owners some trouble. She struggled to escape, and one of the men holding her was knocked down into a pool of muddy water. He got wet, and the people laughed with a great laugh.

—We would be glad if all those who have secured advertising space in the Easter edition of the EXAMINER would prepare their copy and have ready for the printer not later than Monday evening.

—Yesterday a number of young men received invitations from a young lady, requesting their attendance at her house that evening. Most of them "smelt a mice," but two or three unsuspecting innocents obeyed and went to the house—to find no one at home. April fool! Harry bad his violin too.

Police Court.

SATURDAY, April 2nd.

Patrick Barry and R. Robinson, for fighting on the streets Saturday night, were yesterday fined $5 each. Chief Cooper worked up the case and was the complainant.

Four young men named Armour, Smith, Duncan and Nelles were fined $15 each, or 20 days in gaol, in connection with the Sunday night affair at Curtin's restaurant. Armour was fined an additional $2, and $6 compensation for breaking in the door. The magistrate gave the young men some sound advice, urging them to curb their party feelings. They were given to-day to pay their fines.

Personal.

Mr. S. M. Dawson, advance agent of the McDowell Comedy Co., is in town. The company will appear in Bradburn's Opera House on Saturday evening, April 9th, in Victorien Sardon's great comedy drama, "peril."

Mr. Bannell Sawyer will give a short address in the Opera House to-morrow evening in connection with Rev. J. J. White's meeting.

Mr. C. Greville Harstone, Superintendent of the British Empire Life Assurance Company of London, England, called here to-day on his way west. Mr. Harstone has a very high opinion of the present and future of Peterborough.

Mr. John Bertram, accompanied by his wife and his father, Mr. Hugh Bertram, returned home from Toronto to-day. Mr. Bertram has been some ten days confined to his room by illness, (brought on by a severe cold) which at one time assumed serious symptoms. His many friends will be glad to learn that he is now convalescent, and in a few days will be in the enjoyment of his usual good health.

Mr. Mannell, who keeps a shoe store on George street, has gone to England.

Mrs. C. R. Stewart, of "Newnham," Haliburton, is in town, the guest of Miss Chamberlen.

A WIDE smile is on the boys faces who bought Kidd's kip boots, so good and yet so cheap!

DIED.

MABBETT.—In Peterborough, on the 1st of April, 1887, George Mabbett, aged 22 years.

Funeral to-morrow afternoon from the residence of Mr. Henry Trollope, Water street, north.

A CARD

FROM

T. DOLAN,

TO HIS NUMEROUS FRIENDS.

I beg to say that the Dry Goods business heretofore carried on by T. Dolan & Co., has been disposed of to the new firm of Messrs SHEEHY & CO., who will continue the business in the same stand No. 2 CLUXTON'S BLOCK.

Mr. Corkery one of the members of the new firm has been connected with the late firm since 1878, and consequently knows what the public wants.

While thanking my many friends who have so liberally patronized the late firm in the Dry Goods business for the past twelve years, I trust they will continue to bestow that patronage on my successors.

I desire to state that I now intend confining myself exclusively to the Clothing trade, and will continue to do my utmost to keep only such goods as will be appreciated by the public.

LAND OF REBELLIONS.

REPORTED REVOLT OF TWO BULGARIAN REGIMENTS.

BUCHAREST, April 2.—It is rumored here that an outbreak has occurred at Rustchuk and that the Bulgarian War Minister has been attacked. It is also stated that two regiments have revolted at Kustendel, that the officers of both have been placed under arrest, but that the men after a fight with the loyal troops have fled to the mountains.

The Attempt on the Prefect.

LONDON, April 2.—The Times publishes a despatch from Sofia, which says the attempt made at Rustchuk yesterday by three Bulgarian refugees to assassinate the Prefect of Rustchuk was a part of a cowardly Russian intrigue. The Prefect's name is Mantoff. At the time of the attack he was walking with a man named Jacubson, who is a dragoman attached to the Russian Consulate at Rustchuk. Jacobson had for a long time been engaged in an attempt to bribe Mankoff with large sums of money. He had induced the Prefect to go to Bucharest with him to see M. Hitrovo, the Russian Minister to Roumania. Suspicions being aroused that he would not accede to their wishes and would betray their secrets, they decided to have him removed. The result was the attempt to assassinate him, which, as yesterday's despatches stated, resulted in a severe wound to Mankoff and the arrest of two or three Bulgarians who attacked him.

The Would-be Assassins.

SOFIA, April 3.—The two men who were imprisoned for making an attempt to assassinate the Prefect of Rustchuk are named Kavassoff and Ivanoff respectively. They are natives of Russian Bessarabia and lived at Rustchuk until the recent revolt occurred, having relations with Kischeneff, the chief of the revolutionary committee.

A Louisiana Tragedy.

NEW ORLEANS, April 2.—A Times-Democrat special from Coushatta, La., gives the following: "A most shocking tragedy took place here this afternoon, resulting in the death of J. Henry Scheen and A. C. Brown. Brown had become incensed against M. A. Cockerham, son-in-law of Scheen, on account of business troubles, and had been seen on the streets in the afternoon inquiring for Cockerham. Finding him at Scheen's store, pistols were drawn and they began firing. Scheen received a shot in the mouth, which passed through and broke his neck, causing instant death. Brown received a shot in each arm and after pronunciamentoing on both sides, left the store. Young John H. Scheen, seeing his father shot down, seized a double-barrelled shot-gun and fired upon Brown, who ran about 100 yards and expired."

To Report on the Pacific Fisheries.

WASHINGTON, April 2.—It is the intention of the Fish Commission to make an extensive investigation of the food fisheries of the Pacific Coast. For this purpose the steamer Albatross will shortly be sent to Baltimore to receive new boilers now being made for her and designed to fit the vessel for extended voyages. It is the present intention to have the Albatross sail in October and pass through the Straits of Magellan and up the west coast of America. She will stay in the Pacific for two years or longer and a thorough enquiry will be made into all matters relating to food fisheries.

The Earth Opened and Swallowed It.

VIENNA, April 2.—The fine Roman amphitheatre at Pola, in Austria, on the Adriatic, suddenly collapsed to-day and fell into an immense chasm which opened on the site. From this chasm vapors are emitted.

Information Supplied.

To the Editor of the Daily Examiner:

DEAR SIR.—In reply to an enquiry of Mr. Geo. Bolton, published in the Daily EXAMINER of March 29th, in which a series of questions are asked respecting the issue of a patent to James McAndrew, he is hereby informed that the No. of the patent referred to is 26,123. Any other information that he needs that the patent is issued in due form, may be had on application at our premises on Hunter street, when the fullest information will be cheerfully given. My absence from town on business prevented me from sooner replying to the letter referred to.
JAMES McANDREW.
PETERBOROUGH, April 1st.

The Boundary Line

Between comfort and discomfort is often very slight. Have you rheumatism or neuralgia? or are you a sufferer from obscure nervous pains? Why suffer longer? You can purchase for 10 cents a bottle of that king of pain—Polson's NERVILINE, or you can get a large bottle for 25 cents. It cures promptly. It is sure, pleasant to take, and never fails to cure an attack of pain. Don't wait an hour, but send to any drug store and get a trial bottle. Nerviline, the sure pain cure. 6dw14

FAIR HOPES BLASTED.

HOME RULERS UNABLE TO STAY THE PASSAGE OF COERCION.

LONDON, April 2.—The strong majority obtained by the Government last night in the House of Commons on cloture (351 to 203) and the passage at once without division of the first reading of the Irish Criminal Law Amendment Bill, have crushed all hopes of the Home Rulers that they might be able to prevent the passage of the bill in its worst form. The Unionists-Liberals voted solidly with the Conservatives for cloture, only three of them abstaining from voting. The fact is now obvious that the Unionists mean to carry out their policy of adhesion to the Salisbury Administration unflinchingly, and that they will give the Government whatever coercive powers for the control of Ireland may be demanded of Parliament and will hold no further parley with the Gladstonians. All notion of a renewal of the attempts at reunion has ceased on both sides, neither Unionists-Liberals nor Gladstonians entertaining now the slightest idea of combining hereafter. There is an intenser animosity than ever between the Conservatives and the old Liberals. The Government, secure now in the support of the Unionists, are not at all inclined to modify the Irish Crimes Bill, notwithstanding the objections to some parts of it by members of their own party. Many Conservatives continue to urge the Government to abandon the proposal to try Irishmen in England for certain offences, and also the clauses which virtually renew the "Whiteboy" Act.

In an interview on last night's scene in the House Mr. Gladstone said: "Extraordinary scenes! They were indeed extraordinary, but they are not exactly the result we anticipated when the procedure rule respecting the application of cloture was passed. We knew what it would be. We opposed it with all our might. We protested solemnly, but they were too strong for us. Now the result has come. They have thrust upon the speaker a partisan function and thus have dealt a blow at the chair, the gravity of which it is impossible to exaggerate. Recollect at all times that it is not coercion I am thinking about; not dissolution, not Home Rule even, but the chair. Let them fight us—I have always said let them beat us. This is well. They will win one time, we will win another. That is all right and is nothing to what has happened. But above all things let them respect the chair. But they have not. They have forced partisanship upon him. Besides this nothing could exceed the contemptuous disregard of the Government for all forms of parliamentary procedure. There is not a shred or tatter of justification left for the Government. Did you hear Mr. Parnell's speech? Such a grinding, pulverizing, destructive speech, completely upsetting and sweeping away every argument they have adduced, I think I have never heard. Upon my word, I was almost sorry for them. We were reduced to take the last step in our power, and the most serious step possible—to leave the House; reduced to disassociate ourselves from the House of Commons at the moment when its privileges were overruled and the center of its authority displaced, and an outrage upon its procedure perpetrated. I recollect by whom those procedure rules were passed—the dissentient Liberals. That is where the blow falls. On the maturest reflection I am convinced our action was right and justified."

A Speech by Churchill.

LONDON, April 2.—Lord Randolph Churchill made a speech at Paddington to-day, in the course of which he declared that the action of the House of Commons last evening was not only momentous in its importance and encouraging but worthy of Parliament and the nation. He said that although he intended to continue his crusade against extravagance in government management he still remained a true and faithful supporter of the Tory party and maintained the necessity of the union. He was convinced, he added that nobody could devise a home rule scheme capable of successfully standing the criticism of Parliament.

RECEPTION BY THE POPE.

The Pontiff Gives a Second Audience to American Visitors.

ROME, April 2.—A second audience was given to Americans at the Vatican to-day. Cardinal Gibbons presented the visitors to the Pope, who said a kindly word to each, and expressed his delight at again seeing so many of the American faithful. Cardinal Gibbons had a private audience with the Pope previous to the public reception.

The Pope's brief to Bishop Ireland on the temperance question has been issued. In it the Pope praises the Catholic Total Abstinence Union, comments on the deplorable nature of the evils caused by intemperance, and urges pastors to increase their efforts to extirpate the plague of drunkenness.

A requiem mass composed for him by Abbe Liszt was sung for him in the Church of Della Anima to-day. Zambati was the conductor. The church was filled with foreign and native amateurs.

LANSDOWNE AND O'BRIEN.

The Dublin Editor Would Not Object to Being Arrested in Canada.

DUBLIN, April 2.—A telegram was received here from Toronto, Ont., to-day saying that if Wm. O'Brien, editor of the United Ireland, tried to agitate in Canada against the Marquis of Lansdowne he would be immediately arrested. O'Brien, speaking in reference to this telegram, said: "It is a very encouraging sign of Lord Lansdowne's sensitiveness to Canadian opinion. I would not at all object to Canadians having an example on the spot of the landlord and police tyranny which Lord Lansdowne's friends practice in Ireland."

THE FISHERIES DIFFICULTY.

The Saturday Review Says America is Trying to Fasten a Quarrel.

LONDON, April 2.—The Saturday Review to-day publishes an offensive article on the Canadian fisheries question, full of its usual bitterness towards America, concluding with the remark that the Americans are striving to fasten a quarrel on an unconscious nation. This is one of a very few discreditable exceptions to the general rule observed on this question by the English press, and is intended, perhaps, as a welcome to the American Minister who, with Mrs. Phelps, arrived in London Thursday from Monte Carlo.

London Stock and Money Market.

LONDON, April 3.—Discount was easy during the past week at 2 to 1/4. Business on the Stock Exchange was inactive, the settlement and the approach of the Easter holidays curtailing dealings. The American Railroad department was the only department busy. There was a distinct advance in every kind of securities, under the influence of large and steady English buying. The fears that the inter-state commerce law would have an injurious effect have subsided. Yesterday prices at the close were the highest of the week.

Would-be Czar-Killers Hanged.

BERLIN, April 2.—Three persons who were concerned in the attempt to assassinate the Czar by means of bombs in St. Petersburg on March 13 were hanged Thursday morning. Twenty more officers in various branches of the service have been arrested in connection with the attempt made against the life of the Czar in the park of the Gatschina Palace on Tuesday last.

TELEGRAPHIC WRECK

THE SENSATION BOSTON SENT THE SUNDAY PAPERS.

BOSTON, April 3.—Information reached here at midnight that a large steamship was ashore off Scituate harbor, one of the most dangerous portions of the south shore, about fifteen miles southeast of this city. Later it was ascertained that she was the Cunarder Scythia, from Liverpool for this port. She had 850 passengers on board, and was two days overdue. Since early Friday night a terrific wind and snow storm has been raging, the gale in this city being forty miles an hour at 6 p.m. tonight and sixty on the coast. A blinding snow storm has steadily prevailed, drifting badly, so that the last trains from Scituate got through two hours late.

The steamship came ashore just before the train left, or that was the first seen of her through the snow, which would imply that she grounded between 5 and 6 p.m. A tremendous sea was running, and the steamer struck head on, and, becoming fastened on the rocks, swung around until she lay broadside on the beach. Great excitement was caused by the affair, but before the details could be rushed to Boston a severe wind squall blew down all the wires, both railroad and Western Union, between Scituate and Quincy.

The Report False.

BOSTON, April 3.—The rumor of a disaster on the coast at Scituate to the Cunard steamer Scythia, the circulation of which created a tremendous sensation in this city last night, has been proven to have been false. Owing to the fact that telegraphic communication with the South Shore had been interrupted by the storm, it was impossible last night either to confirm the rumor or to disprove it. The circumstances were so peculiarly favorable to a belief in the truth of the report, however, that the local agent of the Cunard Company determined to charter a special train and go at once to the locality of the alleged wreck. The train left the Old Colony station at 3.15 a.m. with the agent and thirty reporters on board and arrived at Scituate at 4.15. Then the party tramped through three miles of snow drifts to the beach, where, the sun having risen, a clear view of the long stretch of beach was obtained. There was no sign of a wreck in any direction. The sea was tremendously high, the waves breaking over the tops of the cliffs fifty feet high. Having been convinced of the falsity of the rumor concerning the Scythia, the party returned at once to Boston. How the rumor originated is not known. The Scythia arrived at her dock safely soon after 5 o'clock.

DR. McGLYNN'S CHAMPIONS.

Threats of Excommunication do not Seem to Have any Terrors for Them.

NEW YORK, April 2.—Excommunication has apparently no terrors for Dr. McGlynn's bold adherents. They scoff at the idea and claim that no man has power to place them outside the pale of the church, not even the Pope himself, so long as they are good Christians. This is a remarkable stand for Roman Catholics to take, and presages a prolonged and bitter contest. Dr. McDonnell said to-night:

I wish to explain the nature of the excommunication referred to. It is a canonical law of the church made and promulgated by Pope Pius IX. in his constitution known as apostolicae sedis, and reads, roughly translated; "Those who impede or interfere directly or indirectly with the exercise of ecclesiastical jurisdiction, incur excommunication." It is not necessary for the archbishop to assert his authority, for the insubordinate conduct in itself, under this canonical law, is sufficient cause at any time.

Dr. Carey echoed the sentiment of the disaffected parishioners as follows:

We are determined to stand by our colors no matter what be the issue of this conflict. If the Archbishop thinks we are children to be frightened by the bugbear of excommunication he is making a grave error. We all say, let him excommunicate. Our case is a just one and no threats of his can alter our course. We intend to make this a test case. In this enlightened age, when men think for themselves, coercive measures will not answer and the Roman Catholic Church must be brought to know it. We are not fighting this battle alone. The Church all over the world is looking on. Only the other day a priest from Brazil said to me that throughout South America the greatest interest was taken in the case, and sympathy was all on the side of Dr. McGlynn and the cause he represents.

CHINESE BOODLERS.

They Set a Price on the Head of King Kalakau of the Sandwich Islands.

SAN FRANCISCO, April 2.—Capt. McCullough, who arrived a few days ago in command of the brig Wm. G. Irwin, from the Sandwich Islands, relates a remarkable story of Chinese enmity against King Kalakau. He states that a certain Chinese firm paid a bribe of $70,000 to a native officer holding a high position to secure influence in obtaining the exclusive right to sell opium in the Hawaiian Kingdom, and that the Chinese firm in question failed to secure the privileges. They then demanded the return of the bribe money, which was refused. McCullough further states that the Chinese have decided not to submit to what they consider an outrage, and when he left the walls of Honolulu were covered with handbills in Chinese offering a reward of $5000 for the head of King Kalakau. It is said the guards have been doubled about the palace.

A CALIFORNIA HOTEL BURNED.

A Building Which Cost $350,000 Completely Destroyed.

SAN FRANCISCO, April 2.—The Hotel del Monte at Monterey, Cal., was burned to the ground yesterday. There were nearly 300 guests in the hotel, mostly eastern people. The fire was discovered quick enough to give all an opportunity to escape. They were all huddled together on the grounds, where they had to shiver all night, many of them having nothing more than their night clothes. The heat from the flames of the burning building kept them warm for a time, but as the flames died out many ladies suffered severely from the cold. All who could sought refuge in the local hotels.

The hotel belonged to the Southern Pacific Railway Company, and was considered the handsomest watering place hotel in America. It cost $350,000 and was not insured.

A Pacific Steamer Wrecked.

SEATTLE, W.T., April 2.—The Pacific coast steamer Mexico, plying between San Francisco and Puget Sound, was wrecked Thursday night four miles south of Plumper's Pass, Vancouver's Island. All hands were saved. Loss on the vessel $150,000. Cargo not known. No particulars.

Suicide at Zurich.

ZURICH, Ont., April 2.—David Pike, well known as an hostler at the hotels around, attempted to commit suicide by cutting his throat with a razor in bed this morning at the Commercial Hotel. Dr. Buchanan was called and sewed up the gash. He will likely die.

Foundered at Sea.

NEW YORK, April 3.—Advices from Bermuda state that the steamer Saragossa from Baltimore, March 18, for Port Antonia, foundered at sea, 200 miles north of Watling's Island. The crew were all saved and landed at Bermuda.

FRANCHISE EXTENSION.

Hon. Mr. Mowat announced in the House of Assembly Friday that the Government will introduce a bill providing for an equivalent to manhood suffrage in Provincial elections before the present Legislature is dissolved. This is no more than could be expected. Hon. Mr. Mowat has been, by repeated extensions of the franchise, for years leading up to this point. His methods are progressive, not revolutionary, and his object has been to prepare the people by degrees for the fullest possible constitutional extension of the franchise privilege. It required a good deal of firmness in the Premier to resist the crude demands for manhood suffrage, made not in the interests of the people, so much as for political purposes. When in 1883, at the fag end of the session, and in view of the coming general elections, Mr. Meredith caused to be introduced a motion on the subject of manhood-suffrage—a motion of want of confidence in the Ministry—it was only natural that it should have been voted down, as it was, by a vote of two to one—44 to 22. It was a mere electioneering dodge on the part of the Opposition leader, the Government's supporters saw clearly through the dodge and acted accordingly, and the people endorsed their action by sustaining the government in the election that followed, within the month. The present shows that their confidence was not misplaced, and that the government of Hon. Mr. Mowat, while it has been hastening gently, is bound and determined to give the people of Ontario a full measure of justice on the franchise question. Mr. Meredith and his following, if they are in accord with the genius of Toryism, cannot, at heart, have any interest in the extension of the franchise as a matter of simple justice; their sole interest is in the use it can be put to as a party weapon. Mr. Mowat might have, as a mere politician, made considerable political capital by pursuing a different course from what he has been pursuing on this question, but he acted, not as a mere politician, but as a statesman, preferring to do right, according to his judgment to manufacturing political capital. Now he is in a position to carry out his policy without trouble, for the Opposition is committed to the principle on which his Act will be based, and they cannot consistently evade their responsibility in giving it their support. It will be interesting to note the course Mr. Meredith will pursue, for, from the action he took on the Boundary question, he is capable of taking an exceedingly sharp curve. It is pretty certain, however, that Mr. Meredith will support the measure to be proposed by Mr. Mowat—that is, unless he gets orders from Sir John to act differently. For the military instinct is very strong in Mr. Meredith he always "obeys his superior officers."

The Monetary Times has the following in reference to the log-driving bill of Mr. Murray now before the Local Legislature:—According to a despatch from Ottawa, the lumbermen of that neighborhood have met to discuss the bill presented by Mr. Murray. They almost all pronounce against the clause providing that in case of a jam of timber or logs on any stream where a number of lumbermen's logs are congregated, the firm or individual who breaks the jam may take a lien of the logs so liberated until paid for the expense of freeing them. The lumbermen object that this provision, if adopted, would result in endless litigation.

LEGISLATURE OF ONTARIO.

Sixth Parliament—First Session.

WEDNESDAY, March 30th.

In the House to-day a bill passed permitting London to borrow money for school purposes.

In response to Mr. Meredith's question, MR. MOWAT said the Government had assumed the right to collect dues for timber cut in the disputed territory west of the provisional boundary established in 1874. The amount realized from timber dues at the agency for 1886 was $14,797. Mr. Mowat also replied to a question from Mr. Meredith, that the Government had received application from the Premier of Quebec asking the Ontario Government to appoint a delegate to represent the Province in a convention to consider Provincial rights. The communication was favorably replied to, and if considered necessary, he would ask the sanction of the House before appointing a delegate.

Mr. PRESTON'S bill to extend the municipal franchise to all landholders' sons instead of farmers' sons exclusively, after a lengthy discussion was withdrawn on Mr. Fraser's promise to so amend the existing act that municipal clerks would in future have no difficulty in determining who were covered by the act.

Mr. BALFOUR'S bill to permit muskrat spearing and duck and wild fowl shooting in the spring was shelved after a long discussion, on motion of Mr. GARSON to set the second reading for May 24, this amendment being carried on a division by 44 to 34.

YEAS—Messrs. Awrey, Biggar, Bishop, Blyth, Clarke, H. E. (Toronto), Clarke, (Wellington), Craig, Creighton, Dryden, Fall, Garson, Gibson, (Hamilton), Gibson, (Huron), Guthrie, Hammell, Harcourt, Hudson, Ingram, Lees, Leys, McAndrew, Mack, Marter, Master, Meacham, Meredith, Metcalfe, Miller, Monk, Mowat, Ostrom, Phelps, Preston, Rayside, Rorke, Ross (Middlesex), Stewart, Sprague, Tooley, Widdifield, Willoughby, Wilmot, Wood (Hastings), Wylie—44.

NAYS—Messrs. Allan, Armstrong, Balfour, Blezard, Bronson, Chamberlain, Chisholm, Clancy, Clarke, E. F. (Toronto), Commee, Cruess, Dack, Drury, Evanturel, Ferguson, Field, Fraser, Freeman, Frasch, Gilmour, Gould, Graham, Hilliard, McKay, Morin, Morgan, Nairn, Pardee, Robilliard, Ross (Huron), Smith, Stratton, Waters, Wood (Brant)—34.

THURSDAY, March 31st.

Several bills were read a first time, and several received their third reading.

QUEEN VICTORIA NIAGARA FALLS PARK.

Mr. MOWAT, in moving the House into committee on the resolution relating to the Niagara Falls Park, explained at length the work accomplished by the Park Commissioners and the course now proposed to be taken by the Government. It is intended to issue debentures to the amount of $525,000, and to apply the income from the park in payment of the purchase money and in making necessary improvements. It is estimated that between 200,000 and 300,000 persons visit the Falls annually, and that a fee of fifty cents per head from one-third of that number will ensure sufficient revenue to cover all the obligations to be incurred. It is proposed to tax only those visitors who require guides or make use of mechanical appliances, provided and operated at a cost by the park management. The public would acknowledge with gratitude the course taken by the Government, even if a direct expenditure for the purpose was proposed.

The resolutions were carried, and a bill based upon them was introduced and read the first time.

SCHOOL LAW AMENDMENTS.

The Minister of Education, in moving the second reading of his bill to amend the Public Schools Act, explained that it does away with the declaration of office, hitherto required from school trustees; provides that where, for a full year, a section does not elect a School Board and provide school accommodation, the section shall be dissolved; authorizes the Inspector to call the first meeting of the School Board of a new section; provides that in unorganized districts the Secretary-Treasurers of three sections may be a Court of Revision for the correction of the school assessment rolls, and proposes an increase of the school tax upon unoccupied lands; provides for the first meeting of a School Board where a new village, town or city is incorporated; enacts that boards of school trustees shall hold their first meeting on the third Wednesday in January, and boards of education on the first Wednesday in February; provides for a course of instruction and training for children between the ages of three and five years according to the methods practised in Kindergarten schools; enlarges the powers of trustees in respect of the sale and purchase of school sites; provides that where school Boards refuse to make necessary school accommodation, Municipal Councils, at the request of the Inspector, may undertake the work; enacts regulations to prevent the spread of contagious diseases, and in various other respects improves and simplifies the law.

The bill was read a second time.

FRIDAY, April 1st.

First and third readings were given several bills.

MANHOOD SUFFRAGE.

Mr. NAIRN asked whether it is the intention of the Government during the present parliamentary term to introduce a measure establishing manhood suffrage (with proper safeguards as to residence, etc.) as the basis of qualification for electors voting for representatives to the Legislative Assembly.

Hon. Mr. MOWAT said it was the intention of the Government to introduce a measure simplifying the voters' lists and practically establishing manhood suffrage for elections for the Legislature, with restrictions as to residence. The bill would be introduced, not this session, but in time for operation at at the next general elections required by law. (Hear, hear.)

MR. BORRON'S APPOINTMENT.

Mr. CREIGHTON moved for a return showing the number of cases brought before E. B. Borron, Stipendiary Magistrate for Northern Nipissing, for adjudication during each year since his appointment.

Hon. Mr. MOWAT said that Mr. Borron, after his appointment, had gone to James Bay to exercise his duties, and had gone up repeatedly since. The reason he had not taken his family to the district to reside was because the northern boundary had not been settled. His services as surveyor had been availed of, and he had furnished several valuable reports to the Government, who had thought it well to have a representative of its authority in the disputed territory.

Mr. MEREDITH said Mr. Barron had received $1,200 a year for eight years, and had done almost nothing in return. He protested against the people's money being used to reward political friends of the Government.

Hon. A. S. HARDY said if Mr. Borron had not tried a single case his retention in the office would have been justified as a step in resisting the encroachments of the Dominion Government, encroachments that the hon. gentlemen opposite had countenanced. For this reason Mr. Borron was appointed to an important representative position, viz., stipendiary magistrate.

Mr. Wood's (Hastings) bill to amend the Railway Act of Ontario was passed through committee of the whole.

Mr. Ley's bill respecting building societies, providing that transfers of debentures stock may be made at any agency, that these societies may hold real estate to the value of $10,000, was read the third time and referred to a special committee.

Mr. Bronson's bill to amend the Municipal Act was referred to the Municipal Committee.

Mr. GIBSON (Hamilton) moved the second reading of the bill to amend the Ontario Medical Act. It provided for witness fees at the rate of $5 per day with mileage, for the erasing of names from the register of persons guilty of crimes or professional disgraceful conduct, and for the limitation of actions for negligence of malpractice to six months after the date of alleged practice. Read a second time and referred to a special committee.

SOMETHING NEW UNDER THE SUN!

BE SURE of the Place: Four Life-size Signs on Front of Building. LOOK UP FOR THEM!

GOUGH'S

Fresh Arrival of Spring Overcoats and Suits are the Newest Nobbiest, and Cheapest under the Sun!!

Those High-Priced Clothing Dealers can't see the funny about Gough's GIFT Department, and Claim such things are beneath them—Yes, low Advertising is beyond their comprehension, because they don't understand the first principles of Low Price System. We freely admit that we are fallen Clothiers, wallowing in the lowest depths of Bed Rock Prices, while our exalted brethren look down upon us from their high places, and go wild because we Capture the Trade.

Farmers, Mechanics, Merchants, Bankers and Laboring Men, come in and see us. Take no man's word, investigate and believe your own eyes, and you will be convinced that GOUGH is the cheapest Clothier on Earth.

THIS WEEK we will offer Extraordinary Inducements. All our Departments have been augmented with new features and choice Stock, which will justly excite the admiration of all visitors. Call, it will pay as well as please you to see—

GOUGH, the WONDERFUL CHEAP MAN!

GREAT

CLEARING OUT SALE!

GENUINE BARGAINS

In Each Department.

I have decided to let the whole of my present Stock go at Wholesale Cost Price. In these days people expect Bargains, and feel justified in obtaining all they can for their money.

I will give the inhabitants of Peterboro' and surrounding country a chance for once of getting Reliable Goods at prices that will, in truth, be Bargains, of which they are invited to come and judge for themselves.

The Stock consists of the usual Staple Goods, besides a large variety of FANCY GOODS not to be had elsewhere in town, viz.:—

Dress Goods, Velveteens, Gloves Hosiery and Underwear.

Blankets, Quilts, Table Linen, etc

Small Wares in great variety.

Fancy Goods, such as Desks, Work Boxes, etc.

Fancy Work in Slippers, Cushions, Brackets, Silk and Filoselle Wools, etc.

Mens Underwear in Merino and Wool, and Mens Furnishings generally.

After 23 years' business in Peterborough I wish to give my old customers and the public generally something unusual in Real Bargains, and will be pleased to see them as quickly as possible avail themselves of them, for, of course, those coming early will have the largest choice.

"He Never Smiled Again!"

No "hardly ever" about it. He had an attack of what people call "biliousness," and to smile was impossible. Yet a man may "smile and smile, and be a villain still" still he was no villain, but a plain, blunt, honest man, that needed a remedy such as Dr. Pierce's "Pleasant Purgative Pellets" which never fail to cure biliousness and diseased or torpid liver, dyspepsia and chronic constipation. Of druggists. 6dw14

B.B.B.—In Working Order.

"My husband was troubled with dyspepsia for more than four years. Two experienced physicians did him no good. We got discouraged until we read of Burdock Blood Bitters; he took only two bottles and now is as well as ever, and doing heavy work all the time." Mrs. Richard Rowe, Hartley, Ont. B. B. Astonishing Success

It is the duty of every person who has used Boschee's German Syrup to let its wonderful qualities be known to their friends in curing Consumption, severe Coughs, Croup, Asthma, Pneumonia, and in fact all throat and lung diseases. No person can use it without immediate relief. Three doses will relieve any case, and we consider it the duty of all Druggists to recommend it to the poor, dying consumptive, at least to try one bottle, as 80,000 dozen bottles were sold last year, and no one case where it failed was reported. Such a medicine as the German Syrup cannot be too widely known. Ask your druggist about it, sample bottles to try, only 10 cents. Regular size, 75 cents. Sold by all Druggists and dealers, in the United States and Canada. eodw4

Lumbago of 40 Years Standing—Cured.

Roe Park, Bristol, England.

I am impelled by a sense of duty to testify to the extraordinary efficacy of your remarkable specific, St. Jacobs Oil. I am an old man and for the last 46 years have been a victim of lumbago. I have in vain sought relief from medical science, and was at last led to consider my case hopeless. I procured your Oil and it would be impossible for me to describe the relief that even one application produced and I can affirm most distinctly that its use has completely cured me. JOSHUA MOORE.

Lumbago—Permanently Cured.

Toronto, Canada.

5 Drummond Place, Adelaide St., West.

With great pleasure I can certify to using your wonderful preparation, St. Jacobs Oil, for rheumatism of the back, with the best of success—a permanent cure. I was unable to work for six weeks, used doctors' prescriptions and other preparations, but without avail. After suffering greatly being unable to attend my daily occupation, &c., at last was induced to give your great remedy a trial, with the above success. ALEX. HENRY.

Catarrh of Years' Standing Cured.

N. WASHINGTON, M. D., Throat and Lung Surgeon, Toronto.

DEAR SIR,—I am pleased to be able to state to you that I am now free from Catarrh. It is almost incredible that in so short a time I could have been cured of Catarrh, which has affected my health for years. A little over two months ago I took treatment from you, and to-day the Catarrh is entirely cured. Your treatment is simply a marvel. I will heartily recommend any of my friends personally, and would suggest to all thus troubled the advisability, of consulting you immediately. Accept my many thanks.

Yours etc.,
J. P. DUNN,

Mangled His Hand.

A man named Foster, acting temporarily as Engineer at the Lock Works in the absence of the regular man, while in the act of starting up the engine about one one o'clock this afternoon got his hand caught in the machinery. The flesh was torn from the back of the hand and the thumb was nearly cut off. Dr. Kincaid dressed the wound, which is very painful and troublesome.

The Jubilee Singers.

Bovines, Butchers and Beef-Eaters.

The Easter Display of Beef by the Town Butchers—Preparing for a Big Spread.

All day Saturday lowing herds of cattle were being driven through the streets on their way to the slaughter-houses of our butchers, who are making extra efforts to procure the best Easter beef obtainable. This put our reporter "on the track of an item," as the word goes, and in the afternoon he made a trip around town to ascertain just what each one is doing.

J. J. HOWDEN

is preparing to eclipse all his former efforts in the way of an Easter display. On Tuesday he will remove to his new shop just north of his present stand on George street. The new building is two stories in height, of red brick, the ground floor of which is fitted up as a butcher shop in a style not to be excelled even in Toronto. The shop is a large one, finished throughout with ash, with marble-topped counters of the same material, while a large iron rack, shaped like a horse-shoe, and hung with steel hooks, runs around the wall. With a plate-glass front and marble-topped sliding windows, the shop presents a nobby appearance. In the rear is the refrigerator, with show windows, comprising three apartments. It was built by Mr. John Irwin, and holds 77 blocks of ice—sufficient to last till July. The refrigerator only needs refilling two or three times a year. Many other little conveniences are provided, all going to make up the finest butcher shop in town.

For his Easter display Mr. Howden has two thoroughbred heifers from Mr. Wm. Redmond, of Millbrook, weighing 1690 and 1630 lbs; two 2-year-old steers from Mr. Shear, of Otonabee, weighing 1170 and 1120 lbs. respectively; two steers from Robt. Carter, of Otonabee; two steers and two heifers from Mr. Sutton, Cavan; two steers and two heifers from Mr. Prichard, of Millbrook; a steer and a heifer from Mr. McAdoo, Cavan. He will besides exhibit lambs, pork and fancy meat in abundance.

as usual, has purchased probably the most extensively of any of the butchers, and he is striving to knock them all out in the line of fancy exhibits. He has bought six Durham steers from Wm. Miller, of Otonabee; two grade steers from J. and C. McNeil, Cavan; two from S. Milligan, Cavan; one Durham heifer from the herd of John Sutton, Cavan, which is one of the finest exhibits he ever made; three steers from Edward Bulmer, Smith; four from the herd of Jas. Wallace, Merino farm. These cattle were all fed especially for Easter beef, and from the known reputation of the feeders, beef-eaters can rely upon getting their meat "rich, rare and juicy" as it is possible to be, at Harry Winch's stall in the market.

He has also purchased calves from Mr. Grant Smith, Messrs. J. and C. McNeil, Cavan; Mr. Thomas Burrows, of Monaghan, and Mr. Perry Nelson, Otonabee. These will be particularly delicate morsels, and those who patronize Harry Winch will agree that he is never behind in catering to his customers on festival occasions.

From Messrs. Wm. Miller, Otonabee, Wm. Dawson and Robt. Robinson, of South Monaghan, and Geo. Johnston, of Smith, he has bought some young lambs, which cannot be surpassed in quality. Mr. Ed. Bulmer, of Smith, has also supplied him with some prime mutton. Besides this, Harry Winch will make a gorgeous display of pork, sausage, and fancy meats in abundance. Call at his stall in the market and get the choicest cuts obtainable.

J. MERVIN,

corner of Hunter and Aylmer streets, will not be one whit behind his fellow butchers if he knows it—and he does know it. For the Easter trade he has purchased two steers from Mr. John McKinley, Hamilton Plains; and two steers each from Mr. Silas Brisbin and Mr. Robert Tichborne, of the same place. These men are well known as most successful breeders and feeders, and their animals always "take the cake." A steer and heifer from Mr. A. Yates, of Smith, and two steers from Mr. W. A. Hall, also of Smith, complete his purchases in the cattle line. In veal he has an extra fine stock—two calves from Hazlitt's stock farm and one from Dr. Kincaid's, all animals of finest quality. Two tender spring lambs, purchased from Mr. Geo. McKee, of Smith, and twenty-five lambs bought from Mr. John Carnegie will comprise his stock of mutton, which, it will be admitted, cannot easily be beaten. Mr. Mervin has bought a couple of rare porkers from Mr. Davidson, of Smith, and his display will include, besides all the above, fancy meats of every description.

R. WAINWRIGHT,

since he was burnt out, has occupied the shop next Mason's seed store, on George street, where his patrons find him ever ready to dispense meats with willing hands and at low prices. For Easter he has purchased from Mr. C. D. Moore, five steers and heifers; from Jas. Redmond four heifers; from John Walsh a pair of steers; and one cow from R. Stewart, of Otonabee. Besides this excellent run of beef he will display mutton, pork, etc., in profusion. His shop will be one of the gayest and best-stocked in town.

N. T. LAPLANTE,

occupying a stall in the market intends keeping up with the trade in the line of Easter display. He has purchased three steers from J. Garbutt, President of the Agricultural Society; two steers and a 22-months-old heifer from M. John Bertram; calves from Mr. Jackson, Otonabee; spring lambs from Messrs. Donald Macfarlane and Geo. Taylor, Otonabee; all the above animals of the very best breed and quality. Patrons may rely upon getting beef, tender, sweet and succulent, at Laplantes. Besides this he keeps nice little pigs, sausages and fancy meats of every description. His stall will be a centre of attraction this week.

[References to the displays of other dealers are in type, but are held over till to-morrow.]

A CARD

FROM

T. DOLAN,

TO HIS NUMEROUS FRIENDS.

I beg to say that the Dry Goods business heretofore carried on by T. Dolan & Co., has been disposed of to the new firm of Messrs SHEEHY & CO., who will continue the business in the same stand No. 2 CLUXTON'S BLOCK.

Mr. Corkery one of the members of the new firm has been connected with the late firm since 1873, and consequently knows what the public wants.

While thanking my many friends who have so liberally patronized the late firm in the Dry Goods business for the past twelve years, I trust they will continue to bestow that patronage on my successors.

I desire to state that I now intend confining myself exclusively to the Clothing trade, and will continue to do my utmost to keep only such goods as will be appreciated by the public.

DISORDER IN HOUSE.

A LITTLE VARIATION IN THE CRIMES BILL DEBATE.

LONDON, April 4.—W. H. Smith replying to a question in the House of Commons this afternoon, said that under the proposed Irish Crimes' Amendment Bill, one of the two magistrates exercising summary jurisdiction must have sufficient knowledge of the law. He (Mr. Smith) would not agree to such a drastic proposal as the removal of all Irish magistrates lacking legal education.

Henry Chaplin, (Con.) raised a point of order, calling the attention of the House to a speech made by Charles A. V. Conybeare, Radical, at a recent Radical meeting, in which he denounced the Speaker of the House as a man who was no longer impartial and who had descended to become an ally of the most tyrannical party in Parliament. Mr. Chaplin asked if this language was not a gross breach of privilege.

The Speaker replied that it was for the House to decide whether the language referred to was a breach of privilege, and that personally he passed over any personal reflection Mr. Conybeare might have intended. The gravity of the affair consisted in the fact that the language used reflected upon the House. If any member thought fit to impugn his conduct while in the chair it was competent for that member to do it by a distinct motion. He hoped the language used by Mr. Conybeare had not been premeditated or deliberate. It was the Speaker's wish, as it was his duty while in the chair, to allay party feeling. [Parnellite cries of "Oh!" "Oh!"] "Yes," added Mr. Peel, who is a Liberal-Unionist, "notwithstanding those sneers [Conservative cheers], it is my wish to allay party passions. It is strange indeed that within a few weeks of my being invested with the power to give or withhold my consent to closure, it is unprecedented that any member should think it becoming to charge me with being a partizan of one side or the other. I leave my conduct to be judged by every fair, right-minded and honorable man." [Prolonged cheering].

Mr. Conybeare said his object in referring to the closure was to show that if it was used in a manner contrary to the pledge of the Government for the purpose of forcing coercion through against the constitutional liberties of the House, the members ought to be informed and obtain further time for discussion. If he had exceeded his duty in alluding to the matter he most humbly and fully expressed regret.

Mr. Smith said he understood that Mr. Conybeare withdrew his words and apologised for having used them. This being so, he (Mr. Smith) would refrain from commenting on the words Mr. Conybeare had used.

John Morley said he profoundly regretted the tone Mr. Conybeare had adopted in his speech. The Liberals had no want of faith in the constant impartiality of the Speaker. Mr. Morley knew that the Speaker's efforts had always been directed to calming strife.

Mr. Healy here asked Mr. Smith whether before moving the closure on last Saturday morning he had the previous sanction of the chair. [Cries of "Oh, oh!" "Shame!" "Don't answer."]

Mr. Smith: "I don't know if it is really right that I should answer that question." [Cries from the Conservatives of "No, no!" and Parnellite cheers.]

Amid the general disorder Mr. Smith was heard to say: "I decline to answer."

This was followed by renewed disturbance.

When the noise had subsided Mr. Labouchere asked the Speaker if it was right to put the closure question last Saturday when there was no question before the House.

The Speaker replied that the main question was before the House. [Cheers.] The subject was then dropped.

The Attack Aimed at Mr. Gladstone.

LONDON, April 4.—Mr. Chaplin, in attacking Mr. Conybeare in the House of Commons to-night, aimed indirectly at Mr. Gladstone, who, since Saturday, has been in an unwonted condition of mental excitement over the application of the closure. Mr. Gladstone denies having blamed the Speaker, and insists that the real offender was Mr. Smith, for refusing discourteously the request to continue the debate another day.

After to-night's row the Speaker was obliged to retire on account of illness, and it then became known that the probable cause of his readiness to assent to the closure on Saturday was the fact that he was suffering acute pain from varicose veins in his legs.

It is thought that as a result of the incident the Government will not dare to hurry the second reading of the Coercion Bill. An attempt to crush debate would undoubtedly produce a wild commotion throughout the country. The Gladstonians aim at fourteen days' discussion before the final division, with a recess of a week for the country and agitating the question. The Ministerialists are willing to concede seven nights for debate without recess.

The London Radical clubs are organizing a demonstration against the Coercion Bill. They propose to hold a meeting in Hyde Park on Monday and it is expected there will be an imposing procession.

THE EXPELLED DELEGATE.

Bismarck's Summary Way of Dealing With Agitators.

PARIS, April 4.—M. Antoine, the protester delegate to the Reichstag who was expelled from Germany, has arrived at Pagny. In an interview he said: "I was sitting in the cafe Turc, at Metz, as is my custom at 10 o'clock at night, when a detective entered, glanced around and disappeared. Then a subinspector of police entered, looked my way at once, and informed me that I must leave the country immediately. The police accompanied me to my home, where I had scarcely time to say wife and family, and did not leave me until I was over the frontier."

IN UNION IS POWER.

OPENING OF THE COLONIAL CONFERENCE IN LONDON.

LONDON, April 4.—The Colonial Conference opened at the Foreign Office to-day. Lord Salisbury welcomed the delegates, who, he said, were engaged in the work of originating the great movement towards Imperial federation. The question of actual federation was one, perhaps, more for future discussion than for the present, the most important question pressing upon the attention of the whole Empire being, in his opinion, the common interest the colonies had with the Mother Country in Imperial defence. He was opposed to the ambitious scheme of making a constitution for the whole Empire. In opposing this, however, he did not wish to be understood as casting any slur upon the aspiration for Imperial federation, although he was free to say he thought the scheme was of a hasty and doubtful character. Still it contained materials out of which practical results might be obtained. It should be borne in mind, however, that England was unable to emulate Germany in her manner of conducting Imperial affairs. The English Government must be satisfied to allow a portion of the Empire to conduct its own offices in its own locality. Two forms of union existed —one military, the other customs union. He did not think customs union among all parts of the British Empire impossible. A union for imperial defence was of common interest. The impression prevailed that the question of defence was entirely an Imperial matter, because colonial dangers might result from Imperial policy. The speaker admitted that extension of the Empire might require that portions of it might incur danger. England's policy was, however, essentially a pacific one, but danger of war arising from a policy of some other country should induce colonists to make their defences efficient. Distant parts of the Empire were within the sphere of possible aggression. European nations were showing an increased desire for colonial and foreign possessions. The solemn and reasonable sense of interest and security which the colonies had in the shield which the Imperial Government threw over them should convince them that it was to their interest to contribute men and means to the mutual defence. In addition to this, Lord Salisbury said he hoped that the connection between the colonies and England would become more real, and that the spectacle would be presented to the world of a vast Empire founded, not on force or subjection, but on sympathy and resolute co-operation.

Sir Henry Holland, Colonial Secretary, also addressed the conference. He traced the history of the movement to organize the military and naval defences of England and the colonies. He stated that the existing cable companies opposed the connecting of Canada with Australia by telegraph. The Samoan question, he said, would be discussed by English, German and American representatives with a view to securing a settlement satisfactory to all of the parties interested. The fisheries disputes between Canada and the United States, he predicted, would also have a satisfactory settlement.

Lord Granville expressed sympathy with the objects of the conference and said he wished God speed to its work.

The different delegates then addressed the meeting in behalf of their respective governments.

The Hon. Alfred Deakin, Chief Secretary of Victoria, said his colony favored a spirited colonial policy, and the people of Victoria were saddened at the difference between the tone of the despatches sent out by England concerning the New Hebrides and the New Guinea disputes, and the despatches sent out by Germany and France respecting the same issue.

The Right Hon. Stanhope, Secretary for War, said he would give heartfelt co-operation towards the object of the conference. The scheme of mutual defences would minimize, if it would not remove, the possibility of war.

Sir Henry Holland announced that the meeting of the conference to-morrow and Wednesday would be private and the public meetings were then adjourned till April 14.

The conference appointed a committee to congratulate the Queen, on behalf of all the colonies, on the attainment of the fiftieth year of her reign.

The Queen has consented to receive separate deputations from each colony.

CARDINAL TASCHEREAU.

His Arrival in New York—A Reception Preparing at Quebec.

NEW YORK, April 4.—Cardinal Taschereau arrived here to-day and left for Montreal this evening.

Preparing for a Reception.

QUEBEC, April 4.—Great preparations are being made here for the reception of Cardinal Taschereau to-morrow afternoon at 2. The aldermen and city councillors as well as the different religious bodies will meet at the wharf to give a welcome to His Eminence. The celebration is somewhat limited on account of it being Holy Week, but from recent appearances a great number will help in carrying out the present program.

Chicago Appeals to the Governor.

CHICAGO, April 4.—Before the special Grand Jury closed its inquisition Saturday they prepared a lengthy memorial to Gov. Oglesby which was entrusted to State's Attorney Grinnell for safe delivery. The memorial relates to the government of the county and shows how the corrupt gang that have controlled country boards for years past have found it possible to rob the taxpayers, and then asks the Governor to use his influence with the Legislature to have a law enacted to cover the deficiencies.

The McGlynn Trouble.

NEW YORK, April 4.—Rev. Dr. Richard L. Burtsell has been suspended from the pastorate of the Church of the Epiphany on account of his presence at the Academy of Music when Dr. McGlynn spoke last Tuesday evening. Rev. Henry A. Braun, who has been prominent in his opposition to Henry George and his teachings, is mentioned as the successor of Father Colton as pastor of St. Stephen's.

Montreal Telegraph Company Dividend.

MONTREAL, April 4.—A letter has been received here from Mr. Erastus Wiman, President of the Great Northwestern Telegraph Company, in which he announces that he will pay the dividend to the Montreal Telegraph Company and that he has telegraphed to Mr. Dwight to draw upon him for the amount.

The Search for Hamer.

MONTREAL, April 4.—The finding of a coat at Back River last night, and which was identified by some documents in the pockets as belonging to Hamer, the missing student, was the means of the search being renewed with vigor and continued all night. Up to the time of writing no trace of the body has been found. The search is still going on.

A Runaway Boy Captured.

DETROIT, April 4.—Frank Van Utter, a bright lad of 13, ran away from his home in Stratford, Ont., two days ago, and stole a ride to Detroit. Truant Officer Andrews found the boy on the streets on Saturday night. He was locked up in the Central Station, and notice of his arrival sent to his parents.

Indorsements to Emigrants.

OTTAWA, April 4.—The Department of Agriculture have decided to exhibit specimens of Canadian grain throughout England at all the county fairs this summer for the purpose of inducing farmers to emigrate to Canada.

A DISASTER AT INGERSOLL.

Great Havoc Caused by the Bursting of a Dam.

INGERSOLL, April 4.—This morning at 7.10 the dam at Lang's mill gave way and the water came down with a rush. The dam is situated in a small creek which empties into the Thames River, and the dam was located about an eighth of a mile up the creek. The water rushed through the mill yard and engine house of the mill, across Lang-street, on which was located a frame terrace containing four tenements, three of which were occupied. This row of houses for the moment stopped the water, but it soon gave way from its foundation and was carried bodily down the stream with its living freight, when it broke in two parts, one being demolished to fragments and the other was carried on down and lodged on the main track of the Canadian Pacific Railway. One of the tenements was occupied by John Bowman, wife and three children and his father, and of the six Mr. and Mrs. Bowman, one child and Mr. Bowman were saved. One girl about 5 years of age was found drowned, and one boy 14 years old is missing. The next part of the row was occupied by Mr. McLean, a cooper, and his son about 18 years old. The son was found dead on a pile of railroad ties and cordwood which had been washed up to the side of the stream. The father was rescued. The third portion of the house was occupied by Mr. Laird, wife and two children. One of the children has been found in the water, caught in a coil of wire fencing. Mr. Laird and another child are still missing. Mrs. Laird was carried across the river by the force of the water. She clung to her child most of the way across, but on reaching the opposite bank she slipped and the child was forced from her arms, but she was saved. Both Mrs. Bowman and Mrs. Baird are very low, and there is doubt as to their surviving the shock and the terrible ordeal through which they have passed. About 1000 yards of the main line of the Canadian Pacific Railway are displaced and washed out, and about 500 yards of the track running into the mill are completely gone.

Another report says that the engine-room of the mills and 100 cords of wood were carried away by the flood. Two or three bridges are also destroyed.

The Buffalo Hotel Fire.

BUFFALO, April 4.—The work of clearing out the rubbish from the Richmond Hotel ruins was resumed this morning, but no further bodies had been found up to noon. So far as can be ascertained there are two more bodies missing, which ought to be recovered among the debris. The body of a man supposed to be that of R. S. Boyd, remaining at the morgue, has not yet been fully identified. Representatives of the Bell Telephone Company are unable to identify it. A single tooth filled with gold, found near the remains where they were dug up, is the only clue at hand up to the present time that may serve to establish identity. The discovery of another male body in the ruins may possibly establish this by comparison. The remains of Mark Osborne have not yet been found.

A New Italian Cabinet Formed.

ROME, April 3.—The formation of a new cabinet has been virtually accomplished. Signor Depretis becomes Minister of Foreign Affairs; Signor Crispi, Minister of the Interior; Signor Viale, Minister of War; Signor Zenardelli, Minister of Justice, and Signor Saraco, Minister of Public Works. In the other departments the present members retain their portfolios.

HOME AND FOREIGN.

A blizzard prevails in the Northwest and the mercury is falling.

The Guelph Central Fair will be held on Sept. 20, 21 and 22.

Several hundred immigrants arrived in Winnipeg last week.

It is believed that Gabriel Dumont will visit Winnipeg shortly.

The journeymen tailors of Winnipeg are on strike for an increase of 33 per cent. in wages.

Philip Thompson, a retired merchant, and one of Ottawa's oldest and wealthiest residents, died last night.

A Grand Trunk brakeman named Hazel was killed near Harrisburg yesterday morning by falling between two cars.

Captain John Ellison of Stratford died very suddenly on Saturday. He was for many years collector of customs in that city.

Nine persons were poisoned by eating home-made ice-cream at Memphis, Tenn., on Sunday. They narrowly escaped death.

The other night some person entered the stable of Mr. Kenneth Murray, Embro, and cut the tongue out of one of his horses.

The Allan steamship Norwegian from Boston arrived at Glasgow on Saturday and landed her shipment of 200 oxen in good order.

A fight occurred in a Salvation Army meeting at Savannah, Ga., on Sunday and the police had to be called in to clear the hall.

Goliah is still the favorite for the Kentucky Derby, Exile for the Brooklyn Handicap, and Tremont for the Withers, with his stable companion, Hanover, a strong second choice.

John Grady died in the penitentiary at Pittsburg on Sunday. He recently inherited $60,000 and he was to be released in three months.

Two freight trains were badly wrecked in a collision at Bolivar, Pa., on the Pennsylvania line yesterday morning. No one was hurt.

At Glenmary, Tenn., on Sunday night, Joseph Brooks, a coal miner, shot and killed Theophilus Griffith. It is feared he will be lynched.

Work on the new railway from Woodstock to London is progressing rapidly, and night work by the electric light will soon be resumed.

Early this morning the house of Mark Wellwood, at Blenheim, was destroyed by fire with its contents. The inmates had a narrow escape.

Officer O'Brien of the Chicago police force was fatally shot by Timothy O'Grady, a tough, whom he was trying to arrest on Sunday night.

John McKenzie, murderer of John H. Riggs, was taken from jail at Corning, Iowa, on Sunday morning by a party of masked men and hanged.

Two hundred colored squatters have been ordered off a tract of land at Chattanooga, Tennessee, by a company who purchased it and trouble is feared.

A bomb was exploded under a street car at Paterson, N. J., on Sunday night, but no one was hurt. This is the third occurrence of the kind in that city recently.

The captain and crew of the bark Sokolo of Yarmouth, N.S., abandoned the vessel in a sinking condition, and were picked up and brought into New York on Sunday.

A petition has been presented to the London City Council for a grant of $10,000 towards the purchase of Tecumseh Park for ball and general recreation purposes.

William Clark, a boy, arrested at Hamilton on suspicion of having robbed Ellis' cigar factory, has been discharged, no evidence against him being forthcoming.

At Hamilton Police Court yesterday Patrick McDonald, an old pensioner from Woodstock, was fined $2 for creating a disturbance in the street and $50 for carrying a revolver.

Mr. Hugh Munn of Dawn Centre met with a serious accident the other evening at Bothwell. He was on his way to London, and attempted to board the train while in motion. He missed his hold and fell alongside the track, splitting the knee-pan across.

Miss Catharine Lorillard Wolfe of New York is dead. She was very wealthy, her income being from $1000 to $1200 a day. It is said she has left $600,000 towards the erection of a Protestant Episcopal cathedral in New York.

W. E. Owen purchased at Brampton yesterday from Robert Wilson, for Mr. Seagram of Waterloo, the chesnut colt Trapper, 3 years, by Long Taw, dam Evelyn Carter. The colt will arrive here to-day, where he will be trained by Owens. His only engagement is in the Montreal Derby.

The public school at Suspension Bridge, N.Y., has for some time been taught by Sisters of Charity. The other day the superintendent of instruction in the State directed the Board of Education in the village to require the three sisters to discontinue the wearing of their garb or their services will be dispensed with.

LOOK AFTER THE NEW LISTS.

The revising officer and his clerk, will before long be engaged in the work of compiling the new voters' lists under the Dominion Franchise Act, which list may be the one on which another election in this riding will be conducted. Every Liberal will see at once the necessity of being on the alert in this matter. At the late Dominion Election in West Peterborough there was only the slight adverse majority of sixteen. A little reflection and consideration will show that there were enough and more than enough names of Liberals left off the lists and Conservatives improperly placed on to not only have neutralized this majority but also to have given the Liberal Candidate a sufficient majority. Speaking in reference to names improperly placed on the lists necessarily involves no reflection upon the fairness of the revising officer. He could only consider the evidence submitted to him and if the Liberals failed to supply available evidence of the ineligibility of a voter to be placed on the lists, then the Liberals must face the responsibility for the results that ensued. Of course there is large allowance to be made. It was not expected that the members of a party working against continually hostile influences and conditions could, on the first attempt, master the intricacies of the Franchise Act and secure the largest measure of success to be expected from a full understanding of what the circumstances and conditions demanded. But they will know better next time, and the "next time" has arrived, and now is the time to act promptly. The importance of having the correctness of the preliminary list as fully assured as possible cannot be exaggerated. A contemporary suggests a line of work that can be done with great advantage by Liberals. It says:—"Let one man in each city block charge himself with the duty of taking a census of his block. He is apt to be personally acquainted with his neighbors. Let him call at each house, as an assessor would do, and get the names and qualifications of all the men eligible to vote. The whole block can be attended to in an evening. In due time the information so obtained can be forwarded to the proper quarter and tabulated. It will be of great assistance to the officers charged with the duty of correcting the lists." These remarks apply, mutatis mutandis, equally well to rural districts. The result of the recent elections, in dozens of constituencies, demonstrates that the time to win elections is at the revision of the lists. In these constituencies, through carelessness, or apathy, or unfamiliarity with the work, sufficient names of Liberals were omitted, or sufficient improperly qualified Conservatives votes allowed to remain on the lists to have affected the result. In view of these facts, the indications of duty are plain. Let prompt and vigorous action forestall all regrets of inaction in face of an adverse verdict at the polls. Let every Liberal do his duty from this time till the lists are finally revised, and he can enter into the heat of a contest without being handicapped by the discouraging reflection that he is waging battle with a loaded voters' list.

PROF. ROBERTSON, of the Ontario Agricultural College, who had charge of the Canadian cheese exhibit at the recent Indian and Colonial Exposition, has set sail for England. In an interview to-day he expressed the opinion that Canadian cheese will rule considerably higher this season than for two or three years past, and that the reputation earned by the Canadian dairies at the Indian and Colonial Exhibition will stimulate a much larger trade in that product than heretofore. The cheese makers of Peterborough will, no doubt, make their mark in the market this season. They have begun by vigorously preparing to perfect their output in the matter of quality, and from the high standing their cheese, as a general thing has taken, they will succeed.

TOWN COUNCIL MEETING.

Wisdom's Ways, Wants and Whims.

Regular Meeting of the Town Council—Scott Act Fines—The Queen's Jubilee—A Public Park—Much Vexed Questions.

All the members assembled at the meeting of the Town Council Monday night. The following communications were read:

From J. P. Dunn, C. P. R. agent, extending an invitation to the Council to visit the C.P.R. exhibition car, which will be at the station here on Saturday, April 9th, at 11.30 a.m.—Accepted.

SCOTT ACT FINES.

From John Burnham, in reference to the Scott Act fines in county cases, which were claimed by the county, but are now in possession of the town.

Mr. Dumble, Police Magistrate, expressed his opinion that in all fairness these fines belonged to the county. The county fines were imposed by him as county police magistrate, and the fines belonged rightly to the county.

The Mayor and several councillors expressed their opinion that the money belonged to the county, but others thought it would be better to have the order-in-council, by which the fines were secured, altered to meet the requirements of the case. The matter was left in abeyance.

From Eugene McCarthy, offering to supply the town with a quantity of earth for filling in at reasonable rates.—Streets and Bridge Committee.

From E. B. Edwards, asking the Council to expound his duty, and asking also for a leave of absence.—The request was granted.

From the Secretary of the Provincial Board of Health, calling upon the Town Council to forward the names of the Peterborough Board of Health, or in case there has none been appointed, to form a Board, in accordance with the requirements of law.—On motion, the same Board of Health as last year were re-appointed, Mr. Stenson in place of Mr. McClelland.

A GRANT TO THE HOME.

From Mrs. Vernon, President of the Peterborough Protestant Home, asking a grant on behalf of that institution. Mrs. Vernon and Mrs. Smith were present and were asked to speak on the subject.—Referred to the Finance Committee to report.

From Wm. Hamilton and others, asking for street improvements.—Streets and Bridge Committee.

From the Fire Brigade Band, asking for the usual annual grant.—Finance Committee.

From Geo. Dunsford and James Campbell, asking that the grade of Water street be struck.—Granted, if not already done.

From Geo. W. Powell, asking for a rebate of butcher's license.—Granted.

From John Carr and A. Kennedy, asking a refund of eating house licences.—License Committee.

From Michael Donovan, asking to be sent to the General Hospital, Toronto.—Charity Committee.

A PUBLIC NUISANCE.

From D. J. Landy, asking for the compulsory discontinuance of serving mares in public yards.—The clerk was instructed to prepare a by-law to that effect.

From Thos. Gunn, asking for street improvements.—Street and Bridge Committee.

From John Kelly, asking remission of Jas. Stapley's taxes.—Court of Revision.

From Mr. Wm. Morrison, for the Standard Chemical Engine Company, offering his chemical engine for $2,500 cash, or for a larger sum by instalments.—Received.

From the Fire Brigade, calling attention to a defect in the fire alarm system, inasmuch as the person ringing the bell never rings it loud or long enough to awake all the firemen, and suggesting that electric bells be placed in the houses of the firemen to ensure their being awakened.—Fire, Water and Light Committee.

THE QUEEN'S JUBILEE.

Mr. BRUNDRETTE, representing Peterborough lodge of the Sons of England, urged upon the council the propriety of celebrating the Queen's Jubilee on the 21st of June, and it was suggested that a park be opened in honor of the Queen; it was also suggested that the different societies in town unite in a demonstration. Inverlea, (Judge Dennistoun's property), Burnham's Point, and Chamberlain's property in the west were mentioned as suitable places for locating the park. The question has been up for years, and this was a most favorable opportunity for showing some tangible proof of their loyalty.

Messrs. Kendry and Hartley favored the purchase of Inverlea.

Mr. MENZIES moved, seconded by Mr. Kendry, that the matter be referred to the Property Committee to report.

There was some discussion over this, some of the councillors considering the proposition as unacceptable.

As another deputation was awaiting a hearing, the matter was left over for a few minutes.

THE COURT HOUSE PARK.

Mr. ROPER and Mr. DUMBLE asked the Council on behalf of the Horticultural Society for a grant for the Court House Park, of at least $400. They also asked that the cow by-law be strictly enforced. Each made brief addresses, setting forth the merits of the park and its claims for public support. The Council had not done their duty by the Society in this matter.

The MAYOR said the park had been an immense source of trouble to him; he had spent $900 and lots of time and labour on it, but he never got any credit for it. 'Twas over thus, though, and he wanted the Council to take the matter in hand.

Mr. Roper wanted to move a vote of thanks to the Mayor, but the latter declined.

Some desultory discussion followed, all the speakers favoring a grant to the Society.

Mr. MCNEIL moved, seconded by Mr. KELLY, that $600 be granted to the Horticultural Society, $200 of which to be expended on the Central Park.

Councillor Douglass objected to these grants, which were getting bigger every year, and Mr. MacNaughton didn't believe in expending money upon such a little affair. He wanted a big 50-acre park for the public.

Mr. CAHILL moved, seconded by Mr. DAVIDSON, that this Council, while desirous of beautifying the town in every possible way, deem it inadvisable to expend any further sum for such purpose until steps are taken to place the town in a better sanitary condition, more particularly until something is done with Spanking's Bay.

Mr. CAHILL supported his motion by an eloquent address, arguing chiefly that the town's health was of more importance than the town's beauty. But if a large park was to be bought, Chamberlain's property would be the best spot. He decried the selfish spirit shown in trying to have the parks all up in one end of the town.

Mr. YELLAND replied to Messrs. Cahill and MacNaughton.

Mr. MCNEIL's motion carried.

THE FINES.

Mr. CAHILL moved, seconded by Mr. MOORE, that this Council pay over to the County Council any moneys they are entitled to from the Scott Act fines, so soon as they get the Order-in-Council changed so as to give this Council a legal discharge from the custody of said moneys.—Carried.

FINANCIAL MATTERS.

Mr. DAVIDSON presented the report of the Finance Committee, which recommended payment of the following accounts:—

R. Fair, $2; Alex Elliott, C.P.R., $2.93; H. Rossiter, $1.50; Jno. P. Hurley, $2; J. D. Baptie, 60c; J. W. Flavelle, $6; Fortye & Phelan, $22; P. Cairn, 50c; M. O'Brien, $1.75; Little Lake Cemetery Co., $3.50; A. Clegg, $7; W. H. Roberts, $15.25; Aron Comstock, $30; M. H. Halpin, $10; Wm. Smith, 40c; Nicholls Hospital, $265.-86; County of Peterborough, town share for conveying lunatics.

The report recommended that Mr. Thos. Cahill be appointed Arbitrator for the town of Peterborough; that the clerk be instructed to write Charles E. Thorne that the corporation is anxious to encourage manufactories, and that they will exempt from taxation any bona fide concern for a term of ten years.

With reference to the application of the Scott Act Association, the committee were of the opinion that, as various questions relating to the Scott Act are now under consideration, they could not make any recommendation for the present.

The report further recommended that each of the constables give either a guarantee co-bond for $400 or their separate bond for $400, with two sureties of $200 each, and that the solicitor prepare the necessary by-law for this purpose.

SCOTT ACT AGAIN.

Mr. Yelland objected to the report on the ground that nothing had been done with the petition of the Scott Act Association, whose claim was perfectly just.

Mr. Kendry backed up Mr. Yelland, further asserting that according to the Act the money could be used for no other purpose than the enforcement of the Scott Act.

Mr. Kendry further objected to the clause requiring bonds for the police. It was an insult to the force, in which he had more confidence than to think such a thing necessary. He moved that it be struck out. The motion was lost.

Mr. Davidson replied that it was no more insult to the policemen than to any other town officers.

The report was adopted.

COURT OF REVISION.

Mr. Moore presented the report of the Court of Revision, reporting a number of remissions of taxes. The report was adopted.

THE INSURANCE QUESTION.

Mr. Wm. Morrison was given a hearing. He regretted that this insurance question has passed over too lightly—it was an important matter. By placing in a chemical engine a great saving would be effected to the town.

Mr. McNeil briefly reviewed the different aspects of the case, and moved that the matter be referred to the Fire, Water and Light Committee.

The Council then adjourned for two weeks.

Experiences of an Argonaut.

The old '49 days of California and the argonauts are vividly recalled by the publication here of the experiences of a Frenchman, M. de Lapeyrouse, in the land of gold during that exciting epoch, under the sensational title of "Forgotten Wretchedness," writes a Paris correspondent of the New York Graphic. The sensational, however, neither title nor narrative could well be if faithfully portraying events in that troubled era as they really occurred. Twenty times, the writer asserts, was he in peril of his life, and he wonders now that he could have passed through dangers so imminent without harm. Respect for human life there was none, and the pistol and bowie knife were often used to decide the most ordinary and unimportant differences. The thirst for gold appears to have brutalized men beyond recognition, but it was in the gambling saloons that the most terrible scenes were witnessed. These ante-chambers of the infernal regions were to be found on every block in San Francisco in 1851. The author thus describes one drama that was enacted under his eyes at a drinking place called "The Eldorado," at the corner of the Plaza Mayor, a resort being very much patronized by the Mexicans. At a table hemmed in by a double row of excited spectators was seated a man poorly dressed, who was playing a most reckless game. He had enormous saddlebags filled with doubloons, tied for convenience around his waist, but quickly exhausted the supply by the rapidity with which he renewed his stakes, luck running strongly against him. When the last doubloon had been thrown down on the table and lost, the ruined gamester quietly strapped up the empty bags, and without the least apparent excitement, but with the celerity of lightning, drew out a large dirk knife and fatally stabbed the proprietor of the saloon who had won the money. The greatest confusion at once prevailed, the spectators taking sides, and a pitched battle began. M. de Lapeyrouse and the friend who accompanied him did not wait to see which party came off victorious, but made good their escape. On the wooden sidewalk in front they found the body of the murdered man, which his associates had unceremoniously thrown out of the window. The next morning it was still lying there.

On another occasion a Jew in the service of a ship chandler had robbed his employer of $3,000 and been condemned to be flogged. The culprit was stripped to the waist, his hands tied to a post, and a squad of six sturdy miners furnished with heavy tongs with well-greased knots. The culprit was to receive sixty lashes. At the fortieth the head, back, and loins of the wretched man were a mass of wounds, whence oozed black, foaming blood. His eyes had started from their sockets, and his head swayed helplessly with each fresh blow. The alcalde, not being altogether devoid of feeling, suspended the further execution of the sentence to the intense disappointment of the spectators, who "were greatly diverted by the show." The man died a few hours afterward.

The Way Van Wyck Saved His Bacon.

Senator Van Wyck was out on a stump before an immense audience in Nebraska. There were thousands there to hear him open the campaign. As usual, he grappled with the monopolists. Right in the middle of his speech a schrewd old fellow in the edge of the crowd sang out: "Senator Van Wyck, will you let me ask you a question?" "Certainly I will," responded "Old Van." "Answer me this, then," said the old man; "Isn't it true that you came here from the East on passes, and isn't it true that one of them was given to you by the Union Pacific Railroad, which you are now attacking?" As quick as a flash the senator put his hand in his pocket saying as he did so, "Of course I did! Here are a lot more of them I got there; and I will take as many more as I can get. Always forage on the enemy is my motto."

"He Never Smiled Again."

No "hardly ever" about it. He had an attack of what people call "biliousness," and to smile was impossible. Yet a man may "smile and smile, and be a villain still" still he was no villain, but a plain, blunt, honest man, that needed a remedy such as Dr. Pierce's "Pleasant Purgative Pellets" which never fail to cure biliousness and diseased or torpid liver, dyspepsia and chronic constipation. Of druggists. 6dw14

A Petition Filed Against His Return for Kingston—Corrupt Practices Personally and by Agents Charged.

On Saturday at Osgoode Hall a petition was filed against the return of Sir John Macdonald to represent Kingston in the House of Commons. The petitioner is George Dodds, an elector of Kingston, and the petition sets out charges of corrupt practices personally and by agents, illegal voting by Deputy Returning officers, personation, bribery, etc., and claims that the election be set aside, Mr. Gunn declared elected and Sir John disqualified. This is the first Dominion election petition filed since the general election. A petition must be filed within thirty days from the day of the publication in The Gazette of notice of the return made to the Clerk of the Crown in Chancery by the Returning-officer.

"Peril."

The Toronto Mail has the following to say of the play of "Peril" which will be presented in Bradburn's Opera House on Saturday evening, April 9th:—"The interest is aroused in the first act, and continues to gradually increase until the denouement is reached just before the fall of the curtain. Striking situations are found in every act, and all are immediately connected with and help to tell the one story of friendship, the false and the true. The cast was exceedingly well filled. Miss Fanny Reeves never appeared to better advantage than as Lady Ormond, a character in which she has ample opportunity for the display of the abilities of which she has so often proved possession. Mr. Nagle Barry made manifest a correct conception of the part of Sir George Ormond, with an ability to carry it out. Mr. E. A. McDowell was successful as the family physician, Dr. Thornton, although this is a fact which is scarcely necessary to state. Mr. Edward Bell enacted the part of Capt. Bradford admirably, and gave full expression to every point of merit in it. The other members of the company gave a satisfactory support, and the performance throughout was a very pleasing one,

Enjoy Life.

What a truly beautiful world we live in! Nature gives us grandeur of mountains, glens and oceans, and thousands of means of enjoyment. We can desire no better when in perfect health; but how often do the majority of people feel like giving it up disheartened, discouraged and worn out with disease, when there is no occasion for this feeling, as every sufferer can easily obtain satisfactory proof, that Green's August Flower will make them free from disease, as when born. Dyspepsia and Liver Complaint are the direct causes of seventy-five per cent, of such maladies as Biliousness, Indigestion, Sick Headache, Costiveness, Nervous Prostration, Dizziness of the head, Palpitation of the Heart, and other distressing symtems. Three doses of August Flower will prove its wonderful effect. Sample bottle, 10 cents. Try it. eodw4

It is sure, pleasant to take, and never fails to cure all kinds of pain. Don't wait an hour, but send to any drug store and get a trial bottle. Nerviline, the sure pain cure. 6dw14

The Daily Examiner.

MONDAY, APRIL 4, 1887.

LOCAL NEWS.

From the Mormon City.

Mr. M. Tierney is in receipt of a letter from Mr. Alex. Elliott, dated March 29th, at Salt Lake City. In the letter Alex. says they (himself and Mr. James Dolan, who accompanies him) intend to "do" the city, take a bath in Salt Lake, and leave in the morning for the coast. He says that "Jim" (meaning Mr. Dolan) has been struck hard by the Mormon girls, and he intends bringing no less than 17 home with him. [Boys, leave your cards at the Palace Grocery House without delay.] An enclosed picture of Jim's especial choice certainly does credit to his taste. The air, writes Mr. Elliott, is pure and fine, and "Jim says he is getting fat on it." On one occasion Jim took four of them in to treat, and planked down 20c., but they charge 15c. for lager out in the West, and the bar-tender made him ante up the balance, 40c. "Jim was used to the six for a quarter racket, but it wouldn't work there." Alex. says they will be back in about two months, as by that time they will have quite enough. He has as yet seen no place that can compare with Peterborough, and (here's something for the girls) "you can tell the Peterborough girls that they just knock the spots off the American girls."

Private School for Boys.

Brock street Peterborough—Principal, Mr. Edward Duff. Mr. Duff has had a large and successful experience in training boys for commercial pursuits, and for special examinations, having been for twelve years Principal of a private boarding school in Cambridge, England. The number of pupils being limited, individual attention is secured, and the views of parents with respect to their sons' education carried out. Reference invited to friends of present and past pupils. An evening preparation class is being formed for boys attending the High School. An hour and a half is spent each evening in preparing boys for their days' duties in school. Mr. Duff holds the full certificate from South Kensington in drawing in four subjects, and also the Intermediate Certificate for singing from the Tonic Sol-fa College, and is qualified to examine for the Elementary Certificate. Mrs. Duff is prepared to receive pupils in music. For particulars and prospectus apply to Mr. Edward Duff, Brock street.

County Court.

A sitting of the County Court of Peterborough (without jury) was held at the Court House this morning, His Honor Judge Weller presiding. Judgment in Graham vs. Darcy, tried at the December sittings, was given in favor of the plaintiff, as an ordinary writ of summons; the judgment provided also that no action can be taken against the sheriff or others interested on account of the capias. A motion for judgment in McMaster vs. Hayes, by Sawers, plaintiff's counsel, was granted. A case which was entered for trial was settled before coming into court. The court proceedings lasted about half an hour.

Monday's Score by the Gun Club.

The Easter Display of Beef by the Town Butchers—Preparing for a Big Spread.

J. T. BATEMAN,

though he has been in business less than a year at the corner of London and George streets, has worked up a nice little trade, and the reason is patent—he does a fair and square trade, and is obliging to all his customers. He does not intend to make a brilliant Easter display, but offers his customers the best article at lowest prices. His exhibit will comprise two steers purchased from Mr. John Garbutt, of Smith, averaging 1400 lbs each; a 4-months-old calf fed by Mr. Davidson, Smith, weighing 400 lbs.; besides a quantity of mutton, lamb, pork, etc., such as is usually found in a first-class butcher shop.

MOORE & CO.

started a butcher shop at the corner of Aylmer and Macdonnel streets only last week, and are confident of being successful. Cause why? They sell the best meat for the least money, and are obliging to all customers. For Easter they will decorate their shop a little, and will make a fine display of meat. They have purchased one 3-year-old heifer from Dr. Kincaid, weighing 1,260 pounds; one steer from Mr. Davidson, of Monaghan, which tips the beam at 1,300; another from Mr. Alexander Davidson, which is fully its equal; a calf from Mr. Lillico, of Monaghan; two spring lambs and one sheep from Mr. Jackson, of Otonabee; besides a couple of pigs. They also keep all sorts of fancy meats.

G. W. POWELL,

located at the corner of Smith and Water streets, has a nice little shop in which he keeps a correspondingly nice little stock. He has supplied the north-enders with their "daily bread"—alias meat—throughout the winter, and his retail trade has as yet just begun to assert itself. For Easter he has been making a little extra preparation, buying a steer from Mr. Robert Howden, and some prime beef from Mr. W. J. Hoyt, of Lakefield. He will besides keep in stock some lamb, pork and veal of the best quality.

W. MCNAIRN,

who has done business for the past three years in his stand on George street, near London, does not intend branching out very heavily in the line of decoration for the Easter trade, but he will, nevertheless, offer his customers a first-rate stock of beef, etc., to select from. For this purpose he has bought two fine heifers from Mr. Wm. Telford, a couple of spring lambs from Thos. Edgar, of Smith, some pigs from Dr. Kincaid's farm, while he has some sheep of his own feeding. Fancy meats will also be kept on hand. His stock, though small, will be A No. 1.

J. CONROY

doesn't take any stock in brilliant Easter displays, thereby necessitating a heavy expense. He intends being economical and giving his customers the benefit of it. His butcher shop on Hunter street, near Aylmer, will not be gorgeously decorated, but Mr. Conroy says his patrons can rely upon finding a stock of meat in his shop not to be excelled in quality by any butcher in town.

M. O'BRIEN

keeps a neat little meat shop at the corner of Charlotte and Aylmer streets, where as good a stock of meat as can be found in the city is always kept on hand. He will not make much of a display for Easter, but has secured four or five of the best cattle obtainable, besides some lambs and pork. He keeps fancy meats of all kinds.

ASHBURNHAM BUTCHERS.

W. Kemp, near the bridge, will make a pretty big display, having purchased two steers from E. B. Chamberlain, of Douro; one heifer from Wm. Porter, Douro; a calf from Alex. Reid, Otonabee; and another from Wm. Bell, Douro; a couple of fine porkers from Wm. Porter; besides a number of spring lambs. His stock of fancy meats will also be up to the mark.

P. Glover, at the corner of Elizabeth and Mark streets, will also make an extra display. His shop will be nicely decorated, while his stock will include two steers and a heifer purchased from Wm. Matthews, Otonabee, averaging 1,300 lbs. in weight; a couple of calves, and a number of spring lambs, sheep, pigs, etc. His stock will be found to be first-class throughout, and he promises patrons as good value for their money as can be got anywhere.

Feast of the Festive Fathers.

Bivalvular Relaxation from the Cares of State—At the Mayorial Mandate the Molluscs Meander Forth—Remarkable Receptivity of Craterical Oral Organs—Aldermanic Appetite Vindicated.

A "Round Robin" was circulated among the councillors assembled around the civic legislative board, Monday night, but as will be seen by the signatures, it didn't reach the representatives of No. 4 Ward. It was handed to the Mayor, and he immediately ordered the oysters. Here is a literal copy of the "RoundRobin":—

TO THE MAYOR.

I will take mine "selects" stewed.—ANDREW MCNEIL, JAMES T. STENSON.

I will take mine any way I can.—R. S. DAVIDSON.

I have no option.—T. CAHILL.

I will take mine red hot with wine sauce.—WM. YELLAND.

I will ditto.—JOHN DOUGLAS.

As you like.—W. H. MOORE.

I will take mine beer and croton oil mixed, equal parts.—TIMOTHY TUGMUTTON.

I will have mine hot.—THOMAS KELLY.

As this is Lent I am compelled to take mine raw.—J. MCNAUGHTON.

Mine stewed.—J. STEVENSON.

Get the oysters, &c., ready by half past 10.—J. STEVENSON.

After the business of the town had been well and wisely transacted, a general adjournment was had to Chamberlain's Restaurant, where, in addition to the twelve aldermanic artizans who mould the fortunes of our progressive town, and the munificient Mayor who presides over that august body, there were seated about the tables Mr. C. D. Macdonald, Clerk, in the chair; Chief of Police Cooper, Mr. John Doherty, Market Clerk, the Review and EXAMINER. These affiliated Knights of the Round Table, so to speak, (for the tables were round—or at least oval), evidently enjoyed their oysters and fraternal confab. "A little frolic now and then, is relished by the wisest men." A vote of thanks to the mayor was moved by Mr. Menzies, and seconded by Mr. Douglass, both of whom made humorous little speeches, to which that gentleman replied in the same strain, and the dining hall resounded with roars of laughter. The Mayor's health was drank, and the jovial councillors departed for their homes, filled with oysters and feelings of conviviality consequent upon the worthy Mayor's handsome conduct. "May he live long to set 'em up every Council night," was the expressed wish of the festive aldermen.

Turnbull's Millinery Opening Days are Wednesday and Thursday of this week.

Presented With a Jewel.

Last evening the members of Wellington L. O. L., No. 457, Nassau, presented Bro. W. R. King, Past Master, with a beautiful Past Master's jewel, as a token of their esteem. The gift was furnished by Mr. W. A. Sanderson, jeweller. The presentation was made by the Master, Bro. Davidson, and Mr. King replied very feelingly.

$2 000 in Three Weeks.

From March 11th to April 4th, fines to the amount of $1,900 have been imposed for violation of the Scott Act—$1,450 from the town and $450 from the country. The costs in these cases will amount to something over $200—a total of over $2,000 for the municipal treasury in three weeks.

Demolished the Waggon.

At noon to-day a team of horses and lumber waggon belonging to some luckless farmer came tearing up George street. At Simcoe street the box and wheels were left behind, and in turning down Hunter street towards Ashburnham, the front wheels and tongue were dropped. The horses continued towards Ashburnham.

Turcoman and Tapestry curtains suitable for Portieres, just received at A. CLEGG'S, also a nice line of cornice poles. 2d1w

Wash-out on the Midland.

A slight wash-out on the Midland R. R. track, about three miles this side of Millbrook, delayed the trains this morning. About five feet of track was misplaced; damage slight.

Rowing and Canoeing.

At a meeting of the officers and members of the Peterborough Boating Club last night, it was thought best to divide the club into two distinct branches, by which it is hoped to arouse increased interest and success. The clubs are called the Rowing Club and Canoe Club. Each club will occupy half of the old Boating Club's boat-house, but will otherwise be separately conducted. Their officers are not yet elected.

FOR the relief and cure of the inflamation and congestion called a "cold in the head" there is more potency in Ely's Cream Balm than in anything else it is possible to prescribe. This preparation has for years past been making a brilliant success as a remedy for cold in the head, catarrh and hay fever. Used in the initial stages of these complaints Cream Balm prevents any serious development of the symptoms, while almost numberless cases are on record of radical cures of chronic catarrh and hay fever after all other modes of treatment have proved of no avail. eodw14

FROM

T. DOLAN,

TO HIS NUMEROUS FRIENDS.

I beg to say that the Dry Goods business heretofore carried on by T. Dolan & Co., has been disposed of to the new firm of Messrs SHEEHY & CO., who will continue the business in the same stand No. 2 CLUXTON'S BLOCK.

Mr. Corkery one of the members of the new firm has been connected with the late firm since 1878, and consequently knows what the public wants.

While thanking my many friends who have so liberally patronized the late firm in the Dry Goods business for the past twelve years. I trust they will continue to bestow that patronage on my successors.

I desire to state that I now intend confining myself exclusively to the Clothing trade, and will continue to do my utmost to keep only such goods as will be appreciated by the public.

The Daily Examiner.
WEDNESDAY, APRIL 6, 1887.

THE Toronto Mail, in replying to those Conservative journals who seek to make it appear that Hon. Mr. Blake is too selfish to give up the prospect of office, and that the recent circular was a trick to win sympathy, says:

"It is not the Mail's mission to laud or defend Mr. Blake or any other politician; but truth compels us to say that this hypothesis is neither generous nor probable. If selfishness were Mr. Blake's master passion he would have retired years ago to the practice of his profession. It is an open secret that his means are not large. To say nothing of his outlay as a private gentleman, it is evident his position as a party leader must entail a considerable unproductive expenditure upon him. No one will pretend that he makes anything out of politics; on the contrary, every year he devotes to Parliament and public life represents so much taken from the modest hoard he had set apart for the use of his family, and so much lost—at least $25,000 a year—through neglecting his calling. We know of no man in Canada who has made larger pecuniary sacrifices for the sake of politics than Mr. Blake: and the theory that he clings to politics out of sheer cupidity is absurd."

Spring Millinery and Mantles.

Bonnets for the Beautiful—Hats for the Handsome—Mantles for Matron and Maid—How Frisky Fashion Crowns and Clothes the Sex.

And now doth the warm sunshine and the incessant hum of frozen nature awakening to life denote that spring has arrived, with all its gay and gorgeous paraphernalia, its new styles, shapes and colors in millinery, and the customary displays by the town merchants. And now also doth the fair maiden of sixteen summers, the demure young lady just out of her teens, and the complacent matron who has the cares of a family resting upon her—all flock to the millinery openings to discuss the latest freaks of fashion and vie with each other in the effort to procure the most bewitching or startling styles obtainable. These harmless rivalries among the ladies are of great consequence to the milliners, who in turn endeavor to out-do each other in the magnificence and variety of their displays.

HALL, INNES & CO.

are again the first to hold their millinery opening, which was in operation yesterday and to-day. Their millinery and mantle show room has been visited by hundreds, who are loud in their praises of the beautiful display made. The walls of the spacious room are draped with curtains and laces, the ceiling hung with bright-hued flowers, parasols and laces, while the tables were flecked with little bits of bonnets mounted on high racks, or surmounted with flossy bunches of ostrich plumes in variegated colors. Ribbons, mantle cloths, trimmings, etc., were displayed in profusion. The prevailing style of head-gear will this year be the close fitting turban. Among the prominent shapes are those known as the Gainesboro, which is still in favor; the Folsom and the Frou Frou. The EXAMINER was informed that the much-maligned "sky-scrapers," as the tall hats are vulgarly termed, will not be as much worn this season, as formerly. In trimmings, plumes, ribbons (with picot edge), aigrettes, wings, flowers and gauzes will be extensively used.

The prevailing colors are Heliotrope, Lavender, Cadet Blue and Old Rose—the latter the newest production of the chromotechnist's art.

In mantle cloths the latest fabric is Satin de Lyons; Ottoman Cords are also used. Sling sleeves are much worn in light ulsters and dolmans. The trimmings for mantles are almost entirely jet.

Hall, Innes & Co. are preparing to do a extensive business in spring mantles and millinery.

CANADIAN CARDINAL

MGR. TASCHEREAU'S ARRIVAL AT QUEBEC FROM ROME.

QUEBEC, April 5.—His Eminence Cardinal Taschereau arrived in Quebec from Rome about 3 o'clock this afternoon. His arrival was announced by the ringing of all the bells in the various Roman Catholic churches. Long before the arrival of His Eminence crowds of people lined the streets and in the vicinity of the Grand Trunk wharf standing room could hardly be found. Upon the landing were the clergy, the Mayor, city councillors, the presidents of the different national and religious societies and two bands of music. As His Eminence disembarked the bands struck up some lively welcoming tunes. The Mayor then advanced, and after saluting His Eminence read an address of welcome.

His Eminence made no reply to the address, but was escorted to his carriage which, by the way, was the new state carriage, and seated with him in the carriage was Grand Vicar Legare. A procession was then formed and proceeded in the following order: Grand Marshal, Children of the Sisters of Charity and students of Christian Brothers' school; students of the Quebec Seminary, with band and banner; the Irish National Society, with banner; the members of the City Council. His Eminence came next, with a guard of honor of fifteen Pontifical Zouaves; the clergy and his Eminence's suite; then followed the citizens.

The procession was a very long one and the streets along which it passed were gaily decorated with flags and bunting. All the thoroughfares, notwithstanding the rain, were black with people. His Eminence was driven directly to the Basilica; there was a most imposing scene here. As his Eminence entered the large portals he was vested with his robes, and preceded by the Grand Vicar walked up the main aisle, the ecclesiasts and others forming on each side. As his Eminence proceeded he blessed those assembled. A solemn Te Deum was sung by a full and most select choir. Then his Eminence gave an apostolic blessing and made a few remarks, in which he thanked his faithful followers for their kind welcome, and said that His Holiness had made special mention of the sincerity and faithfulness of the Catholics of this province, and wished him to convey his holy blessing to them.

The throne was beautifully arranged, being covered with cardinal colored silk velvet, and having a coat-of-arms of the College of Cardinals immediately above the seat on the throne. His Eminence was very emotional, and it was said that he suffered great anxiety over the illness of his brother, Judge Taschereau. After arriving at the palace he proclaimed the Court of Honor which the Holy Father has granted him: Prothonotaries Apostolic, Right Revs. C. E. Legare and Dr. Hamel; Vicars-General, Domestic Prelates, the Right Revs. Messrs. Bolduc, Methot and Paquet; Chamberlains, the Very Revs. Messrs. Marios and Totu; Commanders of the Order of St. Gregory, Mr. Justice Jean Taschereau and L. G. Baillargé, Esq., Q.C.

It is said that other citizens will receive honorable distinctions from His Holiness, of which, it is believed, Cardinal Taschereau is the bearer.

THE MISSING STUDENT.

It is Believed that His Body will be Found Under the Snow.

MONTREAL, April 5.—The relatives of young Hamer have employed a private detective to hunt up the case. There is no reason why the city detectives, who have worked so energetically for the past ten days, should give up the case, although it is suggested that they consider their mission ended in view of the intrusion. Here are a few theories about the case which are generally discussed by citizens. Suppose the unfortunate young man got lost in a snowstorm of the fatal night the thaw of the past few days ought to reveal the body. Young Hamer undoubtedly had money on his person when last seen. Suppose the body should be found and no money in the pockets of the clothes, are not the circumstances suspicious? What course should the detectives take? Those possibilities are talked about by citizens, and the detectives are looked upon to elucidate the mystery.

Yesterday morning Detective Lapointe prosecuted his search for Hamer, the missing student, but without success. He also made enquiries about the man who found the overcoat and found that they were respectable, hard working men, who had been employed by Mr. Hanna and Mr. Gareau for the past three years. Detective Lapointe is confident that the body will be found near where the coat was discovered in the course of a few days, after the thaw has melted some of the snow away.

THE PRESIDENT OF THE C.P.R.

Arrival of Sir George Stephen and Party at Montreal.

MONTREAL, April 5.—Sir George and Lady Stephen, accompanied by Lord Clifford and his sister, the Hon. Emma Clifford, arrived by the Delaware and Hudson train from New York today. The party drove to Sir George's residence on Drummond-street. The president attended the monthly board meeting of the Canadian Pacific Railway, and was closeted with the directors up to a late hour. It is understood that nothing will be decided in connection with the Imperial mail subsidy until after the question has been discussed at the colonial conference, which will also deal with the subject of the proposed cable from British Columbia to Japan, China and Australia. Lord Clifford intends visiting the Northwest, where he has a brother settled, running a dairy farm.

HORSES FOR THE BRITISH ARMY

The First Lot Will be Purchased in Quebec and Ontario.

HALIFAX, N.S., April 5.—Adjutant-General Goldie has left for the upper provinces to make the first purchases of Canadian horses to be sent to England for use in the army. The first shipment will be made from Montreal in June, and the adjutant-general thinks he will be able to obtain all the animals for this lot in Ontario and Quebec. Afterwards he will proceed to Manitoba and the Northwest to make purchases for a second lot to be sent from Montreal in October.

THE CHICAGO CARPENTERS.

The Number of Men on Strike Estimated at 8000.

CHICAGO, April 5.—The carpenters' strike is still in progress. A small force of workmen quit this morning on a building in process of construction. It is estimated that at least 1000 more men joined the strikers to-day. This makes the total number out nearly 3000. In many places the bosses acceded to the demands of the men, but the union would not permit the men to return to work till the Employers' Association has concluded to grant the union's demands.

A Rate War Imminent.

CHICAGO, April 5.—The Pennsylvania company and its allied lines have ordered all of their ticket agents to throw out all coupon tickets of the western roads, excepting the St. Paul, and to sell no more tickets to western points beyond the terminals of the Pennsylvania company. The effect of this order is that any person from the east traveling beyond Chicago will be forced to buy a ticket over a western road at this point, unless he travels over the St. Paul.

As the Western roads will probably retaliate, a war between the two sections is expected. The action of the Pennsylvania is based on the refusal of the Western lines to cease paying commissions.

The Zurich Burglary.

ZURICH, Ont., April 5.—The vault and papers which had been carried away at the robbery of D. Steinbach's store on the night of March 2 were found last evening by Mr. Henry Kaehler partly buried in the manure heap at his barnyard, one and a quarter miles south of here. By the appearance of the vault it was burst open with a chisel. The papers are all in good condition, except being roughly stuffed into the box. The money is all missing. There were also fifty Winchester cartridges found buried with the vault. Detectives are absorbing for the money, watches and jewelry.

Do you want any more coles? If so you can get them at Kidd's. Get your boots repaired there always!

DEBATE CONTINUED.

THE SECOND READING OF THE CRIMES BILL MOVED.

LONDON, April 5.—The House of Commons is practically taking a week's holidays, so many members are pairing. The Government insists that the debate on the Irish Criminal Law Amendment Bill shall proceed but will postpone the division on the bill till April 19. The Conservative whips retain enough members to keep their majority secure in order to prevent a surprise.

The Secretary of the Birmingham Radical Union states that the ward elections for delegates to the Liberal Association have resulted in a large increase in the Unionist strength.

In the event of the Coercion Bill becoming a law a number of Radical members of Parliament promise to join the Parnellites and go to Ireland to defy the act.

Sir Edward Clarke, Solicitor-General, accused Mr. Gladstone of having bartered all of his convictions and his future freedom in order to gain a position, the danger of which was recognized in 1885 and illustrated in 1886, namely, dependence on the Parnellites. Did he still hope by obstructing business and forcing an appeal to the country to obtain a majority independent of the Parnellites? [Cries of "Yes" from the Irish benches.]

The Second Reading Moved.

LONDON, April 5.—The second reading of the Irish Crimes' Act Amendment Bill was formally moved this afternoon by Mr. Balfour. Mr. Samuelson, Gladstonian member for Banbury, moved an amendment that the bill would, if passed, increase disorder in Ireland and endanger the Union and Empire, and therefore should be rejected.

Henry Chaplin (Con.) defended the bill. The land laws which the Radicals now condemned, he said, were passed while Mr. Gladstone was at the head of the Government. Mr. Chaplin asked Mr. Gladstone, not as a Liberal, not as a politician merely, but as an honest man, to disown before Ireland and the whole world the reign of sheer plunder now preached in Ireland. If there was any robbery in connection with the present land system of the country the author of it was Mr. Gladstone. It was he who fixed the rents in Ireland, under a solemn guarantee that they should remain unaltered.

MORE TITLES FOR CANADA.

Chief Justices H. C. Cameron and Stuart Knighted.

LONDON, April 5.—Chief Justices Cameron of Ontario and Stuart of Quebec have been made Knights Bachelor.

These honors have been conferred presumably upon the recommendation of the Governor-General, and are similar to those given to the judiciary of the superior courts in England who are made Knights Bachelor. Hitherto Canadians who have been knighted have been of the Order of St. Michael and St. George. The cable does not say that Chief Justice Hagorty or Chief Justice Wilson will accept the honor, both of whom are the seniors of Judge Cameron.

Sir Matthew Crooks Cameron was born at Dundas, Ont., Oct. 2, 1822; barrister, 1849; Q.C., 1861; entered Parliament, 1861; Ontario Legislature, 1867; member of the Executive Council of Ontario, 1867; leader of the Opposition, 1872; Puisne Judge, Queen's Bench, 1878; Chief Justice, Common Pleas, 1884.

Sir Andrew Stuart was born at Quebec, 1813; advocate, 1831; Q.C., 1854; assistant judge, S.C., (P.Q.), 1859; Puisne Judge, do., 1869; Chief Justice, 1874.

Congratulations will be in order at Osgoode Hall to-day. Probably the first intimation Sir Matthew will have of the affair is when he picks up The World this morning between his egg and his toast.

A BIG FIRE AT WINDSOR.

A Hotel and a Number of Shops Burned to the Ground.

DETROIT, April 5.—This morning the stable attached to the Bosman House at Windsor, Ont., caught fire, and being old and as dry as tinder, resisted all the efforts of the firemen to extinguish the flames. The hotel proper caught fire, and although the Windsor firemen worked hard they could not control the flames. The Detroit department was telephoned and two steamers and hose carriages were immediately sent over on the ferry Victoria. The Bosman House and the frame stores to the south of it were quickly destroyed. By this time the Detroit relief party had arrived, and finding that they could not make connection with the hydrants, they ran the suction directly into the river and had the fire out in a few minutes. The following are the losses: Barn on Chatham-street owned by Wm. Douglass and used in the storage of agricultural implements, $500 loss. Arthur Brunner, a well-known resident of Windsor, narrowly escaped being burned in the hotel. The other losses and insurances are: Thos. Manning, loss $20,000, insurance $16,000; Joseph Malaneville, loss $5000, insurance $3300; G. C. Ayres, tailor, loss $2400, insurance $1500; E. Gregnac, harness maker, $800, insurance $1000; R. Paddon, plumber, loss $600, insurance $300; W. Carrie, loss $350, insurance $200; Mrs. McLeod, loss $200, insurance $200. This shows the total loss to be $32,100 and insurance $23,000. Four horses were burned in the Bosman House barn. Three were held by the bailiff for debts against different persons, and one was owned by I. J. Elliott.

THE CONTENT IN MICHIGAN.

It is Claimed That the Prohibitive Amendment is Lost.

DETROIT, April 5.—Returns from yesterday's election are slowly coming in. It is settled that the Republican state ticket has been elected by 10,000 plurality. Interest now centres on the prohibition amendment. The Evening Journal says it is defeated by 8,000 majority, and others claim the majority will reach 15,000; but the Prohibition Committee still claims the adoption of the amendment.

THE CHICAGO ELECTIONS.

The Labor Candidate for Mayor Defeated by a Large Majority.

CHICAGO, April 5.—The municipal election today has resulted in a sweeping victory for the Republican ticket. A very large vote was polled in all the wards. John A. Roche, Republican candidate for mayor, has been elected by a majority ranging from 25,000 to 29,000. Nelson, the candidate of the United Labor party, received strong support, but the aggregate of the Labor vote was not as large as had been estimated.

Reform in Germany.

BERLIN, April 5.—Prince Hohenlohe, the Governor of Alsace-Lorraine has returned to Strasburg. The project for the reform of the administration of the Reichsland is completed. Under the new scheme, the Government under the Statthalter will be divided into three departments the first comprising commerce and agriculture, the second justice and public worship and the third, finance. Laws affecting the Reichsland which have hitherto been referred to the landesausschuss will henceforth be confined to the bundesrath and Reichstag, including land commercial laws and laws relating to the nomination of mayors.

An Indiscreet Diplomat.

BERLIN, April 5.—The North German Gazette, Prince Bismarck's organ, takes notice of the conduct of Senor Moncorbid, the Spanish consul at Hong Kong, who, at a recent banquet in that city, toasted the prosperity of France and expressed a hope that she would have a brilliant revanche. The Gazette says the other diplomats at the banquet were unable to suppress expressions of surprise at this speech, and adds: "Germany will not fail to make to Spain proper and weighty comment on the occurrence. Spain must not permit her diplomats to forget with culpable frivolity what is due to their position."

Attempted to Kill His Wife.

DETROIT, April 5.—James Lee of Middleton, Ont., was arraigned before Magistrate Bartlett of Windsor, yesterday, on a charge of assaulting his wife with intent to kill and murder. The alleged offence was committed Sunday while the husband was drunk. Lee pleaded guilty, but the magnitude of the case was reserved pending the result of Mrs. Lee's injuries.

THE BIBLE IN SCHOOLS.

The Matter Discussed by the School Board

Regular Meeting of the Board of Education—The Book of Selections Overhauled.—Teacher's Salaries.

Mr. J. James Stevenson, chairman, and Messrs. Dumble, McWilliams, English, Weir, Kendry, Deane, Dr. Burnham, Wrighton, Errett, Sproule, Stratton, Muncaster and A. Rutherford assembled in the School Board Room Tuesday evening.

In order of business the following communications were received and disposed of :—

The monthly report of Mr. Jas. Stratton, inspector, regarding the state of the schools, was read.—Received.

From Geo. C. Ross, engineer, giving the unsatisfactory results of a recent inspection high school boiler.—Received.

From the Department of Education, stating that the sum of $693.10 had been granted to the Collegiate Institute.

From Mr. A. E. Scott, asking an increase of salary to $600.—Committee on Appointments.

From the Whitby Board of Education, asking the co-operation of Peterborough Board of Education in obtaining the formation of a Provincial Board of School Trustees in order to secure a more direct communication with the Department. Referred to the Committee on Appointments.

An account of W. Sailsbury, for stationery, amounting to $6.35, was paid.

The following is a table of the attendance at the various schools :—

	No. on Roll.	Average Attendance.
Central School	653	579
Collegiate Institute	—	163
West Ward School	166	140

—Received.

A petition was read largely signed by the pupils of the schools, asking for a general holiday.—Received.

TEACHER'S SALARIES.

Mr. DUMBLE presented the report of the Committee on Appointments, which recommended that the salaries of the head masters of the South and West Ward Schools be $800 per annum, and of Mr. Smith, head master of the Central School, $750. With regard to the other applicants for increased salary, the committee would report as soon as full data regarding their present positions were furnished.

Mr. RUTHERFORD urged a larger increase of salary for Mr. Smith, who was an excellent teacher and deserved at least $800. Mr. Kendry and Mr. Sproule supported Mr. Rutherford.

Mr. STRATTON and Mr. DUMBLE urged the adoption of the report, the recommendations of which had been carefully considered.

Mr. ENGLISH was of opinion that Messrs. Rowan and Scott should receive higher salaries as well as Mr. Smith.

On motion the report was referred back to the committee for consideration.

THE NEW SCHOOL.

Mr. RUTHERFORD enquired if any action had been taken with regard to a site for the North Ward School. Mr. Wrighton, chairman of the special committee, replied that as the ground was covered with snow no action had been taken.

THE BIBLE IN THE SCHOOLS.

Mr. STRATTON, on rising, made a few remarks relative to the wrong impression which prevailed among some that the Bible was excluded from our schools, when Mr. McWilliams handed him the following resolution :—

That whereas owing to circumstances arising from the recent discussions creating an impression in the minds of some that the Bible in its entirety is excluded from the Public Schools of this Province :

And whereas an impression has been sought to be made that a teacher is liable to a penalty of $10 for using the Bible in preference to the "Scripture Selections:"

Be it resolved, that in order to set at rest any shadow of contention that the Departmental action tended or does tend to exclude the Bible from the the schools, this Board hereby leaves it optional will all teachers in the schools under the jurisdiction of this Board, to use the Bible in lieu of the Scriptural Readings, which were prepared and published by the Department under the approval of the clergymen of the different leading denominations of the Province.

A CONTRA OPINION.

Mr. SPROULE moved, seconded by Mr. English, that a book known as the Ross Bible is now and has been for some time in use in our schools, that the said book was placed in the schools without the knowledge or consent of this Board and further that it is not compulsory that it it should be used in the schools ; be it therefore resolved that the use of the Ross Bible be discontinued and in place thereof the Holy Bible shall be placed in the High and Public Schools as formerly for Scriptural readings.

Mr. SPROULE in moving the resolution, deprecated the act of the Department in dispensing the Bible by this Book of Selections, which he designated the Ross Bible. With him it was the whole of God's word or none. This authorizing the Ross Bible was one of the most insidious attempts of Satan to try to oust the Holy Bible from the schools. This Ross Bible was but a garbled version of the true Scriptures.

Mr. DUMBLE challenged his statement, and Mr. Sproule, opening the Bible at Genesis, where reference is made to the tempting of Joseph by Potiphar's wife, compared it with the Book of Selections, which read differently.

Mr. DUMBLE, however, pointed out that the passage in the Book of Selections was not given as God's word. It was an ellipsis, and printed in smaller type to show that the wording had been altered. The passage in its entirety was scarcely proper to read before a lot of children.

Mr. SPROULE denied that. There was not a passage in the Bible that he would not read to his own children or in his own family.

A GOOD BOOK AFTER ALL.

Mr. RUTHERFORD wanted to know from those gentlemen who were trying to put the Scripture Readings out of the school, why they did so. What harm had it ever done? He had read up the matter pretty well, and he was of opinion that the Book of Selections was a good book. There were passages in the Bible which it would not be commendable to read before children.

Mr. DUMBLE was sorry the matter had taken the aspect it had done, because the whole thing savored of politics. But the Board of Education in this town did the very same thing years ago that the Department had done in furnishing the Book of Selections. They went to the ministers in town and asked them to make some selections from the Bible for reading in public schools. They did so, and these selections were printed and used for years ; and the thing ceased not because there was any fault found, but because the Board was lax in its duty. But here is a magnificent book. It is the Scriptures put up in convenient form for teachers to read to their pupils. There is a large amount of the Scriptures that is not profitable reading, and just in order to prevent teachers—a male teacher before a class of girls, or a female teacher before boys—from reading a chapter, and right in the midst of it find themselves in an embarrassing position, when they must either read on and bring the blush to every one's cheek, or stop at once—in order to prevent the recitals of unmentionable vices and impurities, before a class, this book of Selections had been prepared, a book in which the gems of the whole Word of God are picked out and put together, a book which could be read at all times by any person without the fear of bringing the blush of shame to his cheek. It is the select book of all books, and anyone who assails the book betrays great ignorance, because there is nothing in it that is not admirable. The only objection was that the chapter and verse were not mentioned, but these were not in the original Bible ; they were put there by the translators. Instead of finding fault, though, we ought to be thankful that the book has been placed in the schools. But he would not have anyone say, "you shall read this portion or that portion," and he therefore took the position that all teachers be free in its use, though it was an excellent book. He moved the following resolution :

AN AMENDMENT.

Moved by Mr. Dumble, seconded by Mr. McWilliams, that this Board hereby authorize teachers in its employment to use the Bible in the devotional exercises, if so desired.

Dr. BURNHAM enquired what Mr. Dumble would do with the children when they went to church and heard these passages read. Turn them all out?

Mr. DUMBLE replied there were lots of chapters in the Bible which were not read from one years' end to the other. Ministers never read such questionable chapters.

Mr. MCWILLIAMS.—During the last three or four months we have heard a great deal of discussion on the question of the Bible in the schools. He had heard a great many versions of this question, but of all the buncombe he had listened the worst was in a church in town a few Sundays ago. One statement among many others made by that gentleman was that if a teacher used the Bible in the school he was liable to a fine of $10 00. He asked the Board to pass the resolution he had moved and to protect the teachers, and that they might not be put to any trouble, he would give his written guarantee to the chairman of this Board to pay all expenses. Politicians were often denounced for misrepresenting their opponents, and it was urged that it would be better if clergymen would take a more active part in the elections, but if they are all as capable of garbling the statements of those opposed them as the one who undertook to handle this question, then it would be a cold day for that class of politicians. What would that gentleman say if some minister would go into his pulpit and take for his text Romans iii. and 8, and only read : "Let us do evil that good may come," and then go on to prove that the more sin a man committed the more good he was doing. And yet that would be honest compared with extracts read by him from Professor Nelles, Principal Cavan and Rev. Dr. Dewart's letters. He did not think it made much difference which book was used, but he would like to see this matter tested.

Mr. MUNCASTER asked Mr. Sproule if he would compel the teacher to read the whole of the Bible,—not in parts, but every part.

Mr. SPROULE—Yes ; I would treat the Bible as it has always been treated, Let the Holy Ghost guide them.

Mr. MUNCASTER—We are not talking of the Holy Ghost now, but of the teacher Would you make the teachers read the whole Bible?

Mr. SPROULE—They could do that just as they liked.

Mr. MUNCASTER contended that Mr. Sproule's argument killed his own idea. He wanted the matter left to the inexperienced teachers and does not think that those theologians who compiled the Book of Selections were capable of doing it.

Mr. STRATTON said the principal reason he had in bringing the matter up, was that he had been told that a number of the members of the Board had decided to bring up the question of having the so-called Ross Bible excluded from the public schools and the Bible placed in its stead. The whole thing had evidently been cut and dried, or it would not have been spoken of as frequently as it was. These Selections were approved by all the ministers—English, Methodist, Presbyterian, Baptist and all the other leading denominations. There is no doubt that the endeavor has been made to create the impression on the minds of some that the Bible itself has been excluded from the schools, and it has been said that Archbishop Lynch had used his influence to have the Bible excluded. That was not so. He (the speaker) had spoken to the Minister, who said it was the intention to give the school boards the power to have the Bible used in their schools. Mr. Stratton urged a compromise between his motion and Mr. Sproule's by passing Mr. Dumble's.

THE WHOLE WORD OF GOD.

MR. SPROULE—There is no man can say I was actuated by politics, bigotry or ignorance in the matter. I stand to defend the Word of God as the servant of God. I haven't any objection to the Book of Selections or anyone using it in his own family, but it who is ashamed of this Bible (putting a copy of the Scriptures) that I stand here. This statement that the Bible or some portions of it were given to be read before children was the cuteness of Satan. The Bible is for the teachers or not. The Bible only should be read. Let the Board make selections, but let them be read directly from the Bible itself, and not from a book got up for the purpose. Wherever the Bible has been put to one side, wickedness has increased. Any man that says I am afraid or ashamed to read any portion of the Bible before an audience does not speak truthfully.

Mr. RUTHERFORD said it appeared to him that the Book of Selections had the tendency to increase the sacredness of the Bible, and prevent its becoming a common book.

Mr. MCWILLIAMS withdrew his resolution in favor of Mr. Dumble's.

Mr. KENDRY objected to Mr. Dumble's motion because it actually meant nothing at all. If the Bible was to be used, use it or nothing.

The chairman read over Mr. Sproule's and Mr. Dumble's motions, before putting them to vote.

Mr. RUTHERFORD, referring to Mr. Sproule's motion, wanted to know if the chairman was going to recognize a motion in which was the name "Ross Bible." There was no such book.

A CLOSE VOTE.

The CHAIRMAN replied that he would put any motion placed before him, and then put Mr. Sproule's motion first. The vote stood 7 to 6 against the motion, and the Chairman voted in its favor, thus making a tie, and, of course, losing the motion.

Mr. DUMBLE's motion was then put, and the vote stood 7 to 6. The Chairman voted with the minority, and another tie ensued.

Chairman STEVENSON then declared Mr. Sproule's motion carried, claiming the right to vote away the tie.

Objection was made to this by the opposition, who argued that he could not vote twice on the same question, as he was virtually doing.

The chairman left the matter in abeyance till he could thoroughly satisfy himself in the case. If he was in the wrong he announced that his decision would be reversed at the next meeting.

"The Chairman of the Board shall preside, or in his absence any other person appointed to act as Chairman by the majority of those present, and such Chairman or person so acting may vote with the other members on all questions, and any question on which there is an equality of votes shall be deemed to be negatived."]

Mr. SPROULE demanded the yeas and nays on his motion, which were taken as follows :—

YEAS.—Messrs. Burnham, Sproule, English, Wrighton, Kendry, Deane and Stevenson.—7.

NAYS.—Messrs. Dumble, Stratton, McWilliams, Errett, Rutherford, Muncaster and Weir.—7.

ASHBURNHAM PUPILS.

The Chairman brought up the matter of admitting pupils from Ashburnham to the Peterborough schools. It was decided on motion to admit them on the same terms as county pupils.

With regard to the petition for a public holiday, it was considered sufficient to allow the children the usual statutory Easter holidays.

The meeting then adjourned.

BRIGHT PROSPECTS

FOR A BIG SPRING TRADE AT

THE CITY CLOTHING STORE.

I have completed my Stock of Cloths, Clothing and Furnishings for Spring and Summer Wear. The Cloths are the Pick of the best markets and of the most Fashionable Patterns.

SPRING OVER-COATS. I have a large line of handsome and durable materials so Cheap that any one can afford to have a Spring Overcoat. Nothing is more needed at this Season of the year than Light Weight Overcoat.

CUSTOM WORK. OUR CUSTOM WORK will still keep its high rank. Fit, Style and Finish is our hobby. Our Cutter, Mr. DRESSER, is as painstaking and exact as ever, and we undertake to turn out suits equal to any in the Dominion. Suits made up to Order on Short notice.

READY-MADE CLOTHING. I can now show a Stock which has the Style and Finish of Ordered Clothing, in Men's, Boys and Youth's Suits, and at Prices that will astonish you. For example : TWEED SUITS at $5.00, $7.00, and $9.00 ; WORSTED SUITS at $10.00 and $12.00. BOYS SUITS actually as low as $2.00. If you don't understand how we can do this, and give a good article, too, come in and see for yourselves. The percentage on all our Clothing is close, to be sure, but our facilities for buying at lowest market prices are unsurpassed by any in trade. Bear in mind, too, that our Clothing is all good. Undergrade Clothing may be offered to buyers elsewhere, but not at the City Clothing Store. Sign of the Golden Horse Shoe, symbolical of Good Luck to all who pass in under.

LEGISLATURE OF ONTARIO.

Sixth Parliament—First Session.

MONDAY, April 4th.

Several bills were introduced and read a first time, and others received a third reading.

A large number of private bills were passed through committee, and second readings were given to other bills.

In reply to Mr. Eventurel, the Minister of Education stated that the Government were considering whether or not to assist in completing the memorial column commenced in 1884 for the purpose of marking the exact site of the old French Fort or trading post established in Toronto in 1749, and that it was expected that out of the grant for archæological purposes to be administered by the Canadian Institute, provision would be made for marking by a stone or other means the more important historical spots of the Province.

It was also stated by the Minister of Education, in reply to Mr. H. E. Clarke, that while the school law provided for the expulsion from Public Schools of refractory pupils, it was not clear that School Boards could expel pupils of from fifteen to twenty years of age convicted of gross immoralities, and that the Government were considering whether or not there should be an extension of power in this direction.

MR. CHISHOLM, of Peel, raised an important farmers' question in moving for a copy of the charter, the names of the incorporators and stock-holders and other particulars relating to the Ontario Grain and Seed Company.

The company was represented by Mr. Chisholm to be unworthy of the confidence of farmers, and Mr. Leys detailed a number of very questionable transactions by American companies operating, he said in much the same way. Mr. Meredith corroborated some of the statements made, and Hon. A. M. Ross explained that it was untrue, as represented, that the company had money deposited with the Government, and questioned if the Government should not withdraw the charters of companies convicted of swindling operations. The discussion will at least invite public attention to the subject, and if the facts are as represented the farmers should not require further warning.

Dr. McKay, of South Oxford, moved the second reading of an important measure to prevent accidents by fire in hotels and other public buildings. He proposes that there shall be kept in all hotel bedrooms fire escapes consisting of a fire proof ladder, composed of at least two ropes of at least three-quarters of an inch in thickness, bound together by cross ropes of at least half an inch in thickness and ten inches in length and not more than two feet apart; the ladder to be of sufficient length to reach from the window in which it is placed to the ground below, and shall at all times be kept in such a condition as will permit of at least two full grown persons safely ascending or decending at the same time. Refered to a special committee.

Mr. BRONSON moved the second reading of his bill to amend the Municipal Act. He explained that it provided, among other things, that votes for mayor should be cast only in the sub-division in which the voter resided, the vote to be marked in on the list, and the mark to be prima facie evidence that the vote had been cast.

The bill was read the second time and referred to the Municipal Committee.

"He Never Smiled Again."

No, "hardly ever" about it. He had an attack of what people call "biliousness," and to smile was impossible. Yet a man may "smile and smile, and be a villain still" still he was no villain, but a plain, blunt, honest man, that needed a remedy such as Dr. Pierce's "Pleasant Purgative Pellets" which never fail to cure biliousness and diseased or torpid liver, dyspepsia and chronic constipation. Of druggists. 6dw14

Divinity Departs.

The angel whom a young man escorts to a ball or a party is quite a different sort of a looking celestial to what she appears in the morning after when her mother is chasing her down cellar to take a hand in the week's washing.

Reasons why you should purchase Fluid Lightening in preference to all other remedies are: Rapid results—cures instantly, easily applied—no trouble—no lost time, It does not require constant use—one application is effectual. One bottle will remove more pain than any other remedy in existence. Try it for Neuralgia, Toothache, Headache, Rheumatism. Sold at 25c. a bottle by John McKee Druggist. eodw14

Woman's Folly.

A lady who wore a big hat to the theatre the other night was appropriately punished before she got home. The trimmings on the top got caught in a telegraph wire, and it was nearly morning before the riggers got a derrick up and released her.

B.B.B.—In Working Order.

"My husband was troubled with dyspepsia for more than four years. Two experienced physicians did him no good. We got discouraged until we read of Burdock Blood Bitters; he took only two bottles and now is as well as ever, and doing heavy work all the time." Mrs. Richard Rowe, Hartley, Ont. B. B. B. has cured the worst cases of chronic dyspepsia. 2w14d

The best exponent of Browning is the domestic who can send up a perfectly roasted turkey.

Snow lies seven feet deep in sunny Italy, and it is feared that the hand-organ crop is seriously damaged.

The man who can rise superior to adverse circumstances is a hero. Remember this when your trousers bag at the knee.

The Boundary Line

Between comfort and discomfort is often very slight. Have you rheumatism or neuralgia? or are you a sufferer from obscure nervous pains? Why suffer longer? You can purchase for 10 cents a bottle of that king of pain—Polson's NERVILINE, or you can get a large bottle for 25 cents. It cures promptly. It is sure, pleasant to take, and never fails to cure all kinds of pain. Don't wait an hour, but send to any drug store and get a trial bottle. Nerviline, the cure pain cure. 6dw14

Woman's Chin.

The Court Journal says that a large chin in a woman is a feature of beauty. Well a large chin is a great deal better than an active one, anyway.

Where the Danger Lies.

The chief danger from taking cold is its liability to locate upon some internal organ, as the lungs, the pleura, the bronchial passages, etc. Hagyard's Pectoral Balsam loosens and breaks up the cold, allays irritation and often prevents or cures pulmonary complaints. 2w14d

ST JACOBS OIL

THE GREAT GERMAN REMEDY

WILL SURELY CONQUER PAIN!

Throughout the Universe.

Sprains and Strains Cured.

Sprained Thigh—Quickly Cured.

Toronto, Ontario, Canada.

Thos. Butler, 43 Givens street, switchman at the N. & N. W. R. R., sprained his thigh running after a train. Was black and blue and badly wrenched. Two applications of St. Jacobs Oil cured him. Was afterwards thoroughly wet and caught rheumatism in shoulder, so much so that he could not raise his arm. One application cured him.

Injured Spine and Partial Paralysis—Cured.

58 Paddington Grove, Battersea, Park Road, London, W., England.

I met with a serious accident, resulting in a severe shock to the system, injuring my spine and partially paralyzing one side of my body. I was admitted to St. George's Hospital, Newcastle Road, where I remained 109 days. I was unable to stand or even sit up. The physicians decided that my chance of recovery was to undergo an operation, to which I objected and took my discharge. Being carried home, I was in a short time unable to turn myself in bed. Procuring a supply of St. Jacobs Oil, I caused it to be rubbed freely on back, legs and feet. I am now able to walk, am free from pain, and my bodily health is daily improving.

WILLIAM THOMAS.

An Actor—Up and Out in 48 Hours.

I fell through a trap on the stage, thereby spraining my ankle which immediately swelled up to an enormous size, and I had to be carried to the hotel. The doctor said that it would require at least two weeks before I could with safety venture out. I procured a bottle of St. Jacobs Oil and I am glad to say the effect was marvelous. After using half a bottle I was able to resume my duties in forty-eight hours.

RALPH DELMORE, Actor.

Every day increased demands; every patient amazed when cured; every ache or pain succumbs; every dealer knows its merits; every chemist finds it perfect. St. Jacobs Oil. Price fifty cents per bottle. Sold by Chemists and Dealers. The Charles A. Vogeler Co. [Limited], Md., U. S. A. Canadian Branch, 30 York Street, Toronto, Canada.

LOCAL NEWS.

Average Attendance.

The average daily attendance for March at the Collegiate Institute was 163.

King Solomon's Mines

May have contained its dazzling treasures, but even they had nothing so suited to every day life as China Hall. Coloured tea sets at $2.50, and glass sets (6 pieces) at 30 cents.

New Orleans Jubilee Singers.

This company, pronounced the best in America, consisting of eight colored men and women, will be here on Easter Monday. Get your tickets (25 cents) now, at any of the book stores. No reserved seats. Number of tickets limited.

Piano Tuning.

Mr. George Gumpricht is in town. Orders may be left at Mr. T. Menzies' bookstore, or Messrs. Taylor & Macdonald's drug store. tf of business done by R. Stinson & Son since the commencement of their closing out sale has shown a largely increased majority in the number of the electors who have secured bargains since the 1st of February.

Short Nights.

As the days become longer, we can afford to use more artificial light, and reading or sewing by lamp light may become a new pleasure by buying China Hall's famous Coal Oils. Same prices as inferior oils.

Don't fail to see Turnbull's display of Millinery and Fancy Dress Goods on Wednesday and Thursday of this week.

Real Estate Change.

Mr. James Stenson has purchased from Mr. James Middleton, of Smith, the two brick houses on George street, opposite the Central Park. The price paid was $3,700.

Millinery Openings.

The spring millinery openings of H. S. Griffin & Co., Fair & Co., James Alexander, and J. C. Turnbull & Co., began to-day. They will be continued to-morrow.

The Ladies

of St. Andrew's church intend holding a sale of useful and fancy articles on the 21st April in St. Andrew's School Room. Particulars later.

Ask to see Turnbull's Seamless German Mottery when in inspecting Millinery this week.

Gospel Temperance Meetings.

Rev. J. Judd White's meetings in the Opera House continue to attract large audiences. Last nights' meeting seemed to be particularly interesting, Mr. White's songs as usual being warmly applauded. Meetings will be held Wednesday and Thursday evenings.

"His Only Pair."

This is the title of a charmingly natural chromo designed in the interest of Clark & Co's. cotton thread, and on the back of which Mr. Jas. Alexander has an invitation to the ladies to visit his millinery rooms. "His Only Pair" cannot fail to bring back pleasant boyhood memories, and if we mistake not, Mr. Alexander will find such a demand for copies of his "taking" subject that will soon exhaust his supply.

A Reminder.

The public are reminded of the Social tomorrow (Thursday) evening under the auspices of the Ladies' Aid of St. Paul's church, in the School Room of the church. An interesting programme has been arranged for, both musical and otherwise, and an enjoyable entertainment may be expected. Mr. John Millar has kindly consented to give an exhibition of Mind Reading. Admission 25c. Refreshments will be served.

AT A. CLEGG'S, newest styles in picture moulding. Fine picture framing a specialty Altered and Improved.

Mr. James Alexander, the popular George street dry goods merchant, like his great Macedonian namesake of ancient history, who overcame any difficulty that might present itself, has just succeeded in doing away with the last and only obstacle which might prevent his store from being classed A No. 1—supreme. The changes made are in the millinery, mantle and dress-making departments. The millinery show room in rear of the store has been thoroughly overhauled, painted, papered, and fitted with the choicest of goods spread out in rich display. Upstairs, though, the most complete alterations have been made. A stairway has been built from the millinery room to the back-rooms above, which were formerly unoccupied, but have been converted into neat work-rooms. The work-rooms were formerly situated in the front of the store, but these new rooms at the rear, besides being more comfortable, will be doubly convenient, having direct communication with the millinery show room below. A ladies fitting room has also been fixed up, and a capacious store-room besides. Thus there is not a single material objection to be found in the internal arrangement. Mr. Alexander intends having a big clearing-out sale of his dry goods this summer, to give opportunity for making some alterations in his business. Customers may expect bargains. His annual spring millinery opening takes place to-day and to-morrow.

A Lift for the Farmers.

Mr. C. W. Armstrong, of Brampton, is in the county at present introducing to the farmers the "M'Connell Rack Lifter." This is an ingenious contrivance for elevating the rack and load in the barn to the desired height. It has the merits of being simple, strong, with few parts, easily worked and perfectly safe. One horse only is required to raise the heaviest load and two men can lower any load with ease. Apart from its great utility, its chief merit is its low price. Mr. Armstrong, who comes with the highest recommendations for reliability, is placing one of these Lifters in the barn of the Government Experimental Farm, Guelph. A courteous reception is bespoken for him from the farmers he will visit within a few days.

Deserted His Wife.

Louis Dion, a French-Canadian laborer, was yesterday arrested here by Chief Cooper on the strength of a message from Trenton, charging him with the desertion and non-support of his wife and three children in that town. Chief Hincle, of Trenton, came up to-day, and in conversation told the EXAMINER that there were plenty of cases in Trenton just like Dion's, where the husband skipe out and leaves a wife and family to be supported by the corporation, and the authorities were going to try to put a stop to it. Dion claims that he has not been working this winter and had no money, but Chief Hincle says there are men in Trenton now, who worked with him and can disprove his statements. The Chief leaves with his prisoner this afternoon.

Ask to see Turnbull's 50 and 75c. Kid Gloves when in inspecting Millinery this week.

Cobourg's Daily Papers.

The Daily Sentinel-Star and Daily World, Cobourg, have been launched with a big splash, though the Sentinel-Star kind of took the wind out of its adversary's sails by stealing a march and coming out two days ahead. But though behind its cotem. in that respect, the World is fully capable of sustaining its part in the struggle for patronage and prosperity. Both papers are a credit to Cobourg and Cobourgundians, and that our one-cent cotemporaries may meet with every success is the wish of the EXAMINER.

Thanks From the Brigade.

At a meeting of Fire Brigade Tuesday night the thanks of the Brigade were tendered Mr. and Mrs. R. B. Lundy, Dr. and Mrs. G. Burnham, Dr. and Mrs. Boucher, and Mr. and Mrs. J. G. Macklin, who acted as judges at their recent carnivals; to Mesdames G. W. Hall, J. Fraser, and J. B. Pentland, who conducted the cake contest; to Messrs. J. Clark, T. Menzies, J. Mills, H. Quirk, M. Sullivan and R. Stenson, who donated prizes; and to Mr. A. McNeil, especially, and all persons who rendered other assistance.

Our Bard's Decision.

Like Banyan I was very much perplexed,
At times in hope, and sometimes sadly vexed,
All my productions—I fairly knew would tease
And thought the fire would be their proper place;
Again I thought they might be worth preserving,
Some might them read, though they were undeserving.
While self esteem so weak with trembling fear,
Said do not print them. some will ne'er them sneer.
Two barriers still stood looming in my way,
First, would they please, and second, would it pay!
Man Judge his own: No, that's a fancied dream—
The public's verdict always rules supreme.
The humblest man that ever raised a pen
Has friends sincere among his fellowmen:
I have my friends and they are numerous too
Meadfoot as all these, warm and kind and true.
They view my writings, with a higher aim,
Than I possess, self-confidence to claim:
Long have they urged me—showing reasons clear
Why all my poems should in book form appear;
With great reluctance, therefore, grant I their desire—
Because my lines show no poetic fire.
From my decision do not draw the fact
That self-ambition prompts me to the act;
Such vain presumption never moved my heart
Thus to aspire—to act an author's part—
But for for my friends, my writings still would stay
Within my desk, unpublished, to decay.
Many, I know, will gladly read my muse:
Those they displease might my weak faults excuse.
The praise of all, no writer ever gained,
If I please half, my object is attained.
He that builds hopes upon the donkey fable
To please the whole, will find he is not able.
He strives, but finds his greatest efforts fail—
He pleases none—and donkey's loss bewails.

WM. TELFORD, Smith.

Ready for the Road.

Porter Bros.' Complete Preparations for the Summer Trade.

As spring comes, and with it comes the return to the use of wheels, it finds the pushing and persistent Porter Bros. ready for the road. During the winter their large staff of workmen have been busily engaged in preparing a stock of vehicles for the summer trade, and as a consequence the spacious warerooms of the firm will, in a few days, be thrown open to the public, when a magnificent stock of superb carriages, buggies phætons, and all sorts of driving vehicles will be placed on exhibition. Those in need of anything in this line are particularly requested to visit their warerooms and inspect for themselves before purchasing elsewhere. So great has been the rush of work that additional premises have had to be secured for some of the departments, a fact which shows how high the firm of Porter Bros. has risen in the esteem of the public.

This season Messrs. Porter Bros. are meeting with great success in introducing the "O'B. & S. Road Breaking and Speeding Cart," a vehicle unequalled for these purposes. This is the first season of its introduction in Canada, this firm being the sole owners of the right to manufacture them in Canada, and they can only be procured from Messrs. Porter Bros. or their authorized agents. All horsemen are delighted with the O'B. and S. cart, and Mr. Charles Porter has just returned from a trip in western Ontario where he has met with great success in introducing this splendid cart, whose chief advantages are that the weight of the driver makes no movement of the shafts, preventing galling and chafing of the horse; there is no "horse motion" and it is perfectly balanced regardless of the weight of the driver. Its full advantages can only be seen by inspection and all parties interested can see it at Porter Bros. warerooms where it is always kept in stock. In carriage tops the firm is doing an extensive business, the demand for these excellent goods coming from every part of the Province. In fact in every department of carriage building, Porter Bros. take a leading position, even the matter of repairing receives equal attention with the other branches of their extensive business.

A CARD

FROM

T. DOLAN,

TO HIS NUMEROUS FRIENDS.

I beg to say that the Dry Goods business heretofore carried on by T. Dolan & Co., has been disposed of to the new firm of Messrs SHEEHY & CO., who will continue the business in the same stand No. 9 CLUXTON'S BLOCK.

Mr. Corkery one of the members of the new firm has been connected with the late firm since 1873, and consequently knows what the public wants.

While thanking my many friends who have so liberally patronized the late firm in the Dry Goods business for the past twelve years, I trust they will continue to bestow that patronage on my successors.

I desire to state that I now intend confining myself exclusively to the Clothing trade, and will continue to do my utmost to keep only such goods as will be appreciated by the public.

OPPOSING COERCION.

A LIVELY MEETING OF THE LIBERAL FEDERATION.

LONDON, April 6.—The council of the Liberal Federation met in London to-day. There were numerous delegates present from the provinces.

The president, Sir James Kitson, denounced the policy of the Government as brutal, and said they were trying to reduce the Irish to the level of the Hottentot. He moved that the federation protest against the Coercion Bill as retrograde in policy, tyrannical in principle, and vindictive in detail.

Admiral Maso raised an uproar by asking whether the Crimes Bill was not really an anti-coercion measure aiming to suppress the shameful coercion of the National League. He asked which form of coercion English Liberals should support. If the English House Rulers were consistent about governing Ireland according to Irish ideas, they were bound to let the country go, conceding that absolute independence which the Nationalists wanted.

An attempt was here made to him down the speaker, but the chairman ruled that the speaker was in order.

Continuing the speaker said this pursuit of the abstract principle of nationalism would result in the abdication of England's national responsibilities and cause their country to become weak and insignificant and liable to fall an easy prey to an adjoining nation that cultivated strength and consolidation, while England cultivated disintegration and decay. The speaker's concluding words were drowned with noise.

The President's motion was approved, as was also a resolution expressing gratitude to Mr. Gladstone for his wisdom and courage in opposing coercive measures.

The delegates made arrangements for a series of anti-coercion demonstrations throughout the country.

Three hundred non-conformist ministers have signed a memorial protesting against the Coercion Bill.

Mr. Morley in South London.

LONDON, April 6.—Mr. John Morley addressed an audience of 6000 Liberals at Victoria Hall in South London to-night. He charged the Government with Russianizing the administration of Ireland and denounced the Crimes Bill as a hateful instrument of oppression. The measure, he said, was intended to lay the tenants at the feet of the landlords, who, flushed with triumph, would be spurred on by their own needs to harsh exactions. But the Liberal would not desert the Irish people. The time was when Irishmen saw no light on the horizon save what shone across the floods of the great Atlantic. Now he saw a new light nearer home. They no longer looked to the westward alone; they looked to the eastward, too, and they saw a beacon of hope and sympathy from England That beacon would never be put out. Morley's speech aroused unbounded enthusiasm.

The Celtic League has issued a manifesto protesting against the Coercion Bill and has resolved to call a mass meeting in London to denounce the measure.

An uproar occurred at the meeting held at Dundee to-day which has been called by Unionists. Two Irishmen present, who composed the greater portion of the audience, rejected a motion for a vote of thanks to the speakers and tried to pass a resolution protesting against coercion. The speakers thereupon left the hall, and the meeting terminated in disorder amid cheers for Home Rule and Gladstone.

AFTER THE BATTLE.

A Little Difference in the Ranks of the Labor Party at Chicago.

CHICAGO, April 6.—About fifty excited men stood around the room that once formed the headquarters of the United Labor Party this morning, all talking at once, and each trying to outtalk his neighbor. None of the leading candidates were present. Frank Dvorak, who ran for alderman in the Sixth Ward, came in and began denouncing the traitors who, he alleged, sold out the party and caused the defeat.

"Served you right," said Charles Temple, chairman of the Committee on Organization. "You got what you deserved, and you are the only traitor. You tried to drive your d——d Socialistic doctrines down our necks. You shoved us to one side while you rubbed in your red flag nonsense, and we had to sit still and let you rub. You forced every nomination that was made on us in spite of ourselves. You forced the ward nominations, and you even nominated the county town tickets."

Dvorak muttered something that sounded like "Boodle," when Temple turned on him and shouted: "D—— you, don't you say 'Boodle' to me. There was not a man that didn't work for the ticket, even though he knew it was defeat. There was no boodle amongst the Americans, and I am an American."

"I could have sold out," said Dvorak. "I was offered $2200 over there in the City Hall if I would quit, and I wouldn't take it."

Temple and Dvorak went up-stairs to the committee room and renewed the quarrel and would have undoubtedly come to blows had not bystanders interfered.

"I am a Socialist," yelled Dvorak, "and I'm proud of it."

"I am an American, first, last and all the time," retorted Temple, "and I'll live and die under the American flag, and by the next election the Socialists will know that they can't run the workingmen of this country, and will teach them in a way they won't like. We worked and organized the party and you Socialists come and open your yawping dogs our throats. But we won't have it."

IN ARMS AGAINST THE AMEER.

It is Believed That the Ghilzais Will Fight Desperately.

LONDON, April 6.—A despatch from Allahbad says: "Afghan advices say that the Ghilzais rising is slowly developing. It is reported that the road from Cabul to Candahar is closed north of Khelat-i-Ghilzai. The Ameer, however, is full of confidence. The rumors that he has applied to the Indian Government for aid are unworthy of credence. The Ghilzais are in lack of good firearms, leaders and money, but they will probably fight desperately, as the Ameer's troops are close around them. The Ameer's enemies in India are busy spreading alarming rumors, but the latest reports from Cabul show that he is fully prepared to deal with the rebellion."

A SWINDLER IN THE TOILS.

The Police Penetrate the Well-laid Schemes of Charles A. Stevens.

NIAGARA FALLS, N.Y., April 6.—Charles A. Stevens was arrested here to-day, at the instance of Detective Young, of the Ontario police force, charged with engaging in swindling operations. Steven's modus operandi was to get the names of different persons throughout Ontario, Toronto, London, Woodstock and elsewhere seeming to be his favorite points, and notify them by printed forms of the express and railroad companies and customs department, which he appropriated for the purpose, that a package was held here to their address and on receipt of charges, naming amounts ranging from $6 to $20, the package would be forwarded, signing his name as Collector of Customs. All replies were to be addressed to box-box 7 at the postoffice. It is not known how much money he got, but it is believed that he swindled a great many.

He was brought before the Police Magistrate, who remanded him until April 9, pending the arrival as witnesses of victims from Toronto and other places.

THE TORONTO VICTIMS.

[Several Toronto parties, mostly merchants, have been caught by Stevens. T. Suckling & Sons, music dealers, heard from him and so did Louis Stevert. Mr. Stevert was "called on" for $4.50 which he sent. He was to get a box which was held at the Falls. He was a little surprised at first, but as he expected some samples of ore from a friend in Denver, Col., he thought it was right. A couple of hours after he sent the money he learned that the scheme was fraudulent. By telegraphing he had payment of the money stopped. He was put to fifty-five cents expense, but he considers that he got that worth of experience. Others, however, did not get off so easily.]

AN INDIAN AGENT'S REPORT.

A Slight Irregularity for Which, He Trusts, He May Be Exonerated.

WASHINGTON, D.C., April 6.—The Indian Commissioner Atkins has received the following letter from Indian Agent E. C. Osborn, at the Ponca, Pawnee and Otoe Agency, Indian Territory, under date of April 2: "With a profound sense of regret I have to report that in discharging, yesterday, K. M. Smith, a farmer at the Otoe Agency, for general bad conduct upon the agency, but chiefly because of his ungovernable temper, which was continually being turned loose upon both employes and Indians, I had to kill him in self-defence. He had repeatedly threatened to kill the clerk in charge, Mr. Young, who reported his conduct and asked that he be discharged. I went to Otoe to explain to him my reasons for discharging him, to hear his defence, if he had any, to pay him his salary for the past quarter and to dismiss him. While very quietly and calmly discharging the duty he made a violent attack upon the clerk in charge, whom he wounded in the arm and doubtless thought he had killed, and then turned upon Mr. Justice, the agency blacksmith, and myself with cocked and levelled revolver and with the manner of a maniac, when I shot him dead. I am thoroughly convinced that I saved three lives in taking his, and when it is considered that one of those was my own, and the only one I have, I trust I may be exonerated."

A BAD HOME-COMING.

George S. Herchmer's Body on Its Way to His Mother at Belleville.

The body of the manfound at Andalusia, Pa., on Thursday morning last has been undoubtedly identified as that of George S. Herchmer, the Brampton banker. The identification was made by Mr. Charles F. Gildersleeve of Kingston, a brother-in-law of the deceased. Mr. Gildersleeve left Kingston on Tuesday and arrived at Bristol, Pa., to which place the body had been removed, at an early hour yesterday morning.

Mr. Gildersleeve had no difficulty in recognizing his brother-in-law, as the features of the dead man were almost life-like. The family relatives in Brampton and Belleville were immediately notified of the sad result of Mr. Gildersleeve's mission, and of his intention of leaving in the afternoon with the body for Belleville, where the interment will take place. Mr. Gildersleeve will arrive at Belleville this evening.

The Lightweight Champion Belt.

BOSTON, Mass., April 6.—"Ned" Hoiske is very angry at McAuliffe's talk about the championship belt.

"I have made up my mind," he said, "to award the international belt and the lightweight championship of the world to Jem Carney, and hereafter I will require that every man fighting for it shall do so under the old London ring rules, which provide that the men shall weigh 133 pounds at the ring side on the morning of the battle. McAuliffe has had everything his own way thus far. He was over weight when he fought Frazer and also when he fought Gilmore. Who ever heard of a lightweight fighting at 146 pounds and 148 pounds? Here Jem Carney, who was with Hoiske, broke in and said: "I came here from England to fight McAuliffe, and he's the man I want to meet. I prefer him to anybody else. But as I hold the belt I'm open to fight anybody before I go home."

"Yes," said Hoiske, "Jem has got the belt and I have got the Lonsdale that says he will keep it. If McAuliffe thinks it belongs to him let him fight for it, that's all."

Entries for Rockaway Stakes.

In addition to the entries already published in The World for the spring meeting of the Rockaway Steeplechase Association the following entries to the Green Steeplechase and Green Hurdle Race closed on April 1:

Green Steeplechase, about 2¾ miles—Ballot 8, Blue Day 4, Romero aged, Brunswick 4, Britton 5, Ed. Green Hurdle Race, about 1¾ miles.—Ballot, 8; Blue Day, 4; Brunswick, 4; Ed. Gilmartin, 4; Exhibition, 6; Enslover, 4; Enfilade, aged; Estacy, 6; Gambler, 6; Hawthorne, 7; Hercules, 6; Hindoo, aged; John Henry, 4; Justin Mack, 5; King Trombley, 4; Kirkdale, aged; Monitor, 6; Oklahoma, aged; Regal, 5; Silver Dean, 6; Tattler, 6; Ventilation, 5; Wheatly, 4.

The steeplechase is at weight for age, according to the rules of the Rockaway Association. The hurdle race is a handicap, weights to be published on April 15.

The "Thunderbolt" Done Up.

BALTIMORE, April 6.—Mervine Thomas, known as the Cleveland Thunderbolt, was knocked out in a sparring exhibition to night with James O'Dey, a local pugilist of the heavyweight class. There was a large audience. The local man surprised everyone by hitting the "Thunderbolt" whenever he pleased, and wound up by twice knocking him clean off the logs. The fight began to look so much in earnest that the police rushed in and stopped it.

A St. Paul Woman's Crime.

ST. PAUL, Minn., April 6.—John Murphy, a cooper, was fatally shot by Mrs. Mary Hegener, his employer's wife, this evening. The bullet penetrated the brain from the rear. Mrs. Hegener is an attractive young woman and claims Murphy revealed her of improper intimacy with himself and other men, and that she had to kill him to prove herself innocent. Murphy leaves five.

Concerned in a Fraud.

WASHINGTON, D.C., April 6.—The Postmaster-General has issued an order directing the postmaster at Syracuse, N.Y., not to deliver to the Empire News Company of that city money order and registered packages to its address, it appearing that the company is concerned in a fraud.

A Switchman Fatally Injured.

BELLEVILLE, April 6.—James Cummings, a Grand Trunk Switchman, was probably fatally injured this afternoon at the east end of the station yard here. Cummings was in the act of rescuing a child and was struck in the back by a backing train.

HAMILTON MATTERS.

Charged With the Larceny of a Watch—A Case of Indecent Assault.

HAMILTON, April 6.—About the end of October last a silver watch and chain were stolen from the residence of Bradford Mitchell, No. 23 Liberty-street, and on the day that they were missed David Morden, a young man who had been boarding at the place, was missed too. Mr. Mitchell suspected that Morden, the watch and chain had gone away together, and so reported to the police. Yesterday Morden came to this city to see his father, and at 3 o'clock this morning Constable Hunter saw him at the Grand Trunk station and arrested him. He pleaded not guilty of the offence at the Police Court this morning and elected to be tried by a jury. He was remanded for a week to give the prosecution an opportunity of procuring witnesses from London.

At the Police Court this morning Ellen Burns was sent to the Mercer Reformatory for six months for stealing fifty cents from James Bill, for whom she had been working.

Detective Campbell and Sergeant Castell this morning arrested Daniel Allen, a young man 18 years of age, by occupation a moulder, on a charge of committing an indecent assault upon Mrs. Margaret Allen. The parties, though of the same name, are not related. Yesterday afternoon, it is stated by the complainant, Allen went to her shop, York-street, at about 2 o'clock, entered the place, locked the door and proceeded to make himself at home. Despite Mrs. Allen's attempts to get rid of him, he remained there for a couple of hours, making himself very obnoxious and committing an indecent assault. He will come up for trial at the Police Court to-morrow.

Victory for the Pool Bill.

ALBANY, April 6.—"We are going under the wire a neck ahead," exclaimed Mr. Ives last evening after a hot race with the pool bill around the Assembly track. The bill was the pending question in the Committee of the Whole when the House met. After a few false starts caused by the non-presence of a quorum and obstacles put in his way by Mr. Kress and others, Mr. Ives got away in this style: "I do not propose to discuss gambling like a preacher, but to consider and explain a measure for the benefit of the state. There are more tracks now than there were ten years ago, and betting goes on just the same as it did before the selling of pools was prohibited by law. It is thus very plain that the law as it stands is foolish and cannot be enforced. Anthony Comstock has instanced lots of cases of family ruin which he attributes entirely to the race track. He has admitted that all these cases occurred under the sections of the Penal Code which this bill seeks to suspend." Mr. Ives demanded the yeas and nays on his motion, and the bill was put on the order of third reading by the close vote of 51 to 51. Mr. Ives is elated over his success and has strong hopes that the bill will pass.

The Catholic Church in Russia.

ROME, April 6.—The Pope, in view of the Russian Government's complaints of the hostility of the Catholic clergy in Russia, has instructed the Congregation for Ecclesiastical Affairs to examine the question of Panslavism in relation to the Church, in order to be able to give instructions to the bishops without offending the Czar's Government.

SEED GRAIN FRAUDS.

Speculators and confidence men seem to have a special aim at victimising the farmers, who, as the most numerous, most enterprising, and not the least wealthy class of the community, present a wide field for their operations. In this connection the movements of the "Ontario Grain and Seed Company" have attracted enough attention to warrant Mr. Chisholm, of Peel, in bringing the matter before the Ontario Legislature. The home office of this company is at London. It was incorporated in June, 1886. It claims to have a capital stock of $35,000. According to a formidable-looking, gold-sealed bond made to Mr. F. A. Gardner, of Toronto Township, produced in the House by Mr. Chisholm, this company does business on the following conditions:—

Sec. 2. All purchasers of what shall receive a bond agreeing to sell double the amount of wheat purchased at $15 per bushel, a speculative value. Each purchaser hereby agrees to allow the said company one-third of all notes taken for all his wheat sold at $15 per bushel as their commission.

Sec. 3. If any purchaser of wheat from this company fails to raise the amount specified in his bond, the said amount shall be furnished him free of charge and sold the same as specified in the bond.

Sec. 4. There shall be no less than ten or more than thirty bushels of wheat sold to any one purchaser, or to more than (10) ten in any one township in one year.

Sec. 5. All wheat shall be sold by the company at $15 per bushel to good and responsible parties, and the said company shall receive a commission of 33⅓ per cent., payable in notes.

The bond produced by Mr Chisholm reads as follows:—

Mr. F. A. Gardner, Township of Toronto, County of Peel, and Province of Ontario, witnesseth that on or before the first day of December, A. D. 1887, we hereby agree to to sell to responsible parties forty-eight bushels of Mr. F. A. Gardner's wheat, at $15 per bushel, and for which he agrees to take his pay in notes.

And the said Mr. F. A. Gardner hereby acknowledges that he has bought of the said company twenty-five bushels of red Trojan wheat at $15 per bushel as a speculation, and for which he has given his note for the same, and that said price is not based upon its real value.

And the said Mr. F. A. Gardner hereby agrees to allow the said company 33⅓ per cent. of all notes for all his wheat sold at $15 per bushel as their commission.

Signed and sealed this 22nd day of March, 1887.

The Ontario Grain and Seed Co.
ATTEST J. B. D. LAPIERRE, President.
Per GEO. S. WARD, Sec.
F. A. GARDNER, Purchaser.

Any scheme that promises as this one does in effect, to give something for nothing bears danger on the face of it. Any farmer who purchases seed wheat at $15 a bushel, now that the matter has been thoroughly ventilated, does so with his eyes open and must expect to take the consequences, though there is no evidence the company has any fradulent intention.

THE Conservative journals seem to be willing to destroy all safeguards for the honest conduct of Dominion elections. They are ready to defend the action of the government in relieving Conservative candidates from the consequences of their breach of the provisions of the Election Act. Mr. Hudspeth, of South Victoria, was plainly disqualified from taking his seat, because at the time of the election he was holding the office of Revising Barrister. To save a supporter from the consequences which would have resulted from an attack on his seat, the government appointed him to a petty office of emolument to get him out of the trouble. One Conservative organ lays the blame of the new election that is to take place upon the malice of the Reformers and argues that Mr. Hudspeth, notwithstanding that he (as he must have done) knowingly put the riding to the expense of an election, when he was a disqualified candidate, should be elected by acclamation, he having had the choice of the people. This is pretty morality to preach, open and flagrant disregard of the law in order to favor the return of a supporter of the Government. The iniquitous gerrymander, the partisan revising officer, the partisan returning officer, is not enough, but the law itself must be broken to favor the return of the supporters of the beodle Government.

A PETITION has been filed against the return of Mr. Robert Campbell, South Renfrew, to the House of Commons.

AN Order-in-Council, appointing Mr. Plumb Speaker of the Senate was passed by the Cabinet on Saturday. There is a patch of silver lining to every cloud. Mr. Plumb, in the chair, has his eloquent mouth closed and the country will be saved the expense of having his dreary speeches printed. And also when the grave and reverend "seignors" of the Senate become absorbed in the "flippy" details of some divorce case—the especial delight of the old boys—his attention will be so engaged that he will not be writing poetry. Otherwise his appointment has no redeeming features; but at the same time he is as good a figure-head for the morgue as any other political hack who may have outlived his usefulness as a wire-puller and election agent.

IT is stated that when Senator Plumb received the notice of his appointment as speaker of the Senate he spurred his Pegasus into the following jubilant poetical canter in celebration of his apotheosis:

Here I come
The great Burr Plumb;
I'm the rennet,
That'll make the Senate
The very cheese,
To suit your ideas.

LEGISLATURE OF ONTARIO.

Sixth Parliament—First Session.

TUESDAY, April 5th.

After routine in the House to day the Provincial Treasurer's resolution reducing the rate of interest on drainage debentures from 5 to 4 per cent. and appropriating an additional $100,000 for the furtherance and encouragement of drainage works was passed without opposition.

Hon. A. S. HARDY moved the second reading of his bill respecting distress for rent and taxes which was amended by providing against exchange of goods by tenants in order to escape legitimate obligations by enlarging the word tenant to include sub-tenants or the assigns of a tenant, by providing for notice of intended seizure, by stipulating that when growing or standing crops are seized they may be advertised and sold as other goods, and that it shall not be necessary for the landlord to gather or market the crop; and by providing that no costs shall be levied in respect of a seizure of exempted goods when they may not be lawfully sold, and when sold no greater sum than $2.

In connection with this bill, an important point was raised by Mr. Gibson, of Hamilton. He pointed out that the bill did not make it impossible for a tenant to contract himself out of the rights secured under it, and that it might be well to consider how far this should be permitted. The point was emphasized by Mr. Meredith, and the Attorney-General and Mr. Hardy deemed it of sufficient weight to delay the progress of the bill in order to give it consideration. Referred back to committee.

The Minister of Education moved the second reading of a bill to provide for the study of agriculture in the schools, and for scientific instruction in the nature of alcoholic stimulants and narcotics, and for the establishment of Kindergarten schools for children between the age of three and five years. Read a second time.

The Attorney-General stated that the House would meet at two o'clock on Thursday and adjourn at four until Tuesday next, and that it was likely prorogation would take place at the end of next week.

Mr. STRATTON gave notice of a bill to amend the Division Courts Act.

South Victoria.

Mr. Wm. Needler, of Lindsay, the Reform Candidate.

LINDSAY, April 6.—The Reform Convention to-day was largely attended, despite the bad roads, and the proceedings were of the most enthusiastic character. Messrs. Wm. Lownsbrough, of Mariposa; Wm. Needler, of Lindsay; Thos. Walters, Mayor of Lindsay; and Col. Deacon, ex-Mayor, were nominated. All the others retired in favor of Mr. Needler, who was unanimously declared the nominee of the convention. Short speeches were made by A. P. Cockburn, of North Ontario, and Messrs. O'Leary, Stewart, Hopkins, Lownsbrough, Deacon and others, in which Mr. Hudspeth's absurd blunder was held up to ridicule and his attempts to awaken sympathy for his forlorn resignation were laughed at. Reformers are confident of carrying the riding. Mr. Needler is a popular and esteemed citizen of Lindsay, and foremost in enterprise and good works.

The Boundary Line

Between comfort and discomfort is often very slight. Have you rheumatism or neuralgia? or are you a sufferer from obscure nervous pains? Why suffer longer? You can purchase for 10 cents a bottle of that king of pain—Polson's NERVILINE, or you can get a large bottle for 25 cents. It cures promptly. It is sure, pleasant to take, and never fails to cure all kinds of pain. Don't wait an hour, but send to any drug store and get a trial bottle. Nerviline, the cure pain cure. 6dw14

[Reported by W. H. Wrighton, Grain and Produce Dealer & General Grocer, George St.]

APRIL, 6th, 1887.

Nothing doing in grain, prices unchanged. Spring wheat 80 to 82c, fall, 80 to 82c. Barley, nothing doing, none offering, prices 50 to 55c. Oats 29 to 30c. On the market, fresh butter 20 to 22c; eggs 12 to 13c. Chickens 50 to 60c. Turkeys 75 to $1. Potatoes 70 to 75c. Market poorly attended, owing to bad roads.

Enjoy Life.

What a truly beautiful world we live in! Nature gives us grandeur of mountains, plains and oceans, and thousands of means of enjoyment. We can desire no better when in perfect health; but how often do the majority of people feel like giving it up disheartened, discouraged and worn out with disease, when there is no occasion for this feeling, as every sufferer can easily obtain satisfactory proof, that Green's August Flower, will make them free from disease, as when born. Dyspepsia and Liver Complaint are the direct causes of seventy-five per cent, of such maladies as Biliousness, Indigestion, Sick Headache, Costiveness, Nervous Prostration, Dizziness of the head, Palpitation of the Heart, and other distressing symtoms. Three doses of August Flower will prove its wonderful effect. Sample bottle, 10 cents. Try it. eodw4

Reasons why you should purchase Fluid Lightning in preference to all other remedies are: Rapid results—cures instantly, easily applied—no trouble—no lost time, It does not require constant use—one application is effectual. One bottle will remove more pain than any other remedy in existence. Try it for Neuralgia, Toothache, Headache, Rheumatism. Sold at 25c. a bottle by John McKee Druggist. eodw14

SMASH-UP ON THE NORTH SHORE.

Three Trains Smash Recently Except Being KILLED.

BARRIE, April 6.—About 4.30 p.m. yesterday the North Simcoe train coming south ran into a sand wash, near the Minesing swamp, caused by the spring floods. The engine was off the track and rolled off an embankment of forty feet, bottom uppermost. Brakesman Phillips, Engineer Walker and Fireman Mosbing were on the engine at the time. The two former jumped off, receiving slight injuries, while the latter remained on the engine, and was thrown into the bush with considerable injury. He was brought up at this time. The train was going at the rate of eighteen miles an hour. The flat cars behind, loaded with lumber and wood, ran off the track and were badly wrecked. Although the passenger cars were considerably jolted, none were damaged, nor were any of the passengers injured. The auxiliary train went up the same night and had the track cleared by this morning. The smash-up is acknowledged by railway men to have been one of the most remarkable of their railway experiences.

A $5000 FIRE AT TRENTON.

Several Stables Burned and a Hotel Badly Damaged.

TRENTON, April 6.—About 10 a.m. a fire broke out in the stables of the Empey Hotel. Fanned by a heavy northwest wind the fire quickly spread to the adjoining stables and barns of the Daly House, which, being large and built of wood, made a fire which threatened at one time to sweep the principal part of the business portion of the town. The steamer belonging to the town and also that of Messrs. Gilmour & Co. were promptly on hand, and through their united exertions the fire was stopped at the Daly House, the rear of which was badly gutted. The block adjoining on either side, owned by Messrs. Fidlar & Grass, were more or less damaged. Messrs. Quinlan & Perkins, lessees of the Daly House, will be the largest sufferers, nearly all their furniture and stuff being badly damaged. J. Craig & Co. and H. P. Fidlar, grocers, adjoining the hotel, also suffer small loss. All are covered by insurance; also the bankrupt stock of Messrs. Graham & Reid, dry goods, which was nearly all removed and damaged more or less. Loss about $5000.

Imperial Federation.

A meeting to consider the advisability of establishing a Peterborough Branch of the Imperial Federation League, and to discuss the general subject of Imperial Federation, has been called for the Opera House on Tuesday evening, April 12th. His worship, Mayor Stevenson, will occupy the chair, and addresses will be delivered by prominent speakers from abroad and by gentlemen of the town. This is a question removed from the domain of domestic party politics and all can unite in giving consideration to a proposition that at the present moment is commanding so much attention—closer alliance with the Mother Country.

See Turnbull's Fine Taffeta Silk Gloves in all shades, from 25 to 50 cents a pair, when in inspecting Millinery this week.

The Bible in the Schools.

Since the vexed question has taken a local tinge, renewed interest in taken it it, especially in connection with the astonishing action of Chairman Stevenson in connection with the vote on the resolutions deal twith at the meeting of the Board on Tuesday night. There seems to be a difference of opinion as to his right to exercise a dual vote—though the law seems to be explicit enough—but there no doubt, and the law and the fact bear out the assertion that gough the wonderful cheap man, keeps the most immense, most meritorious and most moderate priced stock of ready-made gentlemen's youth's and boy's, clothing and furnishings in the Midland District. Call and see him—sign of the Quadruple Dudes, George street.

Spring Millinery and Mantles.

Bonnets for the Beautiful—Hats for the Handsome—Mantles for Matrons and Maids—How Prinky Fashion Crosses and Clothes the Sex.

Yesterday's fine weather drew out large numbers of ladies, who thronged the millinery establishments till late at night, and the sprightly milliners were kept busy answering questions, "trying on" and making change.

H. S. GRIFFIN & CO.

bloomed out yesterday morning with a beautiful display of spring millinery. Their show windows were models of art, while the whole store presented a gay appearance which betokened the work of skilled hands. The millinery show room though small was prettily decorated, the sides draped with glistening gauzes, plushes, satins, silks, merveilleux, laces and brocades in all the different shades, the whole bespangled with feathers, flowers, pom poms, plumes and other ornaments. From the ceiling swung a number of ladies' parasols of various colors, and on the tables were displayed all sorts of hats and bonnets in styles innumerable. The predominating colors were lilac, heliotrope, mauve, old rose, pinks and creams, and greys of all shades. Visitors were unanimous in their expressions of admiration and delight at the perfect harmony, the exquisite taste and artistic adaption of the material at command in creating such charming effect, everywhere apparent. A full range of dress goods was exhibited behind the counters. Jet panel waists, which are very popular, were also shown. Griffin & Co. carry besides a full line of gloves and parasols.

THE GOLDEN LION.

R. Fair & Co's. display this year if anything eclipses their former exhibits. On entering the store the eye is struck by the novel appearance throughout, and on climbing the staircase and turning to the left, the susceptible visitor could almost imagine that he had entered a miniature fairy land. Here everything in the millinery line that is beautiful is gathered and so deftly arranged that the perfect harmony everywhere visible speaks to the responsive heart and draws from it a reciprocal sentiment of silent admiration. The staircase is hung with lace curtains, while the passage to the left side of the landing is draped with silks, satins and plushes in all the newest shades, festooned with flowers, laces and ribbons. In the centre is a large mirror embowered in rich plushes, ornamented with flowers. Overhead are suspended lace parasols. On the tables are all the latest styles, shapes and colors in hats, bonnets and plumes, including the Mikado, Ours, Fleetwing, Ottawa, Newberne, Beaufort, Tratalgar and Bernice, (hats), and in bonnets the Dandy, Donvray, Folsom and Corona. There was besides a large display of fancy straws and bare shapes and cute little baby bonnets. A table devoted entirely to ostrich plumes makes a beautiful show. A number of judys display rich mantle goods to perfection. In colors Charles X., (a shade of red,) Vieille rose, mauve and the different casts of gray, brown and fawn predominate. A number of jet dolmans and dolmanettes were exhibited; all the newest things in jet wraps are always kept on hand.

Passing through a curtained doorway, entrance is had to the carpet room, upon entering which two show cases containing flowers and variegated ribbons attract the eye. In the carpet room is kept a large stock of the best carpets, all designs and sizes. The decorations and display throughout are admirable, and reflect credit upon the designers. Fair & Co.'s opening will continue until Saturday night. Their store will be open for inspection this (Thursday) evening.

J. C. TURNBULL.

Two richly-dressed show windows, one displaying millinery, artistically arranged to show to best advantage, with mirror and large floral anchor; the other filled with finest dress goods and trimmings, pave the way for the brilliant sight which bursts upon the view on entering the millinery room in rear of the store. On one side of the room is the large show case, above which are spread large table covers in blue and red, the case below being hung with black velvet as a background for bunches of flowers, ribbons, plumes and laces. Opposite the walls are draped with cretonne, and in the centre of it a large mirror, depending from the top of which is a large horse shoe of flowers. The floral decorations throughout were complete, there hieng over the entrance door a beautiful horse-shoe, in the centre of the room a large star, while smaller bunches of flowers were scattered about in profusion. At one end of the room rich mantle goods were displayed in long folds, relieved at intervals by lace parasols. Above, the ceiling was hung with gorgeous streamers, between which shimmered the lacy loveliness of ladies' parasols in abundance. On the centre tables were displayed all the various shades and styles in hats and bonnets, while a show case filled with floral ornaments, and surmounted by a pyramid of waving ostrich plumes, added their quota to the general splendour. A large standing mirror, swathed in glistening gold and green plushes, ornamented with plumes, resting near the side door, completed a picture of beauty which only a true artist could have formed. The side door makes an easy egress for those who have completed their inspection. The show windows at the side are filled with millinery goods, hats and shapes. The whole display of Mr. Turnbull is superb, and if beautiful surroundings have anything to do with making sales, their receipts must have more than off-set the expense of making such an elaborate exhibit.

JAMES ALEXANDER'S

millinery room was also the scene of much beauty and expressions of admiration from the large numbers who thronged them. On entering from the store, after passing under a lace archway, one's vision was confronted by tables covered with plumed and flowered hats in all the colors and shades imaginable, little "ducks of bonneta," with flowing ribbons, fancy straw shapes, and towers of ostrich plumes with their soft and delicate shades waving proudly over all. Lace drapery dotted with flowers enveloped the walls, while lines of ribbons, plumes, etc., reached around the room. At the rear on each side of the window were large mirrors encased in lace and flowers, while a sofa and couple of chairs awaited the weary sightseer who overcome by so much concentrated loveliness might seek a little relaxation. Amethyst and jet chenille trimmings for mantle cloths were shown, also some jetted grenadine for mantles, besides other mantle cloths. An endless array of shapes in hats and bonnets were there for inspection. In hats the newest styles are Ours, Yours, Exquisite, Recherche, Folsom, Jubilee, and Barleigh. Bonnets were largely exhibited in all sort of shapes and colors, of which goblin green, mauve, heliotrope, and the various shades of gray predominated. Trimings for hats and bonnets include gauzes, feathers, flowers and plenty of picot-edged ribbon.

Mr. Alexander's display was creditable indeed, and his show room was the continual centre of attraction of a large number of ladies throughout the day. The opening will be continued to-day.

MISS E. DELANEY

some time ago issued handsome circulars notifying the ladies of Peterborough that her millinery show rooms were open, and inviting a general inspection. This call was nobly responded to by the ladies, who turned out en masse, and they were amply recompensed for their trouble by an inspection of the complete range of hats, bonnets, millinery goods and mantles which Miss Delaney has advantageously displayed. Her stock comprises every known shape and style in hats and bonnets; every color known to the trade; all the minutiæ of millinery, and the latest and noblest things in mantles. Special attention is directed to the dress-making department, supervised by Misses Bolton and Cook, which, although a new departure, is nevertheless meeting with every success. Miss Delaney's show rooms are still open to the public, and all ladies wishing a varied and complete stock from which to select their spring styles, cannot do better than call upon her.

The Last Meeting.

The opera house was crowded last night. Rev. Mr. White as usual delivered short speeches and sang witty and sentimental temperance songs, while addresses were delivered by Revs. Wilson and Tovell and Mr. Bannell Sawyer. To-night's meeting is the last of Rev. Mr. White's series in Peterborough. Mr. White's earnestness, originality and musical talents have combined to render his meetings interesting and instructive, and much good has resulted therefrom. May he be even more successful in his new field of labor.

A CARD

FROM

T. DOLAN,

TO HIS NUMEROUS FRIENDS.

I beg to say that the Dry Goods business heretofore carried on by T. Dolan & Co., has been disposed of to the new firm of Messrs SHEEHY & CO., who will continue the business in the same stand No. 2 CLUXTON'S BLOCK.

Mr. Corkery one of the members of the new firm has been connected with the late firm in the Dry Goods business for the past twelve years. I trust they will continue to bestow that patronage on my successors.

I desire to state that I now intend confining myself exclusively to the Clothing trade, and will continue to do my utmost to keep only such goods as will be appreciated by the public.

STAURDAY, APRIL 9, 1887.

Killed on the Track.

Manner of Michael Patrick O'Donnell's Death.

In Thursdays' EXAMINER a short paragraph gave the simple announcement that a son of Mr. Michael O'Donnell of King street, town, had been killed by a railway accident at Allandale, a station on the Northern R. R., not far from Barrie. Mr. O'Donnell, Sr. went at once to Toronto to meet the body, which had been forwarded to that place. He returned home on Friday by the 11.30 C. P. R. express bringing with him the lifeless body of his son. The particulars he gleaned of the nature of the fatal accident were but meagre. It appears that the young man who for some time past has been staying in Toronto was, with two companions, going north to seek or enter employment, the nature of which is not known, and they had reached Allandale. While at this place and crossing the track in the darkness of Wednesday night, a train which was being shunted ran the poor lad down. The brakeman on the train was not aware of his presence on the track till he heard his cries. The external injuries received would not account for his death, they being a broken leg and a broken arm. He must have received some internal injuries, for he died on the afternoon of the day following the night of his injury. The deceased, whose full name is Michael Patrick O'Donnell, was well known (as well as his father, who receives the warmest sympathy of his numerous friends in his sad affliction,) and popular among his youthful associates, who knew him best by the familiar name of "Cush." He was twenty years of age. He has been absent from town for nearly a year. Many will recollect that he was in McIntyre's "Nancy Lee's" saddle at the Driving Park races on the 24th of last May. The funeral will take place on Easter Sunday at 2.30 p. m., to the Roman Catholic Cemetery.

Personal.

Mr. A. E. Yelland, of this town, has passed his final examination in medicine at Trinity College Medical School with high honors, taking the gold medal. Mr. W. D. Scott, of Smith, has also honourably passed his final at the same institution, taking the silver medal. These are records of which both young men may be proud, and the EXAMINER heartily congratulates them upon their success, which is only an augury of their future success in practice, for the same industry, intelligence and studious attention here applied will insure a successful career.

Capt. C. W. Allen, who is in charge of the Canadian Pacific Railway's Exhibition car, now "starring" through Canada, is one of the most genial, obliging and competent men for the position it would be possible to select. He is an experienced journalist, and knows how to present the best points of the splendid exhibit of which he has charge. He has a tender side for the press gang, and reporters are greatly indebted to his courtesy and kindness. The EXAMINER takes great pleasure in commending Capt. Allen to the press in the places he will hereafter visit as a thoroughly jolly good fellow and asks them to "pass him along."

The Snow Supply.

Judging from the amount of snow "in sight," in the country, there is no danger of Canada being "short" of that abundant article for some time to come. In conversation with a gentleman residing ten miles north of Apsley, a representative of the EXAMINER learned that the snow in that region is about four feet in depth in the woods and that in the open fields there is no sign of the face of mother earth. He says that if the snow does not disappear rapidly there is small prospect of getting in spring crops in due season.

FISHERIES DISPUTE.

A LETTER FROM PRESIDENT CLEVELAND ON THE SUBJECT.

WASHINGTON, D.C., April 8.—The President having received a communication from the American Fisheries Union of Massachusetts calling attention to the fisheries dispute, and suggesting that the Retaliatory Act, passed by the late Congress, would, in their opinion, be sufficiently executed if the proposed retaliation was confined to the closing of United States markets to Canadian fish products, he has made the following answer:

EXECUTIVE MANSION,
WASHINGTON, April 7, 1887.

George Steele, Esq., President American Fishery Union, and others, Gloucester, Mass.:

GENTLEMEN—I have received your letter lately addressed to me, and have given full consideration to the expression of the views and wishes therein contained, in relation to the existing differences between the Government of Great Britain and the United States, growing out of the refusal to award to our citizens engaged in fishing enterprises the privileges to which they are entitled, either under treaty stipulations, or the guarantees of international comity and neighborly concession. I sincerely trust the apprehension you express, of unjust and unfriendly treatment of American fishermen lawfully found in Canadian waters will not be realized. But if such apprehension should prove to be well founded, I earnestly hope that no fault or inconsiderate action of any of our citizens will in the least weaken the just position of our Government or deprive us of the universal sympathy and support to which we should be entitled. The action of this administration since June, 1885, when the fishery articles of the treaty of 1871 were terminated under the notification which had two years before been given by our Government, has been fully disclosed by the correspondence between the representatives and the appropriate departments of the respective Governments, with which, I am apprised by your letter, you are entirely familiar. An examination of this correspondence has, doubtless, satisfied you that in no case have the rights or privileges of American fishermen been overlooked or neglected, but that, on the contrary, they have been sedulously insisted upon and cared for by every means within the control of the executive branch of the Government. The Act of Congress, approved March 3, 1887, authorizing a course of retaliation through executive action in the event of a continuance on the part of the British-American authorities of unfriendly conduct and treaty violations affecting American fishermen, has devolved upon the President of the United States exceedingly grave and solemn responsibilities, comprehending highly important consequences to our national character and dignity, and involving extremely valuable commercial intercourse between the British possessions of North America and the people of the United States.

I understand the main purpose of your letter is to suggest that in case recourse to retaliatory measures authorized by this act should be invited by unjust treatment of our fishermen in the future, the object of such retaliation might be fully accomplished by "prohibiting Canadian-caught fish from entering into the ports of the United States." The existing controversy is one in which two nations are the parties concerned. The retaliation contemplated by the act of Congress is to be enforced, not to protect solely any particular interest, however meritorious or valuable, but to maintain the national honor and thus protect all our people. In this view the violation of American fishery rights, and unjust or unfriendly acts towards a portion of our citizens engaged in this business, is but the occasion for action, and constitutes a national affront which gives birth to, or may justify retaliation. This measure once resorted to, its effectiveness and value may well depend upon the thoroughness and extent of its application, and in the performance of international duties, the enforcement of international rights, and the protection of our citizens, this Government and the people of the United States must act as a unit, all intent upon attaining the best result of retaliation upon the bases of a maintenance of national honor and duty. A nation seeking by any means to maintain its honor, dignity and integrity, is engaged in protecting the rights of its people; and if, in such effort, particular interests are injured and special advantages forfeited, these things should be patriotically borne for the public good. An immense volume of population, manufactures and agricultural productions, and the marine tonnage and railways to which these have given activity, are largely the result of intercourse between the United States and British America, and the natural growth of a full half century of good neighborhood and friendly communication, form an aggregate of material wealth and incidental relations of most impressive magnitude.

I fully appreciate these things, and am not unmindful of the great number of our people who are concerned in such vast and diversified interests. In the performance of the serious duty which the Congress has imposed upon me, and in the exercise upon just occasion of the power conferred under the act referred to, I shall deem myself bound to inflict no unnecessary damage or injury upon any portion of our people, but I shall, nevertheless, be unflinchingly guided by a sense of what the self-respect and dignity of the nation demand. In the maintenance of these and in the support of the honor of the Government, beneath which every citizen may repose in safety, no sacrifice of personal or private interests shall be considered as against the general welfare.

Yours very truly,
GROVER CLEVELAND.

BRITAIN'S CLAIM TO TORTUGAS.

The United States Inquiring Into all the Data Relating to the Subject.

WASHINGTON, April 8.—Although correspondence has not yet begun between the Department of State and the Government of Great Britain in regard to the reported threat of that Government to seize Tortugas Island from Hayti in default of a debt, yet an investigation is being made and all of the data relating to the subject in the possession of the department is being collected. The English claim appears to be very intricate in its nature. The correspondence had in Mr. Frelinghuysen's administration shows that the claim is an indirect one, based upon a number of cessions, sub-cessions and contracts regarding the privilege to cut mahogany that was not cut, or at least not in sufficient quantity. The amount of the claim in Secretary Frelinghuysen's administration was placed at $60,000

The State of Trade at Montreal.

MONTREAL, April 8.—There has been little change in the general course of trade during the past week, but the movement has continued well up to expectations for the period of the season, although the salient points of the situation have remained unaltered. It is true that the country roads have commenced to break up and that buyers are holding back orders as much as possible until navigation, with its cheapening of freights, opens, but as these are drawbacks of annual occurrence they are not considered as commanding special attention. Payments have been fair under the circumstances, and the outlook for trade is viewed with a decided degree of confidence. The railway traffic returns continue to indicate a much heavier movement of merchandise than in 1886. The Grand Trunk returns for thirteen weeks show an increase of $307,000 over the same time in 1886. The Canadian Pacific returns for twelve weeks show an increase of $154,000 over 1886.

Miss Wolfe's Magnificent Bequest.

NEW YORK, April 8.—Catherine Lorrillard Wolfe has bequeathed to the Metropolitan Museum of Art in this city, her entire collection of oil paintings and water color drawings. The bequest is made on the condition that a suitable, well lighted and fire proof building be set apart for this collection. She also bequeaths $250,000 to be held in trust for the purpose of housing the collections in repair and for the purchase of original modern oil paintings of acknowledged merit, which are to be added to her collection, which is now valued at $500,000.

THE INQUEST AT BRISTOL, PA.

A Verdict of Death From Natural Causes in the Case of Mr. Herchmer.

BRISTOL, Pa., April 8.—Coroner Gilbert and a jury of six men took part in the inquest held here last evening on the remains of George S. Herchmer.

Alvin Garwood, section foreman on the New York Division of the Pennsylvania Railroad, testified to finding the dead man at Andalusia. As far as could be learned Herchmer had left the owl train, which he boarded at Jersey City, at midnight on Wednesday at Cornwell's and walked the quarter of a mile westward to Andalusia, where the wreck of a freight train delayed all west-bound trains for some time. At Andalusia Herchmer was attacked by what proved to be a fatal seizure and died in a spasm. Dr. E. J. Groom, Howard Pursell and Albert Groom, who conducted an autopsy on the deceased, testified that death resulted from metamorphosis of the heart, by which the greater part of the muscular fibres of both ventricles, but principally the left one, had been substituted by fat. All the other organs were healthy and the stomach's contents showed no traces of alcohol. Deceased could not have performed manual labor without suffering at once from the disease which killed him. None of the physicians seemed to think Herchmer had been an habitual drinker.

Mr. C. F. Gildersleeve of Kingston, Ont., testified that on last Monday evening he received a telegram from M. L. Elliott of Brampton, a brother-in-law of Herchmer, saying that the wife of the deceased had seen the description of the Andalusia unknown in the Toronto World, and that upon the strength of this he decided to visit Bristol. He identified the remains as those of his brother-in-law. The jury at once found that George S. Herchmer came to his death from natural causes, the immediate cause of death being fatty metamorphosis of the heart. At 5.36 o'clock last evening Mr. Gildersleeve left for Canada with the body.

The Remains at Belleville.

BELLEVILLE, April 8.—The remains of Mr. Herchmer arrived here to-day from Bristol, Pa., and they will be interred to-morrow.

THE MORMON CHURCH.

The Presidents' Call Upon the People to Stand True to It.

PROVO, Utah, April 8.—At the General Conference of the Mormon Church to-day an epistle was read from Presidents Taylor, Cannon and Smith, who comprise the first presidency of the Church. It congratulates the people upon the peace and prosperity attending them, and upon the increased growth of Mormonism, notwithstanding the efforts of its enemies to the contrary, and expects the people to be vigorous observers of their duties and to stand true to the principles espoused from the organization of the church. The epistle is chiefly remarkable for its silence on the subject of polygamy to which it makes no allusion whatever.

The Ingersoll Dam Accident.

INGERSOLL, April 8.—The body of young Bowman, aged about 14, who was drowned some days ago in the flood caused by a dam breaking away, was found to-day in the River Thames near a bridge, not far from where the flood emptied into the river. Mr. Laird's body is still missing.

Died Protesting His Innocence.

FORT SMITH, Ark., April 8.—Patrick McCarthy was hanged here to-day for the murder of Thomas and John Mahoney in the Cherokee Nation in 1886. The evidence was purely circumstantial, there being no eye-witness to the crime. McCarthy died protesting his innocence.

Sale of a Propeller.

BUFFALO, April 8.—The propeller Colorado has been sold by Miller and others, of this city, to Botsford and others of Port Huron for $45,000. She will run between Duluth and Sarnia in connection with the Grand Trunk.

Lake Freight Rates.

DETROIT, April 8.—The schooners City of Chicago and Bertha Barnes have been chartered to load corn at Chicago for Georgian Bay at 3½c, and the schooner A. P. Nichols corn for Sarnia at 3½c.

A Holiday Game at Hamilton.

HAMILTON, April 8.—A baseball match was played here to-day between a picked nine and Walker's amateur champions of 1886, which was won by the Walkers by a score of 3 to 2. Brigham Young pitched for Walkers and kept his opponents down to four hits.

Shooting Match at Hamilton.

HAMILTON, April, 8.—The shooting match under the auspices of the Wild Fowlers Gun Club was largely attended. The shoot was for $50 divided into 4 prizes, Hamilton blackbirds, 15 birds each, 15 yards rise, and was won by Wayper with a score of 14. The remaining prizes were divided by Griffith, J. Cline and R. Stroud, who each scored 12.

The Childs-Drexel Typographical Fund.

PHILADELPHIA, April 8.—James J. Dailey, Treasurer of the Childs-Drexel Fund of the International Typographical Union, yesterday deposited with Drexel & Co. $154.10 to the credit of the fund. Of this $110 was the contribution of the San Francisco Union. The total contributions of the unions west of the Mississippi River—about one fifth of the unions in the United States—amount to $1010. May 12, the anniversary of Mr. George W. Childs' birth, the union printers east of the Mississippi River will contribute the proceeds of the setting up of 1000 ems by each member.

A Large Crop of Peaches Promised.

BELVIDERE, N.J., April 8.—At a convention of the prominent peach growers of Warren and Huntindon counties, just held, it was generally admitted that the outlook favored an unusually large crop of fruit, especially peaches. One gentleman said he had thoroughly examined the trees, and he found that not one bud out of ten gave any indication of having been injured by frost. He thought the crop of the coming season would be the heaviest known for years.

They Blew Out the Gas.

CHICAGO, April 8.—Alvin Hill and G. W. Archbold, the former the son of the president of the Adams County National Bank of Decatur, Ind., and the latter a dry goods merchant of Pleasant Mills, in the same state, arrived in this city yesterday and registered at a hotel. Both went to bed in the same room and blew out the gas. The landlady missed them this morning and pried the door open. She found Hill dead. Archbold was brought back to consciousness after an hour's hard work.

A Great Work Begun.

FARGO, D.T., April 8.—The immense force gathered at Minot to push the 600 miles extension of the St. Paul and Manitoba Railroad to Great Falls and Helena, Mont., have fully commenced operations. It is estimated that 200 cars of material will be required a day all summer for the prosecution of this almost unprecedented feat of railroad building. It is believed that trains will run from St. Paul to Helena over the line before next winter.

SATURDAY, APRIL 9, 1887.

EASTER DAY.

The festival which several millions of Christian people will observe to-morrow in honour of the Saviour's Resurrection, is one of extreme antiquity, and has been kept very generally throughout the civilized world. The early Christians would of course remember with peculiar feelings of emotion and joy, the recurring anniversaries of their Lord's restoration to them, and would naturally hold Easter dear as the chief festival of the church. This much is clear indeed from the Scripture records.

Profane history asserts that as early as the days of Polycarp, who was of St. John, the Christian world kept Eastertide. Eusebius, the first church historian, informs us that Melitus, who was Bishop of Sardis about A. D. 158., wrote two books descriptive of the festival an speaks of it as annually celebrated his day with great rejoicing. in fact termed the great day, the queen of festivals, the feast of feasts.

The original name of the festival among Latin races was Sascha, a Hebrew wordsi g-nifying "passage" and applied also to the Jewish feast of the Passover, to which the Christian festival of Easter corresponds. In England this name, derived from the French, was commonly used for many generations, and Easter eggs are still called "pasque" eggs, or vulgarly, "paste" eggs, in certain districts in the northern part of England.

Our present name of Easter can be traced to the time of the Venerable Bede and comes from a Saxon goddess Eostre, who was worshipped with peculiar solemnities by our pagan forefathers, in the month of April, about the time of the vernal equinox. Other philologists, perhaps better informed, have derived the word Easter from the old Teutonic urstan, signifying "to rise." Oriental Christians term Easter the Bright Day and the Russian Church especially keeps the feast with most elaborate and striking ceremonies. As for the peasantry, it is their constant practice to pass from house to house making and receiving presents of eggs, and saluting and embracing each other with the words: "The Lord is Risen," to which comes the response, "He is Risen indeed!"

With regard to the date on which the festival should be kept, there were, for many centuries, great disputes. Some kept it on the same stated day of every year, as Bingham says, others on the 14th day of the first moon in the new year, and others on the first Sunday after the first full moon. The Council of Nice, in the year 324, at last decreed that all churches should keep the festival on the same day, Sunday, but it was not "until the eighth century that the computation of Easter was settled on sufficiently accurate calculations to ensure uniformity."

The lessons of Easter are manifold and important. The day and its doctrine brings to recollection the glorious teaching of the Founder of Christianity. It reminds us He first taught, both by precept and example, the brotherhood of man, and raised him from a condition of moral and intellectual degradation and brutality to a holier and happier state, showing man that he was originally created in God's image and was designed to be with God throughout eternity.

All through the ages the "resurrection of the dead" and the "judgment to come" has been the strongest deterrent to wrong-doing, and the hope of a happy immortality of which Easter assures us, has made untold millions submissive, happy and peaceful, in spite of the carking cares and sad disappointments incident to this mortal life.

The festival of Easter is also a perpetual answer to the awful folly of Spiritualism, which is a practical denial of the Resurrection of the body, and an unholy anticipation of that glorious hope which waits for the Lord's second coming, when "they that are in the graves shall come forth."

Easter explains one, at least, of the mysteries that surround and conceal the life beyond the grave and voices the Christians' absorbing conviction of a time when they shall be "forever with the Lord." It is especially the believer's day of rejoicing, the Christian's happiest season of comfort. Particularly precious is it to those who mourn in Zion, whom it bids not "to sorrow as men without hope" for the dear departed, and points to Christ's open grave.

The festival is growing yearly in power, and its general observance by all denominations is well nigh assured in the near future.

All hail! then say we to these annually returning Easter days, and may they speedily usher in the full Easter resurrection of a saved and regenerated world.

THE BARTHOLDI STATUE OF LIBERTY.

SERMON BY LAYMAN.

(Written for The Examiner.)

The erection of this statute in the harbour of New York has a significance beyond the act as a mere work of art. It is a homage to the most powerful feelings of man's nature. And the light shining from it is a beacon light to the world. Its presence will stir up the hearts of the people and bring encouragement to many a weary soul. And wherever its name and its object are heard they will rejoice the hearts of the down trodden people and will show them that there is yet hope for those who are weary and worn and who are looking afar off and dreaming of a land where men's shackles fall off and where they can enjoy the blessings of liberty and equality. They will learn that human freedom is more than a name. And after thousands of years of oppression and wrong, they will begin to feel that hope lives eternal in the human breast, and that he who waits will not always wait in vain. He will say.

"Hail to thee liberty! We cherish thee, welcome thee, we worship thee."

And by and by there will shine across broad oceans the joyful light from this statute of liberty, telling all peoples to have courage and they will be free. That the days of tyranny and oppression are nearly over. Telling peoples that there is plenty of land in this western world for all and inviting them to come. And that when they come, and when far out at sea, they will see the light of liberty shining afar off and beckoning them to come. Who can tell what the feelings of a man are, who has felt nothing but oppression all his days, when he sets sail on his joyful voyage to the land of the free, who can tell what his feelings are as he leaves the shore where he has been the victim of cruelty and where he scarcely dared to say his soul was his own and where his forefathers lived and died in poverty, not daring to call his life his own? Just think of the cruel wrongs and oppressions of the people of the old world for the last six thousand years. Although just from the hands of their maker, and although created for good and holy purposes, and although perfect happiness was within their reach, still they were not allowed to enjoy these blessings, and but a short time passed before the strong oppressed the weak and the weak were made their slaves. And thus, all down through these countless ages man has been man's most unrelenting enemy. The people were not allowed to enjoy what God had so generously given them, and instead of the land being made subsidiary to their wants and happiness it was turned into a barren wilderness and made wet with the people's blood. Made so in order that the few might rule and the many might become their slaves. Eighteen hundred and eighty six years ago the world looked with amazement at the coming help. God took pity upon the people of the world sent His Son into the world to proclaim liberty and justice. That great event filled men's hearts with hope and joy. The star of Bethlehem told of men's coming liberty and happiness and proclaimed the advent of a new era which was to revolutionize the world and that the long looked for time had come. The Son of God, the friend of the poor, the infant just born, was lying in a manger, was born poor in order to show God's love for His people and He had opened a way for their liberty and happiness. Was born poor in order that encouragement and hope might fill the hearts of the oppressed, and that from henceforth peace and good-will might reign supreme. It has been a hard contest between might and right, but oppression and wrong are fast giving way and the happy time is coming when man will be free. Wherever the Bible goes men's minds become enlightened and liberty follows after. Who can estimate the amount of oppression and misery there is in the world today, after nearly two thousand years of the gospel. Out of the fifteen hundred millions of human beings it is safe to say that two thirds of them are still slaves. We in America cannot fully estimate their terrible condition and their darkness and despair. But the time is coming when even they will dare to lift up their heads and to stand in the light of God's truth. When even they will know what freedom means and when even they will see the light of liberty shining afar off and beckoning them to come where all men are equal before the law and where they will be oppressed no more. Standing on the mountain tops of their benighted lands they will look far over the intervening waters hoping to see that glorious light of liberty of which they have been told, and they are even now rushing to the shores and crowding the ships lying there asking to be carried where there is a happy land and where they may be free. The one great hope for the regeneration of mankind is the fact that the Bible is penetrating all the dark places of the earth and all mankind will soon hear its blessed promises. And wherever the Bible goes, there men's shackles fall off and the glorious light of liberty brings them peace and joy. It is wonderful to contemplate the spread of the gospel of late years in heathen lands and the avidity with which the poor benighted people receive it and listen to its holy truths and to witness the blessings which follow after. Their savage practices disappear and their savage instincts give place to the moderation and goodness of the teachings of God's laws, and they become new creatures and earnest, active Christian people. And then freedom from heathenism, freedom from murders and cruelties is the beginning of that liberty to which all are looking and which will soon encircle the world, and the glorious light from the statue of liberty will be reflected back in ten-fold splendor from the isles of the sea and from those dark, dreary lands where oppression and misery have existed and ruled for the last six thousand years, but where the long-suffering peoples will soon be free. The coming of the Lord into the world was the beginning of a new era. It proclaimed men's coming liberty and it gave hope and encouragement to the poor and the rich alike. And from that time forward may be noted the steady growth of truth and justice, and the enfranchisement of the masses who hitherto had been living in darkness. The advent of our Saviour was a new dispensation, bringing peace and joy and hope, and it is sure to bring peace on earth and good will to all men, for the sun of righteousness has risen, and its light and its warmth enable men to see and to realise their own liberties and rights as well as to obtain and enjoy them. It takes a long time for men to move in the direction of their own emancipation, and a longer time to secure their own freedom and liberties. In some countries hundreds of years pass by before any real, practical changes can be effected. But man's destiny is ever onward and upward, and truth and justice are sure in the end to prevail. The Gospel is being disseminated with ever increasing [illegible] and wherever that goes [illegible] the shackles of education and [illegible] its men out of their physical and mental weakness and darkness up to the regions of liberty and light. And when the mind once becomes fixed upon the conviction of its own power it gives to its possessor new views and new hopes and thus opens the way to human progress and improvement. The last fifty years have seen greater advances in this direction than hundreds of years before. The poor down-trodden slave has become a freeman and the "dark continent" is being rapidly explored and opened up to the Bible and to commerce and is now in a fair way to be civilized and regenerated. And the hundreds of millions of heathens in China and India and all the other countries of the great East are waking up to the great influences of Christianity and to the truths and blessings of the gospel. Fifty years hence the changes for good throughout the world will be beyond description. Mankind will be enlightened and free. And the light from the statute of liberty will penetrate every land and will bring joy and hope to every soul. And then will arise the glorious song of gratitude and praise from every heart thanking God that at last the people are free. Free from tyranny and oppression and wrong. Free to sit under their own vine and fig tree, and free to worship their Maker according to their own convictions. And hosannas will ascend on high and the grateful offerings of happiness and freedom will go up to Heaven with songs of praise thanking God for his many blessings and mercies and for leading them at last into the glorious light of liberty and truth. And all the world will say Amen.

FOR A BIG SPRING TRADE AT

THE CITY CLOTHING STORE.

I have completed my Stock of Cloths, Clothing and Furnishings for Spring and Summer Wear. The Cloths are the Pick of the best markets and of the most Fashionable Patterns.

SPRING OVER-COATS. I have a large line of handsome and durable materials so Cheap that any one can afford to have a Spring Overcoat. Nothing is more needed at this Season of the year than Light Weight Overcoat.

CUSTOM WORK. OUR CUSTOM WORK will still keep its high rank. Fit, Style and Finish is our hobby. Our Cutter, Mr. DRESSER, is as painstaking and exact as ever, and we undertake to turn out suits equal to any in the Dominion. Suits made up to Order on Short notice.

READY-MADE CLOTHING. I can now show a Stock which has the Style and Finish of Ordered Clothing, in Men's, Boys and Youth's Suits, and at Prices that will astonish you. For example: TWEED SUITS at $5.00, $7.00, and $9.00; WORSTED SUITS at $10.00 and $12.00. BOYS SUITS actually as low as $2.00. If you don't understand how we can do this, and give a good article, too, come in and see for yourselves. The percentage on all our Clothing is close, to be sure, but our facilities for buying at lowest market prices are unsurpassed by any in trade. Bear in mind, too, that our Clothing is all good. Undergrade Clothing may be offered to buyers elsewhere, but not at the City Clothing Store. Sign of the Golden Horse Shoe, symbolical of Good Luck to all who pass in under.

THE SHARPER SOMETIMES DULL.

How the Formalities of Extradition Were Got Over in Mr. Skidmore's Case.

CHICAGO, April 8.—George Skidmore, the noted English thief, who was arrested in Chicago on Saturday for embezzling money and valuables to the amount of $5000 from a London, England, firm has fallen into a trap set by the detectives who were taking him to New York, where he had agreed to go to fight off extradition proceedings. When the officers and prisoner reached Sarnia, Canada, on the Grand Trunk road, Skidmore was informed that he was upon British soil, where extradition papers were unnecessary. He was taken from the train, and is now on the way to England.

Evictions to be Resumed.

DUBLIN, April 6.—The attempts of the agent to compromise with the tenants on Lord Lansdowne's estate have failed and the work of evicting all who refuse to pay the rents demanded will be resumed about April 21. Messrs. Dunn and Kilbride, the two principal tenants of Lord Lansdowne, who were recently evicted from their extensive holdings near Lough Erin, have been elected Chairman and Vice-Chairman respectively of the Athy Board of Poor Law Guardians.

Aldershot Barracks Partly Burned.

LONDON, April 6.—The great permanent infantry barracks at Aldershot are on fire and being rapidly burned. The flames started at noon and have been raging ever since, fanned to fury by a gale of such severity as to make the efforts of the firemen practically useless. Seven-eighths of the barracks was destroyed.

The Labor Candidates Defeated.

MILWAUKEE, Wis., April 6.—The city yesterday gave a majority for the labor canddiates, but the towns polled a fusion vote that overtopped the labor vote in the city and elected the fusion judicial candidates by a majority of nearly fifteen hundred. The labor vote was within 100 of what it was last fall, while the fusion vote showed a falling off of nearly 4000 as compared with the total vote cast at the fall election.

Literary Notices.

THE BROOKLYN MAGAZINE—Mr. Beecher's last contribution to periodical literature opens the April Brooklyn Magazine, and proves to be a most vigorous article, giving the great preacher's opinions of dancing, social amusements, stimulants and tobacco, in a general consideration of "Youthful Excesses and Old Age." The dead preacher's four last sermons are also printed in the number, and a most eloquent tribute is paid to his memory by the editor. The balance of the number breathes of spring-time, flowers, and Easter. Rev. T. De Witt Talmage contributes a bright "Easter Recollection:" Mrs. M. J. Gorton describes the "Fruits and Flowers of California:" two other writers describe "Spring Time in the Forests" and "The Gardens of Egypt," while poets sing sweetly of budding Spring and the carol of birds. A noticeable feature is the reproduction, in the author's own autograph, of the famous poem, "Curfew Must not Ring To-Night," by Rose Hartwick Thorpe, to which hundreds of the admirers of this world-famed song will be attracted. Four bright and entertaining complete short stories are told by Florence L. Snow, Lee C. Harby, and Robt. McPhail, and Alfred E. Lee takes us in a most delightful "Journey through Southern Spain," while Allie B. Busby describes the life and habits of the famous band of Muscquaka Indians now settled in Iowa. A clever glimpse behind the curtain of "Society at Washington" is given by Flora Adams Darling, to which an excellent complement is found in the fourth paper of Seaton Donoho's series of "Stories and Memories of Washington." Mrs. Beecher has her usual "Monthly Talk," and a score or more of other writers assist in making this a most excellent and the best number yet issued of the Brooklyn. With the next issue the magazine changes its name for that of the American Magazine, when it will be fully illustrated, and its price increased.

"He Never Smiled Again."

No "hardly ever" about it. He had an attack of what people call "biliousness," and to smile was impossible. Yet a man may "smile and smile, and be a villain still" still he was no villain, but a plain, blunt, honest man, that needed a remedy such as Dr. Pierce's "Pleasant Purgative Pellets" which never fail to cure biliousness and diseased or torpid liver, dyspepsia and chronic constipation. Of druggists. 6dw14

Happy Life.

What a truly beautiful world we live in! Nature gives us grandeur of mountains, glens and oceans, and thousands of means of enjoyment. We can desire no better when in perfect health; but how often do the majority of people feel like giving it up disheartened, discouraged and worn out with disease, when there is no occasion for this feeling, as every sufferer can easily obtain satisfactory proof, that Green's August Flower, will make them free from disease, as when born. Dyspepsia and Liver Complaint are the direct causes of seventy-five per cent, of such maladies as Biliousness, Indigestion, Sick Headache, Costiveness, Nervous Prostration, Dizziness of the head, Palpitation of the Heart, and other distressing symtoms. Three doses of August Flower will prove its wonderful effect. Sample bottle, 10 cents. Try it. eodw4

The Boundary Line

Between comfort and discomfort is often very slight. Have you rheumatism or neuralgia? or are you a sufferer from chronic nervous pains? Why suffer longer? You can purchase for 10 cents a bottle of that king of pain—Polson's NERVILINE, or you can get a large bottle for 25 cents. It cures promptly. It is sure, pleasant to take, and never fails to cure all kinds of pain. Don't wait an hour, but send to any drug store and get a trial bottle. Nerviline, the sure pain cure. 6dw14

Cure for Inflammatory Rheumatism.

Procure from your druggist a bottle of Hagyard's Yellow Oil and use according to directions. J. D. Cameron, of Westlake, Alsatic, Cape Breton, was cured by this remedy after all other treatment had failed. It may be taken internally for coughs, colds, sore throat, etc., etc. 2w14d

It Comes too Late.

While a man lives in this world he seldom gets credit for all he does and says. When he dies he gets credit for three times as much as he ever did or said.

Where the Danger Lies.

The chief danger from taking cold is its liability to locate upon some internal organ, as the lungs, the pleura, the bronchial passages, etc. Hagyard's Pectorial Balsam loosens and breaks up the cold, allays irritation and often prevents or cures pulmonary complaints. 2w14d

Letter from Mr. Gladstone.

At a meeting in Chelsea lately a letter was read from Mr. Gladstone, in which he said:—"Our adversaries have availed themselves of the fact that I have taken a large share in placing the Irish problem as a question of practical politics before the country to plead that it is a personal affair; that it is not a true conviction, and that the people are not in genuine sympathy with the justice of the Irish demand. A little reserve on my part will help them to be sooner undeceived, and to profit more effectively by the teaching they are already beginning to receive, the teaching of events."

ST JACOBS OIL

THE GREAT GERMAN REMEDY

WILL SURELY CONQUER PAIN!

CONQUERS RHEUMATISM.

Sir Roger Tichborne's Acute Rheumatism—Cured.

115 Fourth Ave., New York, N. Y. February 22, 1887.

For the last four months I have suffered from rheumatism, and every time I sat down and got up I suffered the most acute agony. In fact I was not able to move my legs without pain, and when going down stairs the pain was too dreadful to bear. I was recommended to send for a bottle of St. Jacobs Oil and try it. I did so, and to my great surprise and delight I found it an almost instant cure as regards the pain. I have only used one bottle up to the present, but I now can sit down, get up, and walk about without the slightest pain.

R. E. D. TICHBORNE.

Rheumatism 13 Years—Cured.

Mr. James Maloney, Sr., Orillia, Ontario, says: I have been a sufferer with rheumatism for the past thirteen years, and have tried during that time, many of the remedies advertised for it, but all without effect. I was induced to use St. Jacobs Oil. With its use the pain vanished and has not since returned.

Nothing Equals It for Rheumatism.

Capt. Chas. W. Crowley, President of the Canadian Sailors' Union, Princess street, Kingston, says: St. Jacobs Oil is indeed a most remarkable discovery; I think there is nothing equal to it for the cure of rheumatism and like diseases.

Rheumatism—Knees and Ankles—Cured

Hon. E. J. B. Pence, Mayor of Kingston, Canada, suffered with severe rheumatic pains in the knees and ankles and was promptly cured by St. Jacobs Oil.

Every application gives relief; every bottle contains a cure; every bottle tested as to quality; every genuine bottle bears the firm's fac-simile signature; every home in America and Great Britain knows its value; every spoken language knows its name; every journal praises it; St. Jacobs Oil. Every dealer knows its merits; every chemist finds it perfect. Sold by Druggists and Dealers. Price fifty cents per bottle. The Charles A. Vogeler Co., Baltimore, Md., U. S. A. LOCAL NEWS.

A Nut for Naturalists.

On Wednesday an employee of Nelson's tannery, Ashburnham, found in the building a nondescript little animal. Though it largely resembles a mole, it has many peculiarities. It is, as pointed out by amateur naturalists, considerably larger than the ordinary specimens of the genus talpa; it literally answers the popular fallacy that moles have no eyes, for the most careful search fails to discover the least rudiments of visual organs; the genuine mole, however, has eyes, though they are very small. The integument of its feet, which are webbed, resembles that of the foot of the duck; its tail, which in this specimen seems to be hypertrophied, is of a pinkish color, and similar otherwise to that of the beaver, though round instead of flat, in fact; persons familiar with the common little mould-warp of our fields recognize so many points of difference from this abnormal specimen that they are positive in declaring that it is not an ordinary mole. Parties curious about such matters can see the "What is it?" at the EXAMINER office and exercise their ingenuity upon it.

At Home and Abroad.

Mr. D. Belleghem, the Famous Furniture Factor, has his name 'way up, both at home and abroad, and the demand for his goods far and near is astonishing. The other day he went to Fenelon Falls to deliver a carload or two of furniture for the Mansion House, and the Lindsay Post thus refers to his trip, and its object: "An order for this (furniture) was placed with belleghem, the furniture Mikado of Peterborough, and on Thursday Belleghem passed through Lindsay escorting one carload, including the entire furnishings for seven rooms, with mattresses, etc. It has come to be a recognized fact that hardly an order of any extent for furniture is sent from the Midland district to the cities, Belleghem having established so thorough a reputation for a good article and prices that he gets the trade." On Monday he went up with another carload. People are ceasing to be surprised at Belleghem's exploits in the furniture business. They expect something new from him every few days and they are never disappointed. What will be his next exploit?

Dwelling Destroyed by Fire.

On Thursday evening about half past seven o'clock the dwelling of Mr. James Loudan, corner of Chamberlain street and the Drain Road, took fire and, with its contents, was completely destroyed. No one was at home at the time. Mrs. Loudan was absent in Toronto, being called thither by the illness of her father, and Mr. Loudan had left the house about fifteen minutes before the alarm was sounded. There was a fire in two stoves and a lighted lamp in the kitchen, when the fire broke out, and the odor of burning coal oil, perceptible at the beginning of the blaze, suggests the theory that the fire started from the explosion of the lamp. The fire alarm was rung, the brigade and engine turned out, but before the water could be got on, the building was as bad as burned. The dwelling next north, owned by Mr. Wm. Moore, had a narrow escape, but the effor of neighbors at first and the firemen later saved it, though the furniture was considerably damaged by removal. Mr. Loudan's loss is lessened by an insurance of $300 in the Phoenix of Brooklyn on house and $200 on contents.

Oddfellows' Sermon.

Rev. I. Tovell will on the evening of Sunday, the 24th inst., preach the annual sermon to the Oddfellows of Peterborough on the occasion of the 69th anniversary of the Order on the American continent. Both lodges will assemble at 6 o'clock in their respective lodge rooms and march in one body from the hall of Peterborough Lodge to the church, the body of which will be reserved for the Oddfellows.

See Turnbull's Fine Taffeta Silk Gloves in all shades, from 25 to 50 cents a pair, when in inspecting Millinery this week.

Good Friday.

This solemn holy day was very generally, and, generally, very decorously and becomingly observed by a nearly complete suspension of business, excepting those places dealing in the necessaries of life, such as cigar stores, confectioneries, drug stores, hotels, livery stables, etc. The large numbers going from or returning to town to spend the day, or two or three days, substantially stimulated railway passenger traffic on both lines. The weather was immensely delightful, especially the celestial section, but under-foot the streets were a triple medley of dust, here, mud, there, and slush everywhere. It was a poor day for the livery stables and a worse one for the poor mud splashed horses that were taken out. There were special services appropriate to the day in all the churches with an exception or two. Altogether the day was very becomingly observed in the town; there was a most gratifying absence, almost entire, of drunkeness and unseemly merry making, which often characterizes the observance of a Good Friday.

A North-west Boom.

There is a prospect of a boom in the North-west this year. A gentleman residing in Keewatin was in town on Friday. He is connected with a large lumbering firm at that place, the Keewatin Lumbering Company, which expects to do a very large business the coming season. It is confidently expected that there will be a rush of immigration to the North-west this season, and Winnipeg confidently looks for a business and building boom. The lumber companies at Keewatin own the bulk of the timber limits in the Lake of the Woods region, which contain splendid specimens of yellow pine, many trees averaging 20 inches, and of as good quality as can be found in any other part of Canada. These companies also own extensive timber tracts in northern Minnesota, whose products cannot be conveniently marketed in the United States, and from these they are now drawing their present supply—over 25 millions of feet every year—and preserving their Canadian limits.

Living Examples.

A citizen loitering around the market this morning drew attention to the prominent figure taken in the Easter market services by Messrs. Fred. Winch and George Webber. Arrayed in enormous aprons, whose spotless expanse covered their substantial corporations like immense snow drifts, they were floundering about with elephantine gracefulness, slicing steaks, skewering roasts, and smiling upon the ladies, with a robust good nature which made them the observed of all observers. Harry is wise in his generation. It is no trouble for him to sell his Easter meats when the public see what jolly, rotund, well-kept assistants thrive on his prime joints—a pair of ponderous twins equal to any trio of triplets in the county.

Imperial Federation.

In reference to the meeting to be held in the Opera House on Tuesday evening next in connection with the Imperial Federation League, it may be as well to state that the movement has nothing whatever to do with the question of Home Rule for Ireland. One of the fundamental principles of the League is that there shall be no interference with local parliaments as regards local affairs. The great object the League throughout the Empire has in view is to draw more closely together the ties which unite Great Britain and Ireland with the colonies. The organization is composed of men of all parties and all creeds. The proceedings will be interesting to ladies as well as to gentlemen. It is hoped, therefore, that ladies will be present in large numbers.

Easter Meat Displays.

During the past week the EXAMINER gave elaborate and detailed notices of the preparations made by the town butchers for Easter, and it is now only necessary to say that the promises then made in the name of the butchers' guild have been faithfully kept. All the principal meat stalls and shops are gorgeously decked with ornamental and magnificent meats of every description. The display in general has never before been excelled in Peterborough, and if the people of the town do not break the Lenten fast in a right royal manner it will not be the fault of the butchers.

Freight Activity.

All the past winter freight traffic has been unusually brisk on the Midland and Grand Junction divisions of the G. T. R., much in advance of that of the winter of 1885-6, while at the same time the detention from snow-blocked tracks has not been extraordinary, notwithstanding the severity of the winter now so slowly and deliberately disappearing.

"They are Fine Singers."

Bishop Haven, of the Methodist Episcopal Church, says of the New Orleans Jubilee Singers, who will appear in the George street church on Monday night, "I take great pleasure in recommending the University Singers; I know them personally. They are fine singers, and well produce the melodies current in the south." Tickets may be had at the bookstores, 25c.

Young Men.

Young men are invited to attend the meetings in the Y. M. C. A. hall on Saturday night at 8 and Sunday afternoon at 4 p.m. Song service on Sunday night at 8.30 o'clock, to which everybody is welcome. Messrs. H. S. Griffin and George M. Roger will speak at the meeting to-morrow night.

Short Nights.

As the days become longer, we can afford to use more artificial light, and reading or sewing by lamp light may become a new pleasure by buying China Hall's famous Coal Oils. Same prices as inferior oils.

Meet for Drill.

The members of No. 4 Company, 57th Battalion, will meet in uniform at the Water street roller rink Monday evening at 7.30 for a short drill. Arrangements will be made for drills in the future.

Piano Tuning.

Mr. George Gumpricht is in town. Orders may be left at Mr. T. Menzies' bookstore, or Messrs. Taylor & Macdonald's drug store. tf

—Mr. Charles Brown, formerly of the Town Clock Grocery, has purchased Mr. E. Dunfort's stock and will continue the business.

The Northwest at Our Doors.

A Splendid Exhibit of Northwest Resources.

To-day at 11.30 the Exhibition Car of the C. P. R. arrived at the station, and there were hundreds of visitors awaiting its arrival. It stands at the siding close to George street, just south of Dalhousie street. It is in charge of Capt. C. W. Allen, a retired journalist, the very tip-top of gentlemanly attention courtesy and an ambulatory encyclopœdia of Northwest lore, he having spent six years in British Columbia and six in Manitoba. The contents of the car are very like those of the similar car which visited Peterborough before but, this contains in addition a mammoth section of a Douglas Fir, peculiar, to British Columbia, its dramatic towering in the centre of the car, above the reach of the up-stretched hand of an ordinary man, and its concentric rings of growth showing it to be 560 years old, the head of a ranche cow, from the Cochrane Ranche, Lethbridge, raised without shelter or artificial food, specimens of coal from the Galt mine, etc. The other contents of the car are beautifully arranged, and besides being useful as an index to the vast variety of the phenomenal fruitfulness of the North-west, are beautiful as an object picture. The most striking articles shown are natural grasses from the prairie region, also wild pea vine, wild vetches, wild hops, wild hemp; linseed oil cake, manufactured in Winnipeg from flax seed grown by the Russian Mennonites, settled in Southern Manitoba; two excellent samples of oatmeal from Nairn & Co.'s mills, Winnipeg; apples from British Columbia, and canned fruits (wild and domestic) from various parts of the North-west; specimens of grain produced on the Indian Farm, Fort William, and photographs of Rocky Mountain views and prairie farming scenes. All these and hundreds of other objects impossible of enumeration, form an attraction well worthy of a visit. A more extended reference to the exhibit, its history and objects will be reserved for the next issue of the EXAMINER. By all means pay it a visit. The car will be open to visitors till nine o'clock this evening.

Church Chimes.

At the George street church on Sunday, services at 11 a. m., and 7 p. m., conducted by Rev. I. Tovell. The Jubilee Singers will assist at the evening service. Easter offering to Superannuation Fund morning and evening.

Orangeism of High Degree.

Mr. W. H. Smith, Grand Lecturer for British America of the Royal Black Knights of Ireland, has been in town yesterday and to-day, holding lodges of instruction. He held well attended meetings yesterday and this afternoon, and will, it is expected, hold another this evening. There were several imitations and several were raised to higher degrees—from the black cross to the red cross. Mr. Smith is the bearer of a report from the West Toronto District Orange Association to the effect that a large excursion, under the auspices of the Order, will be run to Peterborough from Toronto on May 24th. It will consist of between five and six hundred persons and will include representatives of the Pioneers, Scarlet Chapter, Royal Black Knights and the Orange brethren generally. A splendid band will accompany the excursionists, and the visit of a delegation to make arrangements may soon be expected in Peterborough.

Important Meeting.

An important special meeting of the Prohibition Club of this town will be held to-night in the Lecture Hall of the Business College at 8 o'clock. All men are invited to be present.

A CARD FROM

T. DOLAN,

TO HIS NUMEROUS FRIENDS.

I beg to say that the Dry Goods business heretofore carried on by T. Dolan & Co., has been disposed of to the new firm of Messrs SHEEHY & CO., who will continue the business in the same stand No. 2 CLUXTON'S BLOCK.

Mr. Corkery one of the members of the new firm has been connected with the late firm since 1878 and consequently knows what the public wants.

While thanking my many friends who have so liberally patronized the late firm in the Dry Goods business for the past twelve years, I trust they will continue to bestow that patronage on my successor.

I desire to state that I now intend confining myself exclusively to the Clothing trade, and will continue to do my utmost to keep only such goods as will be appreciated by the public.

MONDAY, APRIL 11, 1887.

COERCION CAMPAIGN.

LORD RANDOLPH CHURCHILL WILL SUPPORT THE MEASURE.

LONDON, April 9.—In English politics there is still little to mention beyond the extension of the anti-coercion campaign. Many members have left town, most of them having paired until the end of next week. Lord Randolph Churchill will address several meetings in support of coercion, and Hartington will also speak in public. Mr. Gladstone's next manifesto will take the form of a speech at a dinner of the Eighty Club on April 19.

This morning's Post demands that Monday's anti coercion meeting in Hyde Park be suppressed, saying: "In the face of the reckless parliamentary minority as an instrument of menace to the supremacy of Parliament, it can only be by some unfortunate technicality that such meetings can escape being called treasonable."

The Ulster Land Committee yesterday declared against all the Land Bill except the clauses relating to leases. In this Ulster agrees with the National League. An Irish Conservative landowner writes to say that a bill more fatal to the landlords was never drafted than that which the Earl of Cadogan has introduced into the Lords, adding: "The Government will fail on the Coercion Bill, but the Land Bill will be a contributory cause."

A Manifesto to the Miners.

LONDON, April 9.—Mr. Gladstone to-day issued to the miners in the north of Great Britain, a majority of whom are enthusiastic followers of him, the following letter, which amounts to a manifesto:

I cannot refrain from calling your attention to the meeting which is to be held in Hyde Park next Monday and to which I understand tens of thousands of the workingmen of London intend generously to devote their holiday. If ever there was a time when it was to the interest of the English workingman to be think himself, this is the time. It is the first time when a coercion bill, if passed, is to be passed by England's vote alone against the voices of Scotland, Ireland and Wales. It is the first time when such a bill will have been passed under the sanction of the householders at large, who were never enfranchised before the elections—in 1885 and 1886. It is the first time that coercion has been proposed without any attempt by the ministry to show, what we know they cannot show, a state of exceptional and flagrant or growing crime. If England is to coerce Ireland for crime, Ireland can reply that relatively to population she has less crime than England. In my opinion the rejection of the bill is even more needed by England than by Ireland. For Ireland it is a question of suffering, and she knows how to suffer. For England it is a question of shame and dishonor, and to cast away shame and dishonor is the first business of a great nation.

In 1876 a meeting of London workingmen first gave effectual force to the movement for Bulgaria which brought about the election of 1880. May the meeting of Monday next ring the death knell of the worst, the most insulting and the most causeless coercion bill ever submitted to Parliament.

Hartington Counsels Resistance.

LONDON, April 9.—Lord Hartington has written the following letter to a Unionist meeting: "It is of great importance that some answer should be given to the agitation which is being promoted against the measures necessary for the maintenance of order in Ireland. Doubtless it is greatly to be regretted that the Government is compelled again to resort to coercive measures although Liberal statesmen have not shrunk on former occasions from proposing, in similar circumstances legislation of equal, if not greater severity. It is my firm conviction that the desire which compelled the Government to resort to this policy is not spontaneous and is not mainly caused by unredressed grievances. It is the result of the determination of some leaders of the Irish people to prove that the government of Ireland by the Parliament of the United Kingdom is impossible and an attempt is being made to discredit both remedial and repressive legislation. In my judgment this attempt ought to be firmly resisted by the Unionists, both Liberal and Conservative."

Reinforcements for Tonquin Refused.

PARIS, April 9.—Private advices from Tonquin represent the country as being infested with pirates roaming about in powerful bands, robbing, committing all kinds of outrages and causing much trouble and loss of life among the French. The French troops are unable to cope with the pirates and reinforcements are much needed. These the French Government, it is said, is unwilling to furnish, the temper of the republic being averse to colonial expenses, and it is reported that Gen. Boulanger declares that all the available soldiers of France are at present required at home.

Newfoundland's Claim for Compensation.

LONDON, April 9.—The Times, commenting on the appeal of the members of the Newfoundland Legislature for compensation for losses sustained by the disallowance of the bill regulating the export of bait, says the suffering complained of is a real and serious grievance which might have been already removed but for the Colonial Office, which has been dilatory, inconsiderate and not altogether straightforward. The Government ought, the Times adds, immediately either sanction the bill or suggest some acceptable alteration.

The bald-headed more than any other would like to be a million-hair.

BITTER CONTROVERSY

THE ECCLESIASTICAL BILL CAUSING STRIFE IN GERMANY.

BERLIN, April 8.—The Ecclesiastical Bill has been fixed as the order of the day in the Unterhaus for April 20. At the recent short conference the National Liberal leaders were disposed to assent to the bill, after stating in the course of the debate that their acceptance would be conditional on no further concessions being made. During the vacation the controversy has become most bitter. The unceasing hostile language of the Catholic press has caused a revulsion in the pacific mood of the National Liberals and Conservative papers. Instead of now discussing the acceptance of the measure as passed by the Oberhaus, the National Liberals are disposed to reject the bill unless all of Bishop Kopp's amendments are stricken out. In deference to Prince Bismarck they will consent to the adoption of the original bill, but will not go a step beyond. On the other hand, the Centre party brings forward again the whole of Bishop Kopp's proposals, including those which the committee of the Oberhaus refused to entertain.

Dr. Windthorst's reported submission to the Vatican is only provisional. If the Conservative and National Liberal groups oppose the entire freedom of the recalled religious orders, including the right of tuition in schools, the Centre will maintain the war. As these very points find the bitterest opposition, the chances of a pacific settlement seem remote. Intense irritation prevails on both sides. The Centreists avow their readiness to submit to the Curia, but maintain that Prince Bismarck has outwitted the Vatican, and that Mgr. Galimberti's mission was a failure.

The National Liberals consider that Prince Bismarck has been grossly deceived in trying to dominate the Centre party through the Pope. The Cologne Gazette of yesterday predicts that Bismarck will be ready to go still further in the making of concessions, and will yield to the demand of the Centreists for all of the Kopp proposals. While it is beyond doubt that the opposition of the Conservatives and National Liberals will defeat the combined Centreists and New German Liberals, and that the bill will be referred to a committee, it may require the decisive exercise of the Government's influence to prevent its rejection.

THE PERILS OF THE PLAINS.

Two Persons Lose Their Lives in a Dakota Prairie Fire.

HURON, D.T., April 9.—A prairie fire last night swept over a great portion of Grant Township, in this county, doing immense damage. Fred Towns' house, seven miles south, his barn and other buildings, together with furniture, machinery and several head of stock, were destroyed. The house was occupied by Edward Maloney and his sister Kate, and with them, when the fire occurred, was Annie Marine. The wind was blowing a gale, and before they were aware of their danger the fire was upon them. In attempting to reach a plowed field all were overtaken by the fire. Edward Maloney and Annie Marine were burned to death, and Kate was so badly burned that her recovery is doubtful. Edward's remains were taken to Preston, Minn., his afternoon, where his parents reside. Other losses are reported in the same locality.

A Fire Break Two Miles Long.

HIGHMORE, D.T., April 9.—An immense prairie fire is raging about a mile south of town, and driven by a strong wind from the south, called out the citizens 150 strong yesterday. A fire break, two miles long, was made, and the town is now free from danger. At 3 o'clock the temperature was ninety-three in the shade.

Fire Swept Farms.

MADISON, D.T., April 9.—Immense prairie fires burned over the south half of Lake County last night. Some twenty-five farmers lost their houses, barns, stock and grain. Frances Keller was burned to death between his burning house and barn. The Madison Fire Department was called out to protect the town from the fire coming from the west before a wind blowing forty miles an hour. Reports from various points in North and Central Dakota state that rain has been falling this afternoon and to-night for the first time in many months, greatly improving crop prospects and removing the danger of prairie fires.

The Northwest Wants Rain.

ST. PAUL, Minn., April 9.—The signal observer says that unless the Northwest has rain within a few hours the conditions will be highly favorable for cyclones. The weather to-night is warm and sultry.

THE CHICAGO CARPENTERS.

The Strike Continues, with No Prospect of Immediate Settlement.

CHICAGO, April 9.—The strike of the union carpenters is still on, and work on many large buildings is being retarded in consequence. The bricklayers and hod carriers have officially announced their desire to help the carpenters. The following communication was received at the carpenters' headquarters this morning:

CHICAGO, April 8, 1887.

Bricklayers and stonemasons take notice:

You are notified that you must not assist bosses or anyone else in setting frames or cuts, or doing other carpenter work.

By order of the union.

A. VORKELLER, President.

The bricklayers have imposed a fine of $10 for a violation of the above order. A similar notice from the hod-carriers imposes a fine of 10. Telegrams of encouragement have been received from New York, Washington, Philadelphia, Baltimore, Los Angeles, and also the Brotherhood of Carpenters in Canada.

The meeting of Knights of Labor to-day, to demand acceptance of the bosses' offer to compromise, was captured by the Brotherhood of Carpenters, and at the very outset of the proceedings a resolution was rushed through indorsing the refusal to compromise, and pledging the Knights to support the strike to the end. Fully 2000 men were present, and the Knights of Labor, who were not members of the Carpenters' Brotherhood, unexpectedly found themselves powerless because of the attendance of a host of carpenters who are members of both organizations. The Brotherhood had stolen a march on the Knights.

At a meeting of the Master Carpenters Association to-night a resolution reiterating refusal to recognize any union of employes was adopted and the men were notified to return to work Monday morning or the Masters' Association would at once proceed to inaugurate a systematic import boat of workmen from other cities.

The New York Plumbers' Strike.

NEW YORK, April 9.—The general strike of the plumbers of this city for the enforcement of the apprentice shop system in the trade has at last been declared off. The struggle was begun Sept. 1, 1886, and has proved one of the hardest fought and most expensive in the history of the labor movements of this city. The journeymen claim that most of their members are now working under the union rules. A guerrilla warfare will be kept up against those employers who are still determined to resist their demands. During the fight the journeymen paid out over $100,000 in strike benefits.

HAYTI TO ENGLAND.

AN AMICABLE SETTLEMENT OF THE CLAIMS EXPECTED.

WASHINGTON, April 9.—Although no official confirmation has been received at the Department of State of the report that Great Britain has threatened to seize Tortuga Island, yet it is learned that the American Consul at Hayti has kept the department fully informed as to the nature of the British claim and all proceedings taken by that Government against Hayti during the past three or four years. Now that the matter is reported to have assumed so serious a phase the Government, with a view to being prepared for any emergency, is beginning to canvass its resources in case it should become necessary to again assert the intention of this country to maintain the Monroe doctrine to the extent of protecting the small republics of the American continent against encroachment of European powers. The result of the enquiries into the naval resources of the United States is not encouraging so far. Several wooden vessels forming the training squadron are now on their way northward from the West Indies and at present there is no vessel bearing the American flag in Haytien waters. The Yantic is at Key West and the Galena at Aspinwall, and it is possible that one or both of these vessels may be ordered to Hayti to represent the United States Government in the event that it may become necessary to enter a formal protest against European encroachment in the West Indies.

An Amicable Settlement Probable.

SANTIAGO DE CUBA, April 9.—News has been received from Hayti to the effect that an amicable settlement of the British claims may be expected. The Haytien Assembly has had two special sittings, one public and one secret, to consider the demand made by Mr. Hill, the British special agent now in Hayti. He wishes to have the principle admitted. President Solomon declined taking action until he obtained an expression of opinion from the Assembly. To admit the principle is to acknowledge the English claim of $1,000,000. The Island of Tortugas was offered to the British Government in settlement of the claim three years ago.

The French frigate La Minerve, Admiral Vigue, arrived here day before yesterday for orders. She was ordered to proceed to Hayti. It has been stated that the orders said trouble was imminent. The vessel proceeded to Port au Prince.

An interesting complication may be remembered in connection with the "Black Republic," as Sir Spencer St. John, the late British Minister to Hayti, terms it in his new book. The Government of Hayti has recently borrowed 15,000,000 francs or $4,000,000 in Paris. If England wants a Haytien island French creditors will probably have something to say.

The highly alarming rumors that have reached this city from Hayti seem to be baseless, as the United States steamer Yantic left there three days ago for this port and the Haytien man-of-war Dessalines, Capt. Cooper (a son of Admiral Cooper of the United States navy) in also here. Capt. Cooper stated positively that the rumors of a revolutionary movement there and another massacre of mulattoes were absolutely groundless; that perfect peace and quiet reigned in Port au Prince and that he (Capt. Cooper) had left his family there.

Her Majesty's ship Canada with the British commander on board is still at Port au Prince. Mr. Hill is expected here within a fortnight. The general opinion is that the matter will be amicably settled.

THE CHURCH AND THE K. OF L.

Cardinal Taschereau Suspends His Condemnation.

QUEBEC, April 10.—The following circular bearing on the Knights of Labor question, was read in the different Roman Catholic churches here to-day:

ARCHIEPISCOPIC OF QUEBEC, April 3, 1887.

SIR: In September, 1884, the Holy See, consulted by me on the Society of the Knights of Labor, condemned it under pain of grievous sin, and charged the bishops to deter their diocesans therefrom, as I did in my circular letter (No. 131) of Feb. 2, 1885. After representations made by their lordships the bishops of the United States, the Holy See has suspended, until further orders, the effect of that sentence. In consequence I authorize the confessors of this diocese to absolve the Knights of Labor on the following conditions, which it is your bounden duty to explain to them and to make them observe:

1. That they confess and sincerely repent the grievous sin which they committed by not obeying the decree of September, 1884.
2. That they be ready to abandon this society, so soon as the Holy See shall ordain it.
3. That they sincerely and implicitly promise absolutely to avoid all that may either favor masonic and other condemned societies, or violate the laws of either justice, charity or of the State.
4. That they abstain from every promise and from every oath by which they would bind themselves either to obey blindly all the orders of the directors of the society, or keep absolute secrecy, even towards the lawful authorities. (See "discipline" p. 217).

In behalf of those penitents only and by virtue of an indult, I prolong the time of the Paschal communion until the Feast of the Ascension inclusive. Please accept, sir, the assurance of my sincere attachment.

E. A. CARD. TASCHEREAU, Archbishop of Quebec.

HAMER'S BODY FOUND.

The Search for the Missing Student has a Melancholy End.

MONTREAL, Que., April 10.—The mystery in which the disappearance of young Hamer, the McGill medical student, has been enshrouded, is cleared away. His body was found this afternoon in the snow in a maple grove about a mile from the hotel where he was last seen. There is no doubt he was frozen to death, as there are no marks of violence on the body and all the money in his possession, $24.50, was found on him. He was discovered by a small searching party imbedded in the snow and was still frozen. His face was natural and his hands were folded over his breast. He had evidently lost his way in the blinding storm and laid down on the drift to wait for daylight, fropped asleep, and never awoke. The body was brought into town to the morgue and an inquest will be held there to-morrow.

SENTENCED TO DEATH.

Gozalin, who Murdered a Woman at Palmer's Rapids, to be Hanged in June.

PEMBROKE, Ont., April 9.—The trial of Gozalin was finished yesterday afternoon, and the prisoner was sentenced to be hanged in Pembroke on June 6. Gozalin was arrested last October for murdering a woman near Palmer's Rapids. The crime was committed because she refused to vacate a shanty he owned, whereupon he nailed up the door and set fire to the building. She managed to break open the door, and Gozalin, seeing this, struck her on the head several times with a club and killed her. The prisoner was conveyed to Pembroke jail, where he remained till his trial, which lasted two days.

"Infantry Fire Tactics."

Major Mayne, R.E., of the Royal Military College, has kindly consented to deliver a lecture on "Infantry Fire Tactics" this evening at 8 o'clock in the lecture room of the Veterinary College, Temperance-street. The lecture is one of a series under the auspices of the Royal Grenadiers, and the members of that corps and the other city corps are cordially invited to attend. Major Mayne's reputation as an author on the above subject is world wide. He was through the Afghan wars under Gen. Roberts and made this subject his special study.

BENEFIT SOCIETIES.

A recent review gave an excellent idea of the advantages and disadvantages of the modern system of what is termed "society" insurance, and which is adapted to working men particularly. Benefit societies in this country and in England are rapidly increasing and there can be no question that in numerous instances, they form the only kind of provision some men can make for their families. It must also be admitted that they often enable the surviving members of the family (who have been deprived of its head,) to feed, clothe and educate themselves, so that they are in one measure independent and not obliged to lean on the cold charity of the world.

In Great Britain the government exercises a certain amount of supervision over friendly and benefit societies, and owing to the annual returns they must make, it is easy to understand exactly how they stand as to membership and financial strength. There are over 15,000 registered benefit societies in England and Wales. Their aggregate membership amounts to more than four millions seven hundred and fifty thousands, and the total accumulated capital is estimated at over sixty millions of dollars. It follows, therefore, that nearly one-fifth of the population of these countries has a distinct personal interest in, and connection with, these societies. They are not all benefit societies, promising a certain sum by way of insurance at death, and calling for assessments at intervals. Some are societies which give sick benefits, others burial benefits, others annuities to widows and orphans, or to members who exceed a particular age.

Of course it is true that this method of insurance is best adapted to the needs of the working classes. The cost of insurance in a wealthy stock company, either in England or in Canada, debars many a working man from attempting to make provision in this way for his family.

His wages, after meeting all necessary expenses, will not admit of such a luxury. He naturally, therefore, joins some society which offers him apparent protection against future contingencies at a very moderate rate. This is the chief cause of the great success benefit societies have secured. Another factor has been the tendency of men to form themselves into knots and parties for mutual recreation or amusement. Man is a society-loving animal, and fraternity is second nature to him.

This being the condition of affairs, it is only right that the Government should cause these societies to send their annual reports to the State, and that the powers that he should take some pains to secure the safety and solvency of the companies doing business. In this way people can be informed of the actual financial condition of the benefit society, or mutual insurance company, and if they choose to join a bankrupt or sinking concern, then it is their own fault. It is true that a large number of these voluntary assessment societies in England are in a bad condition financially. Their promises were wild and their theories vague and impractical; the consequence was, when pay-day came, they were unable to meet their agreements, and so they are on the verge of ruin, and absolute failure is only a matter of time. Of course, there are notable exceptions. The Oddfellows' society of Great Britain, the Foresters' and several others of like character, are on a sound financial basis, and their membership is naturally the largest. Five of the principal societies in England have one-fourth the membership and about 60 per cent. of the funds.

In our benefit societies—which are legion—there is an aspect of fraternity and a show of assisting the weak and sickly, which, no doubt, help to insure their stability, and, to some extent, this popularizes them with working men. They are clubs where mechanics, clerks, professional men and merchants meet and "have a good time" socially. And then the pleasure of holding office and of getting high-sounding names has a charm for most men. Power and position, even in semblance, attract most people.

It is roughly estimated that in Ontario alone about half-a-million persons are in organizations of this kind, and the number is rapidly increasing. One reason for this, unquestionably, is, as we have said, the expensive character of life insurance. Wealthy stock companies spend much on expenses of management, dividends, commissions, etc., and when the laboring man finds he can get, in one of the benefit societies, the promise of safe insurance at much lower rates, it is natural for him to take the risk, although in doing so, he sometimes grasps at the shadow and loses the substance.

We should like to see benefit societies here subject to the same rules as those in England, so that every effort might be made to insure their successful management and keep the people from being hoaxed into joining those which were on the verge of disaster and ruin. As it is, many of our people are at the mercy of some plausible Yankee schemer, and his "Royal Society of Good Fellows," or some such high-sounding institution, regarding whose financial condition they can know absolutely nothing.

LEGISLATURE OF ONTARIO.

Sixth Parliament--First Session.

THURSDAY, April 7.

Hon. G. W. Ross introduced a Bill respecting Upper Canada College, which was read the first time.

Hon. O. MOWAT introduced a Bill respecting the formation of new counties, which was read the first time.

Hon. O. MOWAT introduced a Bill to extend the Land Titles Act to the outlying districts of the Province, which was read the first time.

Hon. C. F. Fraser introduced a Bill to amend the Ontario Factories Act, 1884, which was read the first time.

Hon. G. W. Ross introduced a Bill respecting Separate School debentures, which was read the first time.

Hon. G. W. Ross introduced a Bill to amend the High Schools Act, which was read the first time.

The Attorney-General's Bill to give early effect to certain amendments of the law recommended by the Statute Commissioners was referred back to Committee of Whole, where some amendments were made to it. The Bill was then reported from the committee.

The House went into committee on the Attorney-General's Bill respecting the appointment and proceedings of police magistrates.

Hon. O. Mowat moved to add the following section to the Bill: A police magistrate appointed under this Act, or the Act respecting Police Magistrates for Counties, shall, in addition to his salary, be entitled to receive to his own use the same fees and emoluments as are paid to Justices of the Peace.

Mr. Meredith said that $600 would be sufficient for the amount of work these magistrates were called upon to perform, and, besides, the practice of paying judges and magistrates was a vicious one, and one which the Government itself had decided to abolish in the case of the Surrogate Courts.

Hon. A. S. Hardy said that the salary of $600 would be far too small in places where the work took up the whole time of the magistrate.

Mr. Lees protested against the Government taking the power to appoint police magistrates, and contended that the County Councils should make the appointments.

Hon. O. Mowat said that the Government had taken the power very reluctantly, under representations that such a step was absolutely necessary.

Mr. Clancy asked if there was any limitation as to the salary to be paid to the constable.

Hon. Mr. MOWAT said the constable would be paid by fees.

On the clause to protect magistrates under legal process for his action where he acted in good faith.

Mr. MEREDITH called attention to a case in which, as alleged, a magistrate, under warrant issued while conviction was under appeal, took possession of some beer and a valuable horse. The horse was damaged while in the custody of the law, and the owner was now suing to recover damages. This clause would cover that case and prevent the man recovering damages, though under the existing law his case might be a good one.

Hon. Mr. MOWAT said they must all agree that any law, so long as it stood on the statute book, should be enforced. The magistrates had to perform this duty, and though on technical grounds the defendant might quash conviction, the magistrates should not be liable when they acted in good faith. They could hardly expect the law to be enforced if this protection was not given.

After some further discussion, this and the subsequent clauses were passed and the Bill reported with amendments.

On motion of Hon. Mr. Mowat, the House went into Committee of the Whole on the Bill to make further provisions respecting assignments for the benefit of creditors.

On the section making the sheriff, if the assignee, liable to the penalties of the original Act in such cases, unless he has been tendered the cost of advertising, and providing that he shall not be compelled to act under assignments until his costs are tendered him.

Mr. MEREDITH expressed the opinion that this would leave the sheriff to make a practically unlimited demand, and would, in many cases, lead to large bills of expense being made up.

Hon. Mr. MOWAT said that the costs would be taxed, of course.

Mr. MEREDITH said this was not a practical remedy. Costs to be tendered should be limited to advertising and registering the assignment. Where there was a large estate the sheriff would be assured of his remuneration, and where there was little or none, more was not necessary.

Hon. Mr. MOWAT said cases had arisen in which the sheriffs had received little or nothing, and he did not see any practical way of reaching the difficulty except that embodied in the Bill.

This clause and the remaining clauses of the Bill were passed and the Bill reported.

The House adjourned at 3.35 o'clock.

Astonishing Success

It is the duty of every person who has used Boschee's German Syrup to let its wonderful qualities be known to their friends in curing Consumption, severe Coughs, Croup, Asthma, Pneumonia, and in fact all throat and lung diseases. No person can use it without immediate relief. Three doses will relieve any case, and we consider it the duty of all Druggists to recommend it to the poor, dying consumptive, at least to try one bottle, as 80,000 dozen bottles were sold last year, and no one case where it failed was reported. Such a medicine as the German Syrup cannot be too widely known. Ask your druggist about it. sample bottles to try, only 10 cents. Regular size, 75 cents. Sold by all Druggists and dealers, in the United States and Canada. eodw4

GOUGH'S

Fresh Arrival of Spring Overcoats and Suits are the Newest Nobbiest, and Cheapest under the Sun!!

Those High-Priced Clothing Dealers can't see the funny about Gough's GIFT Department, and Claim such things are beneath them—Yes, low Advertising is beyond their comprehension, because they don't understand the first principles of Low Price System. We freely admit that we are fallen Clothiers, wallowing in the lowest depths of Bed Rock Prices, while our exalted brethren look down upon us from their high places, and go wild because we Capture the Trade.

Farmers, Mechanics, Merchants, Bankers and Laboring Men, come in and see us. Take no man's word, investigate and believe your own eyes, and you will be convinced that GOUGH is the cheapest Clothier on Earth.

THIS WEEK we will offer Extraordinary Inducements. All our Departments have been augmented with new features and choice Stock, which will justly excite the admiration of all visitors. Call, it will pay as well as please you to see—

I have completed my Stock of Cloths, Clothing and Furnishings for Spring and Summer Wear. The Cloths are the Pick of the best markets and of the most Fashionable Patterns.

SPRING OVER-COATS.

I have a large line of handsome and durable materials so Cheap that any one can afford to have a Spring Overcoat. Nothing is more needed at this Season of the year than Light Weight Overcoat.

CUSTOM WORK.

OUR CUSTOM WORK will still keep its high rank. Fit, Style and Finish is our hobby. Our Cutter, Mr. DRESSER, is as painstaking and exact as ever, and we undertake to turn out suits equal to any in the Dominion. Suits made up to Order on Short notice.

READY-MADE CLOTHING.

I can now show a Stock which has the Style and Finish of Ordered Clothing, in Men's, Boys and Youth's Suits, and at Prices that will astonish you. For example: TWEED SUITS at $5.00, $7.00, and $9.00; WORSTED SUITS at $10.00 and $12.00. BOYS SUITS actually as low as $2.00. If you don't understand how we can do this, and give a good article, too, come in and see for yourselves. The percentage on all our Clothing is close, to be sure, but our facilities for buying at lowest market prices are unsurpassed by any in trade. Bear in mind, too, that our Clothing is all good. Undergrade Clothing may be offered to buyers elsewhere, but not at the City Clothing Store. Sign of the Golden Horse Shoe, symbolical of Good Luck to all who pass in under.

BRADSTREET'S WEEKLY REPORT.

The Condition of Business Throughout the Country.

NEW YORK, April 8.—Special telegrams to Bradstreet's indicate that general trade, as shown by the receipt of new orders and the movement of merchandise, compares unfavorably with last week. This was not altogether unexpected and has several explanations. First of all, the putting of the inter-state commerce law into operation unquestionably checked business to a greater extent than had been anticipated. The movement of dry goods from New York, Boston and Philadelphia has been less on account of it and orders for iron and of coal have been delayed. Minneapolis and other Northwestern flour millers are unwilling to move their products for the time being. A current of export wheat has been increased via New Orleans. Pacific coast overland takings have suddenly declined, and a number of southern railways have obtained a temporary suspension of the long and short haul clause of the new law as applied to themselves. The disturbing element is due apparently, as much to uncertainty as to the final interpretation of the new law as to existing advances in freight rates, and snow at the north, cold weather at the south and drouth in Texas and California have served to disturb trade also, and elections at two or three important cities, with the holidays, naturally curtailed the value of transactions.

Over 300 special returns to Bradstreet's indicate that in New England, the Middle and Central Western States there are 400,000 more industrial employes at work than in 1885 after the period of depression. The wages received, considering that full time is now the rule, have advanced the average from 10 to 15 per cent., about as much as they declined from 1882 to 1885. There are, of course, a number of exceptions. The industrial situation throughout the region specified is declared to possess requisite conditions for increasing prosperity. Woolen goods, boot, shoe, and at some points cigar and distilled spirits, makers are less actively engaged than employes in other lines. A disturbing influence is found in the present disposition in building trades operatives and others to strike for fewer hours' work.

The total number of striking employes in January was 73,330, against 47,220 last year; in February 26,000, against 10,800; and in March 157,000, against 60,000 in 1886. For the quarter the total was nearly 134,000 in 1887, against 108,000 in 1886. There have been 12,800 employes on strike during eight days of April, 1887.

The domestic money markets on the whole are easier. The movement of funds to the country from Chicago and Milwaukee has subsided, though interior bankers report the demand for money fairly active. At Kansas City money is returning to the city. The cattle trade prospects and the announcement of harmony between Reading and Pennsylvania occasioned an advance in the coal road stocks and developed a general rising tendency in the New York stock market with increased activity. Money at New York commands moderately high rates though it would seem that the tendency is toward a lower basis, as money is expected to flow back to the financial centres.

Wheat has been firmer on news of drouth, crop damage and the attitude of the bull clique at the west. In California prices are high and business at a standstill.

Iron is dull, with prices nearly held, except for old material, which is weaker, though not offered so freely.

Cotton goods are strong, and some brown and bleached varieties have been advanced. Prints, too, are firm. The tendency of prices is upward. Woolens have not improved for six weeks, and some manufacturers will have finished their orders within two months.

Wool is as dull as ever. The new railway rates for California wool are prohibitive and ultimate and Canadian Pacific rates are awaited with interest.

Cotton is quiet at New York on tame foreign advices and reducing sales. The movement to the ports is light, but the overland movement during March was heavy. Spot is 1-16c lower.

Western tobacco is alive at New York. Sales 850 hogsheads, of which 500 hogsheads were for Spanish account. Prices unchanged. The poor character of offerings restricted business.

The reports of failures to Bradstreet's are as follows: In United States this week 182; last week, 227. The same week in 1886, 141; in 1885, 225; in 1884, 282; in 1883, 150. In Canada this week, 22; last week, 34. The same week in 1886, 26; in 1885, 24; in 1884, 17; in 1883, 24. In United States Jan. 1 to April 8, 1887, 3326; 1886, 3480; 1885, 4277; 1884, 3611; 1883, 3322. In Canada, 1887, 301; 1886, 386; 1885, 461; 1884, 104; 1883, 451.

The Czar's Assassin.

It is stated that Degnieff, the alleged leader of the recent plot to assassinate the Czar, is safe in America.

A Startling Discovery.

A startling and important discovery was made when, after long and patient experiments, the combination of NERVILINE was reached. A grand victory, indeed, for the suffering have an ever ready, prompt, efficient, and cheap remedy at hand. Do you know that for 10 cents you can buy a trial bottle of Polson's Nerviline and test its great power over pain of every discription? Polson's Nerviline cures chills, pain in the stomach, side, and back, rheumatism; in fact all pain. Sold by druggists and country dealers. 6dw15

GOLDEN MEDICAL DISCOVERY

CURES ALL HUMORS,

from a common Blotch, or Eruption, to the worst Scrofula. Salt-rheum, "Fever-sores," Scaly or Rough Skin, in short, all diseases caused by bad blood are conquered by this powerful, purifying, and invigorating medicine. Great Eating Ulcers rapidly heal under its benign influence. Especially has it manifested its potency in curing Tetter, Rose Rash, Boils, Carbuncles, Sore Eyes, Scrofulous Sores and Swellings, Hip-Joint Disease, White Swellings, Goitre, or Thick Neck, and Enlarged Glands. Send ten cents in stamps for a large treatise, with colored plate, on Skin Diseases, or the same amount for a treatise on Scrofulous Affections. "THE BLOOD IS THE LIFE." Thoroughly cleanse it by using Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery, and good digestion, a fair skin, buoyant spirits, vital strength, and soundness of constitution, will be established.

CONSUMPTION,

which is Scrofulous Disease of the Lungs, is promptly and certainly arrested and cured by this God-given remedy, if taken before the last stages of the disease are reached. From its wonderful power over this terribly fatal disease, when first offering this now celebrated remedy to the public, Dr. PIERCE thought seriously of calling it his "Consumption Cure," but abandoned that name as too limited for a medicine which, from its wonderful combination of tonic, or strengthening, alterative, or blood-cleansing, anti-bilious, pectoral, and nutritive properties, is unequaled, not only as a remedy for consumption of the lungs, but for all

CHRONIC DISEASES OF THE

Liver, Blood, and Lungs.

If you feel dull, drowsy, debilitated, have sallow color of skin, or yellowish-brown spots on face or body, frequent headache or dizziness, bad taste in mouth, internal heat or chills, alternating with hot flashes, low spirits and gloomy borebodings, irregular appetite, and coated tongue, you are suffering from Indigestion, Dyspepsia, and Torpid Liver, or "Biliousness." In many cases only part of these symptoms are experienced. As a remedy for all such cases, Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery has no equal.

For Weak Lungs, Spitting of Blood, Shortness of Breath, Bronchitis, Severe Coughs, Consumption, and kindred affections, it is a sovereign remedy. Send ten cents in stamps for Dr. Pierce's book on Consumption. Sold by Druggists.

of business done by R. Stinson & Son since the commencement of their closing out sale has shown a largely increased majority in the number of the electors who have secured bargains since the 1st of February.

Short Stay, but Long Enough.

Thursday's EXAMINER stated that Dominion Ministers White and Foster went to Lindsay to help Mr. Hudspeth, in his canvass in North Victoria. They didn't make very long speeches for they were back on Good Friday. It doesn't take long to drop enough boodle to answer the purpose and therefore there was no need of a long visit.

You can get Daok & Son's best goods from Kidd at Toronto prices; leave your order in time.

George Street Crossings.

It might be suggested to the Street Inspector that a promising field of industry opens for a laboring man in the crossings on George street. They are in a disgracefully sloppy and filthy condition, and it is asking too much too require the public to wade and wallow through the mud and slop that incumbers all the crossings on George street. One man kept employed would be able to keep the crossings on the business part of the street in a tidy and civilized condition. Mr. Pope will earn public gratitude by attending to this matter.

A Freshet and Flood of Our Own.

Hamilton's Creek Rises Rapidly and in Its Wrath Wreaks Much Damage.—A Bridge Collapses—Workshops Flooded.—Work Suspended.

The rapid thaw of the last few days has caused the rapid conversion of an immense mass of snow, and the accumulated water filled Hamilton's Creek to overflowing. The ice under the bridges gave the greatest trouble and blasting operations to loosen the ice at Brock street sent it drifting and plunging down the turbid stream in gigantic blocks. Sunday night these dislodged the frail props supporting the Simcoe street bridge, and knocked the middle bent from under English's Canoe Factory buildings, and though it was feared that the building might be swept away, it still stands.

With the collapse of the Simcoe street bridge at Snowden's

THE TROUBLE BEGAN.

The debris blocking up the channel acted like a dam and backed up the water further up the creek, and many of the residents along the creek passed sleepless nights. The water rose all through the night and early this morning, the wood-working shop of Messrs. Douglass & Logan's carriage works was flooded, and the residence of Mr. Logan, close at hand on Brock street, had water to the depth of a foot in the kitchen. As a consequence, work to-day is entirely suspended in the factory. Messrs. Walter Paterson & Son's tannery also suffered again, though the damage was less than it would have been except for and preparation for trouble. As it is, however, the tannery vats are flooded and, of course, the liquors spoiled, the damage amounting to between $150 and $200. The water also overflowed McAndrew & Noble's steam-heating and plumbing shop, and the employes are out on holiday. Messrs. Bowie & Best's agricultural implement shop is also flooded, and Fanning's laundry is blessed with more than enough water for washing purposes, and there is no work there. Further up stream there is also trouble at the William Hamilton Works. The water rose high enough to

to a small extent. The floor of the forge room is a series of brisk rivulets, and though work is going on, it is conducted with great disadvantage. In fact, several of the staff are kept busy keeping the channel, which flows under the machine shop, clear and preventing an ice jam, which would cause a still higher rise of water. Further up the creek the ice has heaved up the Park street bridge, and at this point the original ice is still firm and the water from above and the blocks of ice have to pass under it. Should there be a sudden giving away of this mass there would be still higher water. But this is not likely to suddenly take place, for as far up the stream as Lily Lake the creek is filled with blocks of all carried down by the unusual body of water. Over this distance the water is giving trouble, though at present no details are given, except that the Smith street crossing at the Quarry is impassable.

In town, however, the greatest inconvenience has been suffered, Simcoe street from Aylmer to George street is of course impassable. After the collapse last night all was done that could be done; several men, including the street inspector, were about all night. This morning as soon as workmen could be secured, and the jam cleared away. The result was to lower the water slightly, but the creek is still threatening, and it will need constant vigilance and work to prevent mischief. The ice jam at some point above suddenly giving away and forming an obstruction lower down may produce disastrous consequences to property. If the rain which has been threatening for days should come on, the volume of water thus added to the present might be dangerous.

THE BRIDGE WAS REMOVED

Minor mishaps have resulted from the high water. The residence of Mr. Appleyard, on Park street, close to the creek, is pretty well undermined with water, and the residence of Mr. Derry, corner Park and McDonnel streets, is threatningly surrounded. Where the creek crosses Sherbrook street the walks are impassable to anything but knee boots. At the Barnardo Home the inmates have to reach the outer world by way of the railway track, the street in the vicinity of the gates being a foot under water.

has also had its little freshet experience; all along the line of Ludgate's Creek the residents have been more or less incommoded, in some cases the water has floated off the stock of wood left, and many of the cellars are flooded, and in one or two cases the inmates of dwellings have been driven to the second floor.

A telephone message received at three o'clock states that the water has washed away a portion of the new brick foundry of the William Hamilton Manufacturing Company.

Easter Services.

The Easter Services in connection with the Mark street Methodist Church have been of a very interesting nature. On the morning of Good Friday a sermon was delivered by the Pastor, the Rev. J. C. Wilson, to a good congregation, on the "Trial of Christ. On Sabbath the church was handsomely decorated with floral offerings, the selection and arrangement of the flowers reflecting great credit on the young ladies of the congregation. At 11 a. m. a large audience assembled to hear an able discourse on the "Sufferings of Christ." At 7 p. m. the subject was the "Resurrection of Christ." The speaker proceeded to show that Christianity was based on this great event; he answered the various objections that have been raised, with reference to this fact, and brought out forcibly the evidences of it found in the word of God. The choir rendered suitable selections on each occasion, and added materially to the interest of the services.

"Peril."

On Saturday evening a large house assembled to witness the comedy-drama "Peril," presented in Bradburn's Opera House by the McDowell Company. The play was admirably put on, and the acting throughout was full of merit, excepting perhaps that the "business" at times ran too far into burlesque. The dresses were exceedingly effective, and the impression produced by "Peril" confirmed the popularity of the company won at its former appearances here. It is seldom that a company of so much sterling merit visits Peterborough. They will be welcome at any time they choose to favour us with a visit.

C. P. R. Exhibition Car.

Large Numbers of Delighted Visitors.

On Saturday and Saturday evening thousands of persons visited the C. P. R. Exhibition Car and inspected the splendid and varied specimens of North West produce—field, forest and mine, particularized in Saturdays' issue of the EXAMINER. The excellent results arising from the tour of this car cannot easily be computed, but it may be interesting to give a brief sketch of its former journeyings. The car only returned to Canada about a month ago, on completion of a tour of the New England States, extending over a period of about fourteen weeks. It went as far South as Springfield and Worcester, in Massachusetts; as far west as Albany and Troy, in New York; and as far east as Lowell, Mass. Owing to the dimensions of the car, which, however, are not greater than those of ordinary C. P. R. rolling stock, it could not reach Boston by any of the numerous railways radiating from the Hub, on account of the low, old-fashioned bridges in that part of the country. Capt. Allen, who is in charge of the car, speaks in warm terms of the kind reception experienced at every place the car stopped at, the railway officials being uniformly courteous and obliging, and the numerous visitors exceedingly appreciative. Indeed, the U. S. Customs officials at Newport showed an equal degree of hospitality, permitting the car to cross the frontier at Newport, Vt., without any boarding formalities. In all the course of the trip—and even during the hot discussions in Congress over the fishery question—there was never an anti-Canadian or anti-British sentiment uttered on board the car. Many of the visitors, whose total number was 200,000, expressed the highest appreciation of the exhibits, and many of them were out-spoken in praise of a land that could show such creditable products. At Hinsdale, N. H., and several places where the high schools visited the car, the principals required essays to be written by the students. A selection of these was usually submitted to a committee of prominent citizens, and the one decided upon as the best forwarded to Capt. Allen for revision before publication in the local newspapers. The American ladies always expressed rapturous admiration of the grains and natural grasses from the North West, and many of them asked for bouquets of these as souvenirs—a wish which the promise given to the U. S. Customs officials respecting all contents of the car unfortunately prevented the gratification of. At St. Johnsbury, Vt., and several other places last fall, when harvest festivals were in preparation, the fair promoters of these celebrations wanted to borrow the whole contents of the car (labels and all) wherewith to decorate their churches, and would thus have afforded a splendid advertisement for the Canadian North West, had it been within the bounds of possibility to meet their wishes. Capt. Allen returned with a numerous list of names of persons who wish to keep up correspondence and receive further supplies of literature. Beyond all doubt, the bulk of French Canadian population sojourning in the New England factory towns intends to repatriate when they have accomplished the object of their residence in the United States, which is to save money wherewith to establish themselves comfortably on farms in Canada. As the whole family is generally employed in the mills, it is possible, by the exercise of rigid frugality, to save from $50 to $75 per month. The amount generally determined on as necessary to the accomplishment of the object in view is $2,000. In addition to this class, many native American farmers have, by the visit of the car, been impressed with the conviction that our North-west and British Columbia afford better fields for the exercise of their energy and enterprise, than the region of rocks and stumps, which is their picturesque home, and where no kind of crop can be raised without a liberal, and often costly, use of fertilizers. The large distribution of emigration literature and maps made during the trip must, of course, enlarge the area of the work directly accomplished by the personal visits of many to the car, and consequently the influx of a very superior class of settlers from New England may be confidently looked for.

The car left this morning at 10.20 for Omemee, Lindsay, etc.

FROM

T. DOLAN,

TO HIS NUMEROUS FRIENDS.

I beg to say that the Dry Goods business heretofore carried on by T. Dolan & Co. has been disposed of to the new firm of Messrs SHEEHY & CO., who will continue the business in the same stand No. 2 CLUXTON'S BLOCK.

Mr. Corkery one of the members of the new firm has been connected with the late firm since 1878, and consequently knows what the public wants.

While thanking my many friends who have so liberally patronized the late firm in the Dry Goods business for the past twelve years, I trust they will continue to bestow that patronage on my successors.

I desire to state that I now intend confining myself exclusively to the Clothing trade, and will continue to do my utmost to keep only such goods as will be appreciated by the public.

OTTAWA GOSSIP.

OTTAWA, April 11th,

The newest thing in the way of departmental regulations are those of the Customs Department referring to the examination of travelers' baggage, which have been approved of by the Council. By these regulations the old time trouble with Customs officials, the men who brazenly jerk open your valise and with sacrilegious hands tumbled your hair oil, your brushes, your clean shirt and your tobacco pouch into public view will be avoided and peace and quietness will sow broad over the land. Hereafter the mail clerk or conductor on a train, or the purser on a boat, will present the traveler with a blank on which the aforesaid passenger will make a declaration as to the dutiable character of the goods in his or her possession, paying the amount of the duty, if any. If the value of the goods be over $500 they will be sent to the nearest custom house. It is also an instruction that where a person is simply passing through Canada, or only making a brief visit, these regulations are to be interpreted in the most liberal sense.

The Kootenay and Arthabaska Railway Company give notice of application to Parliament, for amendments to their act of last session.

The Vaudreuil and Prescott Railway Company give notice of an application for an extension of time in which to commence the construction of the road.

The Standard Printing and Publishing Company of Toronto apply for an act of incorporation.

The Canadian Pacific Railway Company gives notice of its annual meeting in Montreal on May 11, the meeting to be made special for the consideration of the following propositions: First, for the leasing of the consolidated line of the Atlantic and Northwestern Railway Company, extending from the St. Lawrence River to Mattawamkeag, known as the short line; second, to make provision for the construction of a bridge at the Sault Ste. Marie; third, for authority to issue bonds on the Algoma branch; fourth, for acquiring by lease that portion of the O. and O. Railway from Woodstock, via London, to the Detroit River.

That the coming session will not be so short as some people imagine will be understood from the fact that there are already entered 104 private bills. It may be interesting to know that seventy-three of these are railway bills, twenty-three have reference to financial institutions, such as banks, trust and loan companies, etc., and only eight are of a miscellaneous character.

The wise Senators have no less than seven divorce cases to attend to this session. They are as follows: Susan Ash of Montreal sues for a divorce from W. Manton on the ground of desertion; E. V. Duggan, vice E. V. Tuckett, of Hamilton, wants separation from John Duggan on the grounds of adultery and cruelty; Fanny Riddell's complaint against George Herchman, M.D., is desertion and adultery; E. A. Futor asks for divorce from F. L. Hart, of Montreal, on the grounds of cruelty and adultery; Marie Louise Johnson, vice Noel, of Sherbrooke, charges adultery and desertion against R. T. Johnson; John Monteith, of Rossean, charges Mary Ann Monteith with adultery and desertion. Finally comes the case of Dr. Lavelle, of Smiths Falls, and Ada Mary Caton, in which no cause is assigned.

Mr. Collingwood Schreiber left for Kingston to-night to attend the sittings of the Railway Commission which opens there to-morrow. Mr. E. R. Burpee, who took Sir A. F. Galt's position as Chairman of the Commission at Halifax, will still continue to act. Several days will be occupied in taking evidence.

The lawyers are to have another chance. The Government has created a whole batch of Q.C.'s, and the Governor-General's assent to the same is expected to-morrow.

The certificates of election are nearly all in. To-day the following were received: East Bruce, Gaspe, Algoma, West Assiniboia, Queen's, N.B., Victoria, B.C., and Alberta. The Queen's County return certifies that Baird, Conservative, is elected and will take his seat.

Two Knights were among the visitors to the capital to-day, Sir George Stephen and Sir Donald A. Smith. They are here in connection with Canadian Pacific Railway matters, and Sir Donald will pick out his seat in the Commons.

Jas. Beaty, ex-M.P., is also in the city, as well as an odd senator or two and a couple of French noblemen.

Adam Brown of Hamilton telegraphed to the Russell to-day for rooms for himself and his colleague, Mr. McKay, and Mr. Carpenter of Wentworth.

Mr. Cockburn of Centre Toronto has secured the private lodgings formerly occupied by Donald MacMaster.

To-day Sir John attended church, but spent the balance of the day in strict retirement. It is believed that he was engaged on the speech from the throne.

Inland Revenue Inspector Davis and Secretary Hemsworth arrived here to-night from Halifax, where Mr. Davis had been for a fortnight investigating certain charges preferred by Deputy Inland Collector Duncan of the Halifax division against Inspector Barnsdale of the Nova Scotia district. These officials have been quarrelling for some time and their bickerings were rapidly demoralizing the service down there. Mr. Davis finds that some of the charges against Mr. Barnsdale have been sustained, and will report to the Department here accordingly. Peace and harmony have been restored in the district.

IRISH FAIR PLAY.

ENORMOUS ANTI-COERCION MEETING IN LONDON.

LONDON, April 11.—The day appointed for the great demonstration in London against the Irish Coercion Bill now before the House of Commons opened brilliantly, the weather being balmy and the sun shining brightly. Vast crowds of people are marching towards Hyde Park, where the meetings are to be held, from every district of London, with bands, banners and carriages filled with the leaders in the day's exercises. The utmost enthusiasm prevails in the great throng. Many of the banners exhibited bore portraits of Mr. Gladstone, Michael Davitt and Father Keller, and the inscription "Justice for Ireland." Fourteen platforms for the use of orators have been erected in Hyde Park, and occupy the whole frontage facing the fashionable Park-lane. All those taking part in the procession from the East to the West End of London wore green rosettes, to imitate the Irish emblem, the shamrock. A large force of police is held in reserve for an emergency.

Estimates of the attendance at the meeting vary, but it is certain 150,000 persons, including onlookers, were present. The procession took an hour and a half to file into the park. The first contingent was composed of the members of the Robert Emmett Lodge. The followed a large number of Irish temperance lodges, Radical working men's clubs and social democratic organizations. Numerous bands of music were in the line. While passing the Carlton and other Conservative clubs the bands played the Dead March in Saul and the Marseillaise. Green banners and Irish National emblems were conspicuous in the ranks of the parade. Among the mottoes displayed on the banners of the Radicals were these: "Justice to Ireland," "Friendship—not Bayonets," "No Coercion." The effect of the careful arrangements that had been made to avoid confusion at the park was seen in the admirable order in which the paraders grouped themselves around the fourteen platforms. The greatest throng gathered at the platform from which Lord Mayor Sullivan of Dublin and Messrs. Conybeare and William Redmond, members of Parliament, spoke.

Lord Mayor Sullivan in the course of a most effective speech asked: "Is it the wish of the workmen of London that the honest, hard working tenantry of Ireland shall be forever crushed down?" A tremendous response: "No" resounded throughout the park. The mention of the Queen as about to celebrate her jubilee by signing away the liberties of the people of Ireland brought forth a torrent of hisses, and the mention of Chamberlain's name aroused a tempest of groans and hisses, with cries of "traitor." Mr. Sullivan, in concluding, assured his hearers that the demonstration would carry hope and joy into the hearts of the Irish. It would cheer many a poor struggling man to know that England was not the enemy of Ireland. "In return," he said, "don't let them believe those who say the Irish are immortal, implacable enemies of England. They are a Valeshood worthy of the bottomless pit. [Cheers.] Let there be an end of oppression and injustice and there will be an end of hatred." [Prolonged cheering.]

Michael Davitt appeared at a Socialistic platform. He referred to the demonstration as a proof of the approaching solidarity of the people of Great Britain and Ireland. In proportion as the masses began to understand each other so the classes became alarmed. The privileged classes well knew the inevitable tendency of the Irish movement and sought to crush the Irish leaders, hoping to prevent the English people from following the example set them by the Irish. But they would hold the fort in Ireland. [Cheers.] On the day on which the Crimes Act should become a dead law they would either have to give up the struggle that had been allayed for centuries and lie down as slaves, or render the system impossible of duration. They would follow the manlier course. The classes had in the past built a bridge of hate across the Irish Sea. The people would pull it down and erect a bridge of love between the toilers of Ireland and the honest workers of England. [Cheers.]

John Burns, a Socialist leader, followed Mr. Davitt. He declared that the state of Ireland justified civil war and that the English people were ready to assist the Irish peasants in revolt. At 4.30 o'clock a bugle sounded as at this prearranged signal, a resolution condemning the Crimes Bill was put simultaneously at all of the platforms. The resolution was carried amid a prolonged roar of cheers.

TO SWEAR BY THE CRUCIFIX.

The Provisions of a Bill introduced in the Quebec Legislature.

QUEBEC, April 12.—Mr. Lemieux's bill now before the House provides that in courts of justice a crucifix shall be placed in a conspicuous place opposite the witnesses' stand during examination, and such crucifix to be of the size determined by the Lieut.-Governor in Council. Before a witness is allowed to swear and give his testimony, he shall be called upon to lift his right hand in front of the crucifix and to place his left hand on the Book of the Evangelists, and to swear before the crucifix and upon the holy evangelists to tell the truth and the whole truth in the cause in which he is to be heard as a witness. Every sheriff shall place or cause to be placed a crucifix in the manner above indicated in each and every courthouse within the limits of his district under a penalty of $20 for each day in which he neglects to do so.

HER RIBS WERE BROKEN.

A Toronto Young Man and a Hamilton Maid Meet With a Mishap.

HAMILTON, April 11.—Mr. R. F. McNab, of the firm of McArthur, Gowanlock & Co., wholesale furnishers of Toronto, came to Hamilton yesterday and, procuring a livery rig, proceeded to take Miss Neff, of North Wellington-street, out for a drive. When moving leisurely along one of the highways in Barton Township (on the mountain) the horse shied at something on the road, and turned around before the young man had time to seize the whip. The buggy was upset, and Mr. McNab and Miss Neff were thrown violently into the ditch on top of a lot of stones. The vehicle, in turning over, lodged on the young lady, and when she was extricated it was found that a couple of her ribs were fractured. She was unconscious for an hour or so after being removed to the Mountain View Hotel, and the shock to her system was very severe. Mr. Macnab was badly shaken up and bruised, but was not seriously hurt.

A Mysterious Craft Off the Irish Coast.

CORK, April 11.—A letter from the Rev. Mr. Kennedy appears in the Cork Herald saying that the suspicious vessel seen off Youghal is the Gulnare, which left an American port ten days ago. He says it is part of a Government plot to treat the people to a scare in order to assist in passing the Coercion Bill, and that the vessel will cruise between Queenstown and Youghal and try to entrap men to assist in landing dynamite, when Government agents will be ready to seize them. Mr. Kennedy asserts that the plot was originated at Dublin Castle.

A Counterfeiter Caught at Windsor.

WINDSOR, Ont., April 11.—John McAdams, a young man who has made his home in Windsor for the past month, went into a store on Saturday and made some purchases. He gave the clerk a $10 bill and received his change. Half an hour later the bill was discovered to be bogus. McAdams was arrested, charged with circulating counterfeit money. A large quantity of bogus bills on the Bank of British North America, and some American currency of the same kind was found on his person.

INFORMERS ROASTED.

A Witness Against Violators of the Scott Act Badly Beaten at Strathroy.

LONDON, Ont., April 11.—This morning Police Magistrate Noble tried a number of Scott Act cases at Strathroy, when the following hotelkeepers were convicted and fined $20 each and costs: Freeman Hodgins, Belmont; Wm. Craig, Nilestown; Wm. Collins, Lambeth; S. Reynolds, London Township; Robt. Orr, Arva; Wm. Chittick, Dorchester. Thos. Richardson of Dorchester also appeared, but at his own request his trial was postponed until to-morrow. All these convictions were secured by the informers and when they left the court they found a mob awaiting them outside the door. A judicious and hasty retreat back to the court room saved them from violence, and they demanded an escort from the Police Magistrate to convey them to the railroad station.

Mr. Hutchinson, the County Crown Attorney, offered to see them through the crowd, and with him they were allowed to pass with but a few jeers and threats, the mob, however, following them up.

Arrived at the station, the party got on the train for London, but instead of going inside Irwin, one of the informers, a man upwards of 60 years of age, stood on the platform to light his pipe. Here John Richardson, whose case had been enlarged, pounced upon him and tried to drag him from the train. Irwin clung to the railings and in this position he was struck a terrible blow in the face by Richardson, cutting his nose badly. Another party kicked him in the hand and still another in the stomach, and Irwin would undoubtedly have been dragged from the train and badly beaten had it not, fortunately for him, commenced to move and his assailants were forced to desist. The County Crown Attorney being in the front car did not see the attack, but when told of the affair asked the conductor, who witnessed it, for his name and the names of his brakesmen, if they were required for evidence, but he absolutely refused to give either, and it was not until brought before Supt. Larmour here that he admitted his name was Pat Murray. The Crown Attorney will prosecute them to-morrow.

THE DEMANDS OF LABOR.

A Committee Appointed to Confer with the Chicago Striking Carpenters.

CHICAGO, April 11.—The strike of journeymen tailors was still in force to-day, with no material change in the situation. No new firms have become involved, and three firms whose men quit are engaged in an effort to fill their shops with new men.

All the moulders at Quincy, Ill., struck to-day.

A general look-out is also expected at Milwaukee.

Several firms in Quincy, Chicago and Milwaukee have taken work from the Bridge and Beach Company of St. Louis, whose men struck for higher wages. The St. Louis Moulder issued an appeal to all stove moulders to refuse such work, and the present strike is in consequence.

The strike of the 8000 union carpenters here is still in progress. The Master Carpenters' Association is inviting new members and the members declare they will not accede to the carpenters' demand. This afternoon, however, two hundred bosses met and after declaring that they had no sympathy with the Master Carpenters' Association, appointed a committee to confer with a like body from the Carpenters' Council and arrange the terms upon which the men should return to work.

After a consultation with the strikers' Executive Committee an organization was formed, to be known as the Independent Master Carpenters' Association. The terms of the strikers were at once acceded to on condition that the strike be declared off so far as members of the new association of employers are concerned. This was agreed to by the strikers, and it is expected that about one-eighth of the men will resume work immediately on the eight-hour plan at 25 cents an hour.

SHOT BY A SUPER.

An Irish Comedian's Painful Experience in a Boston Theatre.

BOSTON, April 11.—James M. Ward, the Irish comedian, who began an engagement to-night at the Bijou theatre in this city in his play "The Red Fox," was painfully wounded during the third act by a supernumerary named Cohen. In this act Ward, as Roddy the hero, is attempting to escape from prison. Cohen in discharging the gun aimed too low, and the waddling penetrated Ward's breast, striking and bending the breast bone. The curtain was lowered and physicians summoned. The audience was apprised of the accident and dismissed. The surgeons were successful in removing the paper wadding from the wound, but say Ward cannot return to the stage for several months.

The Late Mr. McKinnon.

HAMILTON, April 11—The remains of the late Mr. D. I. K. McKinnon (nephew of Chief McKinnon, of the Hamilton police force) arrived by the 2 o'clock train from Belleville this afternoon. A large number of the Masonic fraternity, after meeting at the Masonic Hall, received the casket at the depot, and the cortege proceeded to Burlington Cemetery where the interment took place. The remains were accompanied from Belleville by Chief McKinnon. The chief pall-bearers were Messrs. Robert Chisholm, Wm. Bruce, Chris. Griggs, James Ogilvie, W. K. Brown and W. J. Field.

Riotous Foreigners.

DENVER, Col., April 11.—A bloody riot occurred late last night between the rival Swedish, Polish and Hungarian colonies, which resulted in the fatal shooting of one man and the serious wounding of several others. It was only with the greatest efforts of the police force that the affair was prevented from resulting in a wholesale massacre.

Racing at New Orleans.

NEW ORLEANS, April 11.—The regular spring meeting of the Louisiana Jockey Club opened to-day. The weather was clear and pleasant and there was a good attendance. The track was fast. First race, 6 furlongs: Editor won, Allegheny second, Linda Payne third; time 1.18½. Second race, 1 mile: Favor won, Birthday second, Gov. Bate third; time 1.44½. Third race, ¾ mile: Radge won, Merci second, Lillie Virgil third; time .89½. Fourth race, 1½ miles: Ascolo won, John Henry second, Probus third; time 2 mins.

Orange Blossoms at Belleville.

BELLEVILLE, April 11.—Dr. Charles N. Ridley was married at St. Thomas' Church this morning to Mrs. Suzor (nee Miss Fanny McAnnany) by Rev. J. W. Burke, rector. Miss Maggie Smart acted as bridesmaid, while Mr. John Halliwell assisted the groom. The affair was kept quite a secret among the friends of the parties, but notwithstanding this there was a fashionable gathering.

Racing in England.

LONDON, April 11.—The Newcastle and Gosforth Park meeting began to-day. The race for the Gosforth Park Juvenile Plate of 500 sovereigns, for 2-year-olds; colts 124 lbs.; fillies and geldings, 121 lbs.; five furlongs, straight—was won by Mr. C. Perkins' filly, Belle Mahone. Mr. H. Hall's colt, Friday, second, and Mr. J. Boyce's filly, Lady Cashier, third.

Death of a Montreal Advocate.

MONTREAL, April 11.—N. Benjamin, advocate, of this city, died at his residence, Mackay-street, last evening. He had been ailing for nearly a year from consumption. Notice of his death and his appointment as Q.C. were published the same day.

The Inquest on the Body of Hamer.

MONTREAL, April 11.—The inquest on the body of A. L. Hamer, the McGill College student, was held this afternoon. The medical faculty of McGill have demanded a post mortem examination of the deceased.

RAILWAY RATES.

The people of the Dominion have to suffer a great deal from the enormous power now in the hands of large railway corporations. The country seems to be at the mercy of these companies, which in Parliament, and out of it, can get what they want. We know how their unfair methods of discriminating in favour of through freight, as opposed to way freight, bears heavily on merchants and business men, as well as the general public.

But there is a worse evil, about which we would naturally expect to hear something, were it not that complaint about the doings of a railway corporation, is simply useless and never effects anything. The question of railway passenger fares is a serious one for the public. The Canadian rate of three cents per mile is unquestionably far too much, but to try to get companies to reduce it will be an Herculean task, unless the Government comes to the rescue.

The Legislature reserves certain rights in every railway charter it grants, providing that freight and passenger rates shall not be excessive, or shall have the sanction of the Government before being enforced. We never heard of these conditions having been fulfilled in any single instance. No Legislature or Executive in Canada ever enforced this most just and salutary provision, so far as our knowledge extends. The by-laws of railway corporations are rarely, if ever, submitted for approval, but the magnates, who control these huge companies, simply do as they please, set forth what they consider best in their own interests, and the long suffering travelling public must acquiesce and pay the rates demanded, no matter how extortionate they are.

Why should the rate for passengers be a uniform one of three cents per mile? In Great Britain where the cost of railway construction is far higher than in this country. --averaging indeed from ten to twenty times as much per mile—there are railway trains on every important road whose lowest rate is one cent and six mills per mile. The style of construction, the right of way, the securing of a charter—all this is infinitely more costly in England than here, yet these roads can do business and make money at the rates we have quoted. It may be said the volume of business is much larger there than in Canada. This is true no doubt, but the reduction we advocate would very materially increase the number of passengers. This, we see, is always the case when cheap excursions are advertised.

In the United States, so very high are the rates and so much is accomplished by means of railway amalgamation and purchase of subordinate lines, that immense fortunes have been made in a very few years, by leading railroad kings, all at the expense of travellers and those doing business with the roads. They have, in fact, robbed the public, and their crime and wrongdoing have been connived at by Senators, members of Congress, boodlers, et hoc genus omne.

If street railways, extending for distances of about three miles, carry through passengers for an average rate of something like a cent and a half per mile, and then simply coin money, it is surely not to much to ask the railways to be contented with an equal return for the conveniences they offer? If railways can make a handsome profit by excursion rates for passengers, which average from about one-third to two-thirds of a cent per mile, we are not claiming too great a privilege too ask a reduction on the ordinary passenger rate to a uniform price of two cents per mile? What man or company of men in the Dominion Parliament, or elsewhere, will set themselves to the accomplishment of this much to be desired consummation?

THE Department of the Interior has called for tenders for the sale of a timber belt of 320 acres on the line of the Canadian Pacific Railway just west of Crigellachie, B. C. "Grit" expostulation has had some good effect anyway. The government now advertises timber limits for sale instead of slyly parcelling them out amongst their favourites and supporters without competition.

Filthy Lucre.

"What's the worst thing about riches?" asked the Sunday-school superintendent. And the new boy said, "Not having any."

Courtesy in Church.

To the Editor of the Daily Examiner.

SIR:—Permit me to relate through your columns an experience which I hope, for the good name of our progressive city, is an exceptional one in Peterborough.

Accompanied by my wife and child, as well as a gentleman friend, I attended evening service in St. John's church, yesterday, when our party, who were altogether strangers in your city, were most courteously ushered into pew No. —

Immediately in front of us sat two well dressed women, and behind us three more just as handsomely attired, each of whom was provided with a hymn book, though only one of the five made any attempt to participate in the singing throughout the evening.

Now my friend is an efficient member of the choir of St. James church, St. John's, Que.; I belong to the choir of Christ church, Deer Park, Toronto, while it is no compliment to say that my wife, though with perhaps less pretensions to vocal powers, sings better than either of us. We should all at any rate, have taken part heartily in the four hymns given out, but that, unfortunately, we had come unprovided with hymn books, and that all of our immediate neighbors were so absorbed in their own devotions, or in observing every novelty in feminine headgear, that our obvious wants were not perceived or supplied.

Need I say that the cordial welcome accorded us by the courteous ushers became almost obliterated from our memories by the chilling reception extended by the congregation. Unfortunately, being "on the road," our party were all in travelling dress, which may possibly account for the unfriendly manner in which we were treated, but I shudder to think of the way in which a working man in fustain would have been regarded, had such a one ventured to intrude among the elect or rather select.

I have undertaken to bring this matter into public notice for the good of the church (at large) to which I belong. For our personal satisfaction I can promise that we shall visit any other church but St. John's when next we are in Peterborough.

In conclusion, I beg to enclose two cards, one for your own information and the other that I should feel much obliged by your transmitting to the incumbent, in the accompanying stamped envelope, as an assurance of the bona fides of the writer who humbly subscribes himself,

THE WORSHIPPER AFAR OFF.

Lindsay, Ont., April 11th.

[For obvious reasons we place the number of the pew referred to in the above communication in blank. Any person, however, curious to learn the number may do so on application at the EXAMINER office. In justice it may be explained that an extra supply of hymn books is provided in St. John's for the use of strangers, why they were not distributed to the party above mentioned should be capable of being explained. ED. EXAMINER.]

A Zion Gathering.

(From Our Own Correspondent.)

Perhaps the most brilliant and fashionable social gathering of the Zion season was held on Friday evening, the 1st of April, at the home of Mr. G. B. Cooney, of this place. About 150 invitations had been extended, and as a result, representatives were to be found from Otonabee, North and South Monaghan, Peterborough, and the pleasantly situated and refined town of Kirby, in Clark. Youth, beauty and fashion had assembled on recreation bent; political opponents met on neutral ground and enjoyed together the graceful polka and the voluptuous waltz—political troubles crossed not their happy breasts for a time—and banished were all thoughts of Conservatism, Liberalism, Darwinianism, agnosticism, bachelorism, pusseyism, matrimonialism, rheumatism and all other isms. Having paid for some time an earnest and devoted homage at the shrine of the goddess Terpsichore, the sumptuous repast prepared for the occasion was disposed of in a manner no doubt satisfactory to the guests, if not the host. The physical powers being thus recuperated, on went the dance; and hilarity, sociality and joviality predominated until Andy Brown's ancient rooster proclaimed the approach of day, when all took their departure, leaving their best wishes for the young bachelor's matrimonial prospects, and expecting to be called back ere twelve months to witness not only a dance, but also to see the hymenial knot tied.

Grief Drove Him to Suicide.

ST. PETERSBURG, April 9.—The death of Major Gen. Krock, Russian Commander at Warsaw, was announced on March 24 and then supposed to have been the result of a murderous attack. It now transpires it was due to the General's own hand. The reason given is that he was overcome by grief on learning that his son had been arrested on suspicion of being implicated in a recent attempt to assassinate the Czar.

Russia's Eastward March.

PARIS, April 9.—M. Barthlemy Saint Hilaire has published a work on British India, in which he advocates the formation of a league in Western Europe to check the advance of the Slav Empire. He predicts that the Russians will soon reach the Indus and will establish an empire that will be a constant source of danger to the civilized world. Seizing Constantinople, the Russians, he says, will dominate Europe and Asia.

A $50,000 Fire in Cincinnati.

CINCINNATI, April 9.—Fire this morning damaged the buildings of the J. Walker Brewing Company to the extent of $50,000, which is covered by insurance. The building extends from No. 305 to 333 Sycamore-street. About fifty horses stabled on the premises were rescued with difficulty.

Fire at Welland.

WELLAND, April 9.—About 2 o'clock this morning fire broke out in a row of frame tenements known as "The Centennial." The fire company succeeded in confining it to the upper stories and the damage will not be heavy. The property is owned by a Toronto gentleman.

Printers Strike at Lansing.

LANSING, April 9.—A strike is on at the State printing office, caused by the refusal of Manager Godfrey to pay lady employes the union scale of wages. The printers are at work to-day awaiting a conference with Mr. Thorp, of Detroit, chief owner of the plant.

Enjoy Life.

What a truly beautiful world we live in! Nature gives us grandeur of mountains, glens and oceans, and thousands of means of enjoyment. We can desire no better when in perfect health, but how often do the majority of people feel like giving it up disheartened, discouraged and worn out with disease, when there is no occasion for this feeling, as every sufferer can easily obtain satisfactory proof, that Green's August Flower, will make them free from disease, as when born. Dyspepsia and Liver Complaint are the direct cause of seventy-five per cent. of such maladies as Biliousness, Indigestion, Sick Headache, Costiveness, Nervous Prostration, Dizziness of the head, Palpitation of the Heart, and other distressing symptoms. Three doses of August Flower will prove its wonderful effect. Sample bottle, 10 cents. Try it. sud-w

AT THE CAPITAL.

THE CAPITAL RESTS, BUT AFFAIRS OF STATE MOVE ALONG.

Ottawa, April 9.—If Ottawa harbors politicians greater than another it is the calm determination with which she insists upon the observance of all holidays, fast days, feast days and every other day whatsoever that tends to the lessening of toil and consequent increase of enjoyment. Holidays that the citizens of less enlightened towns never hear or dream of, Ottawa celebrates in the most rigid fashion, while the ordinary statutory days of leisure are considered for the complete cessation of all that pertains to manual labor in every form. To-day being a holiday recognized by church and state, the country and Capital harnessed till day breaking unbidden wheelbarrow, the only other institution being the melting of the ice that still cumbers the streets to the depth of from four to seven feet. No papers, either morning or evening, were issued, the public offices were all closed and private business was entirely suspended. This is probably the only city in America where the morning papers suspend publication on a week-day holiday. But one thing the good citizen of Ottawa never gives up, and that is his right to talk politics on every possible occasion, and the present week of respite from all that savors of the close season for politics in the capital.

To-day, and for days past, the great subject of discussion has been the Senate last [illegible] Hon. Josiah Wood [illegible] the vacancies of the upper house [illegible] the party in the Senate without a head—certainly without an official one. There has been much talk of Sir Hector Langevin moving to the upper chamber, which is discredited in well-informed circles. To-day all the talk is that the leadership will be given to Senator Lacoste, who will take a seat in the Cabinet without portfolio. The matter is not yet definitely settled, but is certainly under consideration. Lacoste is, perhaps, the leading French lawyer at the Montreal bar, a remarkably smart man, the law advisor of Senecal and his followers, and a devoted supporter of the party in the Montreal district. He will undoubtedly make an able leader. The question is whether he will be [illegible] with [illegible]

Notwithstanding these [illegible] attention to the effect that Sir Hector Langevin and Hon. Mr. Chapleau are not on good terms, the fact is that their differences have been healed, and it is likely that the Minister of Railways will attend the banquet to the Secretary of State at Montreal next week.

There is a flutter in social circles to-night over the expected advent of Lady Tupper to-morrow. She left Amherst, N.S., last night and is expected in Ottawa to-morrow. Lady Tupper is accompanied by Mr. C.H. Tupper, M.P., Pictou, [illegible] first visit to Ottawa since crossing the Atlantic.

Speaker Plumb, (by the way the official notice of his appointment as the presiding officer of the Senate will appear in to-morrow's Gazette) came down from Toronto and the west last night and to-day inspected the Speaker's rooms on the Senate side, which ex-Speaker Miller has just vacated. The gentleman [illegible] it is understood, intends being [illegible] in a social sense on an elaborate scale this session.

By the way, it may be interesting to know [illegible] of the present habits of the old Cumberland war horse. Charles Tupper looks older, more grizzled than in the old time when he was stumping Ontario on the N.P. or chasing Mr. Blake during the recess of the syndicate session, but otherwise he seems to have lost none of his vigor or his great facility for work. Indeed, they say his second [illegible] during the late campaign was the greatest effort of his life. Just now Sir Charles is living at the Russell. He [illegible] square meals a day, works in the office all day and in his room to 3 o'clock at night. Latterly he has struck [illegible] prevailing it his unalterable decision that if the revenue will not go up the expenditure must come down and that the pruning knife must be applied to the Estimates vigorously. Consequently there is woe in Gath and tribulation in the streets of Ashelon. Sir Charles [illegible] from the way he is working.

"Heaven is not reached at a single bound." neither is health, and the same may be said of health. But many a sick person would make rapid strides in the direction of complete health by using Dr. R. V. Pierce's "Golden Medical Discovery." It is a sovereign remedy for all [illegible] scrofulous diseases, king's evil, tumors, white swellings, fever sores, scrofulous sore eyes, as well as for blood and skin diseases. 6dw15

A Startling Discovery.

A startling and important discovery was made when [illegible] experiments, the [illegible] of Nervilene was reached. A grand victory, indeed, for the suffering, have an ever ready, prompt, efficient, and cheap remedy at hand. Do you know that for 10 cents you can buy a trial bottle of Polson's Nerviline and test its great power over pain in any [illegible] Polson's Nerviline cures chills, pain in the stomach, side, and back, rheumatism; in fact all pain. The Railway Committee [illegible] on the 4th inst.; members all present.

Minutes of the last meeting read and confirmed.

Communication read from [illegible] County Treasurer, [illegible] Harvey.

The Clerk [illegible] Mr. Pearce to remove from his books all the taxes charged against lot 8, concession 6.

Matthew Watson was appointed fence-viewer, in lieu of Samuel Guthrie, who refused to accept the said office.

A committee was appointed, consisting of James Hicks, Eleve, and Councillors Flynn, Reid and Shaw, to examine the road allowances in John Tedford's neighborhood, and report at the next Council meeting.

Mr. Ingram and Mr. Flynn were also appointed to examine the Mills concession line, and report if suitable for a roadway.

The clerk was instructed to notify the County Treasurer to remove from his books the taxes for 1886 charged against the south 40 acres of the east half of lot 7, concession 16, Harvey.

On motion, passed, the taxes charged on the collector's roll for 1886 against Robert Johnson, George Rayhard and Felix Portelt were struck off said roll.

The Council adjourned, to meet at the Town Hall on the 20th day of May next.

A Youth's Trial.

One of the hardest things in life for a youth is to believe that a man older than himself understands anything; but the gulf there bone day.

Where the Danger Lies.

The chief danger from taking cold is its liability to locate upon some internal organ, as the lungs, the pleura, the bronchial passages, etc. Hagyard's Pectoral Balsam loosens and breaks up the cold, allays irritation and often prevents or cures pulmonary complaints. 2w16d

THE GREAT GERMAN REMEDY WILL SURELY CONQUER PAIN!

CURES LUMBAGO.

Unequalled for Vanquishing Pain.

Capt. George Murphy, chief of the Government Harbor Police, Montreal, says: I may rank myself among those benefitted by St. Jacobs Oil. A short time ago I suffered severe pain in my back between my shoulder blades, and I was cured by the Great German Remedy. From all I have heard and seen of the remedy, I must say that it is unequalled.

Sufficient for Young Wife—Enemy Defeated.

Mr. Thomas Claydon, Shelburne, Ontario, Canada, states: I had suffered with backache for thirty years and tried almost everything without relief. Less than a bottle of St. Jacobs Oil cured me perfectly.

Press Gallery, House of Commons, Ottawa, Canada.

During the many sessions in which I have worked in our draffy press gallery, this is the only one during which I have not used rubbing liniments. The reason of this is that I used St. Jacobs Oil this winter, and the backache then disappeared like snow before the sun.

AUBREY C. HAMILTON.

The Best Ever Used.

Mr. John Marrer, City Sweep, Ottawa, Canada, says: I have used St. Jacobs Oil for lumbago in shoulder and neck, and it is the best cure I ever used.

Laid Back Promptly Cured.

Mr. Michael Murphy, Ottawa, Canada, says: One of my family suffered from a bad cold which settled in neck and shoulder. Three applications of St. Jacobs Oil cured.

GOLDEN MEDICAL DISCOVERY

CURES ALL HUMORS,

from a common Blotch, or Eruption, to the worst Scrofula. Salt-rheum, "Fever-sores," Scaly or Rough Skin, in short, all diseases caused by bad blood are conquered by this powerful, purifying, and invigorating medicine. Great Eating Ulcers rapidly heal under its benign influence. Especially has it manifested its potency in curing Tetter, Rose Rash, Boils, Carbuncles, Sore Eyes, Scrofulous Sores and Swellings, Hip-Joint Disease, White Swellings, Goitre, or Thick Neck, and Enlarged Glands. Send ten cents in stamps for a large treatise, with colored plates, on Skin Diseases, or the same amount for a treatise on Scrofulous Affections, "THE BLOOD IS THE LIFE." Thoroughly cleanse it by using Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery, and good digestion, a fair skin, buoyant spirits, vital strength, and soundness of constitution, will be established.

CONSUMPTION,

which is Scrofulous Disease of the Lungs, is promptly and certainly arrested and cured by this God-given remedy, if taken before the last stages of the disease are reached. From its wonderful power over this terribly fatal disease, when first offering this now celebrated remedy to the public, Dr. Pierce thought seriously of calling it his "Consumption Cure," but abandoned that name as too limited for a medicine which, from its wonderful combination of tonic, or strengthening, alterative, or blood-cleansing, anti-bilious, pectoral, and nutritive properties, is unequaled, not only as a remedy for consumption of the lungs, but for all

CHRONIC DISEASES OF THE

Liver, Blood, and Lungs.

If you feel dull, drowsy, debilitated, have sallow color of skin, or yellowish-brown spots on face or body, frequent headache or dizziness, bad taste in mouth, internal heat or chills, alternating with hot flashes, low spirits and gloomy borebodings, irregular appetite, and coated tongue, you are suffering from Indigestion, Dyspepsia, and Torpid Liver, or "Biliousness." In many cases only part of these symptoms are experienced. As a remedy for all such cases, Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery has no equal.

For Weak Lungs, Spitting of Blood, Shortness of Breath, Bronchitis, Severe Coughs, Consumption, and kindred affections, it is a sovereign remedy. Send ten cents in stamps for Dr. Pierce's book on Consumption. Sold by Druggists.

Freaks of the Flood.

Very little further damage than that reported yesterday has been done by the uprising of the creek. Late yesterday afternoon the supports of the bars of the Snowden House Hotel, belonging to Mr. E. Phelan, were swept away and a portion of the floor fell through. The building is held together now merely by the clapboards and timbers of the frame, and is quite untenable. It will have to be torn down. Considerable damage was done to the Wm. Hamilton Works yesterday, but no further trouble is anticipated. The flood is slowly subsiding. The cold weather by arresting the thaw, has helped, no doubt, to avert much trouble.

Iniquitous Infanticide.

The Body of a Little Child Found on Bethune Street—A Clear Case of Child-Murder.

About 8.30 this morning Mr. John Bowie was traversing the sidewalk on Bethune street alongside the "V" made by the curve of the railway, he noticed a parcel enveloped in a cloth and covered with blood lying on the grass between the walk and the fence. He investigated, and found therein the body of a fully developed child, evidently born the night before last. Mr. Bowie at once notified Constable Adams, who had the remains placed in a box and transferred to the police station. Dr. Bell, coroner, was summoned, and he gave directions for the holding of an inquest at the police court at two o'clock this afternoon.

At two o'clock the inquest was begun before Coroner Bell. Mr. R. E. Wood, C.C.A., appeared for the Crown. The following jury was impannelled:

DANIEL BELLEGHEM, Foreman.

Michael Fee,	D. J. Earley,
James Payton,	Wm. Argue,
Wm. Matthews,	Jas. McAndrew,
R. H. Lithgow,	C. Rockhout,
Frederick Foot,	J. McAleer,
R. A. Hamilton,	G. W. Robinson.

After the jury had inspected the body of the infant, the evidence was taken as follows:—

Dr. Kincaid testified to having examined the body and found it to be the remains of a healthy, full developed male child, which had been evidently alive when born. It must have been laid away as soon as born—not more than 48 hours since. There were no marks of violence upon it, but there had evidently been no skilled person present at its birth, as the umbilical cord was torn off at the abdomen, which alone would result in the infant's death were it alive at birth. He would not swear positively that the child was born alive until after he had performed a post mortem examination and examined its lungs.

CORONER BELL remarked, that as Dr. Kincaid could not swear positively that the child was alive when born without a post mortem examination, he would strongly suggest that the jury authorize Dr. Kincaid to go on with the examination. If it was found that the child was born alive, it was a serious matter; if not alive, it was merely concealment of birth, which is not considered so grave an offence.

MR. WOOD co-incided in this, and after the evidence of Mr. Bowie had been taken, relative to the finding of the child as given above, the inquest was adjourned till Friday night, at 7:30 o'clock, at the same place.

Banquet and Jubilee.

The Salvationists Hold High Carnival at the Opera House—Funds for the New Barracks.

Monday was the wind-up of the three-days' jubilee of the Salvation Army in Peterborough. After the hour of five o'clock in the afternoon a rush was made for the Opera House, where, in the concert hall, long tables loaded with edibles had been spread, to which access could be had for a moderate sum. The Salvationists paraded the streets afternoon and evening, the women wearing white aprons. At eight o'clock in the Opera House the jamboure began in earnest, and it was kept up till late in the night. On the platform were seated captains, lieutenants and soldiers from neighboring outposts in the rear, and in front sat Mr. Wm. Gooderham, of Toronto (the Army's best friend). Mr. Geo. A. Cox, of Peterborough, and Rev. Mr. Wallace, of the Charlotte street Methodist Church, by whom addresses were delivered. Among the "testimonials" was an interesting one from "Rally" York, a colored delegate from Cobourg, whose statement as to the dire effects of whiskey upon his life was made in the peculiarly impressive and demonstrative style of the negro orator. "Rally" would make a first-class evangelist among people of his own stripe. A little six-year-old youngster with a voice like the autumn wind, dressed in a red jacket and striped knickerbockers, sang some Salvation songs in a way-up falsetto. Adjutant Bolton, Captains Dicer and Williams and many others were there.

Mr. Cox, in his address, expressed his sympathy with the cause of the Army, and Mr. Gooderham remarked that, had he been here in the last election, Conservative as he was, he would have voted for Mr. Cox. A subscription was taken for the new barracks, with the result of securing several hundred dollars.

The Opera House was about filled, and the finances of the Peterborough corps must have risen with a bound Monday night.

Dog Decorations.

There have been received at the Town Clerk's office 500 tags to symbolize the payment of the license to live, to be rigidly enacted from every owner of a dog. The medal of 1887 is in the form of a beaver—a shape which will make it impossible for any owner of a last year's tag by any ingenuity of clipping to convert his old badge into a semblance of the new one. There were 350 tags taken out last year, far short of the number of dogs entitled to decoration. This year at least 500 will be required as it is intended to rigidly enforce the by-law, which permits a policeman to shoot at sight after the first of May any dog unable to give the pass word by showing up his tag. When the dog-shooting season begins householders are requested to keep in the back part of the second story of their houses to prevent accident. A Toronto policeman took "a rest" on a hydrant and aiming at a dog on the street killed a woman in the second story of a house. Our own policemen have begun target practice, using the side of Ludgate's hill as a target, and the fact that they only miss on an average once out of three times, should reassure nervous citizens.

Aquatic.

At a meeting of the new Lansdowne Rowing Club, Monday night, the following officers were elected:—Judge Weller, Honory-President; K. G. Lech, President; J. Mercer, Captain; G. Stevenson, Sec.-Treas.; Executive Committe—F. G. Cox, H. W. Kent, W. Matthews, P. Henry, Robert Stenson, and Frederick Stenson. The Club has secured a portion of the boat house, and intend having it fitted up in style, and from the well known energy and aquatic esprit of the officers, the Lansdowne Rowing Club will undoubtedly take a prominent place among boating organizations.

The Otonebee Canoe Club has made arrangements with Mr. Wm. English to have his boat house fitted up commodiously for them. The officers are pushing things, new members are constantly being added, and the club is bound to be a big thing.

—The Port Hope Times resigns itself to the inevitable—it has come to the conclusion that a Midland baseball league is not wanted.

—The tail-end of the retreating winter has returned to town and beaten back the advance guard of spring. Snow and hail fell to-day—thermometer at freezing point.

—Several local bicyclists took their first spin last Friday, some going as far as the red mills. Wheeling was just "fair to middlin'."

—Mr. E. Green, of Peterborough, says the Lakefield Chronicle, was in the village on Tuesday and Wednesday, placing in Messrs. Sellens and J. C. Carveth's stores his patent slat blind. Those wishing blinds should take a look at them before putting in any other as the blinds manufactured by Mr. Green are without a rival in the Dominion for durability and cheapness, and simplicity of working.

—Mr. John Robb's house at Garden Hill was burned Saturday morning. His sons, Robert and James, saw the fire and ran to it, the former distancing his brother. After the fire had subsided, enquiry was made for James, who had not been seen after being left behind. He was found in a field, life extinct, with his head in a hole. He probably, says the Port Hope Times, tripped over a knoll in the uneven ground, and falling into the hole headforemost, strangled to death. The Guide says he fell and burst a blood vessel.

Police News.

Chief Cooper is in Toronto on business.

A house was placarded "Diphtheria" this morning by the police. There are very few cases in town.

Daniel Shanahan was fined $100 and costs for a breach of the Scott Act this morning.

A case for infringement of the Scott Act was dismissed at the police court this morning. Another case comes up at 4 o'clock this afternoon.

The police officers and town authorities are going to make a vigorous and determined crusade against the low "dives" which abound in Peterborough.

Two tramps were housed last night. One was an old man who applied for a permanent shelter in the goal. He said he had been sent to town by the reeve of the township in which he lives (not 100 miles from Peterborough) with instructions to walk the streets until a friendly policeman picked him up and took him in charge, as he was sure to do. The old man let the story out, and this morning he was sent back to the place from which he came. This "racket" has been worked long and faithfully by the reeves of surrounding townships. It is, indeed, an easy way of getting rid of their own indigents, but this time the town authorities "tumbled," and the scheme failed.

New Orleans Jubilee Singers.

A large audience assembled in the George street Methodist church on Monday night to listen to the concert of the New Orleans Jubilee Singers, and, judging from the liberal applause which greeted the several numbers, the entertainment was highly appreciated. The singing was exceedingly sweet, and the harmony and time were all that could be desired. The concerted pieces were a delightful blending of clear, sweet soprano, full rich contralto, smooth, silvery tenor and deep sonorous bass, while the soprano solos of Miss Tillie Jones were something in the way of finished execution which could hardly have been expected. The plantation melodies while very entertaining heard once or twice, seem, it must be confessed, by their sameness to all on the sense after two or three numbers. Altogether, however, the entertainment was a very enjoyable one, and the humorous rendering of several genre selections overcame the restraint of situation and were greeted with hearty laughter. There were numerous encores which were most willingly responded to. The chant of the Lord's Prayer, given by request, was excellently done—the only notable defect being the ungrammatical substitution of "those that trespass against us" for "them that trespass against us." The entertainment throughout gave general satisfaction.

Lost His Eye, and Nearly His Life.

A few days ago Charlie, a young son of Mr. George Brown, of Peterborough, who is working in a dry goods store in Orillia, met with an accident which nearly resulted fatally. He with some other boys were snowballing the man who delivered parcels for the store. He chased them, Charlie taking refuge on the bare joists of an outbuilding, where the man prodded him from below with a long bamboo fish-pole. One thrust took effect in the lad's eye, penetrating to the brain, and rendering him unconscious. In that condition he lay for a long time. The man, tiring of his sport and thinking the lad had been sufficiently punished, though unaware of the injury he had done, as the boy was silent, left him for his own employment. His prolonged absence led to a search, and he was found in the same place, with blood oozing from the wound. For a time his life was despaired of, but he will have recovered sufficiently in a few days to return to his home in Peterborough. The sight of the injured eye is gone forever.

Prompt Attention.

The Street Inspector has acted promptly on the hint given in yesterday's EXAMINER, and to-day a man is employed cleaning the crossings on George street. Mr. Pope will retire to-night with the benedictions of hundreds of grateful citizens resting on his thoughtful head, especially ladies, whose skirts have escaped gathering a rushing of mud from filthy crossings.

Held Over.

A report of the proceedings of the Easter vestry meetings is unavoidably held over.

Good Church Music.

To the Editor of the Daily Examiner.

DEAR SIR,—As a lover of good music, especially good church music, I was particularly pleased with the excellent character of the musical portion of the Easter holiday services in St. John's church. The anthems and chants were rendered in a most impressive manner, creditable alike to the members of the choir and to their painstaking and able choir-master, Mr. Seward. I feel impelled to pay them this tribute, because their excellent services are entitled to, at least, the recognition implied in the bestowal of deserved praise.

Yours very faithfully,
A FEW HOLDEN.

Tuesday, April 12th.

Entrance Examinations.

The next entrance examinations to high schools and collegiate institutes will be held in July.

The following is an outline of studies in the various subjects;

READING.—A general knowledge of the elements of vocal expression, with special reference to emphasis, inflection and pause. The reading, with proper expression, of any selection in the readers for fourth book classes. The pupil should be taught to read intelligently as well as intelligibly.

ARITHMETIC.—Numeration and notation; the elementary rules; greatest common measure and least common multiple: reduction; the compound rules; vulgar and decimal fractions: elementary percentage and interest.

ORTHOGRAPHY AND ORTHOEPY.—The pronunciation, the syllabication, and the spelling from dictation of words in common use. The correction of words improperly spelt or pronounced. The distinctions between words in common use in regard to spelling, pronunciation, and meaning.

WRITING.—The proper formation of the small and capital letters. The pupil will be expected to write neatly and legibly.

GEOGRAPHY.—Mathematical, Physical and political as contained in the authorized text book. Maps of America, Europe, Asia and Africa. Maps of Canada and Ontario, including the railway systems. The products and the commercial relations of Canada.

GRAMMER.—Etmology, syntax and analysis.

COMPOSITION.—The nature and the construction of different kinds of sentences. The combination of separate statements into sentences. The nature and construction of paragraphs. The combination of separate statements into paragraphs. Variety of expressions, with the following classes of exercises:—Changing the voice of the verb; expanding a word or a phrase into a clause; contracting a clause into a word or phrase: changing from direct to indirect narration, or the converse transportation: changing the form of a sentence: expansion of given heads or hints into a composition; the contraction of passages: paraphrasing prose or easy poetry. The elements of punctuation. Short narratives or descriptions. Familiar letters.

DRAWING.—Drawing books, No. 4 and No. 5 of the drawing Course for Public Schools.

HISTORY.—Outlines of English history; the outlines of Canadian history generally, with particular attention to the events subsequent to 1841. The municipal institutions of Ontario, and the Federal form of the Dominion government.

A Millinery Magnet.

The snappiest spring bonnet for the forthcoming season is appropriately named "the church door magnet." It is a nice attractive piece of head-gear, warranted to draw mashers, young and old.

A Pocket Piece.

"Say, Jim, do you carry a pocket-piece?" "Yes, most of the time." "What is it, old or silver?" "Neither, it's a pawnticket."

Modern Ball.

Sam, what has become of that beautiful ring of yours. Lost it in a ball game. A fifteen-ball pool game? No; on a three-ball pawn game.

A CARD

FROM

T. DOLAN,

TO HIS NUMEROUS FRIENDS.

I beg to say that the Dry Goods business heretofore carried on by T. Dolan & Co. has been disposed of to the new firm of Messrs SHEERY & CO., who will continue the business in the same stand No. 2 CLUXTON'S BLOCK.

Mr. Corbery one of the members of the new firm has been connected with the late firm since 1878, and consequently knows what the public wants.

While thanking my many friends who have so liberally patronized the late firm in the Dry Goods business for the past twelve years, I trust they will continue to bestow that patronage on my successors.

I desire to state that I now intend confining myself exclusively to the Clothing trade, and will continue to do my utmost to keep only such goods as will be appreciated by the public.

THE DEBATE DRAGS.

MR. GLADSTONE WILL SPEAK AGAIN ON FRIDAY.

LONDON, April 12.—In the House of Commons this afternoon Attorney-General Holmes reopened the debate on the Government side in favor of the Irish Crimes Act Amendment Bill. He contended that the measure was a fair and reasonable one and that none of its provisions would interfere with constitutional or public rights. As to the provision enabling the Viceroy to suppress dangerous associations, the bill left the exercise of the Viceroy's power under the veto of Parliament.

The Government adhered to the proposal to make the bill perpetual. The misfortune in the enactment of the past measures of this kind was they were not made perpetual.

Hugh Childers said that although he supported the amendment to the bill, he admitted that some of the bill's provisions would not be objectionable if they were made part of a general bill for both England and Ireland, but those features of the proposed law which the Government especially intended to apply to Ireland were unwarranted and would be found to evoke disorder. Mr. Childers protested strongly against giving the proposed powers to the resident magistrates whom he knew, he said, would be unfit by reason of their lack of legal training to properly exercise them, especially in cases involving the application of the extreme provisions of the Walteboy Act and the legal construction of the word conspiracy. The proposal to try Irish prisoners in England was amongst the worst features of the bill.

Gladstone to Speak on Friday.

LONDON, April 12.—There were not fifty members in the House of Commons to-night. The debate on the Crime Bill will go on formally until Thursday, when the House will fill up again. Mr. Gladstone will revive interest in Parliament by speaking on Friday. The Government is anxious to reach the second reading of the Crimes Bill without resorting to closure and will not insist upon a division before April 22.

Speaker Peel has intimated to Mr. Gladstone that if the head of the Government demands closure after a consumable period of debate, he will always deem it his duty to acquiesce, and that his rule will apply to any Government, Tory or Liberal.

THE CANADA SOUTHERN AND C.P.R.

A Report That the Latter Will Absorb the Former.

DETROIT, Mich., April 12.—Referring to a St. Thomas despatch stating that it is believed there that the Canada Southern Railway is to be transferred to the Canada Pacific, President Ledyard of the Michigan Central Railway says the report probably grows out of the fact that negotiations are pending between the two companies regarding the interchange of traffic which, he hopes, will shortly be concluded. Mr. Ledyard goes to New York to-morrow to meet Sir George Stephens and Mr. Vanhorne, and a definite understanding may probably be reached. Mr. Ledyard says such an arrangement as spoken of in the despatch could not be made unless the stockholders of the Canada Southern agreed to it, and as they have agreed to an operative agreement with the Michigan Central, which has eighteen years more to run it is not likely they will make another one.

THE AMERICAN PRIMATE DEAD.

Bishop Lee of the Episcopal Church of Delaware Passes Away.

WILMINGTON, Del., April 12.—The Right Rev. Alfred Lee, D.D., LL.D., Bishop of the Protestant-Episcopal Church of Delaware and Primate of the Church in America, died here to-day, of typhoid fever after an illness of about two months. For the past two weeks his symptoms were more encouraging and gave slight grounds for hopes of lasting improvement. Just after noon to-day he was seized with a sinking spell from which he never rallied. The deceased was in his 80th year, and in June next would have reached the fiftieth anniversary of his ordination. The funeral will take place on Friday.

Buried with Military Honors.

PRINCETON, Ont., April 12.—The death of Dr. John Benham occurred on April 9 after a lingering illness. The funeral took place to-day under full military honors, the deceased holding a commission as lieutenant in the 22d Battalion Oxford Rifles, and was attended by the band, all the officers of the regiment, and a concourse of fully 3000 people from all parts of the counties of Oxford and Brant, testifying to the general esteem in which the deceased was held. Dr. Benham was a native of Guelph, and after obtaining his diploma entered the American army as a surgeon, serving through the whole of the Civil War and ending with Sherman's memorable march to the sea. At the close of the war he returned to Canada and settled at Princeton, where he enjoyed an extensive practice up to the time of his fatal illness.

The Dutch King's Birthday.

AMSTERDAM, April 12.—The seventieth anniversary of King William's birthday, which fell on Feb. 19 and was then duly observed as a holiday by the people of The Hague, the other capital of Holland, was celebrated here to-day by a general festivity, inaugurated by the monarch entering the town in state. The city was gaily decorated for the occasion, the streets being spanned by splendid floral arches, the houses adorned with banners and flags, the public buildings festooned and all the people out in holiday attire. The King was accompanied at the head of the pageant by Queen Emma and little Princess Wilhelmina, and was enthusiastically cheered along the route.

Western Union Telegraph Company.

NEW YORK, April 12.—At a special meeting of the stockholders of the Western Union Telegraph Company an issue of 12,000 shares of new stock, with which to retire dividend scrip, and a proposition of a 5 per cent. collateral trust bond, into which stocks and bonds guaranteed by the Western Union Company may be converted, were approved.

EVE OF THE OPENING

THE CAPITAL CROWDED WITH THE PEOPLE'S REPRESENTATIVES.

OTTAWA, April 12.—It is the eve of the battle, and the hosts are marshaling fast. A quorum of Parliament is already here. The woods are full of M.P.'s. The young M.P., the fellow who is feeling that way for the first time, can be spotted a block away. They all wear red neckties in imitation of Sir John, and their evident knowledge of their own importance is exceeded only by their frantic efforts to keep cool until they are sworn in. A whole batch of them went up to the House this morning and insisted upon having the oath administered at once, so that they might return down street and put M.P. after their names on the hotel register. Because their wish could not be gratified they have got an idea that the constitution has slanted sideways.

A good many of them went down to see the Rideau this afternoon and cool off. The little river is acting ugly to the very top of its bent. Thousands of tons of ice are being flung about, grinding, crushing and jamming. The whole country about Janesville and New Edinburgh is under water, fences and small buildings have been obliterated and half a dozen bridges owe their salvation to the hard frost of last night. The big Ottawa is rolling along slightly excited, perhaps, a few feet above the ordinary level, but waits until the north waters from the Ducheane, the Bonnechere, the Madawaska and a dozen other rivers are let loose and the water will rise so high that the Chaudiere Falls will be lost sight of.

Well the flood of politicians is quite as large though, perhaps, not as dangerous as the flood of water. Among the early comers from the west to-day were Dr. Ferguson of Welland, G. W. Moncrief of East Lambton and Dr. Roome of West Middlesex. Shortly after a batch of maritime members arrived from the east, F. E. Kenney of Halifax, Dr. Wallace of Albert, N.B., F. D. Wilmott of Sunbury, G. F. Baird, St. John; John Campbell, Digby; John Lovitt, Yarmouth; and Jas. Kaulbach, Lunenburg. They had hardly got settled when the Northwest representations struck the town, and oh, that was a sight to see. George Ham in a fur cap and no collar, W. B. Scarth in the garb of a frontiersman, Davis of Alberta with his long black beard clogged with cinders, Daly of Brandon, Perley of Assiniboia and more. They had all been nearly killed by the washout at Pakenham, were hours behind time and had eaten nothing since the night before. The unwashed stood around and watched them while they ate and marveled at the sight. But it would take up too much space to tell of all who arrived. John Small is here, James David Edgar is here, and Pat. Purcell is here or hereabouts. Both Mr. Small and Mr. Edgar have their wives with them, as has Dr. Ferguson and George Ham and lots of the others.

To-night the corridors of the hotels are thronged and it begins to look like the opening of a session. The first dab at the opening will take place to-morrow. At 12 o'clock, high noon, sheriff's time, the members of the faithful Commons of Canada will assemble in their chamber and will there and then be sworn in by the commissioners in batches of five. Then they will sign the roll, an elaborately illuminated affair done in French and English and several colors. It is the work of young It. B. King of the Clerk's Department, and is really a most creditable piece of work. Formerly the roll had to be sent to Montreal to be engrossed at a cost of several dollars. After signing the Commoners will go to lunch and return at 3 o'clock, when they will be conducted to the Senate Chamber where the Deputy Governor, Sir William Ritchie, will tell them to go back and elect a speaker. Thereupon they will return and Clerk Bourinot will take the chair. Col. Ouimet will be elected, and the House being duly constituted will adjourn until the next day, when the Governor-General will complete the task by reading the Speech from the Throne.

Just a word here of what may be. Col. Ouimet still retains his old seat in the front row on the Government side. When he goes to the Speaker's chair Mr. Desjardines is to have his seat. Mr. Desjardines was one of last year's Bolters, it will be remembered. As to the majority if a vote is taken on the speaker, which will not be if Mr. Blake has sense, it will not be far away from 37. That is providing the House is full.

Mr. Porter, the political executioner of M. C. Cameron, will move the address and Dr. Weldon, the brilliant young New Brunswicker from Albert, will second it. Both are expected to be speeches of more than ordinary force.

In the Senate Senator McCallum of Monk will move the address and Senator Casgrain of Windsor will second it.

The Senate leadership has not yet been settled. Perhaps they intend Senator Plumb to be both Speaker and leader.

To-morrow night the big state dinner will occur. Rideau Hall will be the scene of the festivities. Cabinet Ministers, Lieutenant-Governors, members of the Supreme Court, prelates and deputy heads of departments are the only persons who are eligible to attend a state dinner. An ordinary member of Parliament that night has to receive his sustenance by way of the back door, and the press have to keep off the grass. If the Rideau River keeps on rising some of the dignitaries will have to get their share of the hilarity through the telephone.

By the way, the first break of the campaign was made to-day by Mr. Mara, of Yale, B.C. He is a staunch Conservative and has a seat on the right side of the house. When shown it he immediately sat down and wrote a letter to his wife. Then he went out, came in by another door, got turned around, wandered up among the Liberal benches, and when rescued was contentedly foraging in the desk of a black-haired Rouge from down by the Gulf, who would think it contamination to have an anti-Riellite sit on his cushion.

There are a couple of deputations here to-day. One consists of prominent cigar manufacturers from Montreal, Toronto, London, Hamilton, Barrie and other places, who want the duty on foreign-made cigars increased from $1.20 to $2.50. They will meet Sir Charles Tupper to-morrow.

Another is composed of Lieut.-Col. Lozier, Major Lozier, Capt. Poulin and Capt. Bullivan of Belleville. They had an interview with the Minister of Militia, and impressed upon him the need of a new drill shed in their town.

The Cabinet Ministers did not get back from the Chapleau banquet until late, owing to the ribbon getting across the railway track and stopping the train; but a long session of the Cabinet was held nevertheless, and probably the speech from the throne settled upon. They also did some other work.

Hon. J. J. Ross, late Premier of Quebec, has been called to the Senate to fill the vacancy created by the death of Senator Chapais. This may or may not have something to do with the Senate leadership.

Deputy Collector Powell of Guelph is appointed Collector of Inland Revenue in that city, vice McLean deceased. Mr. Powell is a step-son of old Dr. Clarke of Palmerston and is well liked. His appointment will be popular.

Staff-Sergt. Routledge, of the Mounted Police, is promoted to the rank of inspector and made a commissioned officer.

Deputy Warden Porter, of Dorchester Penitentiary, is elected to the wardenship.

Wm. Kyle's petition for mercy was this afternoon presented to the Minister of Justice by Mr. Nicholas Murphy. Hon. Mr. Thompson stated that the petition would receive every consideration.

The Vancouver election return came in today. All are now in except Cariboo. That, it is hoped, will be received to-morrow. Until it comes the member-elect cannot be sworn in.

The list of new Ontario Q.C.'s will not be taken up until after the session. This announcement will doubtless give rest to many troubled minds.

An unfortunate piece of business in the Department of Agriculture came to light today. In the patent branch of that Department there is or was employed a gentleman named C. O. Caron. He is no connection of the Minister of Militia, but was a very well educated and highly respectable gentleman of religious or, at least, of church going turn of mind. It was his duty to pass the applications that came to the patent office. These applications frequently contained the fees. Caron appropriated certain of the fees, the defalcation in all amounting to $300 to $400. It was a most foolish piece of business as discovery was inevitable. The deficiency was discovered yesterday and last night, when Hon. Mr. Marling returned, it was reported to him. An attempt was made to arrest Caron, but it was discovered that he had decamped. There are many here who hope that he has safely crossed the lines, as he might well do. His wife and children, left here under such circumstances, are objects of general sympathy.

Two of Nova Scotia's "big four" are here. They are Messrs. Lovitt and Kaulbaur.

Why Shelburne is Excited.

SHELBURNE, April 12.—Editor Mortimer of the Shelburne Free Press was arrested on Saturday evening at Orangeville as he stepped off the Toronto train. He was immediately bailed by the editor of the Advertiser. The proceedings followed Mr. Mortimer's failure to appear as a witness in Scott Act cases. Great indignation is expressed here at the action of Police Magistrate Munro and sympathizers with the Scott Act, since there are many other prominent citizens of the town who, like Mr. Mortimer, have refused to be made the instrument of tyranny and injustice. Dr. Norton, mentioned yesterday among those who had been summoned, was not served with a subpœna.

Charged With Beating a Constable.

ROTHSAY, April 12.—The persons charged with beating Constable Henry Hesselline have been arrested, and passed through this place yesterday morning in charge of Inspector Flath and three constables from Harriston on their way to Drayton, to be locked up. Their names are James Harper, John Highland, John Bennet and Alfred Burton, all of Harriston. Burton is a bartender at the Royal for Mr. Bingham, who had just been served by Hesselline, and has since been fined for an offence against the Scott Act. Harper was Bingham's bus driver, and was said to be skipping out. He was arrested in Wroxeter.

A Fatal Quarrel near Brussels.

BRUSSELS, April 12.—Last Thursday a farmer named Thomas Granger, who lives about ten miles from Brussels, in the Township of Grey, attacked his neighbor, John McLennan, and a scuffle ensued. Granger clasped McLennan's knees, and pushing his head between McLennan's legs they both fell to the ground. Granger's neck was so injured that he was at once paralyzed, and died the next day. Yesterday Coroner Hutchinson held an inquest, and after hearing the evidence of several witnesses the jury returned a verdict exonerating McLennan, who acted on the defensive.

Fast Time on a Southern Track.

NEW ORLEANS, April 12.—The second day of the Louisiana Jockey Club Spring Meeting was held here to-day, the Pickwick stakes for 3-year-olds being the principal event. Summary: First race, 1¼ miles, over five hurdles—April Fool won, Burr Oak second, Hopsing third; time 2.18½.

Second race, seven furlongs—Our Friend won, Hibernia second, General Pryor third; time 1.30½.

Third race, Pickwick stakes, for 3-year-olds, 1 mile—Withrow won, Tom Hood second, Warg third; time 1.43½.

Fourth race, 1¼ miles—Panama won, Favor second, Wahoo third; time 1.57½.

Election Protests.

HALIFAX, April 12.—Protests were filed today against the return of Sir Chas. Tupper for Cumberland and Hon. A. W. McLelan for Colchester, on the grounds of bribery, corruption, etc. A petition was also filed for the disqualification of W. T. Pipes, who was defeated by Sir Charles in February.

An Aylmer Man in Trouble.

MONTREAL, April 12.—A young man named Frank Devlin, belonging to Aylmer, was before Judge Dugas to-day, charging with forging his father's name to a check. There are several charges of a similar nature against Devlin, but in the present case he was arrested at the instance of Mr. Strachan, of this city.

A Great Fire at St. Augustine.

JACKSONVILLE, Fla., April 12.—The St. Augustine fire is still raging. The St. Augustine Hotel, the old Spanish Cathedral, Edward's Hotel, the Court House, the Sinclair blocks, Chamberlin's store, Mrs. Call's residence and Weller's Hotel have all been burned. The loss amounts to $250,000.

Floods in Queensland.

BRISBANE, Queensland, April 12.—Heavy rains have been succeeded by serious floods over a wide section of Queensland. Large portions of the crops have been destroyed, and it is feared the result will be ruin to many farmers.

The Crosby Bill Vetoed.

ALBANY, N.Y., April 12.—Governor Hill sent to the Assembly to-night a message vetoing the Crosby High License Bill on the ground that it was special legislation (it applied only to New York and Brooklyn.

ADVERTISING THE NORTH-WEST.

American humour is often very weak and flabby, yet the Canadian North-West owes something—a sort of negative gratitude, to these witcrackers. Every so-called humorist in the United States has tried his 'prentice hand on Dakota, making its climatic disadvantages, which are many and great, the theme of his comic efforts. This practice has done much to draw public attention to the drawbacks which Dakota "enjoys," as a home for the immigrant. For instance, the fact underlying the humorism to the effect that the snow is never so deep but that the inhabitant of bleak Dakota can look out of his chimney top and see what the weather promises, or that implied in the casual statement of a farmer to his wife, that there is likely to be rough weather, because he sees a neighbor's farm bowling over the prairie under the gentle impetus of an incipient cyclone, is not very reassuring to the immigrant seeking a home. By way of contrast his mind will revert to Manitoba lying alongside, from which he hears no such dismal reports or insinuations because there is no foundation for them. It is a matter of congratulation that the Canadian newspaper man's mind does not take the turn of injuring his country in the eyes of the world by making bad jokes respecting its metereological peculiarities. At the same time it must be stated that there does not exist the same excuses. Any intelligent reader of the newspapers must have been struck with the fact that the Canadian North West is singularly exempt from the great natural scourges of the American west and north-west. In the region south of the 49th parallel—the boundary line—there occur with lamentable regularity and frequency the most terrific and destructive cyclones, the most devastating floods, the most calamitous snow storms, while, strangely, these seem to exhibit a marvellous self denial and cease their ravages at the international boundary line. As these facts become better known, so will the superior advantages of the Canadian North-West as a field for settlement, affect the mind and destination of the person contemplating emigration to a new sphere of action. The stars in their courses seem to fight for Canada—assuming that stellar and celestial influences affect or effect metereological disturbances. In this connection, it is painful to contemplate that the Dominion Government, which is more specially charged, one would think, with consulting the interests of our Canadian North-west, them Yankee paragraphers, has not taken a policy of action better calculated to promote its interests. It cannot be considered unpatrotic to emphasize conditions existing in the Northwest which can be removed. It is within the power of the Government to remove the handicap which their miserable policy has placed upon the country. The country has been overrun, if not at the instance, at least, with the concurrence and assistance of the Dominion Government with a horde of land speculators who hold large areas of the most valuable lands for speculative purposes. It has saddled the country with the grevious burden of a monopoly of railway freight rates, and with a railway monopoly which prevents the people from securing charters for railways necessary to the development and settlement of the country. There are many other minor grevances which all tend to retard to settlement of the Northwest. These the government might, if it had an honest concern respecting the promotion of the interests of the Northwest, remove by an order-in-council or by parliamentary action.

McLean's Model Roller Mills.

The Trent Valley Flouring Mills—Their Capacity and Mechanical Equipment.

Lakefield is a thrifty and go-ahead little burgh, and in no particular is the enterprise of her citizens more conspicuously shown than in the construction and management of her flour mills. A new one has been added to the list—The Trent Valley Flour Mills, conducted by Mr. D. McLean. Easter-tide is an appropriate time to allude to these mills for they are a resurrection from a burned structure. On the 7th of October, 1886, Mr. McLean's mills, standing on the site of the present buildings, were destroyed by fire. The work of rebuilding at once began and on the 18th of February, 1887, the new mills began operations, and to say that they are one of the completest, compactest, neatest, best equipped, best housed mills of its size in Canada, is no exaggeration. The building, consisting of four stories, is entirely new from basement to attic, constructed in the most substantial fashion, and all the machinery is new, the latter being supplied chiefly by the Geo. T. Smith Middlings Purifier Company, Stratford.

On taking a run over the mill, let us begin at

THE BASEMENT.

Here we find the driving machinery and line shafting, power for which is supplied by a Leffell turbine water wheel of 50-horse power. All the machinery for the several stories, with trifling exceptions, is driven by belting, a more noiseless system and one giving better results in increased steadiness of motion, and less loss of power by friction. On this floor is found the boots of the 28 stands of elevators and three cleaning machines. On this floor also is the water wheel, a Leffell turbine of 30-horse power for driving the stone which does the customs chopping for the farmers of the surrounding country. A large custom work is done at this mill in flour, but, instead of the old toll style, the exchange system is carried out, that is, a farmer is given a certain quantity of flour for the grist he brings to the mill. At the eastern end of the basement floor is the receiving hopper, for the grain received at the mill from the farmers or cars, the appliances of which will be noted hereafter.

THE FIRST OR GRINDING FLOOR

contains the essential part of the machinery of the mill, the six double stands of noiseless belt rollers to which the grain is supplied by twenty-eight stands of elevators, the nature of which has been so often described in these columns as to be familiar to the reader. On this floor are found also, one power packer and four hand packers, for packing the product of the mills in sacks or barrels as required, and also the run of chopping stones, for chopping coarse grains for farmers' use. Here it is best to refer to the receiving scales and the arrangements for receiving the grain into the mills. In the eastern front of the mills is a with an opening through which the grain from farmers' vehicles is poured into the weigh scales; after being weighed it pours into the receiving hopper before mentioned, in the basement story, at the base of which is a conveyer, which carries the grain to the elevators which raise it to the store house above the driveway, which has a capacity of 12,000 bushels divided into eight bins. For receiving wheat brought by rail, a siding from the Lakefield branch of the Midland is laid in front of the mill. From the car the wheat is shoveled into an opening communicating with the receiving hopper before spoken of in the basement story. By this means a whole train of cars laden with wheat, can be deposited into the store house, by machinery alone. An ingenious arrangement admits of mixing the various qualities of wheat that may be in the different bins. Pipes controlled by valves, reach from the bins to the weigh hopper. These being opened, the several kinds of wheat descend into the common receptacle slowly and are intimately blended and reconveyed to whatever point of the store house desired. A dial placed alongside the hopper, controls a common revolving discharge pipe, which directs the grain into any bin decided upon. Another application of this apparatus admits of the entire contents of the store room being shifted and aired as is necessary after long and undisturbed storage, by power alone.

ON THE SECOND FLOOR

are placed one germ aspirator, (for separating the fluffy material from the middlings that come from the rolls,) and in line with this are three middlings purifiers which treat the middlings on their way back to a second contact with the rolls. Here are also two centrifugal reels for dressing the flour after it has finally left the rolls, and also one shorts duster and one bran duster which remove any remnants of flour left by the previous processes. The product of these goes to the composition of low grade flour. On this floor are also the flour bins of a capacity of 400 barrels, communicating with the packers on the floor next below.

THE THIRD FLOOR

contains nine scalping reels for "scalping" the being after its first reduction, separating flour material and carrying it to the purifiers, and also five more centrifugal reels for dressing the flour. This floor also contains a complete dust room on the south side.

THE ATTIC STOREY.

contains the heads of 28 stands of elevators and other machinery necessary to the different elevating processes.

Such is a brief sketch of the complete mechanical equipment of this mill. One feature of this establishment is the roomy nature of the building—there is no cramping of space. Altogether the mill is one of the most complete and perfect mills for its size in Canada, a statement vouched for by Mr. Mather, of Kewatin, who has been looking over the different mills in Canada to find the best, in view of the fact that his father is arranging for the erection of a 1000-barrel grist mill at Kewatin, on the Lake of the Woods. The capacity of Mr. McLean's mill is 100 barrels per day, and so that he has no difficulty in promptly disposing of his output. He ships some to the Maritime Provinces, a large amount to Peterborough, and has arranged with a Toronto firm to handle his whole export output. The mills are run to their fullest capacity the full 24 hours. The different brands of flour turned out are the "Sampson," strong bakers'; "Lily," family; "Queen's," patent; and a low-grade flour. The head miller is Mr. J. W. Lockwood, who has had a wide experience in the best mills in Canada, and pronounces these mills the best for the size he knows of. Mr. McLean also gives the business his personal supervision and the briskness of the business does not leave him much leisure for anything else. Mr. McLean is to be congratulated upon the completeness, compactness, perfection of mechanical equipment and excellent adaptability to the purpose of their existence, which characterize the Trent Valley Flour Mills.

Examiner Bindery.

Merchants and business men, now is the time to call at the EXAMINER bindery and leave your orders for journals, day books, ledgers, invoice books, cheque books, and all blank books used in business. Don't wait till the moment you want to use them. All blank books last longer for not being used immediately after being finished.

Astonishing Success

It is the duty of every person who has used Hagyard's German Syrup to let the wonderful qualities be known to their friends in curing Consumption, severe Coughs, Croup, Asthma, Pneumonia, and in fact all throat and lung diseases. No person can use it without immediate relief. Three doses will relieve any case, and we consider it the duty of all Druggists to recommend it to the poor, dying consumptive, at least to try one bottle, as 80,000 dozen bottles were sold last year, and no one case where it failed was reported. Such a medicine as the German Syrup cannot be too widely known. Ask your druggist about it. Sample bottles to try, only 10 cents. Regular size, 75 cents. Sold by all Druggists and dealers, in the United States and Canada. eodw4

B.B.B.—In Working Order.

"My husband was troubled with dyspepsia for more than four years. Two experienced physicians did him no good. We got discouraged until we read of Burdock Blood Bitters; he took only two bottles and now is as well as ever, and doing heavy work all the time." Mrs. Richard Rowe, Hartley, Ont. B. B. B. has cured the worst cases of chronic dyspepsia. 2w14d

Beauty Well Ballasted.

The modern woman is well ballasted. If she had the wings that go with the celestial qualities the romancers ascribe to her they had need be of good size and stoutly feathered to lift her and her paraphernalia above the ground.

Invisible but Instantaneous.

All pains or aches will be instantly removed by a few drops of Fluid Lightning applied over the effected parts. No time lost; no nauseous medicines needed; no policing or using greasy liniments. It will not blister or discolor the skin. Sold at 25c. per bottle by John McKee, Druggist. Sufferers from Neuralgia assure us that they never fear it when their house contains a bottle of Fluid Lightning. eodw15

Cure for Inflammatory Rheumatism.

Procure from your druggist a bottle of Hagyard's Yellow Oil and use according to directions. J. D. Cameron, of Westlake, Ainslie, Cape Breton, was cured by this remedy after all other treatment had failed. It may be taken internally for coughs, colds, sore throat, etc., etc. 2w14d

SOMETHING NEW UNDER THE SUN!

BE SURE of the Place: Four Life-size Signs on Front of Building. LOOK UP FOR THEM!

GOUGH'S

Fresh Arrival of Spring Overcoats and Suits are the Newest Nobbiest, and Cheapest under the Sun!!

Those High-Priced Clothing Dealers can't see the funny about Gough's GIFT Department, and Claim such things are beneath them—Yes, low Advertising is beyond their comprehension, because they don't understand the first principles of Low Price System. We freely admit that we are fallen Clothiers, wallowing in the lowest depths of Bed Rock Prices, while our exalted brethren look down upon us from their high places, and go wild because we Capture the Trade.

Farmers, Mechanics, Merchants, Bankers and Laboring Men, come in and see us. Take no man's word, investigate and believe your own eyes, and you will be convinced that GOUGH is the cheapest Clothier on Earth.

THIS WEEK we will offer Extraordinary Inducements. All our Departments have been augmented with new features and choice Stock, which will justly excite the admiration of all visitors. Call, it will pay as well as please you to see—

Definition of a Bore.

Ex-Senator Charles H. Russell is vainly endeavoring to-day to stop the circulation of as pretty a little story as ever caused a general eastern district chuckle. Last night Mr. Russell was the principal orator at public school No. 13, South Second and Tenth streets, where closing exercises were held. There was a large attendance, and the ex-senator was so loudly applauded when he arose to speak that he dropped at once into his most pleasing vein, and related a humorous story of a man who spoke too frequently and too long at school commencements, and was therefore called a bore.

"Now children," asked ex-Senator Russell, "what is a bore?"

There was no response.

"It is not possible, children," said the ex-senator, "that you are unable to tell me what a bore is. Now I see a bright-looking fellow sitting in that front row. I am sure he knows. Tell me, sonny, what is a bore?"

The bright boy looked just then a trifle bewildered, but said nothing, and Mr. Russell, to encourage him, remarked: "Come, my boy, speak up; I know you can tell me. Now what is a bore?"

The boy's face reddened. He seemed anxious to avoid observation as he twisted uneasily in his chair, but the whole school, with parents, friends, teachers, principal, and distinguished guests, awaited eagerly and in dead silence his answer. There was no escape for him, and just as the long pause was becoming painful he blurted out:

"A senator!"

Such a shout of laughter was never heard in a Brooklyn school building. It was so prolonged that ex-Senator Russell waited three minutes before attempting to renew his speech. Then the audience roared again, and again the ex-senator was compelled to wait till the laugh rolled by. A few minutes later, during the course of his speech he tried to aim a witty shot at the boy who had knocked him out, but the audience was in sympathy with the bright boy, and for the third time the laugh was against the ex-senator. Mr. Russell says that he would now rather deliver an address to a hostile political mob than attempt again to catechise an audience of school boys. "But," he added, "I shall not mind much if the story is kept from the newspapers."—Brooklyn Eagle.

A Central American writer says: "The most beautiful tree I have ever seen is the mango. It is the perfect ideal of a tree, from 50 to 75 feet in height, and spreading its dark green feathery foliage over a circumference of 150 feet. Its shade is so dense that no ray of the fiercest tropic sun ever strikes the spot over which it stands guard. Its long, drooping boughs give it the shape of a huge umbrella of never-fading verdure. One tree will bear from 3,000 to 6,000 mangoes at a time. The fruit, which is heart or kidney-shaped, weighs from half a pound to a pound. It has a skin like a plum, and is a bright golden yellow when ripe. Its flavor is a combination of something like our plum, peach, apple and grape, with a decidedly resinous tinge. When cooked it makes a delicious 'Central American apple sauce,' unlike anything we have in the United States."

"Heaven is not reached at a single bound."

sung Dr. Holland, and the same may be said of health. But many a sick person would make rapid strides in the direction of complete health by using Dr. R. V. Pierce's "Golden Medical Discovery." It is a sovereign remedy for all forms of scrofulous disease, king's evil, tumors, white swellings, fever sores, scrofulous sore eyes, as well as for blood and skin diseases. 6dw15

An Ideal Marriage.

Mrs. Hendricks, widow of the late Vice-President, is devoting her life to carrying out every wish and plan projected by her late husband. During their long life together she made a practice of making private memorandum of any conversation bearing upon future plans; and their fulfilment is now her sole aim. Theirs must have been one of the marriages we read about—an ideal marriage.

A Startling Discovery.

A startling and important discovery was made when, after long and patient experiments, the combination of NERVILINE was reached. A grand victory, indeed, for the suffering have an ever ready, prompt, efficient, and cheap remedy at hand. Do you know that for 10 cents you can buy a trial bottle of Polson's Nerviline and test its great power over pain of every discription? Polson's Nerviline cures chills, pain in the stomach, side, and back, rheumatism; in fact all pain. Sold by druggists and country dealers. 6dw15

What School Girls Eat.

The Association of Collegiate Alumnæ of Boston have issued a pamphlet full of statistics of what school girls eat and do not eat in New York and Boston. Out of the ninety girls who were questioned one morning in one of the public schools, it was ascertained that twelve had eaten no breakfast. Of these twelve, six had brought no luncheon; the other six had cake, pie and pickles, or similar indigestible food.

CURES ALL HUMORS,

from a common Blotch, or Eruption, to the worst Scrofula. Salt-rheum, "Fever-sores," Scaly or Rough Skin, in short, all diseases caused by bad blood are conquered by this powerful, purifying, and invigorating medicine. Great Eating Ulcers rapidly heal under its benign influence. Especially has it manifested its potency in curing Tetter, Rose Rash, Boils, Carbuncles, Sore Eyes, Scrofulous Sores and Swellings, Hip-Joint Disease, White Swellings, Goitre, or Thick Neck, and Enlarged Glands. Send ten cents in stamps for a large treatise, with colored plates, on Skin Diseases, or the same amount for a treatise on Scrofulous Affections. "THE BLOOD IS THE LIFE." Thoroughly cleanse it by using Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery, and good digestion, a fair skin, buoyant spirits, vital strength, and soundness of constitution, will be established.

CONSUMPTION,

which is Scrofulous Disease of the Lungs, is promptly and certainly arrested and cured by this God-given remedy, if taken before the last stages of the disease are reached. From its wonderful power over this terribly fatal disease, when first offering this now celebrated remedy to the public, Dr. PIERCE thought seriously of calling it his "Consumption Cure," but abandoned that name as too limited for a medicine which, from its wonderful combination of tonic, or strengthening, alterative, or blood-cleansing, anti-bilious, pectoral, and nutritive properties, is unequaled, not only as a remedy for consumption of the lungs, but for all

CHRONIC DISEASES OF THE

Liver, Blood, and Lungs.

If you feel dull, drowsy, debilitated, have sallow color of skin, or yellowish-brown spots on face or body, frequent headache or dizziness, bad taste in mouth, internal heat or chills, alternating with hot flashes, low spirits and gloomy forebodings, irregular appetite, and coated tongue, you are suffering from Indigestion, Dyspepsia, and Torpid Liver, or "Biliousness." In many cases only part of these symptoms are experienced. As a remedy for all such cases, Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery has no equal.

For Weak Lungs, Spitting of Blood, Shortness of Breath, Bronchitis, Severe Coughs, Consumption, and kindred affections, it is a sovereign remedy. Send ten cents in stamps for Dr. Pierce's book on Consumption. Sold by Druggists.

LOCAL NEWS.

Was it Wilful Murder?

A report is current that the body of the infant, found on Tuesday, was first discovered under the sidewalk the day before by some children, and left by them in the place where it was found. The adjournment of the inquest was made in order to give the police time to fully investigate the case, and endeavor to locate the crime. There is scarcely a doubt in the minds of those who have taken an interest in the case that a wilful murder has been committed. Dr. Kincaid's post mortem examination will set the doubt at rest. He will report at the inquest on Friday night.

Y. M. C. A. District Conference.

The Young Men's Christian Association of the Peterborough District, which extends from Whitby to Trenton, held a conference at Port Hope on Monday and Tuesday. There was a good attendance, and the conference was a very successful one. The local Association was represented by Messrs. H. S. Griffin, Bannell Sawyer, A. Tebb, A. Cooper and Geo. E. Williams. Mr. W. F. Hilliard prepared a paper for the conference, and Mr. H. C. Priest, of Lakefield, gave a Bible reading on "Consecration."

Thirty Miles Away.

A telephone has been placed in the practice room of the Fire Brigade Band, and by being switched on during practice hours their music can be distinctly heard by our citizens. But it goes further than that. Tuesday night connection was made with Port Hope, and those who listened were delighted with the sweet strains, softened by the distance, created by the band. This is another new wrinkle in the telephone business.

Imperial Federation League.

A Public Meeting to Consider the Question—A Branch Formed With Good Membership.

About one hundred gentlemen assembled in the Opera House Tuesday night in answer to the posters announcing a public meeting to consider the Imperial Federation scheme, and the advisability of forming a local league.

Mayor STEVENSON took the chair, and announced that the gentlemen from Ingersoll, Toronto and Chatham, who were advertised to speak, were unable to be present, from causes which he knew not. He (the speaker) was not very well acquainted with the question, but he understood that it was the electing of representatives from the Colonies to the English Parliament, or, at least, their being given a voice in the general business of the Empire.

Mr. J. H. LONG, being called upon, said it was not owing to himself or Mr. Brundrette (who had with him taken the matter in hand) that the gentlemen who were to speak at this meeting could not appear. With regard to the question now up for discussion, it seemed to him that the name "Imperial Federation League" was an unfortunate name, as it gave the impresion that it advocated representation in the Imperial Parliament by the Colonies. That was a mistake, and he considered the idea of an Imperial Parliament in this way to be impractiesble. The scheme formulated by the League seemed to him to be the formation of an Advisory Council, to make suggestions to the Imperial Parliament, and not in any way to bind them. The fundamental principle intended to be taught by the League was that the British Empire was too valuable and important to fall to pieces, and its integrity must be RETAINED AT ALL HAZARDS.

(Applause.) He thought it was especially necessary that the people of Canada should cultivate this spirit. He could not speak about Peterborough, but in Canada there was, without doubt, some feeling of disloyalty—a spirit of annexation; and if Canada were to leave the Empire, Australia would follow suit, and then the Cape Colonies—and without these important adjuncts the British Empire would be shorn of a great part of her glory. Annexation would be bad for the Dominion, but worse for Great Britain. In connection with that, it seemed to be assumed that as soon as the majority of the people of Canada expressed for annexation, then the minority would have to yield. That blind doctrine he didn't believe in. A Canadian was born with an allegiance to the old country, and every Canadian he held responsible to God for the retention of that allegiance. (Applause.) There could be no change of relations between Canada and the mother country without the shedding of blood, and the propagation of a spirit of annexation would bring on a civil war. There was really no difference between annexation and independence—independence was only a stepping stone to annexation: therefore, the question was, whether we shall be a part of the British Empire or of the United States. Then the people of Canada were a dual people. The French Roman Catholic could not be changed into an Englishman—though he had no doubt they were truly loyal—and every attempt to force that change would lead to reprisal. We must be content to be a dual people, and if there was less effort made in the way of French evangelization, there would be less talk of a French uprising and invasion; but if the French should cross the bounds of reason and attempt such a thing, we would fight to the last. Again, we should be careful to disseminate a knowledge of what the British Empire was, and this Imperial Federation League was intended for the purpose. When we remembered the vastness and power of the British Empire, we would be very foolish not to stand by its integrity. This Dominion had been built up by the shedding of blood, and we had no right to barter away so precious a birthright for a mess of pottage. (Applause.) Another wrong impression about this Imperial Federation scheme was that it would interfere with local questions. The platform of the League Mr. Long read, as follows:

ORIGIN OF THE LEAGUE.

At a Conference on Imperial Federation, held in London on Tuesday, 29th July, 1884, the Right Hon. W. E. Forster, M.P., in the chair, it was unanimously resolved:—

(1) That in order to secure the permanent unity of the Empire, some form of Federation is essential.

(2) That for the purpose of influencing public opinion, both in the United Kingdom and the Colonies, by showing the incalculable advantages which will accrue to the whole Empire from the adoption of such a system of organization, a society be formed of men of all parties, to advocate and support the principles of Federation.

(3) That this Conference refers to a Provisional Committee all details connected with the establishment and organization of such a Society, for a report thereon to be submitted for the consideration and approval of an adjourned Conference, to be held at a suitable period in the coming autumn.

CONSTITUTION OF THE LEAGUE.

At the adjourned Conference, held on Tuesday, 18th November, 1884, the following resolutions were unanimously passed:—

(1) That a Society be now formed to be called "The Imperial Federation League."

(2) That the object of the League be to secure by Federation the permanent unity of the Empire.

(3) That no scheme of Federation should interfere with the existing rights of Local Parliaments as regards local affairs.

(4) That any scheme of Imperial Federation should combine on an equitable basis the resources of the Empire for the maintenance of common interests, and adequately provide for an organized defence of common rights.

(5) That the League use every constitutional means to bring about the object for which it is formed, and invite the support of men of all political creeds.

* * * * *

(8) That British subjects throughout the Empire be invited to become members, and to form and organize branches of the League.

* * * * *

(12) That the branches of the League be empowered to appoint representatives to act on the General Committee.

Mr. LONG also read instructions regarding the formation of branches.

PRINCIPLES OF THE LEAGUE.

There was an immense amount of League literature printed, which contained a good deal of historical, statistical and geographical information, which they would be happy to distribute. It was hoped that those interested in the scheme would hand in their names to-night. The fundamental principles of the League were:—No interference with local concerns at all; no distinction of party or creed; its sole object to be the cultivation of a love for the British Empire and a dissemination of knowledge in relation thereto.

Mr. BRUNDRETT explained his connection with the movement, which he was pleased to say gave every prospect of being successful. He regretted his own feelings, he was very anxious that a League should be formed in Peterborough. Branches were springing up all over the country, and it would progress faster in the future than in the past. We were only beginning to see the advantages of our connection with the British Empire, which we ought to preserve under any consideration. The way to perpetuate this sentiment was by the formation of branches of this League—for unity is strength. It was to be regretted that the gentlemen announced could not appear, but the branch ought to be formed notwithstanding.

Mr. E. J. TOKER said he was heartily in accord with the League. He had been born in England, and had travelled over the world; and at almost every country or port he passed he saw the Union Jack flying—and he felt at home. That was a state of affairs which he hoped would ever be preserved. There were annexation and independence, schemes fomented by some discontents; but we should fight this, and one reason was by this Imperial Federation League. The idea of having colonial representation in the Imperial Parliament was impracticable at least for the present; if it was carried out, our numbers would be so small that

WE SHOULD BE SWAMPED.

But an Advisory Council would serve the purpose, and an initiatory step has been already made. Commissioners were in London from all the Colonies, and these used their influence with the Government. There was a feeling in favor of disintegration among the distant colonies, but this tendency should be checked and instead feelings of loyalty inculcated. We were very proud of our Dominion, but Canada alone would not have the weight and importance that she would have in connection with the British Empire. The same could be said of Ireland and Scotland. The Imperial Federation League had his hearty sympathy in the good purpose it was intended to serve.

Mr. BRADSHAW, the next speaker, depreciated the small attendance, but he was sure it did not represent the loyalty of Peterborough. With regard to the question of Imperial Federation he knew little, but he was a Briton, and as such was loyal to the Queen and the Empire. (Applause.) He thoroughly endorsed the language of Mr. Long. In this year of Jubilee it would be a good idea to take up the cultivation of a spirit of loyalty and a knowledge of the connection between the two countries. The question naturally arose, why should this Imperial Federation scheme be promulgated? There were some who advocated independence, while others talked secession. There were then two phases of the matter. Should it be annexation (or independence) or a continuance of our relations with the British Empire? Certainly neither annexation nor independence was wanted. Federation was wanted for mutual protection, and in connection with that some had the idea that Federation meant taxation—and with them the mighty dollar answered for loyalty. If Federation would induce increased taxation by the colonies having to it would be cried down by them. But if we were one body, and one of our members was unfortunate, why should not the rest stand a share of the burden? A council of representatives from each colony could have much influence in preserving the integrity of the British Empire. Mr. Bradshaw referred to the trouble over islands in the Pacific Ocean and New Guinea, in which the action of the colonies adjacent had been the means of securing them to the Empire. England was beginning to consider that the colonies were not such small fry, and the Canadian Pacific Railway, and the government which had built it had not done a little towards opening the eyes of the British to their importance. We would be recreant to our trust if we did not establish a branch of the League, and he hoped such a branch would be formed to-night.

Mr. LONG called attention to a statement of Rev. Mr. Bradshaw that a general defence fund would be contributed to by the colonies. A wrong impression might be taken therefrom. It was understood definitely by the League that Canada would have no connection with or be called upon to assist in Afghanistan, Indian, or any other foreign troubles. So that any impressions to the contrary were false.

Mr. BRADSHAW replied that he was merely speaking from impressions—he didn't come with any prepared speech but rather to glean information.

Mr. LONG then gave some figures showing how foundationless were the views that the interests of the colonies suffered from the connection with the British Empire. In all the comparisons with the United States the colonies were shown to have exhibited the greater progress.

FORMING THE LEAGUE.

Mr. LONG moved, seconded by Mr. ERSKINE, that a branch of the League be formed in Peterborough.

On the question be put to the audience, it was unanimously carried.

Mr. LONG then asked those gentlemen who wished to join to come forward and hand their names. Thirty-six responded to the call, after which the meeting adjourned.

There is only a small fee charged in connection with the League, and with such a fair start and the importance of its principles to every loyal Canadian, the local branch should succeed.

A Hint to the Mayor.

Mr. Stevenson, M. P., would be doing the poor unfortunates, who rendered some service at the recent Dominion Elections, a very great favor if he would stir up the Treasury at Ottawa "to pay up" for polling booths, returning officers and constable's services. There should be no reason why these accounts are left hanging over from month to month. The Government should pay for services of this kind promptly, especially as some of the creditors on acc't of election expenses are badly in need of their dues.

High Court of Justice.

Chancery Spring Sittings—Only Two Cases on the Docket—A Land Squabble.

The Chancery Spring Sittings, County of Peterborough, opened in the Court House this afternoon before Mr. Justice Ferguson.

The first case was Robinson et al vs. Leary; Messrs. Walter Cassels (Toronto) and E. A. Peck for plaintiffs; Messrs. Walter Nesbitt (Toronto) and Geo. Edmison for defendant.

The plaintiffs in this case, Mary A. Robinson, Elizabeth R. Winch and Jemima Chamberlain, sisters, sought to recover a farm in North Monaghan, claimed by the defendant, Christopher Leary, on the strength of a mortgage held by him. The case was rather intricate, dating away back to 1867. The examination of the witnesses is going on as the EXAMINER goes to press.

THURSDAY, APRIL 14, 1887.

THE SPEAKER CHOSEN

MR. BLAKE MAKES A FEW CAUSTIC REMARKS THEREON.

OTTAWA, April 13.—To-day Col. Joseph Alderic Ouimet, M.P. for Laval, was elected Speaker of the Sixth Parliament of Canada.

SPEAKER OUIMET.

Col. Ouimet was born at Ste. Rose, Province of Quebec, May 20, 1848; LL.B., 1869; advocate 1870; entered Parliament in 1873; Lieut.-Col. 65th Batt. 1880; Q.C. 1880; took part in the Northwest campaign in 1885.

Col. Ouimet is the fifth Speaker since the first Parliament, the others being:

Hon. James Cockburn, from November, 1867, to January, 1874, when the second Parliament was dissolved;

Hon. Timothy Warren Anglin, from March, 1874, to April, 1877, when he was obliged to resign his seat, as the result of violation of the Independence Act; and from February, 1878, to the dissolution of the third Parliament, in August, 1878;

Hon. J. A. Blanchet, from February, 1879, to the dissolution of the fourth Parliament, in May, 1882;

Hon. George A. Kirkpatrick, from February, 1883, to the dissolution of the fifth Parliament, in January, 1887.

Parliament is in session, and Ottawa is happy once more. Last night by the late trains scores of members came in, and this morning the early trains were loaded with them. Some of them were loaded, too—for beer. At noon they thronged into the Commons Chamber to take the oath. The roll was displayed upon the clerk's table, and four commissioners in black gowns bore large Bibles. Looking down from the press gallery the sight was both novel and interesting. There was assembled the men whom the sovereign people had given the highest honor that man in Canada can attain, and, regardless of politics, they form a representation that any country might be proud of.

The Reform leaders were early among their friends. Mr. Blake and Mr. Laurier had a short confab, and then separated to make themselves agreeable. Mr. Cartwright and Mr. Mills, Mr. Langelier and Mr. Casgrain shook hands cordially with everybody. Then the Conservative chieftains began to arrive, and the Opposition were lost sight of. Sir Charles Tupper and Mr. Chapleau, with the red badge of the Legion of Honor on his lapel, were the lions of the hour, but all of the Ministers were warmly welcomed. At 12.03 the first batch of five were sworn. They were Sir Charles Tupper, Charles H. Tupper, Hon. Thos. White, F. Clarke Wallace and Col. Tisdale of Simcoe. Chas. H. Tupper was the first man to kiss the book and Sir Charles was the first to sign the roll. The second five were Sir Hector Langevin, Sir Adolphe Caron, Mr. Chapleau, Mr. Daoust and Mr. Costigan. Then the four commissioners got down to their work and the oath was taken faster than the roll could be signed. The oath is: "I—— do swear that I will be faith ful and bear true allegiance to Her Gracious Majesty, Queen Victoria."

The three Toronto members took the oath together, but their seats are far apart. Messrs. Blake, Mills, Cartwright, Lister and old Mr. Trow took the oath in company.

In 50 minutes fourteen members took the oath, and before the opening nearly 200 names were on the roll.

At 3 o'clock the galleries were crowded and the floor well filled. Clerk Bourinot presided. The Conservatives applauded vigorously when Sir John entered the chamber. Then the Usher of the Black Rod entered and there was seen a wonderful thing. Black Rod had constructed a new law expressly for the occasion. There being no Speaker in the chair, Black Rod bowed to the Commons, generally with a sweep first to the right and then to the left, and that sweep took in the whole place and flowed over even into the gallery. Then Black Rod lifted up its voice and proclaimed that Sir Wm. Ritchie, etc., etc. The faithful Commons then went away to the Senate chamber, where Sir William told them to go back again and elect a Speaker. Sir Blake did not go, and several of his more prominent followers remained in their seats, as did three of the Ministers.

Sir John proposed Col. Ouimet for Speaker. He only spoke a few words to the old members. He averred nothing need be said regarding his nominee, the new man. He would say that Col. Ouimet had been elected five times successively by his present constituents. He had great parliamentary experience, was an advocate of high standing at the bar of his province, and one of Her Majesty's Queen's Counsel. Sir Hector Langevin seconded the nomination without speaking.

There was a moment's pause and Mr. Blake rose. That action settled at once in the minds of all present the question of the leadership of the Opposition. Mr. Blake may have lieutenants, but he will control. He began speaking from carefully prepared notes. At the outset he stated that the Opposition did not intend to oppose the election of the nominee of the Government. The position was one of high distinction, one worthy of the ambition of any among them, and one that required in the person holding it rare qualities and attributes. He described those qualities at considerable length. Then he twitted the Premier with having said in 1879 that the practice in England of the Speaker being nominated by a member other than a Cabinet Minister should obtain in Canada and wanted to know why Sir John did not practice now the precepts he then held to be correct. After that he began to flay Col. Ouimet. Had not that gentleman, he asked, been a leading figure in the convulsions of the figure 8 a couple of sessions ago. Then he took up the libel question. For the stand he had taken a year ago he had been insulted in the press, from the pulpit and on the platform. He had been called a traitor, a conspirator, a rebel, a law breaker, a knave and a fool. Mr. Ouimet had voted with him on that question and he was now prepared to welcome his fellow traitor, his fellow conspirator, his fellow rebel, his fellow law breaker, the other knave and the other fool, to the position of presiding officer in that body. Tell it not on the 12th of July, tell it not in the lodges of the Orangemen, but that day the Conservative leaders had planted the first stone of his (Blake's) vindication.

It was very amusing to-day to see one of the shades of the deer departed in the shape of old man Paint meandering about the scenes of past glories. Paint is not a member any more, but it is only now that he is beginning to realize it.

The boys of the press gallery are nearly all here. There is not much change in the personnel, those of the boys reserved different papers from what they did last year, but most of the old faces are here.

The question of the Senate leadership is still unsettled. It is probable that Hon. Frank Smith will take charge temporarily.

There are 39 new members in the House. Of the 35 out-going members 23 were supporters of the Government and 12 of the Opposition. Of the Conservatives who were in the last Parliament but who will not be in the new one 20 did not offer for re-election and 21 were defeated. Of the disappointed Liberal members 5 did not seek re-election and 14 were defeated.

The Manitoba contingent will occupy Room 32 this session. They will hold a caucus in a day or two to decide upon a policy. Davin is looked upon as the leader of the band.

In the Senate, after the Commons had retired, the new members—Messrs. Semeal, Sanford, Casgrain and McCallum—were introduced and took their seats.

J. J. Curran has given notice of a motion which, after reciting the steps taken by the Parliament of Canada on the Home Rule question, regrets the introduction into the Imperial Parliament of the Coercion Bill, protests against its adoption, reiterates the hope that Home Rule will be granted, expresses the belief that the measure would be especially appropriate in the jubilee year and winds up by asking that the resolution be forwarded to Lord Salisbury, Mr. Gladstone and Mr. Parnell.

Deputations re the tariff should wait upon the Finance Minister before Thursday, April 21, as after that date proposed changes will not be likely to receive consideration this session.

The state dinner is in progress at Rideau Hall to-night. It is the usual gorgeous affair.

THE COERCION BILL.

A Division on the Second Reading Expected Almost Immediately.

DUBLIN, April 13.—A meeting of the Protestant Home Rule Association was held here yesterday to protest against the Crimes Bill. A letter was read from Mr. Gladstone, in which referring to the Crimes Bill, he says: "The introduction of the bill is in many respects deplorable, but it is good in the respect that it is doing much to open the eyes of honest men to the true facts of the question. I have placed myself in Parliament to oppose it at every stage. I trust that your meeting will do much to dispel the absurd idea that Irish Protestants as a body fear the consequences of Home Rule to themselves or are anything like unanimous in opposing it."

A Division Expected.

LONDON, April 13.—The Parnellites have issued an urgent whip for Monday next in expectation of a division being taken on that day.

Samuelson's Amendment.

LONDON, April 13.—A division will be taken in the House of Commons on Monday on Sir Bernard Samuelson's amendment to the Crimes Bill to the effect that the bill, if passed, would increase the disorder in Ireland and endanger the Union and the Empire and, therefore, should be rejected

The Opposition will not attempt to prolong the debate on the bill, reserving further discussion for the committee stage, which will probably be reached on April 26.

Mr. Morley will speak on the bill to-morrow and Mr. Gladstone on Monday.

Chamberlain Hissed and Cheered.

LONDON, April 13.—Mr. Chamberlain, while traveling to Ayr, was met at Kilmarnock station to-day by a crowd who insisted that he should make a speech. In complying with the request Mr. Chamberlain said that for the first time in its history the Liberal party was allied with men whose hands were stained with blood and was enabling them to carry out an obstructive policy in Parliament. "I hope the time has arrived," he said, "when Great Britain will give an answer to the policy of intimidation. I am convinced that the bulk of the working classes will show no sympathy with those who commit these offences or with their allies. We are bound to maintain order and the union, but that need not prevent our sympathizing with people who have a practical grievance of which they rightly complain, and which it is our duty to remedy. We are not opposed to a reasonable remedy consistent with the greater interests of Great Britain, but we shall not yield to lawless agitators." Mr. Chamberlain was frequently interrupted in the course of his speech, the hisses of his opponents exceeding the cheers of his supporters.

A BELLIGERENT PRESS.

The Berlin Papers at Open War with the Paris Journals.

BERLIN, April 13.—The Berlin Post publishes a spirited article to-day on the relations between Germany and France. Referring to the French cavalry evolutions at Luneville it says: "Those and similar provocations along the frontier bear the character of provocations, and appear to proceed entirely from a wish to aggravate and alarm Germany."

The Recent Contemptuous.

PARIS, April 13.—Le Paris, replying to the strictures of the Berlin Post on France's attitude toward Germany, denounces the German policy as lying, cynical, and brutal.

The Westward Rush.

QUEENSTOWN, April 13.—The arrivals here of emigrants on their way to the United States are enormous. The railways are running special trains to accommodate this class of travel. The number of emigrants waiting steamers to carry them to their destinations is already greater than can be housed in the hotels and lodging houses, and many are camping in the streets. Fifteen hundred embarked yesterday, and three thousand more are expected on Saturday to take steamers here.

A Bank Thief Committed.

HALIFAX, April 13.—Stanley Steele, the desperado who attempted to murder a clerk in order to rob the Merchants' Bank agency at Antigonish a couple of weeks ago, was arraigned and committed for trial for shooting with intent to murder. During the proceedings Steele exhibited remarkable coolness and indifference, even laughing at the most damaging evidence. Robert S. Currie, his intended victim, has recovered from his wounds.

O'Brien Coming to Canada.

DUBLIN, April 13.—The police have been ordered to resume evictions on the Marquis of Lansdowne's estates next week. This being the case William O'Brien will proceed to Canada immediately to denounce the course of the Marquis in sanctioning the evictions.

The Carpenters' Strike in Chicago.

CHICAGO, April 12.—A number of the striking carpenters returned to work this morning in accordance with an agreement with the new association of the small contractors. It is estimated that 800 men in all went to work on the basis of eight hours and thirty-five cents an hour.

A Wealthy Cattle Man Murdered.

DENISON, Tex., April 12.—Jim Christian, a wealthy cattle man of Harnly, I.T., arrested a man named Hodge, charged with cattle stealing on Sunday, and while on his way to Tishomingo with the prisoner he was shot from ambush and killed. Bud Lutterell, who was riding behind, was also shot and killed by the murderers.

Accident on the Intercolonial.

HALIFAX, April 12.—Two passenger cars attached to a special train ran off the track on the Intercolonial near Hopewell this afternoon, and fell over a low embankment. There were fifteen passengers on board the cars. Sister Lucille, returning from Montreal to the convent of Stella Maris, Pictou, received severe cuts about the temple and was considerably bruised. Capt. Lemaistre, of the steamer Beaver, and a brakeman were cut and bruised, but not seriously injured. The other occupants escaped with but slight injuries.

Abdullah Sends Envoys.

CAIRO, April 12.—Advices from Wada Halfa say four envoys have reached there from Khartoum on their way to Cairo with special despatches from Abdullah (successor to El Mahdi) to Queen Victoria, the Khedive and the Sultan.

THE NEW CUSTOMS REGULATIONS.

Passenger Agents Say They Will Impede Tourist Travel to Canada.

MONTREAL, April 12.—The general passenger agents of the Canadian railway and steamboat companies, now in session at the Windsor Hotel, to arrange summer excursion tariffs, have taken action in connection with the proposed new customs regulations regarding travelers' baggage. It was resolved to send the following despatch to the Hon. Minister of Customs, Ottawa: "It has been considered by the general passenger agents of the Canadian railway and steamboat companies, in council, that the proposed new regulations in connection with the admission of travelers' baggage from the United States to Canada are likely to seriously impede, if not altogether stop, tourist travel to Canada. It is, therefore, respectfully requested that the proposed new regulations be not put in force until such time as the companies interested in international travel have an opportunity of visiting Ottawa and explaining their views to the Government." (Signed), J. H. LABELLE, M.P.

THREATENING TO STRIKE.

The Employes of the Sheddon Company Want More Wages.

MONTREAL, April 13.—Acting on instructions received from employes of the Sheddon Company, Messrs. Madore & Tromblay, advocates, waited on the company to make known to them that the men wanted higher wages. The men have adopted resolutions to the effect that, although thankful for employment given them, still they consider that the increase in the price of all necessaries of life, rent, etc., justifies them in asking that the pay for teamsters be increased from $1.25 to $1.50 per day, and that an increase of 10 per cent be allowed on the wages of the other men. A good number of the men were disposed to strike at once, but upon advice of Mr. Trombley it was decided to send the company the above resolution. One of the men was sent as a delegate to Toronto, to ascertain what steps are being taken by the employes of the company there, as they, it appears, are also dissatisfied with their wages. A strike appears to be imminent on the part of the Sheddon employes here if their demand is not acceded to.

A DISASTROUS FIRE.

One Life Lost and Nearly Half a Million Dollars Worth of Property Destroyed.

CHICAGO, April 13.—J. J. McGrath's wall paper house, at 106, 108, 110 and 112 Wabash-avenue, was destroyed by fire this morning. Piperman Michael Burns fell into the flames inside and was cremated. John Heberlie, lieutenant of Engine 22, fell to the sidewalk, his skull being crushed. Captain Frederick Reese had his leg broken by a falling stone. Loss $200 000.

The latest estimate of loss on stock by the McGrath fire makes the aggregate anywhere from $300,000 to $150,000. The insurance aggregates $140,000.

John T. Raymond's Funeral.

NEW YORK, April 13.—The funeral of the late John T. Raymond took place at the "Little Church Around the Corner" to-day. The attendance was enormous. Rev. Dr. Houghton read the burial service. Henry Abbey, Henry French, Maurice Grau, Nat Goodwin, Arthur Wallack, Dr. Guernsey, Louis James, John Stoddard, W. J. Florence and Harry Edwards acted as pall-bearers. The body was taken to Greenwood.

The Threatened Strike of Moulders.

CLEVELAND, April 13.—The general executive committee of the Stovemoulders' National Defence Association met here to-day to take action concerning the threatened general strike of moulders. Owing to the non-arrival of some delegates, action was deferred until to-morrow. The stove manufacturers admit that they have no hope of averting the trouble, and before the end of the week they expect that at least 9000 men will be thrown out of employment, and by this time next week that fully 18,000 men will be idle because of the great lock-out.

DOMINION PARLIAMENT.

OPENING OF THE SESSION.

Election of Speaker—The Speech from the Throne—A Most Meagre Bill of Fare.

Special to the Examiner per G.N.W.T. Line.

OTTAWA, April 14th.—At the formal session yesterday, Col. J. A. Ouimet, member for Laval, was appointed Speaker, and the House adjourned.

At 3 o'clock to-day His Excellency the Governor-General proceeded in state to the Parliament House, and the members of the House of Commons having been summoned to the Senate Chamber, His Excellency was pleased to open the first session of the sixth Parliament of the Dominion of Canada with the following speech :—

Hon. Gentlemen of the Senate, Gentlemen of the House of Commons :

It is my pleasing duty, on the opening of a new Parliament, to congratulate you on the general prosperity of the country and on the prospect of a coming season of peace and progress. You will, I am sure, gladly join with the rest of the loyal subjects of the Queen in offering Her Majesty your sincere congratulations on having reached of her accession to the throne, and in giving expression to an earnest hope that she may be long spared to reign over her vast Dominions.

COLONIAL EXHIBITION.

The prominent position taken by Canada at the Colonial and Indian Exhibition, recently held in London, has made the Dominion more widely and favorably known and will, I have no doubt, contribute largely to its material progress, by calling attention to the advantages offered by our country to the Agriculturist and by attracting the capital necessary for the development of its great natural resources.

THE FISHERIES QUESTION.

Negotations between Her Majesty's government and that of the United States, on the Fishery Question, with respect to which my government has been fully informed and consulted, are still in progress, and will, we may be permitted to hope, result in arrangements honorable and satisfactory to both nations. Meanwhile the necessary provision has been made for the protection of our inshore fisheries, and the papers on the subject will be laid before you.

A NEW DEPARTMENT.

Your attention will be invited to the expediency of establishing a department of trade and commerce under the supervision of a responsible minister. You will also be asked to consider the propriety of making such improvement in the organization of the departments of Justice, Customs and Inland Revenue as will provide greater facilities for the despatch of the largely increasing volume of business with which these departments are charged.

NORTH-WEST SENATE REPRESENTATION.

A measure will be submitted to you, giving representation in the Senate to the North-west Territories, in addition to that which they now possess in the House of Commons.

MISCELLANEOUS MEASURES.

Other measures will be laid before you and among them will be found bills for the amendment of acts relating to government railways, for providing a better mode of trial of claims against the Crown, for improvement of the prediction in criminal cases, and the further amendment of the Chinese Immigration Act.

Gentlemen of the House of Commons :

You will be asked, in order to make provision against the possible interruption of the navigation of Inland Waters, for an appropriation in aid of the construction of the canal to connect the waters Lake Huron and Superior at Sault Ste. Marie.

THE PUBLIC ACCOUNTS.

The accounts for the past year will be laid before you, as well as the estimates for the coming year. They have been prepared with due regard to economy and the requirements of public service.

Hon. Gentlemen of the Senate, Gentlemen of the House of Commons :

I recommend these important subjects and the others which may be laid before you to your best consideration, with full confidence in your earnest desire to promote the development and well-being of Canada.

—Houses take wings when advertised in the "To Let" column of the EXAMINER.

LEGISLATURE OF ONTARIO.

Sixth Parliament—First Session.

TUESDAY, April 12th.

A number of petitions were presented and a motion passed to give precedence to Government measures, except over private bills, on Mondays, Wednesdays and Fridays.

The House went into Committee of the Whole on the Attorney-General's bill to further improve the law, and on various other bills. The one particularized makes various changes in existing statutory enactments, mostly of a trivial nature. Among the changes in it, one provides that during what is known as the long vacation term in summer, sheriffs shall only keep their offices open between 10 a.m. and 1 p.m. each day. Another clause in it entitles every married woman to hold and dispose of, as her own separate property, all wages, money earned, and property acquired by her in any employment, trade or occupation in which she is engaged, and in which her husband has no proprietary interest. The bill passed through committee, as did also the Attorney-General's bill to extend the operations of the Torrens land transfer system.

UNIVERSITY FEDERATION.

After recess Hon. Mr. Ross, Minister of Education, moved the second reading of his bill providing for University federation, and in doing so entered into a description of our educational system, discussed and praised its merits, and compared it with those of other lands. Dr. Ryerson founded it forty years ago with the most democratic features possible, and these have been preserved and developed since. The state has recognised that to every man in it an education is due, and this had been secured by our free public schools, and the fees of our universities were but nominal, and the cheapest in the world. Our system is unified after the best methods; the different grades dovetail into each other, and may be compared to a ladder, of which the lower rounds are the public schools, the secondary and higher institutions supplying the others. Our system was equalled by none except the German, and was superior to that of other countries, in that our secondary schools were connected with and provided stepping stones to the higher grades. The vast increase in the number of our schools and pupils is seen in these figures; In 1843 we had 96,756 attending public schools, and in 1884, 468,917. In 1843 the system cost $236,230, and in 1884 $3,990,222. From 2,610 schools in 1843 our system had grown to 5,216 schools, costing nearly four millions. We have two normal, 52 model, and 153 high schools, and an efficient system of inspection. The high schools provided a thorough course for those who went no further, and yet were the preparation for higher courses. The efficiency of our high schools was due to our universities; their excellencies percolated down through the different grades all through the system. Thus there was a great and growing necessity for a well-equipped university upon which all our schools were dependent, and it was our duty to provide it. We have precedents in England, the United States, and Germany for aiding higher education. In the latter country the universities received 72 per cent. of their support from the state. The measure of this aid should be proportionate to our wealth, and Ontario is wealthy. The deplorable necessity in some cases of being obliged to go abroad for higher education should be relieved. The best training and the highest culture should be supplied at home. This was necessary to form a noble nationality, for all nations of prominence owe it in part to their literature. Canada had not a national literature, but we were laying the foundation of one. The University of Toronto was doing a great work, but not what it was capable of. The staff was incomplete; it lacked not in quality, but in quantity. Its endowment, which yielded a revenue of $70,000, was vastly inferior to the revenue of American universities. A remedy was desirable for our inefficient equipment for higher education. He believed union was strength, and that it was better to have one good institution than several below the standard. He had witnessed the minor benefits of an affiliation of colleges, and this plan should be applied to the higher institutions. In desiring to maintain a high standard of excellence in our provincial universities no reflection on any institution was intended. In the proposed federation we would have all the advantages of a larger provision as to teaching faculty and a better equipment as to libraries, apparatus, etc. It would give the best facilities to all. He did not consider the charge that federation would mean centralization a serious one. He was in favor of centralization if it meant strength, as he believed it did; diffusion meant weakness. A strong central university was better than several with a limited staff and moderate endowment. Neither would the scheme cause uniformity in the culture of its graduates, and diversity should be obtained. It would not destroy the efficiency of outside colleges, and had been adopted by all the colleges and universities except Queen's and Trinity, but they could, by the provisions of the bill, come in at any time. The minister then went into an extended explanation of the bill, which have been before placed before the public, and concluded an eloquent address by an appeal for the adoption of the bill.

Mr. CRAIG, of East Durham, followed, speaking as a graduate of Toronto University. He considered the scheme of federation desirable, and the scheme a good one. University education was a boon to the poor, and those who received it were not always of the wealthy class. A federated university, by bringing all classes together, produced better results than separate schools. He was a Baptist, and felt a better interest had been brought to bear upon him in Toronto University than if he had been shut up in a Baptist college with a lot of other Baptists (Laughter.) He hoped the Government would not aid a certain denomination in their request for a grant to a theological school (by which he meant McMaster Hall). He would confine degree-granting powers to our State University. By fostering our university system we would create a national spirit; we would forget that we were English, Irish, Scotch, or German, and remember we were Canadians. (Cheers.)

Mr. MCLAUGHLIN, of West Durham, agreed that the theory of the scheme was a fine one, but doubted that its practibility had been shown. The new arrangement would require $93,100 to work it, which was $28,100 more than the present revenue of $65,000. He favored the plan, and hoped the ways and means would be provided.

Mr. FIELD, of Northumberland, contended for a great Canadian university, but would be sorry to see the private munificence of the people dried up by its establishment.

Mr. MEREDITH said sufficient information had not been given by the Minister of Education as to the expense of the scheme, and how it was to be met. It was the duty of the state to put upon proper foundations and equip efficiently our State University. If we made the lower grades of education possible to all, we should the higher, and so far as the bill did that, it had his hearty support. He was glad of the proposition it made to establish a legal faculty. The facilities for acquiring a legal education had been neglected.

Mr. HARCOURT closed the debate in an elaborate address, and ably seconded Minister Ross' in its scope. He referred to the vast importance of the representatives of the people [illegible] benefits would arise therefrom, one being from the increased ability to teach scientific subjects, which required extensive appliances. Toronto University was practically doing a Provincial work, and one of great magnitude, but required the aid which this bill proposed to give.

Mr. ROSS said he would bring in to-day a bill setting forth the endowment plan more fully.

The second reading of the bill was then carried, without division, and the House adjourned at 11.40.

Courtesy in Church.

To the Editor of the Daily Examiner :

SIR :—In looking through the columns of your issue of Tuesday evening, I noticed a letter, or rather a very childish "squeal," so to speak, from "The Worshipper Afar Off," setting forth, in what I fancy, rather an unchristian-like spirit, the fact that he attended St. John's Church on Sunday evening and was allowed to remain during the entire service without a hymn book. This lamentable state of things is to be deplored. If "The Worshipper Afar Off" had so much love for singing—(he says that his friend and himself are both members of choirs, and that his wife "sings better than either of us")—why had he not sufficient courage to ask some of those near him to furnish the "musical" trio with hymnals? It is a well known fact, that the sidesmen of St. John's church are very obliging, and as there is an abundance of hymn books for the absolute use of strangers, there is really no one to blame in this matter but the writer, and while admitting that himself and partyware, through an oversight, neglected I ask him to throw the broad mantle of charity on our shoulders this time, and close by saying, that all strangers who enter St. John's church will be furnished with so as if they only let the attentive sidesmen know that they require them.

Yours truly,
MUSICIAN.

Lakefield.

(From Our Own Correspondent.)

OPEN.

The warm weather of the last few days has opened the river and lake up to Young's Point, and as a consequence the water is rising very rapidly in the river, and there is every prospect that the water will be very high. Those concerned should look out in time to prevent damage to their property.

TRENT VALLEY CANAL.

Building operations has been resumed on the Love sick locks, and if nothing unforseen should occur the stone work will be completed in about six weeks, and the whole force will be put on at Burleigh.

A PRISON CANDIDATE.

One evening last week as Mr. E. Wade, Supt. of the Trent Valley works at Burleigh, was returning from Peterborough he stopped at one of our drug stores to obtain some medicine which had been left for him by his physician; while in the drug store, some evil disposed person, unsnapped the off reins from the spirited team he was driving. The mischief was discovered before he had gone very far, and in time to prevent, perhaps, a serious accident. Could Mr. Wade have discovered the author he would not have waited for the slow delays of the law. As yet the culprit has not been discovered, and it is to be trusted that such a trick will not occur again in our village.

CONCERT.

The Jubilee Singers gave a concert in the P. C. A. Hall on Friday evening. They had a fair house, but not so large as they deserved. Many who were present stated it was the best entertainment of the kind that had ever visited the village.

GOOD FRIDAY

passed off very quietly, the day being fine the streets were crowded all day by our citizens and friends from the country. Service was held in St. John's church in the morning, and in the afternoon the Lakefield Rifle Club held their monthly match for the challenge cup which fell to the lot of Dr. Bell. After the match the Forester's Band played a number of selections on the street and were entertained by several of their friends. In the evening they played for the Jubilee Singers by invitation.

FORESTRY.

The regular meeting of Court Lakefield, No. 43, will be held in the Foresters' Hall on Thursday evening, the 14th inst. There should be a large attendance.

FAREWELL SUPPER.

Last week the members of the Foresters and band entertained Mr. Robert Clifford to a complimentary supper at Capt. Dion's hotel, on the occasion of his severing connection with the band to take up his residence at Selwyn. After playing a few selections in front of the hotel, the band and a couple of invited guests took their seats at a supper, got up in Mr. Dion's usual first-class style, and to which ample justice was done. Speeches from Mr. Scrimger, leader of the band, Mr. Balsdon, Mr. Clifford, Dr. Bell and others followed, while several songs were added by the members. A pleasant evening was spent and all separated with the best wishes for "Bob's" future success in his new home.

FIRE.

At the last meeting of the council the village clerk has been instructed to call a meeting in the council chamber next Monday evening, the 18th inst., at 8 p. m., for the purpose of organizing a fire brigade. We trust to see a large attendance of the the ratepayers, especially the young men, present. The want of a regularly organized company has been severely felt at fires in the past, as well as a recognized leader to direct the efforts of those able and willing to assist. Such should not be the case, and we trust next Monday evening will see the "Lakefield Fire Brigade" assume a place in our village.

CONVALESCENT.

Our old friend the "Fox Hunter", nothing daunted by a couple of broken ribs, has resumed his old amusement, and may be seen any fine day, accompanied by one or two sport ing companions, travelling the highways and by-ways of Smith in quest of the "Black Fox" which as yet eludes all efforts to capture it.

"Heaven is not reached at a single bound." sung Dr. Holland, and the same may be said of health. But many a sick person would make rapid strides in the direction of complete health by using Dr. R. V. Pierce's "Golden Medical Discovery." It is a sovereign remedy for all forms of scrofulous diseases, king's evil, tumors, white swellings, fever sores, scrofulous sore eyes, as well as for blood and skin diseases. 6dw15

"I should not think it right did I not give my testimony of what B. B. B. has done for me. I was troubled with biliousness. I took one bottle—It gave immediate relief. I can recommend it as a sure cure for biliousness." Mikado Sasaki, Orillia, Ont.

Astonishing Success

It is the duty of every person who has used Boschee's German Syrup to let its wonderful qualities be known to their friends in curing Consumption, severe Coughs, Croup, Asthma, Pneumonia, and in fact all throat and lung diseases. No person can use it without immediate relief. Three doses will relieve any case, and we consider it the duty of all Druggists to recommend it to the poor, dying consumptive, at least to try one bottle, as 38,000 dozen bottles were sold last year, and no one case where it failed was reported. Such a medicine as the German Syrup cannot be too widely known. Ask your druggist about it. sample bottles to try, only 10 cents. Regular size, 75 cents. Sold by all Druggists and dealers, in the United States and Canada. eodw4

ST JACOBS OIL

THE GREAT GERMAN REMEDY

WILL SURELY CONQUER PAIN!

PAIN-CONQUEROR.

The Most Efficacious in the World.

Superintendent O'Neil, of the Dominion Police, Ottawa: I kept that wonderful medicine, St. Jacobs Oil, both at my home and office, and esteem it, without any exception, the most efficacious remedy in the world.

Rheumatism Cured.

Toronto, Ontario, March 8, 1887.

As a household remedy I find St. Jacobs Oil invaluable, and I have no hesitation in recommending it as a panacea for rheumatism, neuralgia and kindred complaints. I always keep a bottle on hand.

JAS. BRANDON, Ex-Alderman.

A Government Minister's Opinion.

Mr. Bowell, Minister of Customs, Canada, says: A member of my family used St. Jacobs Oil, and found it efficacious. I think it good.

Greatest Ever Introduced.

Mr. John Taylor, Taylor, Bros. & Co., 39 Market St., Toronto, Ont. St. Jacobs Oil is an excellent remedy; one of the greatest things ever introduced into Canada.

What Thousands Say.

Mr. J. A. Simmons, German Consul, Toronto, Canada: I say, with thousands of others, that St. Jacobs Oil cannot be surpassed.

Lame Leg—Cured.

Mulgrewa, Ontario, February 7, 1887.

I have used St. Jacobs Oil for years, and have always found it an excellent remedy. My son had a lame leg for about one year. I applied St. Jacobs Oil and in about one week he could walk again. I recommend it wherever I can.

CARL ABRAHAM.

ST. JACOBS OIL is an absolute cure for all bodily pains for which an external remedy may be applied. It never fails. It acts like magic, and a trial of it has convinced the most incredulous. It is sold by Chemists and Dealers in Medicine, throughout the Dominion of Canada. Price 25¢ cents per bottle. The Charles A. Vogeler Co., Baltimore, Md., U. S. A. GOLDEN MEDICAL DISCOVERY from a common Blotch, or Eruption, to the worst Scrofula. Salt-rheum, "Fever-sores," Scaly or Rough Skin, in short, all diseases caused by bad blood are conquered by this powerful, purifying, and invigorating medicine. Great Eating Ulcers rapidly heal under its benign influence. Especially has it manifested its supremacy in curing Tetter, Rose Rash, Boils, Carbuncles, Sore Eyes, Scrofulous Sores and Swellings, Hip-joint Disease, White Swellings, Goitre, or Thick Neck, and Enlarged Glands. Send ten cents in stamps for a large treatise, with colored plates, on Skin Diseases, or the same amount for a treatise on Scrofulous Affections.

CURES ALL HUMORS,

"THE BLOOD IS THE LIFE."

Thoroughly cleanse it by using Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery, and good digestion, a fair skin, buoyant spirits, vital strength, and soundness of constitution, will be established.

CONSUMPTION,

which is Scrofulous Disease of the Lungs, is promptly and certainly arrested and cured by this God-given remedy, if taken before the last stages of the disease are reached. From its wonderful power over this terribly fatal disease, when first offering this now celebrated remedy to the public, Dr. PIERCE thought seriously of calling it his "Consumption Cure," but abandoned that name as too limited for a medicine which, from its wonderful combination of tonic, or strengthening, alterative, or blood-cleansing, anti-bilious, pectoral, and nutritive properties, is unequaled, not only as a remedy for consumption of the lungs, but for all

CHRONIC DISEASES OF THE

Liver, Blood, and Lungs.

If you feel dull, drowsy, debilitated, have sallow color of skin, or yellowish-brown spots on face or body, frequent headache or dizziness, bad taste in mouth, internal heat or chills, alternating with hot flashes, low spirits and gloomy forebodings, irregular appetite, and coated tongue, you are suffering from Indigestion, Dyspepsia, and Torpid Liver, or "Biliousness." In many cases only part of these symptoms are experienced. As a remedy for all such cases, Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery has no equal.

For Weak Lungs, Spitting of Blood, Shortness of Breath, Bronchitis, Severe Coughs, Consumption, and kindred affections, it is a sovereign remedy. Send ten cents in stamps for Dr. Pierce's book on Consumption. Sold by Druggists.

A Rational Request.

The directors of the Horticultural Society make a particular request that the public will refrain from using the Court House Park until the ground dries, as at this season of the year the soil is very impressionable, and if the public will only exercise a little restriction until the walks and sward are dry, much expense will be saved the Society in preparing it this spring. Surely there are none unwilling to comply with this modest request.

Ecclesiastical Honours.

At the presentation of diplomas and other honors at Trinity Medical School, Toronto, yesterday afternoon, Dr. A. E. Yelland, of Peterborough, received the Trinity gold medal (the highest honor of the school,) amidst an ovation; and Dr. W. D. Scott, of Smith, was awarded a silver medal. The successful termination of their terms of scholarship was announced in Monday's issue. Dr. Yelland made the valedictory address, to which the Mail refers as follows:—"Dr. Yelland, who was applauded to the echo, proceeded to say that graduates of 1887, having completed their allotted term of preparation for the practice of their profession, under the guidance of the faculty of Trinity Medical School, desired to extend to the Dean, members of the faculty and undergraduates a hearty farewell. It was with mingled feelings of regret and pleasure that they took leave of those with whom they had been so long and pleasantly associated. What, he asked, can be better calculated to elevate the mind of any man, to ennoble and refine his nature, than the ability to alleviate the pains and ills that flesh is heir to, and lessen, be it ever so little, the misery existing in the world? (Applause.) He wished the Medical School a bright and properous career, and concluded a very eloquent address amid the hearty plaudits of all present." The EXAMINER wishes Messrs. Yelland and Scott every success in their profession.

Congregational Meeting.

The annual congregational meeting of the the Charlotte street Methodist church was held last evening. Previous to the meeting a free tea was served in the school room from 5 to 8 o'clock, which was prepared by the ladies and disposed of by the gentleman—with the aid of the ladies and children. At 8:30 Rev. Mr. Wallace took the chair, and after an opening chorus, reports were read from the Treasurer and the Sunday School by Mr. A. L. Davis, and from the Ladies' Aid Society, by Mrs. Bannel Sawyer. The first report showed a substantial decrease of last year's deficit; the Sunday School report exhibited a healthy condition financially and numerically; while the report of the Ladies' Aid Society was most satisfactory, showing a considerable surplus on hand. Solos were rendered by Miss Brundrette, Miss Ella Cox and Mr. Harry Stevens, and short addresses were delivered by Messrs. Geo. A. Cox, Wm. Clurton and J. L. Hughes. Mr. Clurton gave some interesting reminiscenses relating to the church and church music.

Have Your Bumps Read.

Prof. W. R. Oakley, the phrenologist of over a quarter of a centurys' practice, has occupied rooms at the Peterborough House, Hunter St., where he is ready to exercise his art upon those who wish to have their heads examined and their characters and capabilities explained to them. He comes with excellent testimonials from leading men in the principal cities of Canada, where he has had extensive practice. Prof. Oakley is particularly desirous that children should be brought to him, that they may the better be enabled to choose the profession or occupation best suited to them. He can be found at the Peterborough House at any hour, or upon a post card being dropped him he will be glad to call upon any persons at their own residences. His charges are moderate—50c. for adults; 25c. for children; for family groups a reduction will be made. Here is an unequalled opportunity for our citizens to have their bumps read for a small sum. Go and see the wonderful powers of science again demonstrated.

The Port Hope Times is still pounding away on its Midland Baseball League scheme. It says:—"Cobourg and Peterborough base ball clubs have replied to the invitations sent out to the Midland clubs for the formation of a league. They excuse their non-attendance on the pleas, the former that they were not organized, and the latter, having decided that being connected with the Peterborough Amateur Athletic Association they cannot go into the league without losing their amateur standing, although the club hopes to meet the Port Hope team on the diamond during the season. In view of the fact that the other Midland clubs were probably absent on Good Friday from unavoidable causes, after a week or so another meeting will be called. Next time we hope the league will be arranged."

The Old Cathedral Consumed.

Our readers who perused Mrs. J. E. McIntyre's graphic description of St. Augustine, Florida, as supplied to the EXAMINER, will be interested in knowing that the picturesque old Spanish Cathedral described therein was destroyed by the conflagration which devastated that southern city on Tuesday. The press despatches announcing the fire particularly refer to the old Cathedral as one of the most interesting landmarks in the city. It was built in 1793, and was in use for purposes of worship up to the time of its destruction. The roof caught and soon fell, destroying all the old historic relics in the interior. The old chimes fell, too, their last work being the alarm which summoned the citizens to the scene of the conflagration.

The Infanticide Case.

It is not often that Peterborough is shocked with a case involving such heartless depravity as that of the infanticide case now the subject of enquiry by a coroner's jury. It will not be prejudicing the interests of justice to allude, one phase of the matter which may have escaped the notice of the detectives, but not the astute foreman of the jury. At first sight it has apparently nothing to do with the case, but deeper investigation will disclose the fact that O. Belleghem's stock of superb furniture is equalled by none outside the large and surpassed by very few in Montreal or Toronto. In the refitting and refurnishing consequent upon spring house-cleaning, let the householder remember that Belleghem's is the place for furniture, repairs and general household supplies. Hunter street, the furniture shop furthest west.

A Nobby Harness Shop.

There are shops and shops, but Mr. B. Shortly's (harness shop, on George street, now carries the palm over all for neatness, completeness of equipment, and general adaptability to the business it is intended to serve. For some weeks back repairs have been going on, which are now about finished, leaving a commodious and handsome shop as the result. The store has been enlarged, new wood ceiling and maple floor placed in, the walls papered, show cases fitted up and a general overhauling administered. The workroom too has received a new floor and ceiling, and all the modern improvements. But the most important item to consider, in the varied stock-in-trade which is embraced in Mr. Shortly's harness shop. Besides first-class harness and all its accoutrements, he keeps a full line of trunks, portmanteaus, mats and ladies satchels, and baby carriages. The stock throughout is A No. 1, and the recent repairs to the shop have created for it a most suitable environment.

The Odd Fellows Field Day.

Preparing for a Grand Demonstration in August—The Governor-General Will Likely be Present—A Gala Time for Odd Fellows and Citizens in General.

The Joint Committee appointed to prepare for the reception and entertainment of the 700 Odd Fellows who are expected to visit the Plate Glass City next August, during the grand demonstration from the 8th to the 12th, held a meeting Wednesday night. Satisfactory reports of subcommittees were received, the railway committee, though having no definite understanding, yet being confident of securing such low rates on the different lines that large numbers of the brothers, from London in the west to Belleville in the east, will avail themselves of the opportunity to pay a visit to Peterborough.

A programme of events are under progess of preparation which cannot fail to attract an immense crowd to our town. The Driving Park and Cricket grounds have been secured for August 10th (Civic holiday), upon which date it is expected will be here, and lend the eclat of his vice-regal presence to the occasion. An invitation was sent to His Excellency, and the following reply received:—

GOVERNMENT HOUSE,
OTTAWA, April 6, 1887.

To MR. ANDREW MCNEIL, Peterborough,
Secretary Committee:—

SIR—I am desired by His Excellency the Governor-General, to acknowledge the receipt of your letter of the 4th inst., in which on behalf of the Oddfellows of Peterborough, you are good enough to extend an invitation to him to visit that town on the 10th August next.

Lord Lansdowne directs me in reply to say, that his plans for the ensuing summer have not as yet been formed, and he fears that it is impossible for him to make any engagement for a date so far ahead as that named by you.

His Excellency has, however, noted the request which you have made in case he should hereafter find himself able to comply with it.

I am Sir,
Your Obed't Servant,
HENRY STREATFIELD,
Captain,
Governor-General's Secretary.

Invitations have been extended to a number of Oddfellows' Encampments at a distance, and it is expected the following places will be represented, each about 40 members strong:—London, Hamilton, Toronto, Newmarket, Barrie, Kington, Belleville and Brockville. Many of these Cantons Militants will be accompanied by bands, and will participate in the competition drills for handsome prizes offered by local members of the Order. Several ladies have already volunteered appropriate banners, worked by themselves. The sight of three hundred or more gorgeously uniformed Oddfellows performing their intricate and beautiful evolutions will be one seldom to be witnessed and long to be remembered.

A very large expense will be entailed in this great and praiseworthy undertaking and it is to be hoped that the citizens will afford their unanimous support to the energetic committee who are conducting the arrangements. If successful (and how can it be otherwise?) this demonstration will bring scores of representative men from all Ontario to our town, who will then be enabled to thoroughly inspect, and change their possibly unfavorable opinions of, our "backwoods town," as many outsiders erroneously suppose Peterborough to be, but which is in reality enjoying more privileges and exhibiting more substantial progress than any other town in Ontario and many of our smaller Provincial cities. Visitors can here find first-class hotel accommodation unequalled outside the larger cities, and at reasonable rates. The hospitality of the citizens of Peterborough is proverbial, and there can be no doubt that their well-deserved reputation will be fully sustained in August during the Oddfellow's demonstration.

Obituary.

The Late Mrs. William Fowler.

The death of Mrs. William Fowler, who passed away at the residence of her son-in-law, Mr. R. H. Green, on Wednesday, removes one of the oldest and best known pioneer residents of North Monaghan. The deceased lady was, at the time of her death, 83 years of age, having been born in city of York, England, in 1804. She came to Canada in 1818, living at first for a short term in Hastings country, from whence she removed to Cavan. She was united in marriage to Mr. William Fowler, in 1823. The young couple took up their residence in North Monaghan, lot 2, in the 11th concession, where she remained a continuous resident till about a year and a half ago, when she removed to town, taking up her residence with Mr. R. H. Green. She spent sixty-three years on the old homestead farm, fifty-five of which were passed with her husband, the latter dying eight years ago. Mrs. Fowler was the mother of twelve children, nine daughters and three sons; of these, eleven survive her, namely: Margaret (Mrs. John Dobbin), Ann (Mrs. W. Scott), Jane (Mrs. George Tully), Catharine (Mrs. Andrew Grant), Sarah (Mrs. Robert Leitch), Ellen (Mrs. Robert H. Green), Mary (Mrs. Richard Lillico), daughters, and Messrs. James, William and George Fowler, sons. Mrs. Fowler at the time time of her death could count ninety-one direct living descendants, consisting of eleven children, fifty-two grand children, and twenty-eight great-grand children. Mrs. Fowler, who was well known and respected in North Monaghan and vicinity, and a member of the Presbyterian Church, died full of honour as of years. The funeral takes place on Thursday at 2 o'clock, from Mr. Green's residence Reid street.

Police Court.

THURSDAY, April 14.

Daniel Shanahan, for a second offence against the Scott Act, was fined $100 and costs.

The young lad Skilles, sent to gaol two months ago for attempting to force the safe in Hilliards mill, was re-committed to gaol this morning as a lunatic. He will be watched, and if found to be of unsound mind, sent to the asylum.

Midnight Mechanics at Millbrook.

(Special to the Examiner.)

MILLBROOK, April 14.—The Grand Trunk Railway station was entered last night and the safes burglarized. The largest safe stood near the door in the hall-way, and was a combination one. A hole was drilled near the handle and the back of the lock forced off with a punch.

The smaller safe was in the telegraph office, and was blown open with gun-powder, having been previously drilled. All the express packages were opened. The thieves secured $30 in cash, a box of cigars, and a shirt or two.

Two parties of questionable appearance were observed in the village the evening, before and suspicion points to them as the perpetrators of the deed. Their movements are being closely watched and an arrest may follow at any moment.

The following are descriptions of the two. One man is about 5 feet 8 inches high, dressed with dark-blue overcoat and slouch hat, black moustache, but evidently had not shaved for some time. The shorter one stood about 5 feet 6 inches, had a sandy moustache, and was dressed in a tweed suit and sack coat.

These parties are the same ones who operated on Messrs. Armstrong & McIntosh's, and T. B. Collins' safes on the 4th of last November, and they seem to thoroughly understand their business.

High Court of Justice.

The case of Robinson, et al, vs. Leary was concluded, and judgment reserved. Edward Chamberlain, husband of one of the plaintiffs, took a conveyance on Leary's farm from him 20 years ago, which Leary alleges was given for the purpose of securing advances then made to him for lumbering purposes. Leary has been in possession of the farm ever since, and claims that he has paid off all the money that he owed Chamberlain, and asks that an account be taken, and that he be allowed to redeem his land to pay the balance due. The plaintiffs' counsel maintains that the conveyance was absolute, and that they are entitled to possession. A number of legal questions were reserved for consideration. Mr. Peck for plaintiffs; Mr. Edmison for defendant.

MACDONALD VS. MACDONALD.

This case, which has been under litigation for a number of years, was a suit brought by Mrs. C. D. Macdonald to recover alimony from her husband. The court held the dismissal of the former action was an answer to this action, but as the defendant desired to make some provision for his wife, it was agreed that an allowance should be made to her, and a formal separation was consummated. Mr. O'Meara for plaintiff; Mr. Dumble for defendant.

OPENED IN DUE FORM

THE CAPITAL HAS ITS DAY OF FIBERY AND DISPLAY.

OTTAWA, April 14.—The field stands ripe for the harvester, the legislative crop bends to the sickle, the speech has been read, Mr. Blake retains the leadership of the Opposition, Parliament is open and the country is safe. To-night all is quiet along the Ottawa, but it is the quiet lull before the battle and to-morrow at 3 o'clock the dogs of war will be let loose even to the effusion of blood, and the accompaniment of much oratorical carnage. The Queen's County case will form the casus belli, as they say in Italy.

Two great events occupied the attention of the people in this sombre region to-day to the exclusion of all others. For the politicians the greatest was not the Vice-Regal pageant of the afternoon. For lo, at 10 o'clock in the forenoon, all the Reform members of the House left the chamber in a body and the whisper went around that the great Grit party were in caucus. The room was not large enough to contain the host, so the big Railway Committee room was occupied. There was a large attendance. The House is so nearly evenly divided that when the Reform hive swarms the gathering is multitudinous. It was a caucus of the party. The leaders were there, the Senators were there, the members were all there and they remained in session two hours. What was done was this. The letter which appeared in to-day's World, Mr. Blake's last epistle to the faithful, was read and the member for Durham once more offered his resignation. With one accord the party rose up and protested. They would not accept it. Mr. Blake explained that the state of his health rendered it absolutely impossible that he should longer perform the immense labors that his shoulders had borne in former years. The party said he should have help. After a long discussion the alternative of a committee to assist the leader, referred to in Mr. Blake's letter, was decided upon. It was also decided that this committee should consist of two members from Ontario, two from Quebec and one each from the other provinces. The members of the committee were also appointed. So now the Reform leadership stands as follows:

Hon. Edward Blake, leader.
Advisory Committee: Sir Richard Cartwright, Hon. David Mills, Ontario.
Hon. Wilfred Laurier, Mr. Langelier, Quebec.
Mr. Weldon, New Brunswick.
Mr. Jones, Nova Scotia.
Mr. Davies, Prince Edward Island.
Mr. Watson, Manitoba and the West.
The party whips were also appointed. Mr. Edgar retires and Dr. Plate takes his place. Mr. Trow still retains the lead. The French whips are Messrs. Riviere and Prevost. The general policy of the Opposition decided upon was to commence aggressive opposition at once. It will be war to the knife. They left the caucus in good heart and ready for the fray.

The ladies were not present at the caucus. They will probably caucus on their own hook to-morrow. The latest rumor concerning them is that they will form a third party with Hon. Peter Mitchell as leader. I don't believe it.

The opening ceremonies were the usual brilliant affair, only the weather being comparatively mild for this region, the crowd was larger than ordinarily. The streets were thronged with people. Parliament Hill was black with them. The cavalry could hardly get through them, while both Houses were overrun with constituents.

Major John Stewart marched the Ottawa Field Battery to Nepean Point and fired his cannon point blank at Hull nineteen times. Nineteen hundred small boys watched him admiringly. Lieut.-Col. Macpherson ranged 100 men of the Governor-General's Foot Guards in double file before the main entrance. The band was stationed in the rear. Capt. Gourdeau with sixty men of the Dragoon Guards surrounded the Vice Royal carriage and kept a sharp eye for dynamiters. In Toronto the mounted guard when on duty on such occasion gallop madly. Here the cavalry trot, and any trooper that happens to get behind jogs along contentedly, satisfied that he will catch on again at the journey's end.

It was 3.17 when His Excellency, accompanied by his A.D.C.'s—Capt. Anson and Capt. Streatfield—entered the Senate Chamber. The room of the wise men was gorgeous for to see. There were the honorable Senators, sagacious philosophers, with intellect uncovered in the light of day. There was the beauty of the Capital robed in splendor. There the eminent judges of the Supreme Court sat in solemn state, and there the favored among the multitude had front seats in the measure of their favor and acceptability in the eyes of Black Rod.

Just five minutes before Lord Lansdowne's arrival Pat Buckley drove up with Sir John, and the Premier, in the Windsor uniform and the broad red ribbon and star of the Bath, was the most prominent figure on the floor.

The ladies' costumes were, many of them, rich and elaborate. Among those present were Lady Tupper, Mrs. J. H. Pope, the Misses Powell, Lady and Miss Caron, Mrs. A. W. McLelan, Mrs. and the Misses Carling, Mrs. Costigan, Mrs. and Miss Smith, Mrs. Chapleau, Mrs. and the Misses White, Mrs. J. S. D. Thompson, Mrs. G. E. Foster, Mrs. and the Misses Scott, Madame Pelletier, Madame Laurier, Mrs. Wm. McDougall, the Misses Fournier, Mrs. and the Misses Hamilton, Mrs. Ryan, Mrs. Smith, Mrs. R. B. Dickey, Mrs. J. R. Thebaudeau, Mrs. and the Misses Ogilvie, Mrs. Schultz, Mrs. and Miss Clemow, Lady Ritchie and Miss Richie, Mrs. Strong, Mrs. and Miss Henry, Madame and Mlle. Taschereau, Mrs. and Miss Gwynne, Mrs. Cromie, Madame J. A. Ouimet, Mrs. G. A. Kirkpatrick, Mrs. Alonzo Wright, Mrs. W. G. Perley, Mrs. H. Robillard and others.

Meanwhile the members of the Commons had assembled, the new Speaker in glistening new robes. Black Rod came in and made his three bows. For the first bow he gets $1000, for the second $1000 and the third, in consideration of house room and free coal, he throws in for half-price, $500. The Commons followed him to the Senate Chamber, where His Excellency delived the Speech.

When the House reassembled the usual motion for the appointment of committees were passed. The name of the Immigration and Colonization is changed to Agricultural and Colonization Committee. This is the suggestion of Hon. Mr. Carling, who thinks that heretofore the subject of agriculture has not been given sufficient attention.

Mr. Bowell's motion to appoint Messrs. Baker, Brodard, Charlton, Colby, Davin, Desjardines, Ellis, Innis, McIntyre, Royal, Taylor, Tupper, (Pictou), and Weldon (Albert), as the committee to supervise the official report of the debates was allowed to stand until to-morrow at Mr. Clarke's request.

The Striking Committee are Sir John Macdonald, Langevin, Cartwright, McLelan, Blake and Laurier. They met after the House adjourned.

Just before the adjournment a little ripple of excitement was created. Mr. Weldon of St. John, the burly Reform leader from New Brunswick, rose and brought up the Queen's N.B., election case, in which the returning officer declares Baird, Conservative, elected, because of an informality in the election deposit. He moved that the Clerk of the Crown in Chancery attend when the House next met with all the papers in the case.

Sir John said: I understand a question of the greatest importance will arise on the papers moved for. We have not the slightest objection to the motion. This case will probably open up the whole question of whether or no a returning officer possesses judicial functions. In most cases the returning officer have declared the man elected who polled the most votes and left to the courts to decide as to the information. In this particular instance the returning officer decides that the Reform candidate's deposit was informal and declared Baird elected, though he had been defeated by a majority of 160 on the popular vote. The deposit was undoubtedly informal, as it was made by the wrong person, but the returning officer first accepted and then apparently acted on second thoughts that did not occur to him until after the vote had been polled. The case will likely go before the Committee on Privileges and Elections.

Mr. Porter will open the ball on the address the first thing to-morrow.

On Monday next Mr. Charlton will enquire what was the gross and net public debt of Canada on April 1.

Messrs. Landerkin and Innes have given notices of enquiry as to the total cost of the preparation of the voters' lists, the cost to each constituency, including all salaries, expenses, cost of printing and to whom paid, rent of hall and every other service connected therewith.

The Department of the Interior has decided upon an exploratory expedition into the Yukon district this season. The party which has already been selected and which will start shortly, will be made up entirely from officials connected with the Department.

This morning a deputation consisting of Jas. Peck, representing the Montreal Rolling Mills; W. S. Bryden, representing the Montreal Nail Works, and W. S. McMaster waited upon Sir Charles Tupper and Hon. Mr. Bowell in relation to the duties on iron and steel.

Mr. Blake's speech yesterday has riled the Conservatives more than a little. A dozen men are after him for it, and the whirr of the grindstone as they sharpen their knives can be heard in the stilly hours of the night.

The Conservative whips were appointed to-day. John Small acts as chief, with Taylor of Gananoque as his Ontario assistant. Labelle and McMillan, of Vaudreuil, the two from the lower provinces.

There is a rumor to-night that Hon. Peter Mitchell has established a modus vivendi with himself, and has been made an ex-officio member of the Reform Advisory Committee.

Senator Merner, of New Hamburg, took his seat to-day.

It is now definitely settled that in the meantime the Senate leadership will rest with Hon. F. Smith. That gentleman, however, declares that his successor must be speedily appointed.

Last night Sir R. Cartwright, Hon. D. Mills and Hon. W. Laurier were proceeding to the state dinner in the full glory of Windsor uniforms. Near the Rideau bridge their sleigh upset. Sir Richard took a roll in the dirt, and a Windsor uniform rolled in an Ottawa street in its present condition is not presentable at a state dinner. Mr Laurier did not fare much better. There were three guests absent when the covers were removed.

Mr. Curran's Home Rule resolutions are going to be one of the features of the session. It will raise a fiery debate.

The Governor-General and Lady Lansdowne will hold a grand drawing room in the Senate Chamber on Saturday evening. Everybody has to be in full dress, without regard to age, sex or previous condition of servitude.

Hon. Alex. Mackenzie reached the capital to-day. He appears slightly improved in health.

While everybody was watching the political show to-day the Rideau got its back up and swept away three bridges, several barns and sheds, and flooded the country for miles. New Edinburgh is about cut off from the mainland, and if the thing goes on the inhabitants will have to take to the hills.

GOING INTO TRADE.

Messrs. Parnell, Davitt and Others Organizing a Manufacturing Company.

DUBLIN, April 14.—Mr. Parnell, Michael Davitt and other prominent Irishmen are actively engaged in the work of promoting the organization of an Irish woollen manufactory and exporting company with a capital of $500,000. Mr. Davitt, while in the United States recently, received many promises of assistance from American importers of woollens. A meeting of those interested in the initial formation of the company will be held in this city to-morrow.

United Ireland says if Irishmen had one chance in ten thousand they would transfer the Coercion debate from Parliament to the barricades, but as that chance does not exist, Irishmen can only set their teeth, and hold their tongues. The Irish remains to simultaneously summon the whole adult population of Ireland to make one historic protest against coercion, but even the impossibleness of this would be destroyed by the misreporting of the English press.

The Remains of President Lincoln.

SPRINGFIELD, Ill., April 14.—The remains of President and Mrs. Lincoln were privately taken from their secret resting place this morning and interred in the north vault of the Lincoln Monument in Oakridge Cemetery, near this city. Less than a dozen persons, members of the Lincoln Monument Association and the Lincoln Guard of Honor were present. For years the whereabouts of the remains of the great president and his wife has been vested in mystery from anxiety that they would be stolen to obtain a ransom for the return. The secret grave was directly under the north base of the obelisk, about thirty feet from the north entrance, but only accessible through the south door.

Coming to America.

LONDON, April 14.—Canon Wilberforce and his wife and daughter sailed from Southampton to-day on the steamer Etruria for New York.

A Chicago couple have just been married in a balloon. We've always heard that they have some high old marriages out there.

COERCION AGITATION

THE APPOINTMENT OF AN UNDER SECRETARY FOR IRELAND.

LONDON, April 14.—Mr. Balfour, Chief Secretary for Ireland, intimated in the House of Commons this afternoon that no salary would be attached to the office of Under Secretary for Ireland, made for Col. King-Harman. The Government were aware, Mr. Balfour said, when they appointed the incumbent, that the appointment would be attacked. They had taken the highest legal advice and had been informed that their action was legal. In addition to this Mr. Balfour said the new office did not involve in its acceptance by a member of the House of Commons the necessity of his resigning his seat and re-contesting it for re-election, because the office was not a place of profit or emolument under the Crown.

Mr. Gladstone said the precedents required Col. King Harman to vacate his seat and seek re-election. Mr. Gladstone said that when he represented Oxford University he accepted for a short period a place in the Government without salary and under legal advice vacated his seat and stood for re-election.

John Redmond made a personal explanation with reference to his speech at the Chicago convention. He said Mr. Chamberlain in his speech at Ayr had represented him as saying that the Irish party were not working for the removal of grievances, whereas what he did say was that they were not working solely for the purpose of removing the material grievances of tenants, but to obtain political reforms also, and further, when he said that the government of Ireland by England was impossible, his allusion was to the centralized bureaucracy, the Government of Dublin Castle. He believed it possible that settlement could be effected honorable alike to England and to Ireland, such as was offered by Mr. Gladstone's bill. [Cries of "Hear, hear."]

Sir Lyons Playfair resumed the debate on the Coercion Bill. While admitting difficulty in certain cases of procuring convictions in Ireland, he said the facts were not so serious as the Government alleged.

Chamberlain Creates a Sensation.

LONDON, April 14.—The language used by Mr. Chamberlain in speaking at meetings in Ayr has inflamed the Irish against him and he has received numerous letters informing him that he will not leave Scotland alive. Speaking to an assemblage of 2500 persons Mr. Chamberlain said:

"The opponents of the Crimes Bill have made an outcry against the repression of liberty. Liberty to do what? to commit theft, to ruin industrious men, to outrage women! [Hisses mingled with cheers.] What are you hissing, the crime or the punishment?"

Here a man, rising and mimicking Mr. Chamberlain, cried "It is not characteristic of the Irish to outrage women."

An attempt was made to put the man out, but Mr. Chamberlain cried out "Leave him alone." "Then," he continued, "Do you want instances of insult being offered to women?" [Cries of "Outrage you sir!," "You slander the Irish."] "I do not mean the grossest outrage of all, but personal violence and insults. [Hisses and cheers.] I referred to cases like that of the Curtin family, where the lives of the widow and daughters of the murdered man were made intolerable, like that of the widow of another murdered man named Byers who, while accompanying the dead body of her husband was jeered at and howled along the streets."

Here the speaker was interrupted by cries of "Watch yourself," hisses and general disorder.

"I am relating," continued Mr. Chamberlain, "facts to which even my opponents might listen in silence of horror and shame. When I refer to assassination a man dares to say 'take care of yourself.' Has the time come when we dare not discuss political matters in this country without being threatened with assassination." [Great cheering.] "This is the spirit of the parties in the convention in Chicago. I am sorry to know that they have any representatives in Scotland. [Cries of "They are not Scotchmen."] That convention besides being attended by delegates honestly in sympathy with Ireland had delegates of another stamp—apostles of outrage and murder who have paid the outrage mongers of England. Mr. Redmond the delegate of the Irish parliamentary party, explicitly declined before the convention that it was the aim of that party to effect the entire separation of Ireland from England, and that their policy was to make the government of Ireland by England impossible. This they seek to effect by the most immoral conspiracy ever devised in a civilized land—by contending for liberty to violate every law, human and divine. Do you think it infamous to restrain these men? [Cheers.] Mr. Parnell threatened in the House of Commons, under the specious guise of a warning, that if the Coercion Bill were passed there would be a renewal of outrages, dynamite, explosions and attempts to assassinate our statesmen. This grim suggestion may prove the death warrant of some of us. [Cries of "No!" and "Shame!"] Well, what happens to individuals is not of much consequence. The danger is to the Commonwealth. For the first time in English history our foes have sympathizers within our ancient fortress. Their plan of attack finds encouragement from those who ought to be the strongest defenders of our citadel. This makes our task more arduous. But we will not shrink, we will not abate one jot, we will not yield to threats from whatever quarter they come, but we will endeavor to hand down unimpaired to our children the unity, strength and honor of the mighty empire our forefathers bequeathed to us."

Mr. Chamberlain's speech excites all parties. The Unionists consider it a declaration of war to the knife with the separatists. The Gladstonians charge Mr. Chamberlain with slandering and vilifying his former colleagues by the insinuation that they sympathize with the perpetrators of outrages in Ireland. It is asserted that during his tour through Scotland Mr. Chamberlain will be attended by a private guard.

The Loss of the Victoria.

PARIS, April 14.—The captain of the Victoria says the first boat lowered was mostly occupied by ladies. The boat capsized, and only four of its occupants were saved. The other boats landed in safety. At least twenty persons were drowned. The captain says a majority of those lost were French persons, whose names he does not know. Four bodies have been recovered. The captain attributes the accident, the only one he has had in twenty-eight years, to the failure of the fog horn. The crew, he says, did their best to allay the panic. Mrs. Braunstacker was on board the vessel. It is not known whether she was saved or not.

The Stove Moulder's Trouble.

LOUISVILLE, April 14.—The trouble with the stove moulders has reached this city. The principal stove manufacturers to-day received the "scab" patterns which have passed through the shops of the fourth district, where all the men are on a strike and announced their intention of standing by the National Association. The number of men employed is between 500 and 600. These latter say they will not do the work and expect to go out in the morning.

England's Claim on Hayti.

PARIS, April 14.—The Temps says England has assured France that she has no intention of making any attack on Hayti. England, the Temps adds, has reduced the indemnity demanded from Hayti to $180,000, and the French admiral, who was ordered to proceed to Hayti with his force to protect Europeans, has been ordered to leave Haytien waters.

A Pupil Punished to Death.

MILWAUKEE, April 14.—This afternoon Geo. Werner, teacher of the village school in Williamsburg, punished a refractory pupil named Henry Zugelhiser, by applying a ruler smartly to his wrists and the latter fell back in his seat unconscious. Supposing that the boy had fainted he threw two pails of water over him, but the pupil was dead. The teacher fled and has not been seen since. The boy's father claims that Werner choked him to death.

IS THE EXPERIMENT SATISFACTORY?

Public opinion is plainly not yet right for giving the right to vote to women. In our Local Legislature there seemed to be a decided opposition to importing women into the turbulent arena of politics. In Rhode Island, also, the other day, the proposal to extend the franchise to women was negatived by a big majority. And it would seem that the working of the principle of female suffrage justifies the indifference, or rather opposition, which the proposal to enfranchise the gentler sex has recently met. The opponents of the female franchise extension find to their minds ample justification for their position in the unsatisfactory working of this franchise in the state of Kansas. The change has by no means, it is asserted, worked advantageously. It is alleged, that some discreditable scenes have taken place, and the extension of the franchise instead of purifying politics, as its ardent advocates fondly hoped and confidently predicted, it would do, has had the opposite effect, and "has unsexed the women voters by converting them into frenzied partizans." While there is a large allowance to be made for exaggeration in the statement of the above alleged facts, there must be some ground for the conclusion that women are not adapted, as society and their relation thereto are at present constituted, to take an active part, as they must do if the franchise privilege is to be practically enjoyed, in the turbulent and rough-and-tumble contests of practical politics. There is this much to be said, however, respecting Canadian experience of female suffrage. According to that experience it has not been shown that the tendency has been to demoralize the sex and lend additional bitterness to partizan rancour, and has been claimed for the experiment in Kansas. But it must be remembered that the Canadian experience has been exceedingly limited, both in respect of the number of women enjoying the franchise and of the range of exercise of the privilege. If women earnestly and generally desire the privilege of voting, then the expediency of granting it them will be worthy of more respectful attention, but until they do unitedly and generally make known their wishes, it is safe to infer that they are not extravagantly anxious to get the ballot into their hands, and that the clamor for female suffrage is largely made by those who expect to be able to turn the concession of it to their own advantage. When women, as a whole, demand the franchise, by petition or otherwise, our legislators will not have the same excuse they now have for withholding it.

THE traffic returns of the Grand Trunk Railroad, just published, for week ending April 2, show an increase of $64,089 over the same week of 1886. This is a very gratifying indication of the extensive and increase of the trade and commerce of Canada. The magnitude of the opposition of the Canadian Pacific Railway is too great not to have seriously affected the traffic interests and earning capacity of the Grand Trunk, if there had not been a corresponding increase of activity in those branches of trade and commerce which are tributary to the traffic of our railways. A paragraph in the news columns of the EXAMINER the other day, showing how great the activity of traffic had been upon the Midland Division, and the figures above given show that the Grand Trunk system, though confronted with the powerful opposition of a privileged corporation, has not only been able to hold its own but to make a substantial advance over the operations of previous periods.

Fire at Millbrook.

A telegraph message this morning states that about three o'clock yesterday afternoon the fine two-story brick house of Mr. J. A. L. Kerr, near the G. T. R. station, Millbrook, was totally destroyed by a fire, which originated in the garret. Loss about $600 on the house, and $300 on contents.

Easter Vestries.

Reports of the Easter Vestry Meetings of St. John's and St. Luke's Churches.

The Easter Vestry of St. John's church was held Monday evening, Rev. Mr. Beck in the chair. The following officers were elected for the ensuing year :—

CHURCH WARDENS.—Dr. Geo. Burnham and Mr. C. H. Sheffield.

LAY DELEGATES TO SYNOD.—Judge Weller, Dr. Burnham and H. A. Hammond.

FINANCIAL COMMITTEE.—Judge Weller, (chairman), R. A. Morrow, A. P. Ponsette, H. A. Hammond and W. English.

MUSICAL COMMITTEE.—Messrs A. P. Ponsette, W. H. Bedden and H. A. Hammond.

AUDITORS.—Messrs. H. A. Hammond and W. H. Bedden.

SIDESMEN.—Messrs. W. E. Sherwood, Wm. English, J. H. Long, F. J. Jameson, F. E. Bell, F. Foote, Jas. English, H. Charman and Jos. Mills.

CANVASSERS.—Ward No. 1.—Messrs. C. H. Sheffield, R. A. Morrow and Wm. English ; Ward No. 2.—Messrs. C. A. Weller, R. Fair and Jos. Mills ; Ward No. 3.—Drs. Boucher and Burnham, and Mr. F. J. Jameson ; Ward No. 4.—Messrs. J. H. Long, F Foot and H. Long ; outside the town limits. —Messrs. W. E. Sherwood and G. W. Hatton.

Reports were read from the committees, the Treasurer's report showing a revenue of $900 over expenses during the year, besides which $1500 has been paid off the building debt.

Votes of thanks were passed to the choir for their services, and to the ladies for their successful efforts in clearing off the organ debt.

ST. LUKE'S ANNUAL VESTRY.

The annual vestry meeting in connection with St. Luke's Church, Ashburnham, was held on Easter Monday, April 11th, at 8 p.m.

The Rector occupied the chair, and commenced the proceedings with prayer.

The Churchwardens presented their annual report and statement of accounts, the latter being referred to the auditors, who subsequently testified to their correctness.

The total receipts on current account amounted to $1,900.78, the expenditure being $1,842.19, leaving a balance on hand, after meeting all outstanding accounts, of $58.59.

The Churchwardens, in their report, congratulated the vestry on the improvement in the finances, the average Sunday collection being the largest in the Church's history, viz., $26.03, an increase of nearly $8 per Sunday since 1880.

The outlay for building had been very large, viz., $4,824.80. Towards this there had been received over $2,200. The present indebtedness is about $2,600, towards which a considerable sum had been subscribed.

The Rector stated that during the period of his pastorate—less than 11 years—395 children and adults had been baptized, 303 persons were confirmed, and there had been 71 marriages and 131 burials. For the last year his work was as follows. 414 week-day and Sunday services, 41 baptisms, 74 celebrations of Holy Communion, 6 marriages, 13 funerals, and 610 pastoral visits. He had also attended 49 meetings and delivered 200 sermons and lectures, including weekly expositions at the Friday evening Bible class. The communicants at Easter numbered 162, and there had been 1,545 communions made during the year.

The Lay Superintendent of the Sunday School reported great progress in Sunday School matters. The average attendance for the year had been 132, as compared with 110 the previous year. There were 17 classes and an excellent staff of teachers and officials. The children's offerings amounted to $109.23 for the year, and there was a good balance on hand after meeting all expenses.

The following officers for the ensuing year were then elected :

CHURCHWARDENS.—Messrs. J. Burnham and H. T. Strickland.

ASSISTANT CHURCHWARDENS.—Messrs. H. C. Rogers and R. Meade.

SIDESMEN.—Messrs. A. Ingram, R. W. McFadden, W. Johnston and W. Maniece.

AUDITORS.—Messrs. R. Meade and W. Wallbrook.

FINANCE COMMITTEE.—Messrs. R. Meade, J. J Rooney, R. B. Rogers, W. Wallbrook, A. Ingram, E. A. Peck, and Mrs. Orde, Mrs. Jackson, Miss S. R. Burnett and Miss Calcutt.

Votes of thanks were passed to Mrs. Mills and family for the handsome memorial window placed in the church, to Dr. H. C. Burritt for the gift of a corona for the chancel, and to the organist and choir for their efficient services.

Messrs. John Burnham, H. C. Rogers and R. Meade were elected lay delegates to the Synod.

The meeting duly closed with prayer and benediction.

LEGISLATURE OF ONTARIO.

Sixth Parliament—First Session.

WEDNESDAY, April 13th.

Several bills were introduced and read a first time, among them being one by

Hon. G. W. ROSS—Respecting the income and property of the University of Toronto, University College and U. C. College.

Several bills also received third readings.

On the bill respecting the city of Ottawa, the House decidedly denounced the principle of the Federal Government extending its powers unduly by rejecting the clause putting the city police under the entire control of the Federal authorities.

LEGISLATURE LOYALTY.

Hon. Mr. MOWAT moved that an address be presented to Her Majesty expressing the heartfelt congratulations of the Legislature at the arrival of the 50th year of her reign. He read the address which he suggested, which was received with loyal applause and adopted by a standing vote.

Mr. GIBSON (Huron) then led the singing of "God Save the Queen," which was delivered with much fervour by the members.

The address was ordered to be engrossed and presented to His Honor, the Lieutenant-Governor, to be forwarded to the Governor-General.

After recess the House went into committee on the University Federation Bill, Mr. Harcourt in the chair. With reference to the clause establishing a teaching faculty in the University of Toronto,

Mr. MEREDITH enquired why a faculty of medicine was to be introduced ; it would interfere with schools already in existence.

Mr. ROSS (Middlesex) said the introduction of medical and legal graduates into the Toronto University would strengthen that institution, and besides, a better training in medicine was desirable than other schools could give.

Dr. WIDDIFIELD thought, even if the bill would benefit the University to the exclusion of other medical faculties, Toronto and Trinity Schools would seek degree-granting power and good would result to them.

Dr. MCLAUGHLIN strongly favored the clause. There were men drifting into the profession who were a disgrace to it, because they were almost destitute of any literary training. He believed in elevating the standard.

Mr. GIBSON, of Hamilton, agreed for the establishment of one good school. The rivalry of schools was bad for the public and profession.

Dr. GILMOUR supported the clause. The [illegible] hospital. As long as medical schools were run for the money in them, the standard of the profession would be low, and the results would be less favourable than under a common medical faculty. After the Doctor had explained to Mr. Meredith that he intended no slight to London schools any more than those of Toronto run on this plan, the clause passed.

A long discussion took place on the eleventh clause, which gives to arts graduates the largest representation on the Senate.

Mr. MEREDITH raised an objection to it, and with others objected to the discrimination ; it would promote a better feeling among all classes of graduates if they had common and equal rights. The defence to this was that arts graduates who received their whole training in the University were more thoroughly identified with the institution.

The Committee rose at 9.45, after passing the whole 85 sections of the bill with one exception, which was allowed to stand over.

The House having immediately went into committee on the Attorney-General's Act respecting insurance companies, and talked for an hour over its clauses without evolving anything of importance to the public.

Omemee.

(From Our Own Correspondent.)

Sleighing all gone. Little or no sugar making. Winter wheat promising.

Our churches were largely attended on Easter Sunday.

Our new High School teacher, Mr. McGregor, and our new Public School teacher, Mr. Orr, are giving good satisfaction.

ELECTION EXCITEMENT.—Mr. Hudspeth again in the field—owing to not resigning his office as revising officer.

Mr. Wm. Needler, of Lindsay, will be Mr. Hudspeth's opponent and will make a strong one. He and F. C. Taylor, of Lindsay, have made a canvass here and met with good encouragement, not only from Reformers but from many Conservatives.

Mr. Hudspeth's meeting here Monday night was a very dry affair. It was plain to be seen that Mr. H. felt his mistake, let him be guilty or not. There were no other speakers and a very small attendance.

Mr. Wm. Needler will poll a larger vote in Lindsay than Mr. Londsborough. This, along with his popularity in other parts of the constituency, will go far to ensure his election.

Where the Danger Lies.

The chief danger from taking cold is its liability to locate upon some internal organ, as the lungs, the pleura, the bronchial passages, etc. Hagyard's Pectoral Balsam loosens and breaks up the cold, allays irritation and often prevents or cures pulmonary complaints. 2w14d

EASTER EGGS.

Their Symbolic Meaning and Poetic Significance.

The egg, symbol of unrevealed life, in all ages and every country has been the subject of poetical myths and legends.

In France and Germany the custom of offering eggs at the Easter festival is so old that its origin is lost. The Russians and Jews also give Easter eggs, while the Persians present them at the beginning of the new year. With the Romans the year commenced at Easter, as it did among the Franks under the Capets. Mutual presents were bestowed, and as the egg is the emblem of the beginning of all things, nothing better could be found as an offering. The symbolic meaning is not to be misunderstood. Eggs are the germs of fecundity and abundance, and we wish our friends all the blessings contained within its slender shell when we offer the gift, whose fragility represents that of happiness here below.

In some remote districts of France it is still customary for the priest of the parish to go round to each house at Easter and bestow on it his blessing. In return he receives eggs both plain and painted.

The idea of fabricating imitation eggs in sugar and pasteboard is of comparatively modern origin, and was brought into life by the genius of trade. In both France and Germany their manufacture is an important source of traffic. In Paris, that city which Beranger says is "full of gold and misery," the splendors of the Easter eggs are almost fabulous. Once a Parisian house furnished, as a present for the infants of Spain, an egg which cost nearly $4,000. It was a wonder in its way. It was formed of white enamel; on its inside was engraved the gospel for Easter-day; and by an ingenious mechanism a little bird, lodged in this pretty cage, sang twelve airs from as many fashionable operas.

The designs for Easter eggs in Paris are more numerous than the flowers of the field, and more unique and beautiful than the dreams of a barbaric king. Eggs, eggs everywhere—eggs unbroken, eggs opened and revealing wonders within, eggs transported on the shoulders of fairies, eggs decorated in every conceivable style and made of every conceivable material.

OSTERA, GODDESS OF SPRING.

"Heaven is not reached at a single bound." sung Dr. Holland, and the same may be said of health. But many a sick person would make rapid strides in the direction of complete health by using Dr. R. V. Pierce's "Golden Medical Discovery." It is a sovereign remedy for all forms of scrofulous diseases, king's evil, tumors, white swellings, fever sores, scrofulous sore eyes, as well as for blood and skin diseases. 6dw15

B. B. B. A Sense of Duty. B. B. B.

"I should not think it right did I not give my testimony of what B. B. B. has done for me. I was troubled with biliousness. I took one bottle—it gave immediate relief. I can recommend it as a sure cure for biliousness." Minnie Smith, Orillia Ont.

EASTERTIDE.

Aye, the lilies are pure in their pallor, the roses are fragrant and sweet,
The music pours out like a sea wave, breaking in praise at His feet.
Pulsing in passionate praises that Jesus has risen again!
But we watch for the signs of His living in the life of the children of men.

Wherever a mantle of pity falls soft on a wound or a woe,
Wherever a peace or a pardon springs up to o'ermaster a foe;
Wherever a soft hand of blessing outreaches to succor a need,
Wherever springs healing for wounding, the Master is risen indeed!

Wherever the soul of a people, arisen in courage and might,
Bursts forth from the errors that shrouded its hope in the gloom of the night;
Wherever in sight of God's legions, the armies of evil recede,
And truth wins a soul or a kingdom, the Master is risen indeed!

So fling out your banners, brave toilers; bring lilies to altar and shrine,
Ring out Easter bells, He has risen! for you is the token and sign:
There's a world moving sunward and Godward, ye are called to the front; ye must lead!
Behind are the grave and the darkness; the Master is risen indeed!

Enjoy Life.

What a truly beautiful world we live in! Nature gives us grandeur of mountains, glens and oceans, and thousands of means of enjoyment. We can desire no better when in perfect health; but how often do the majority of people feel like giving it up disheartened, discouraged and worn out with disease, when there is no occasion for this feeling, as every sufferer can easily obtain satisfactory proof, that Green's August Flower, will make them free from disease, as when born. Dyspepsia and Liver Complaint are the direct causes of seventy-five per cent, of such maladies as Biliousness, Indigestion, Sick Headache, Costiveness, Nervous Prostration, Dizziness of the head, Palpitation of the Heart, and other distressing symtems. Three doses of August Flower will prove its wonderful effect. Sample bottle, 10 cents. Try it. eodw4

CONSUMPTION,

which is Scrofulous Disease of the Lungs, is promptly and certainly arrested and cured by this God-given remedy, if taken before the last stages of the disease are reached. From its wonderful power over this terribly fatal disease, when first offering this now celebrated remedy to the public, Dr. PIERCE thought seriously of calling it his "Consumption Cure," but abandoned that name as too limited for a medicine which, from its wonderful combination of tonic, or strengthening, alterative, or blood-cleansing, anti-bilious, pectoral, and nutritive properties, is unequaled, not only as a remedy for consumption of the lungs, but for all

CHRONIC DISEASES OF THE

Liver, Blood, and Lungs.

If you feel dull, drowsy, debilitated, have sallow color of skin, or yellowish-brown spots on face or body, frequent headache or dizziness, bad taste in mouth, internal heat or chills, alternating with hot flashes, low spirits and gloomy borebodings, irregular appetite, and coated tongue, you are suffering from Indigestion, Dyspepsia, and Torpid Liver, or "Biliousness." In many cases only part of these symptoms are experienced. As a remedy for all such cases, Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery has no equal.

For Weak Lungs, Spitting of Blood, Shortness of Breath, Bronchitis, Severe Coughs, Consumption, and kindred affections, it is a sovereign remedy. Send ten cents in stamps for Dr. Pierce's book on Consumption. Sold by Druggists.

Ferry's Seed Catalogue.

The EXAMINER received from the well-known seed firm of D. M. Ferry & Co., Windsor, Ont., their Illustrated Seed Annual for this year. A house with the national reputation the above one possesses, and whose name is a household world from one end of the country to the other, needs no introduction from us. By selling only the purest and best seeds and by honest and courteous dealing they are now the peer in their trade, catering annually to over six millions of people. Their Annual is gotten up in a very artistic manner, and contains such information that every person should have it. By sending your name to the firm they will send you one, postage paid.

The Reorganization of Lax.

In the Milwaukee Daily Journal of the 11th inst. is a paragraph relating the organization of the Wisconsin Lacrosse Club, and among the officers elected were Mr. J. D. Monarip, vice-president, and Mr. S. G. Wright, treasurer—two old Peterborough boys, who formerly belonged to the Peterborough club, then a thriving and renowned institution, and received their instructions in the national game under its auspices. They are now leading spirits in the Wisconsin club, which has become a recognized power in American lacrosse circles, and have evidently succeeded in transferring Peterborough's former greatness to a foreign city, while by way of contrast, in Peterborough, where were its headquarters and where it was wont to flourish in all its vigor, lacrosse is at a low ebb. 'Twas ever thus.

A City of Refuge.

Norwood, says the Register, bears almost the same relation to Peterborough as the "Cities of Refuge" did to Palestine. Scarcely a day passes that we do not stumble against a voluntary "exile" from that burgh. There is no mistaking the slouched hat, turned up overcoat collar, and crestfallen look. They spend the time in watching the trains, discussing the respective merits of Cooper, Adams, Pidgeon, and McGinty, the Irishman, and soothing their guilty consciences by liberal draughts of "moxie," which is just as plentiful here as in their burgh. Until the Scott Act is no more we must expect this class of fugitives to form quite a proportion of our population. While on the subject we might state that we had the pleasure of a call from Mr. J. O. Pengelly on Thursday. He favored us with his views on the liquor law as at present constituted and need scarcely add that his remarks would meet with very little appreciation in a Good Templars' Lodge. Three "soiled doves" from Peterborough, accompanied by the same number of young men, took up their abode here for a few days last week. On an invitation from the authorities here they took their departure for their native "Babylon" on the morning train on Monday.

New Lacrosse Association.

The EXAMINER is in receipt of a letter from Mr. Fred. W. Garvin, Secretary of the Toronto Lacrosse Club, asking our co-operation and influence in furtherance of a scheme for the formation of a new Lacrosse Association. The Toronto Club having withdrawn from the National Amateur Lacrosse Association of Canada, consequent upon what it deems the unfair action of the Committee of Management in the settlement of differences between it and the Montreal Club, have decided to take steps towards the formation of a new association. Circulars, calling a convention of representatives from all Western clubs, to be held at the Rossin House, Toronto, on Friday, 22nd inst., have been sent the various secretaries, asking the appointment of two or three delegates from each club, or a signification of its desire to join the new association, which can be directed to Mr. Garvin, who may also be applied to for any other information. The idea is generally looked upon with favor among the lacrosse players in Peterborough, and though the club has not been organized yet this season, a move in that direction will likely soon be made. No time is to be lost if the Peterborough club is to be represented at the convention on the 22nd inst.

Millinery "At Home."

The Peoples' Cash Store Holds Its Spring Millinery Opening—Last, but not Least.

Owing to the extensive repairs which have recently been made to the large dry goods store of Messrs. Fairweather & Co., corner of George and Simcoe streets, the firm have not been able to hold their spring millinery opening in conjunction with the other dry goods establishments in town, but as it is "better late than never," though the desired improvements are not yet fully completed, a millinery "At Home" will be held in their spacious show rooms beginning to-day and lasting for the remainder of the week. On ascending the winding staircase rising from the centre of the store, entrance is had to the millinery show-rooms, which have been tastefully fitted up for this special occasion. Tables are loaded with made-up hats in all conceivable styles and colors, while strewn about on every coign of vantage are the latest and nobbiest things in straw shapes—bonnets, hats and tarbans. A very pretty display of summer parasols—in print, silk, satin and lace, and of variegated color and design—was made against the northern wall. In parasols this firm make rather a specialty. Coffee-colored curtains, the only ones shown in town, draped the windows, while all sorts of millinery trimmings, gauzes, plumes, flowers, etc.—were displayed in tasteful profusion. Beautiful, airy-looking, summer shawls, in white and coffee color, were also shown. The whole display of millinery was exquisitely arranged to show to best advantage, and with such a complete stock on hand, Fairweather & Co.'s millinery department should boom.

At the rear was a large exhibit of mantle cloths, brocades and spring costings, with jet mantle trimmings—probably the finest show of mantle goods made this season.

Down stairs the shop and show windows underwent a process of beautifying which greatly improved their general appearance (always neat and tasty), and the store was to-day visited by scores of ladies, whose numbers will, it is expected, be quadrupled to-morrow, when the "At Home" will be at its height. It will be continued over Saturday.

From Dan to Beer-Sheba.

An Interesting Lecture About the Holy Land by a Native—Customs of the Israelitish People.

The school room of the George street church was a little better than half filled last night to listen to Rev. Ghosn Al Howie, a native Syrian, lecture on "The Manners of Bible Lands." Rev. Mr. Howie's lecture was interesting throughout, abounding with humorous hits, and delivered in a conversational style of speech, with a rather thick utterance, his Syrian tongue not having yet fully mastered the English language.

He began by referring to the many books which were written about the Holy Land, as showing the interest taken in it by the whole world. A very vague idea of the land of Israel was generally entertained by the people of Canada and other countries far distant from it. In the Bible it was described as from Dan to Beer-Sheba—and somehow the idea was formed that it meant something like from the Atlantic to the Pacific, and from New York to Liverpool. From Dan to Beer-Sheba was only about 140 or 150 miles. The lecturer then entered upon a geographical discription of the country, taking his hearers on a trip from Joppa, on the sea coast, to Jerusalem. The customs of the inhabitants of Joppa and a description of the city's present appearance, were clearly detailed, and reference made to the many incidents and places en route mentioned in the Bible.

At the conclusion of the lecture Rev. Mr. Howie attired himself in the flowing patriarchal robes worn by the Jews since the days of Abraham, and in use with slight variation at the present day.

Rev. Mr. Tovell closed the proceedings by hoping that the lecture room of St. Paul's church would be crowded to-night, when the lecture would be "From Jerusalem to Bethlehem." Those who missed last nights' lecture should not fail to attend St. Paul's church to-night.

A SENSATION IN LAMBTON.

Arrest of a Woman on a Charge of Murder.

Martha Ryckman Accused of Poisoning Some of Her Relations—Bodies Exhumed for Examination.

THEDFORD, Ont., April 14.—The whole county of Lambton is stirred with excitement over a sensational poisoning case, which, if credence be given to half the terrible stories told in connection with it, will throw light upon a series of the most ever committed in this part of the Province. The arrest on Good Friday of Mrs. Martha Jane Ryckman on a charge of poisoning her sister-in-law, a Mrs. Hendricks, has revived the discussion of stories about the suspicious deaths of a number of the prisoner's relatives which had previously been mentioned only with extreme caution. Mrs. Ryckman is a widow about 60 years of age, who has lived at Thedford for a number of years with her children. Last fall her married son, Gray Ryckman, and his wife Laura determined to go to Virgina for the health of the former, who was in consumption. Mrs. Martha Ryckman persuaded her son to let her accompany them. Nothing was heard of the trio for some time, after they left Thedford. About December Gray Ryckman wrote to friends in Thedford from the home of a Major Daniels in Virginia, where they were staying, telling of the sickness and subsequent sudden death of his wife Laura. According to the letters written by Gray, it appears that one day Laura was sick and her mother-in-law prepared for her a dose of salts. Immediately after taking the physic his wife got sick and vomited. His mother, who said she had also taken some of the medicine, took sick and vomited. Gray determined after this to return to Canada as soon as his wife could stand the journey. About a week or two after her first sickness Laura was again taken violently ill. She was found in the yard adjoining Daniel's house lying across a wheelbarrow. She was taken into the house and died in a short time. A doctor who attended her stated that death was CAUSED BY STRYCHNINE OR ARSENIC.

Gray Ryckman and his mother returned from the home of Daniels, who is a brother-in-law of Mrs. Martha Ryckman, to Thedford with the body, and it was interred in the family plot at Arkona on Christmas Day. Gray, who was very weak and low-spirited, continued to live with his mother at Thedford. Soon after his wife's burial he sent for a Mrs. Hendricks, an old lady who lived on a farm near Thedford with her son John Hendricks, and it is stated that Gray Ryckman made a confidante of Mrs. Hendricks and told her matters concerning the death of his wife. Three or four days after Mrs. Hendricks' arrival at the Ryckmans' she was taken very ill. She vomited and had severe pains about the stomach. A doctor who was called treated her for peritonitis. She died three or four hours after taking sick.

THE DEATH OF MRS. HENDRICKS, which was under circumstances somewhat similar to those attending the death of Laura Ryckman, aroused the suspicions of the latter's relatives, and Mr. Kennedy, an uncle of Laura living near Thedford, determined to have the case investigated. An order to exhume the body was secured from the Government and an inquest was commenced.

The evidence elicited by the inquest showed that the accused had purchased at a drug store—both strychnine and arsenic. Gray Ryckman died soon after Mrs. Hendricks last Friday, and the report of Dr. Ellis, analyst, told of traces of poison in the stomach of Laura Ryckman. Several other members of the Ryckman family have DIED UNDER SUSPICIOUS CIRCUMSTANCES.

In 1878 the prisoner's husband was taken suddenly ill and died. He was not in bed a day during the sickness which caused his death. About three years later a son-in-law of Mrs. Martha Ryckman also died under suspicious circumstances. His name was John Haskett. By his death, his wife, who was consumptive and did not long survive her husband, came into considerable property. Mrs. Haskett, when she died, left the property to the prisoner to use for the benefit of an eighteen-months-old girl she (Mrs. Haskett), left. This child died about eighteen months after its mother, and Mrs. Martha Ryckman came into the property. A gentleman in Arkona said to your correspondent to-day.—"There are members or connections of the Ryckman family, buried in that little graveyard on the hill, and it is a significant fact that by the death of each of them Mrs. Martha Ryckman derived some financial benefit." There is a story to the effect that Mrs. Ryckman was engaged to be married to a man living near Toronto. Miss Sanders, an intelligent girl of fourteen living at Thedford, says she wrote letters some time ago for the prisoner, who could neither write nor read, to George Raney, of Peterborough. They were not amorous letters, but dictated as letters from one friend to another. A correspondence was kept up between these two parties, the prisoner getting letters addressed to an assumed name and sending letters to Raney through the Peterborough postmaster. Raney, who is believed to be married, has since Miss Martha Ryckman's arrest sent her letters to the County Crown Attorney at Sarnia. The prisoner is said to be very much downcast since her arrest.

REPLY TO THE SPEECH

MR. PORTER OF HURON MOVES IT, SECONDED BY MR. WELDON.

OTTAWA, April 15.—Mr. Porter of Huron lives in Simcoe County, and is a farmer by occupation. He is a farmer-looking man, too, medium height, bald forehead, spectacles grizzled head, resonant voice, plenty of language, and a good delivery.

MR. PORTER.

Mr. Weldon of Albert is one of the most striking looking men in the House. He stands about 6 feet 2 inches high, with a great big Daniel Webster style of head, clean shaven face, even Celtic features, and stands as straight as a pine tree in his native province. He is a professor of international law in Dalhousie University, Halifax, but has little of the professional style in speaking. He has a ready address, a pleasing delivery and though not the fluency of Mr. Porter, will, in my estimation, make one of the great debaters of the House before the end of this Parliament.

Contrary to expectation, the opening speeches to-day were short and studiously moderate. Both speakers spoke well, but very largely confined themselves to generalities, the Government evidently having decided to leave the Opposition time to show its hand. If aggression comes it must come from the Opposition. It will likely come.

Mr. Blake's speech was in his best style. He was moderate at times, caustic at others, witty once, and he made a strong bid for the Home Rule vote.

Sir John spoke with his old time vigor, scoring many good points and cheering up his followers in great style. There was too much of the happy family about the whole thing to suit the old timers, but anyway it was a good opening of the session.

When the House opened the Clerk of the Crown in Chancery was present with the papers in the Queens, N.B., election case. These were read, being a lot of rather lengthy documents, some of them formal, others the returning officer's statement of the case.

Mr. Weldon of St. John, as leader of the New Brunswick Reform contingent, spoke. He said this was a most important matter, one that affected the rights and privileges of every elector, and he hoped before the matter ended the House would lay hands on the official who had dared to take upon himself to upset and set at nought the will of the people. This should not be a party question, but should be discussed dispassionately and justice done. He quoted authority in support of his contention that, no matter what the duties of the returning officer might be on nomination day, once the votes were polled he had no option but to declare that candidate elected who had received the majority of the votes cast. Then Mr. Weldon got red in the face as he referred to the rumor that the ballots had been destroyed. He concluded by moving that Returning Officer John R. Dunn of Queens be immediately instructed by telegraph to transmit to the Clerk of the Crown in Chancery at once the poll books, certified returns, ballots and all other papers connected with said election.

Sir John Macdonald said: "I am quite sure the House will approach this case, as it should approach all such cases, in a judicial and not a partisan spirit. We have not the slightest objection to the motion, and the papers will be laid on the table at the earliest possible moment."

Hon. Mr. Bowell's Debate Committee came up next.

Mr. Blake objected at once. He didn't believe in having every province represented, and he didn't believe in having eight Tories and only five Liberals on the committee. He didn't expect much justice, but if they would replace Mr. McIntyre with Mr. Scriver and add Jim Somerville of Brant he would be satisfied.

Mr. Bowell had no objection to this and the matter was fixed in that way. But it leaves Mr. Blake in a rather peculiar position. He has a solid support from Prince Edward Island and yet to-day deprived them of their representation on one of the most important committees of the House.

Now came the speeches on the address and the galleries were filled with people anxious to hear. The ladies' gallery was well filled and the Senators, having adjourned their chamber, thronged in. Senator McCallum, who will move the address to his honorable body on Monday, was there and doubtless got pointers. Almost every seat in the chamber was filled when Mr. Porter rose to his feet. Sir John led off the applause which was still going on when the first words of the speech cut through the noise and produced silence.

Mr. Porter started out by saying that for the performance of the simple duty assigned to him he craved the indulgences of the House. Though not a young man, he was a young member. He naturally felt the diffidence that all must experience when first called upon to address so brilliant an assemblage, composed of the masters of the art of public speaking. In speaking to the first paragraph of the Speech from the Throne he referred in a very neat way to the progress of the Empire during the present reign, and spoke of Queen Victoria in a strain that breathed such a fervent loyalty as set the House applauding again and again. Canada's great fame and her merited glory formed a theme that took ten minutes for the speaker to enrich with his glowing eloquence. This brought him naturally to the great good done Canadian trade and commerce by the Indian and Colonial Exhibitions, and a graceful compliment paid, in passing to the late High Commissioner, Sir Charles Tupper, was well received. The proposal to give senatorial representation to the Northwest gave the speaker an opportunity to branch out into a glowing picture of the future Northwest, even now no longer the great Lone Land; but to the full development of the Northwest it was necessary that our lines of communication should be entirely within our own borders, and the transcontinental railroad be fittingly supplemented by the construction of the Sault Ste. Marie canal, a work that was the more necessary when we had in connection with the fisheries question active aggression on the one hand and stubborn resistance on the other. He concluded by moving the address.

The applause which congratulated Mr. Porter on a good maiden effort had scarcely subsided when the desks thundered again in greeting as the tall stately-looking son of New Brunswick rose to fill his part. He had noticed in reading over the speeches of those who had moved and seconded the addresses in times past a persistent, stubborn and indomitable spirit of optimism in lean times and in fat times. They had spoken with cheerfulness, and in holding the same spirit he was justified now, not only by existing circumstances, but by precedent. He referred briefly to the first paragraph of the address, and then went on to the discussion of the fisheries question which he treated at some considerable length, explaining Canada's position under the treaty of 1818 and the position of the United States at the present time. Some of his sentiments were striking. One was, "It is true that south of the border there are sixty millions of people conscious of their strength, but it is also true that on this side of the line there are five millions of people equally conscious of their rights." Another was "The sons of two great nations will not abate one jot of their rights." In conclusion he hoped that these matters could be arranged amicably, but throughout the whole address there was a vein as though he would say to the United States, "Call off your dog or load your gun."

Mr. Blake started out by saying that the Speech from the Throne was so innocuous, had so little in it, that he did not need to long delay the House from other business. In a very beautifully constructed sentence he complimented the two previous speakers upon the tone of their addresses and welcomed them to the House. He had, however, thought that two other gentlemen would have been chosen for the purpose on account of political service. He referred to the hon. members for Haldimand and Queens, N.B. This created a laugh. Proceeding, the Reform leader admitted, and took pleasure in admitting, the progress of Canada under the reign of Queen Victoria, and hoped that the jubilee matter would be referred to in a more substantial manner before the end of the session. The reign of the Queen was here in Canada synonymous with the reign of the people. But there was a blot on the principles of self-government and responsible government in the Empire, and they would but do their duty to express, on the proper occasion, that it would be a fitting and a blessed thing in the jubilee year to grant to Ireland, as a portion of the Empire, government by the people on well understood and constitutional rules. Regarding the fisheries question, in accordance with the wishes of the Government they knew little and talked less. Until the promised papers came down he could not say whether it would or not be proper to engage in a discussion of the subject. The hope given in the speech was one of the weakest possible condition and the reference to the Sault Ste. Marie canal, while it would complete the much despised scheme of the water stretches of his friend on his right (Mr. Mackenzie), had an ominous look. He saw in the proposition to establish a Department of Trade and Commerce the failure in some degree of the Government's trade policy and a scheme to create a new Cabinet Minister. If this new department was to be the new trade remedy he hoped that a new minister need not result. The Secretary of State, for instance, was not burdened with official duties. In fact, said Mr. Blake, the only Plumb in the whole speech is the promise of a new minister, which, I suppose, is not to be a Plumb.

Hon. Mr. Plumb was sitting in the Senators' gallery. The House looked at Mr. Plumb. He started to laugh and everybody roared. It took a full two minutes to restore order. Mr. Blake shortly after concluded.

Sir John: "It is quite evident that we are a happy family to-day. Everybody is glad the hon. gentleman has extended to us the favor of his countenance and has been pleased to say that our speech is harmless." He went on, after complimenting the first speakers, to scorch Mr. Blake for his reference to D. Montague and Mr. Baird. On their side of the House they refused to allow partisanship to enter into the discussion of such cases, but the leader of the Opposition had already placed himself in the position of having prejudiced both cases. He would warn him that it was yet too soon to show his hand, and in that way. There had been but little ventilation in the House on the fisheries question, but there had been but little opportunity, so far, for ventilation. The question was, however, well understood in the House and the country. Negotiations were going on and they were permitted to hope that a settlement of the difficulty, honorable and just alike to both countries, would be effected. Regarding the Department of Trade and Commerce, the hon. gentleman must know that year after year the different Chambers of Commerce in the country had been urging upon the Government the establishment of such a department. It was in response to this general wish that the Government had decided upon the course indicated. As to that being an indication of a failure in the Government's trade policy, the country had just pronounced on that subject, and had recorded an unmistakable opinion—a verdict that was as gratifying to himself and his friends as it was the opposite to his friends over the way. That more legislation was not promised was partly owing to the lateness of the session, and still further to the gratifying fact that further public legislation was not now needed.

This ended the debate, and the address was passed, ordered to be engrossed, and will be presented to His Excellency by the member of the House who are Privy Councillors.

A number of formal motions were made, and the annual reports of the Finance, Marine, Trade and Navigation, Militia, Indian Affairs, Postmaster-General and Inland Revenue Departments were laid upon the table.

The House adjourned at 5.30.

A Gale on the Newfoundland Coast.

ST. JOHNS, Nfld., April 15.—A terrible gale raged along the coasts of Newfoundland this week. Near Rosshanche two large skiffs went down at their mooring and five men were drowned. Another ran ashore and was dashed to pieces. The crew were saved with difficulty. Grave fears are entertained for four schooners and a large boat which were out in the storm.

A Morrison Manufactory Burned.

MERRITON, Ont., April 15.—The hammer manufactory of Wilson Bros. was destroyed by fire this morning. It is supposed to be the work of an incendiary. Loss $10,000; insurance $6000.

GOT THEIR IRISH UP.

THE COERCION DEBATERS HAVE A VERY LIVELY SESSION.

LONDON, April 15.—Sir William Vernon Harcourt, resuming the debate on the Coercion Bill in the House of Commons this afternoon, said the present alliance between the Liberals and Parnellites was based on the Liberal recognition of the fact that the wisest policy in Irish affairs lay in the acceptance of some form of Irish government which would tend to satisfy the Irish people. He twitted Lord Randolph Churchill and Mr. Chamberlain with having secretly consulted Mr. Parnell, seeking to make an alliance with him for their own purposes. Referring to the conspiracy and White Boy clauses of the proposed act, Sir William declared that they swept the foundation of all personal liberty and would even debar Irishmen from forming business combinations to defend their existing rights. The spirit in which the Government would administer the Coercion Act, if it were passed, was sufficiently shown in the appointment of Col. King-Harman to the Parliamentary Undersecretaryship for Ireland. By this appointment the Government had declared themselves to be the partisans of the landlords and determined to administer the bill as the agents of the land owners in Ireland, thus becoming instruments to stimulate the worst passions of the people and their bitterest religious prejudices. The bill would fail to suppress the Irish National League, because the people of Ireland believed in the league and trusted it. The effect of the enforcement of the bill would be to make the Government more detested and the League more popular than ever. As to the Tory and Liberal-Union taunts about American gold fostering Irish discontent, Harcourt said: "There are none who have less reason to complain of American gold than the Irish landlords, for none get more of it. They get it through their poor tenants' rents." The proposal to make the bill permanent, Sir William characterized as a breach of the fundamental conditions of the union between Ireland and Great Britain. The Government professed to reverence this union, but were doing their best to violate it. If the Government earnestly desired to maintain the union let them abandon the policy of exasperating the Irish people and adopt the policy of justice and conciliation. [Cheers.]

Major Saunderson (Conservative) said the National League was supported mainly by criminals, dynamiters and murderers across the Atlantic. He did not charge the gentlemen opposite with imbruing their hands in blood, but he did charge them with associating with men whom they knew to be murderers.

Mr. Healy rose to a point of order.

The Speaker replied that Major Saunderson had made the gravest charges, but that these could be met in debate. He himself was unable to interfere.

Mr. Healy responded that he would say what he thought of Saunderson regardless of the consequences. If Major Saunderson referred to him he had no hesitation in saying that Saunderson was a liar.

This remark was greeted with rousing Parnellite cheers.

The Speaker called upon Mr. Healy to withdraw his expression.

Mr. Healy replied: "I am not entitled to rise until you sit down," when the cheering was renewed.

The Speaker then resumed his chair and Mr. Healy again took the floor. He said: "I am only able to meet the charge in one way. If you rule that Major Saunderson was in order my expression was equally in order. If you rule him out of order, I shall withdraw my expression."

The Speaker: "That is not so. Mr. Saunderson made a charge of the gravest nature. The responsibility rests entirely with himself. It is his duty to prove it if he can. [Cheers.] But I cannot allow the expression you used."

Mr. Healy repeated that Saunderson was a liar and a great uproar arose.

The Speaker again called upon Mr. Healy to withdraw.

Mr. Healy refused.

The Speaker thereupon named him and W. H. Smith, First Lord of the Treasury, moved that Mr. Healy be suspended.

Mr. Redmond jumped up and shouted: "I say he is a liar, too!"

The House divided on the motion to suspend Mr. Healy, and the motion was carried by a vote of 118 to 52.

When the vote was announced Mr. Healy walked out of the House, applauded by all the Parnellites, who stood up waving hats and raising cheer after cheer.

Mr. Saunderson, upon attempting to resume his speech was interrupted by loud cries of "withdraw!" "withdraw!"

Mr. Sexton, interrupting, asked Maj. Saunderson whether he (Saunderson) persisted in his statement or would withdraw. Maj. Saunderson replied that Sheridan was a member of the Executive Committee, of which the member for West Belfast (Sexton) was also a member. [Loud cries of "withdraw!"

Mr. Sexton: "Did I know him to be a murderer? Did I ever associate with a man whom I knew to be a murderer?" [Cheers and a voice, "Withdraw your 'murderer!'"]

Maj. Saunderson: "I said that Sheridan was on the committee and against him a true bill was found for complicity in the Phœnix Park murders. The committee must have known what kind of a man he was."

Here Mr. Sexton, springing to his feet, shouted, "I say you are a willful, cowardly liar!"

Then there was another uproar. The Parnellites all rose and cheered frantically, waving their hats in the air.

As soon as there was a chance to be heard Mr. Sexton, again addressing Major Saunderson, exclaimed, "If I only met you outside the door of this house I would thrash you within an inch of your life."

The excitement was again renewed.

The Speaker arose and addressed the House, but his voice was inaudible above the din. When quiet had been somewhat restored the Speaker said that unless Mr. Sexton withdrew his expression he would be compelled to name him. He appealed to the House to assist him in his duty, adding that he was willing to do anything in his power to allay bad feelings. [Cheers.] The Speaker then pointedly asked Major Saunderson whether he charged Mr. Sexton with associating with murderers. Mr. Saunderson, after several evasive answers, which were interrupted by loud cries of "answer," "answer," "the Speaker's question," etc., eventually withdrew the words he had used.

The Speaker then asked Sexton to withdraw his expression, at the same time adding: "I cannot conceal from myself the fact that the provocation has been very great." [Loud cheers.]

Mr. Sexton then formally withdrew his expression.

Mr. Leake, Member for Lancashire, suggested that Mr. Healy be recalled.

The Speaker said that nothing could be done in the matter until the next sitting.

Mr. Sexton thereupon gave notice that at the next sitting of the House he would move that the suspension of Mr. Healy be revoked. [Cheers.]

Mr. Saunderson then resumed his speech. He said that Mr. Sexton was present at the meeting at which Mr. Egan was made Secretary of the Clan Na Gael, which was a murder society of America.

Mr. Sexton rose to a point of order and the Speaker advised Mr. Saunderson to withdraw the offensive expression.

"Another batch of unfounded charges," Mr. Saunderson repeating the words, whereupon Mr. Sexton shouted: "The hon. gentleman is called a liar."

The Speaker called upon both members to withdraw their offensive remarks, which they did.

Mr. Saunderson again resumed his speech and charged the Parnellites with various connections with Egan, Ford and other

THE NEW THEOLOGY.

At the present time there are being made most powerful attacks on Christianity, and articles on the subject of the new theology appear regularly in such reviews as the Fortnightly and The Athenæum. Those who are discontented with the present theology are setting forth what we are to expect in the future by way of a new reformation and a new church. The last paper on this subject appears in the Fortnightly Review and is from the pen of Canon Fremantle. It is a peculiar mixture of truth and fallacy, of facts and theories, of dogmatism and vagueness. He attributes the present changes in theology to four causes, the advance of scientific knowledge, the more perfect criticism of the present day, the altered state of church life, and the progress of social and democratic theories. He attempts to discuss, in a short article, the character which each of these things is likely to impress upon theology in future, as it regards God, the Bible, the nature of the Saviour, and the popular views on miracles, sin and redemption. It is evident he has taken his criticism from Baur, and his science from Haeckel and Huxley, but while he ingeniously endeavors to disturb the foundations of our Christian belief, it is noteworthy that he supplies nothing in place of the grand truths he discards. It is much easier always to pull down than to construct, and while the Canon anxiously works away at the base, he offers us no resting place whatever instead of the venerable building he wishes to destroy. We will give one instance of his method.

In the course of a controversy, extending over many years, the gospel of St. John has been subject to specially strong criticism, but it has emerged from the trial untouched, and all have agreed that whenever it was written, it is, at least, one in design, in frame-work, and in its contents. Yet Canon Fremantle dogmatically asserts that it "passed through a remoulding in a later generation!" He also rejects the Pauline authorship of the pastoral epistles and accepts the loosest and latest German theories as to the "diminished historical value of the Acts of the Apostles." Naturally, those who hold closely to the old theology may well object to the gathering up of all assumptions and guesses made by German critics, and attempting to pass off their wild theories as solid proofs. The Canon must first get his authorities to agree among themselves as to what is truth.

He seems to have derived his definition of God from Huxley and Spencer, and speaks of the Creator as "a great object of thought to which the name of God has commonly been given." Then he goes on to reconstruct theology on this basis, but his ideas are so speculative, metaphysical and peculiar that it is hard to understand him. He admits that the main element in man's conception of God must be force or law, yet they will be able to speak of Him he says, "as just and loving, since the Supreme Power includes mankind, the leading portion of the world with all its noblest ideas!" This combination of Pantheism and Positivism certainly gives us little hope for the theology of the future.

He tells us we must be cautious in framing dogmas about the Divinity of the Saviour, because we do not know all about the nature of God. But Christians may well ask, do we know nothing about God? If we know nothing whatever, religion is a mockery; if we know something, why should we be more cautious in speaking of Christ, since in His nature, as Christianity unfolds it, we can see more clearly those attributes which can be but faintly discerned in the character of God? The Canon's teaching seems to be this in effect, "we must be content to be Christian Agnostics." In his allusion to the Resurrection he is very vague, and loses himself in great phrase about the "spiritual personality" and immortality "as a great background of hope beyond the scene of present duty." He in no way endeavours to explain whether or not the Lord Jesus is a living person.

Admitting that the movement of thought affects theology, we believe it is in the form, rather than in the substance, and that if anything is to be thrown aside, it is the later additions to truth, and not those dogmas which centuries of Christian thought and Christian practice have embodied and illustrated in every day life.

FAITH, HOPE AND CHARITY

SERMON BY LATHAM.

(Written for The Examiner.)

Faith, hope and charity—but the greatest of these is charity. So say the Scriptures but so don't says man. It is easier to say it than to practice it. It not only means the giving of money but the giving of many good things besides. It means goodwill, friendship, kindness and forbearance, and it also means doing as we wish to be done by. It means the helping of others over difficulties, the taking by the hand of those who are in trouble. It means sympathy with the erring and the unfortunate, and it means a life full of peace and comfort and happiness. For whenever the heart of a man is right there goes with it peace and comfort and happiness. A man with a right heart can do a great deal of good in this hard world. He can help where help is needed and he can smooth the rough places of life's journey and so bring encouragement and hope. A man may have faith but not charity. He may have hope without faith or charity. But charity is the greatest of all. It is the greatest of all because, generally, it includes faith and hope. It is great because it requires strength to practice it. And not only strength but self-denial also. Faith is a necessary quality to the Christian. Faith is a holy and a beautiful thing. True faith is hard to acquire and harder for sinful man to retain. And how very few there are who not only believe in God but trust in God. Ask them in times of difficulty to trust to their Creator to help them, and what will they say. And what will they do. It is true that Providence helps those who help themselves. They think they know best and can do best. They are not like the little child who got lost in the woods and who, when night came, laid himself down under a tree and asked God to take care of little Johnny, and then went to sleep. He said he was not afraid, although a big, black beast came and smelt him all over and then went away, because he said he knew God would take care of him. Nor are they like the two little children whose mother died and left them all alone, without food or warmth, the eldest of whom wrote a letter to God, telling Him of their loneliness and destitution, and asked Him to help them, and then went out and put the letter in the box at the church door, thinking God would get it and read it. And He did so; for He put it into the heart of a good priest near by to go and take care of the children. And they were in want no more. Nor are they like the little child who got lost in the desert and at night asked God to take care of her and keep her from all harm, and then laid down upon the sands and slept the sleep of the just. And God did take care of her, for a lion came and laid down by her side and kept her warm, and saved her from all harm. And when found in the morning she told how a big dog came and laid down by her side and staid there all night, and when morning came, went away. And she said she was not afraid, because she knew God would take care of her. These are some of the instances of pure, simple faith. Such faith as Mr. Müller practices, and which feeds and supports his large charitable institutions in England and gives them all they require. And such faith as had the poor, old, helpless and lonely woman, who prayed to God and trusted God to supply all her scanty wants; and who was never disappointed. Faith is the highest quality of the human soul. It purifies the heart and elevates its possessor, and enables him to realize and to enjoy blessings and happiness which he alone can find. Hope is the result of faith. It enables the man who has faith to look for, and to hope for, the things which God alone can give. So that faith and hope go together. There is no certain hopes where there is no certain faith, and where there is faith, hope brings comfort, and joy, and peace to the human heart. And where there are faith and hope there will be charity. The good man is ever a kind man. The man who looks to God in sincerity and truth will never speak harshly or act unfairly to another. Be that other ever so poor and humble, he will feel that he is one of God's creatures, and so his brother in the Lord. If he is unable to do much in a pecuniary sense, he will do as did the good Smaritan, or, as the poor widow, he will give his mite. But the greatest act of charity is to deny one's self in order that he may help a fellow-creature. To give of one's superabundance does not call forth a very great effort, but it is otherwise when we take from our own wants in order to give to others. A mother was lying on her death-bed. Among her sons there was one who appeared to be unable to battle with the world and to take care of himself. Her last thoughts were about him, and she asked the others to look after him and to help him in time of trouble. The mother died and was buried, and her predictions came true. And her wishes were not forgotten. She was a good, kind mother, and her chief fault was in indulging her children too much. I often wonder whether it is permitted her now to look back upon the world and to see those left behind. Who can sufficiently appreciate and love a good, kind mother? And who can deny her wishes? What sacrifice is to great for a child to make for a kind father or mother? The temptations of the world may be great, sons and daughters may have their own duties to perform, their own wants to look after, but they must never forget those who gave them birth, who watched over them in their infancy and counseled and guarded them in their after life. If they should do so, woe be unto them, for their pathway through the world will be rough and hard to travel, and it may be, and very likely will be, that their own children will follow their example. And at last when they lie down to die who can tell their sorrow and their misery when they look back, as they surely will do, over the long time ago, and realize, as they will then realize, all the wrongs which they did in their youth, and all the pains which they then caused their good and kind parents, now no more. For they will hear their kind voices no more, and all that remains is the mound in the silent graveyard, where they themselves are fast hastening, that graveyard which is the home of all the people of the earth, and which ends all their trials and troubles here below. How still it is. And how silent now are those who lie there waiting for the great day of the resurrection, with whom we were once so familiar and whose voices we can almost fancy we hear again. It is a sad and solemn thing to walk among the graves of the dead. It is a sad thing to look at the earth which covers father, mother, and child. Such a sight ought to be a warning to those left behind, but it is not. It ought to teach them their own destiny, but it does not. It ought to show them the end of all their ambition and their trials and struggles, but it does not. And it ought to teach them to be forgiving and kind to others, but it does not. And it ought to teach them that charity covereth a multitude of sins, but it does not. But when they are laid low in sickness, when their bodies are racked with pain, when their eyes grow dim and they look for the last time out upon the world, upon the warm sunlight, and upon the green grass, and the flowers, and hear the birds sing their last songs, then is the time come when they must give up all and go away into the unknown land and be seen and heard no more. And the years roll on and they are left away, and all that is left is the remembrance that they once were, that they once stood by our side, and it may be took us by the hand and encouraged us to further exertion and hope. And at night, when the snow lies deep upon the ground, and the wind blows hard and cold they will think of father and mother, brother and sister lying away off in the cold ground. And in summer, when the earth is covered with grass and flowers, and the soft breeze sighs through the trees, when the little birds make their nests and little children love to go out and play, then they visit these lonely, silent resting places of the dead and stand and look and think and wonder when their time will come and they will be laid by the side of those who have gone before. Verily this world is but a dream after all, they work and worry and accumulate and lay up in store. They feel selfish and proud and they have nothing to spare. They think they will live forever. And they shut up their hearts to every noble impulse, they have no feeling and no pity for others. They turn a deaf ear to the supplications and cries of others. They have no charity. And having no charity they have no faith or hope. And they die and are buried, and no one mourns their loss.

LEGISLATURE OF ONTARIO.

Sixth Parliament—First Session.

THURSDAY, April 12.

After routine business, Hon. Mr. FRASER moved the ratification of the contract with Mr. Lionel Yorke, for the construction of the new parliament buildings in Toronto.

He went into an elaborate explanation of the history of the affairs, of the 16 original designs sent in, and the modified plans subsequently submitted by Darling & Curry and Gordon and Helliwell. From the estimates submitted on these plans it was found, he said, impossible to erect the buildings for anything like the half a million voted by the House, when it was found impossible to go ahead with them it was distinctly understood that the arrangement with the two firms for their services had come to an end, though, of course, they were entitled to some remuneration for the work they had done. The matter was once more brought before the House, and the appropriation was increased to $750,000. It was then that the two plans, one or the other of which he had all along hoped might be used, were first examined by an expert. Mr. Waite, of Buffalo. The plans were both found by Mr. Waite, as he (the speaker) had stated in the House before, and was prepared to reaffirm now, unsuitable and defective. He thought it rather a stupid thing for Darling and Curry to say that the Government of six members, including a commissioner of Public Works, who had served the country faithfully for the past thirteen or fourteen years, should be so stupid as not to know whether Mr. Waite was making an honest criticism or not. But the Government was not satisfied even to accept Mr. Waite's view. When Mr. Waite was selected instructions were issued to him strictly limiting the cost to the $750,000 voted by the House, and his remuneration was not to exceed 5 per cent. of that sum, no matter what the buildings might cost.

When tenders came to be advertised for it was found that the lowest tenders for Credit Valley stone sent in, after modified tenders were asked for, were from Brown & Love, for $736,000, and Lionel Yorke for $752,000. Ohio sandstone or Pelee Island stone might have been used at a slightly decreased cost, but not sufficiently so to compensate for the difference in appearance and durability. Knowing how long the new parliament buildings had been wanted, the Government had thought it best to go on, subject, of course, to the ratification of the contract by the House. Honorable gentlemen opposite had sought to make this question an issue at the polls. He had in his hand a campaign document headed, "Observe the Swindle." (Laughter.) He noticed the member for North Grey winking at this. The gentleman had probably met the document before. (More hilarity.) The document, he said, arraigned the Government for swindling the people of the Province, and for employing a Buffalo architect. It said the people would arise in indignant protest when the full extent of this job was discovered. Why, it said that the walls of the building alone would cost more than the appropriation.

He had the best of reasons for believing that the buildings could be completed for an amount not exceeding $300,000 more than the present appropriation. He concluded by belittling Darling & Curry's demand for two per cent. of the $750,000 for the plans they prepared. Gordon & Helliwell were content to take much less, and he saw no reason why such an exorbitant sum should go to the others.

After recess the debate was continued by Mr. Creighton, who, in a lengthy harrangue, attacked the position and record of the Government on the question.

The debate was continued by other members on both sides of the House, the Opposition members indulging in obstructive and factious criticism. At 3.30 a.m. the debate was concluded, and the motion to ratify the contract was carried by a majority of 22—a vote of 53 to 31.

"Heaven is not reached at a single bound." sung Dr. Holland, and the same may be said of health. But many a sick person would make rapid strides in the direction of complete health by using Dr. R. V. Pierce's "Golden Medical Discovery." ST JACOBS OIL

WILL SURELY CONQUER PAIN!

CURES RHEUMATISM,

The Terrible Torture—Rheumatism.

Chief of Police Stewart, Hamilton, Ontario, says: "I consider St. Jacobs Oil as an invaluable article, and shall not hesitate to recommend it to my friends,—or enemies, for that matter—when I find them seeking anything for the alleviation of the terrible torture of rheumatism.

Wonderful for Rheumatism.

Mr. John Kelly, grocer, Kingston, Canada, says: I have found St. Jacobs Oil a wonderful and effectious remedy for rheumatism.

Good, Safe, Sure for Rheumatism.

Hon. John Holmes, Superintendent of the House of Industry, Kingston, says: I know St. Jacobs Oil to be meritorious, because it cured me of the rheumatism, and it did so in such a way as to leave no doubt that its claims are just. I think it is a good, safe and sure remedy, and such as is needed in our climate, where rheumatism is, of all diseases, the most prevalent and hardest to combat.

Cured of Rheumatism.

Mr. J. D. Murray, Govt. Agricultural Department, Ottawa, Canada, says: I recommend St. Jacobs Oil to sufferers with rheumatism. It cured me.

Cured of Rheumatism—Well as Ever.

Mr. Robert Wilson of the City Surveyor's office, and Street Commissioner of the Eastern Division for the Board of Public Works, Toronto, Ont., says: The rheumatism has been a source of great bother to me, and I have done a great deal of doctoring for it without much good. A friend recommended St. Jacobs Oil, the Great German Remedy. I tried it, and the result is that I am now cured, and as well as ever."

Every household shelf should have it; every testimonial strictly true; every day increased demands; every patient is amazed when cured; every ache or pain succumbs; every dealer knows its merits, every chemist finds it perfect. St. Jacobs Oil. Sold by Druggists everywhere. Price fifty cents per bottle. The Charles A. Vogeler Co., Baltimore, Md., U. S. A. Canadian Branch, 64 York street, Toronto.

GOLDEN MEDICAL DISCOVERY

CURES ALL HUMORS,

from a common Blotch, or Eruption, to the worst Scrofula. Salt-rheum, "Fever-sores," Scaly or Rough Skin, in short, all diseases caused by bad blood are conquered by this powerful, purifying, and invigorating medicine. Great Eating Ulcers rapidly heal under its benign influence. Especially has it manifested its potency in curing Tetter, Rose Rash, Boils, Carbuncles, Sore Eyes, Scrofulous Sores and Swellings, Mild-Joint Disease, White Swellings, Goitre, or Thick Neck and Enlarged Glands. Send ten cents in stamps for 3 treatise, with colored plates, on Skin Diseases, or the same amount for a treatise on Scrofulous Affections. "THE BLOOD IS THE LIFE." Thoroughly cleanse it by using Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery, and good digestion, a fair skin, buoyant spirits, vital strength, and soundness of constitution, will be established.

CONSUMPTION,

which is Scrofulous Disease of the Lungs, is promptly and certainly arrested and cured by this God-given remedy, if taken before the last stages of the disease are reached. From its wonderful power over this terribly fatal disease, when first offering this now celebrated remedy to the public, Dr. PIERCE thought seriously of calling it his "Consumption Cure," but abandoned that name as too limited for a medicine which, from its wonderful combination of tonic, or strengthening, alterative, or blood-cleansing, anti-bilious, pectoral, and nutritive properties, is unequaled, not only as a remedy for consumption of the lungs, but for all

CHRONIC DISEASES OF THE

Liver, Blood, and Lungs.

If you feel dull, drowsy, debilitated, have sallow color of skin, or yellowish-brown spots on face or body, frequent headache or dizziness, bad taste in mouth, internal heat or chills, alternating with hot flashes, low spirits and gloomy borebodings, irregular appetite, and coated tongue, you are suffering from Indigestion, Dyspepsia, and Torpid Liver, or "Biliousness." In many cases only part of these symptoms are experienced. As a remedy for all such cases, Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery has no equal.

For Weak Lungs, Spitting of Blood, Shortness of Breath, Bronchitis, Severe Coughs, Consumption, and kindred affections, it is a sovereign remedy. Send ten cents in stamps for Dr. Pierce's book on Consumption. Sold by Druggists.

The Daily Examiner.

SATURDAY, APRIL 16, 1887.

LOCAL NEWS.

Explanatory.

It is justice to state that the Geo. Raney, of Peterborough, referred to in the despatch published in Friday's EXAMINER, in connection with Lambton poisoning cases, is not Mr. Geo. W. Ranney, architect, but another person with a similar sounding name, though spelled differently, who was at one time residing in town. The dispatch, which was taken from the Globe,—and in the hurry of preparing for the printer—uncredited, stated that the letters were received "through the Peterboro' postmaster." If for "postmaster" is read post office, the danger of misapprehension in connecting the postmaster personally with the delivery of the letters will be avoided, Banquetting the Bishop.

Friends of the Right Reverend T. J. Dowling, Bishop elect of Peterborough, are preparing to entertain him at a farewell banquet in the Town Hall, Paris, on the eve of Monday, 25th April. The affair promises to be unusually brilliant and noteworthy. His Lordship has so many staunch friends in the community that a demonstration of a public character, such as this, is deemed the best shape in which to permit them all to testify their feelings.—Paris Review.

Private for Young Men Only.

Tickets with the above heading are being circulated for a special Young Men's Meeting on Sunday afternoon at 4 o'clock in the Y.M.C.A. Hall. Addresses are to be given by Peterborough Young Men, and probably by the Rev. Jno. Hay, of Campbellford. Any young man can secure a ticket on application to the Secretary.

Sale of Live Stock.

A very successful auction sale of live stock took place at Dr. Kincaid's stock farm Friday afternoon, 60 head of cattle and 12 horses being disposed of at good prices. Owing to the lateness of the hour, the thoroughbred and fat cattle were not touched. Mr. C. Stapleton was auctioneer.

Obituary.

The Late Mrs. Evans Ingram.

On Saturday morning, April 16th, after a long and painful illness, Mrs. Evans Ingram entered into rest. The deceased was the youngest daughter of the late George Eason, Esq., J.P., who was one of the earliest settlers of Otonabee, coming to that township some sixty or sixty-five years ago. In 1850 Miss Eason was united in marriage to Mr. Evans Ingram, and their wedded life, though saddened with children, was a happy one. Mrs. Ingram's consistent Christian character being reflected in the details of her daily life. Not only was she a good wife, but she was also a good neighbor, and many, besides her bereaved husband, will miss her many acts of kindness. She was a member of the Methodist communion. For some years she has been in delicate health, but during the past six or seven months her disease took a more decided form, and she bore the affliction of her last painful illness with true Christian resignation and patience till death closed her sufferings. She passed away in full hope of a glorious immortality. Mr. Ingram's multitude of friends extend to him their warmest sympathy in his great bereavement.

The Rainbow Colors.

They Will Adorn the Fair Ones This Season—The Fashions for Spring.

Heliotrope is to be the color of the season. It comes in ten different shades. About four of these shades are called "anemone," and two more on the red are called "plum," while the darkest heliotrope is not heliotrope, but "dahlia." This is a new yellow-green, very delicate and very trying to the fairest complexion, called "absinthe." The "serpent" is a very pronounced bluish-green. Then there is the "renaissance," a very bright Nile-green.

There are three new shades of pink, grading from a vivid rose to a deep crimson pink, and these are called Charles X.

Glammant is a brilliant reddish yellow, almost tinging on to the copper. "Jannae" is a positive yellow under a new name.

Then there is "Havanne," a rich, brownish yellow, a little different from any shade we have had yet. "Maze" is a deep cream color with a decided yellowish cast, and "Mode" is merely a new name for the light tan color so fashionable for two years past.

Then there is "mastic," a very pretty grayish green. Garnet comes back this season, a new color under an old name. The new garnet is popular in dress goods, almost next to heliotrope.

Myrtle green, electric blue, navy blue, terra cotta, and a very few browns, hold their own after garnet and heliotrope, and while not considered ultra-fashionable, will doubtless form more of the body of one's wardrobe than the novelties.

Personal.

Mr. Lionel Yorke, of Toronto, whose contract with the Ontario Government for the construction of the new Parliament buildings, Toronto, was ratified on Thursday, will be well remembered in Peterborough by older residents. He was concerned in the erection of many buildings now standing in town and Ashburnham, among the former being the block now occupied by the EXAMINER printing establishment.

Church Chimes.

Rev. Alex. Bell, of St. Andrew's Church, Peterborough, will conduct the services in the Presbyterian Church, Campbellford, on Sunday next. Mr. Hay, of that place, exchanges pulpits with him.

George street church, Sunday, 17th inst.:—11 a.m., Rev. I. Tovell; 7 p.m., Rev. F. H. Wallace, B.D.

A Feather in Their Cap.

At the annual meeting of the Confederation Life, held in Toronto this week, the following significant fact appears in the directors' report: "In the opinion of the Directors, the time has arrived when the rate of interest used in calculating the policy liabilities should be reduced from four and one-half per cent. (the Government requirement) to four per cent.;" and the Globe of to-day says, in reference to the decision, "This is following the lead of the large British companies," etc. What better testimony does the British Empire Mutual Life and the Standard Life (British offices) require of their thorough reliability and security?—undoubtedly about the most important consideration for policy-holders to consider first. Now, Messrs. Henderson and Cameron, representatives of the solid British offices, here is your chance.

The Bachelors' Picnic Assembly.

Last evening about 50 couples, comprising the elite of the town, and some visitors from Port Hope, Cobourg, and other places, assembled at the Parlor Roller Rink, which had been gaily decorated for the occasion by the energetic young men on the committee—Messrs. L. M. Hayes, C. A. Lawford, E. Pearse, T. G. Haultain, and Mr. A. G. Hamilton, Secretary;—for the purpose of enjoying the exhilarating pleasure of the dance, the ladies being accompanied by huge hampers of provisions for refreshment during the night. The lower end of the hall was curtained off as a dining room, in which the tables were spread. Music was furnished by a local orchestra of four pieces, superintended by Prof. Doucet. Dancing was kept up to a late hour.

Organ Recital.

Dr. Davies, of Ottawa, will give an organ recital in the George street Methodist Church, on Wednesday evening next; at which Mr. Ed. J. Lye, one of Toronto's best soloists, will sing several sacred solos.

Weddings.

As May is considered an unlucky month for weddings, those contemplating matrimony had better avail themselves of April and tell their friends to patronize China Hall for wedding presents.

Turnbull is showing a good, unlaundried White Shirt at 40c. each.

The Young Men's Christian Association cordially invite strangers, and all young men to attend the meeting to-night at 8 o'clock in their hall. Short talks, lively singing, and an interesting meeting are promised.

The Infanticide Inquest.

A Jurymans' Absence Causes an Adjournment.—The Infant Found to have been Still Born.

At 7:30 last night the police station was filled with men waiting for the inquest into the facts concerning the death of the infant found on Bethune street Wednesday morning, to be resumed. They sat, and lounged, and stood—talked, smoked and spat between acts. They were waiting for the Coroner. Dr. Kincaid, C. C. A. Wood and some of the jurors were there. At 8 o'clock Coroner Bell appeared, and an adjournment was made upstairs. Constable Adams read the "Oyez, Oyez," and upon the Coroner calling the jurors' roll, all answered to their names except Messrs. McAndrew and Bookhout. Someone stated that Mr. McAndrew was in Ottawa on business; no one knew anything about Mr. Bookhout. The Coroner remarked that they would wait for a few minutes, and wrote something in his book; Dr. Kincaid looked over his evidence, Mr. Wood sat quietly on his chair, tilted against the wall, the jurymen, ranged in semi-circle about the desk, chatted, joked and discussed the case, while the small audience gaped at each other and kept mum. Thus the time passed until 8:30, when P. C. Adams was sent abroad on a voyage of discovery, to ascertain the wherefore and the whyness of Mr. Bookhout's absence. Another long pause ensued, during which all hands looked at each other, talked in whispers while discussing the ghastly question which was to occupy their attention as soon as the missing juryman was found, the coroner advising them to exercise patience, as did Job, under very trying circumstances. He also mentioned something about fining the delinquent juryman $100, as provided by law, for his non-appearance. The jurors didn't want to wait. It was near nine o'clock, and some of them were anxious to get away to Rev. Mr. Howie's lecture, in St. Paul's Church. But the Coroner firmly pressed them to stay, and they stayed. Without, the rain was descending in torrents, lurid lightning darted to and fro in the inky sky, while peals of thunder ever and anon awoke the echoes and awakened one of the juryman out of a sound doze with a start. Dr. Kincaid took off his spectacles and sat down. He was tired. So was everybody else. Foreman Belleghem thought they had better bring in a verdict of "wilful murder" (of time) against the absent juryman. He asked Dr. Kincaid's opinion. Another suggestion was that the verdict be "suicide." Coroner Bell removed and carefully rubbed his spectacles, wiped the perspiration from his brow, and remarked that if the absent juryman could be brought to time, it would take only about five minutes to close up the matter, as from information he had obtained from Dr. Kincaid, he understood the result of the post mortem indicated that the child was still-born, and had never breathed. In that case, the crime would only be concealment of birth. Then all hands sat some more, and gazed vacantly at each other. Aha, a noise is heard on the stairway. It is Constable Adams returning—alone. He had failed to find any trace of Mr. Bookhout, who lives away down near the cemetery. Of course, there was nothing to be done except adjourn, and the Coroner read a document to the jurymen and witnesses, all good men and true, to appear at the same place at the hour of 7.30 on Monday evening next, upon pain of $100 fine. A rush was made for the door, and in a very few seconds the place was cleared, the lights extinguished—and thus ended the inquest, or that session, at least.

From Jerusalem to Bethlehem.

Mr. Howie evidently kept the best wine till the last, for his lecture on Friday evening was even more interesting than the one on the previous night. His subject was "From Jerusalem to Bethlehem," and after a somewhat minute view of the Holy City, he took his audience along the road to Bethlehem, gradually describing many points bearing on his subject. At the middle of his lecture he paused for a while and gave an opportunity for the audience to ask questions with reference to his subject, which was taken advantage of to some extent. He then again donned the costume similar to that which has been worn since the days of the Patriarchs. Resuming he said that on the way to Bethlehem, camels laden with travellers and goods would probably be met with. In a good voice he gave an example of their chanting in their native Arabic, and also recited the first Psalm in the same language. Arrived at Bethlehem he described the chief points of interest, the most prominent being the Church of the Nativity, containing the traditional cave where "Mary brought forth her first born son, and laid him in the manger." He closed the lecture with an earnest exhortation based on the meaning of the name of the Village, which at different times was respectively "Fruitful," (Ephratah House of Bread (Bethlehem) and House of Flesh (The Arabic meaning.)

A vote of thanks for the very interesting lecture was moved by Mr. G. M. Roger, on behalf of the good sized audience, and was seconded by Mr. R. J. Lee.

GOLDWIN SMITH'S LECTURE.

He Speaks to the New York Canadian Club on the American Revolution.

NEW YORK, April 15.—Goldwin Smith's lecture at the Canadian Club last night greatly impressed his audience. The moving causes of the American revolution, which he designated as the "Schism of the Anglo-Saxon race," were treated in a manner very unusual and the results not only in America but in Europe depicted with a masterly hand. The lecture occupied fully an hour and a half, and though the subject was somewhat abstruse, not a word was lost by the large audience that occupied every portion of the club. A number of distinguished men in literary and journalistic circles of New York listened with great attention and got not a little new light on many important points as to the relations between Great Britain, the United States and Canada.

The Professor, with Mrs. Smith, the Hon. Benjamin Butterworth, Sir Roderick Cameron, Geo. Wm. Curtis and others lunched to-day with Mr. Wiman on Staten Island.

Agrarian Crime in Russia.

ST. PETERSBURG, April 15.—Gen. Orsheffxki, chief of the gendarmerie, has been dismissed from office. Agrarian disorders prevail in Russia and Poland. During the month of March four landed proprietors were killed by peasants, and so far this month three noblemen have also been murdered. In one instance the victim was scalped and beheaded, and another was shot in broad daylight. The murderers have not been arrested.

A $14,000 Fire at Belle River.

BELLE RIVER, Ont., April 15.—This place was visited by a very disastrous fire this afternoon which resulted in the total destruction of J. Cray's general store and outbuildings, loss $10,000, with only light insurance; D. Rourke's residence and barn, loss $1300, insured for $1200; P. Delaney's residence, loss $600, no insurance; J. Ouellette's residence and barn, loss $1000, no insurance. At one time the business portion of the town was threatened. The fire is supposed to have been caused by a defective stovepipe in Cray's store.

POLITICAL GOSSIP.

A BUDGET OF INTERESTING NEWS FROM THE CAPITAL.

OTTAWA, April 17.

The booksellers and stationers invested five Capital on Saturday and gave their grievances ventilation. They are at open war with the paper manufacturers, and it will be hard to decide between the conflicting claims. Saturday's deputation consisted of A. S. Irving, W. Warwick, W. Bryce and E. Clarke, of Toronto; W. Drysdale and C. S. Cadrieux, of Montreal; L. Sharp, St. Mary's; G. Gillies, Hamilton, and J. McMillan, St. John, N.B. They waited upon Sir Charles Tupper, accompanied by Sir Donald Smith and Messrs. Coursol, Curran and Cockburn, M.P.'s, and presented a memorial which protested against any further increase in the duties on paper, blank books and printed books. They next waited upon Postmaster-General McLelan and presented him with a memorial which relates that several years ago the Government entered into an arrangement with the United States whereby all mail matter posted in any part of the United States is delivered in Canada free of extra charge. Experience has shown that this business has operated prejudicially to the business of Canadian booksellers. Under the present system Americans are enabled to mail to Canadian subscribers various periodicals issued in the States at a rate of postage amounting to one cent a pound, while the Canadian dealers cannot mail the same periodicals to the same subscribers at a rate less than one cent per four ounces. The deputation asked that the Canadian rate of postage should be modified so as to permit Canadian booksellers to be placed on an equality with foreign competition. Both memorials will be laid before the Cabinet.

The statement that Sir Adam Archibald will be made leader of the Senate is entirely incorrect. There is no senatorial vacancy in Nova Scotia, whence Sir Adam hails, and though this difficulty might be overcome by the retirement of one of the present senators, that course is not contemplated. Hon. Frank Smith is the present leader, but he assured me to-day that he would not consent to retain the position any length of time, and that the chances were a selection would be made in a few days.

The levee held by the Governor-General in the Senate Camber last evening was most successful. About 4000 attended. The reception lasted an hour and a half.

A deputation headed by C. H. Bishop and Alex. McMichael of Toronto, and introduced by Mr. Small, waited upon the Finance Minister yesterday and urged him to increase the duty on philosophical instruments which are now being manufactured in Toronto.

Dr. G. M. Dawson and William Ogilvie, D.L.S., the leader of the Yukon expedition, have been gazetted Commissioners of Mounted Police. This, it is thought, may prove of service to them in the course of their expedition. The expedition, it is expected, will start on Tuesday.

The Dominion Electric Company, with a capital stock of $500,000, is seeking incorporation. It will manufacture, produce and sell electricity and distribute the same for the purposes of light, heat and power.

Mr. Davin's bill to provide for full representative government in the Northwest Territories will propose a local legislature for that section of the Dominion. The proposition does not meet with much favor here. It will cost too much. In this connection it may be said that on the United States side of the line, between the Red River and the Rocky Mountains, there is a population of 75,000 who have only territorial representation and they have not even what our territories have, representatives with the right to a vote in the Federal Parliament.

The Globe's story that John White, ex-M.P., was here looking for the vacant Postmastership of Belleville, is not true. John White was here, but it was to urge the claim of another applicant. The Government, however, has decided to promote the next senior official qualified for the position who has passed the necessary civil service examination.

A probable re-arrangement of Cabinet portfolios, consequent upon the creation of the new department, is one of the topics of discussion in the lobby. It is stated that the new portfolio will be given to Mr. Chapleau. I would not be surprised to see the Departments of Railways and Canals and Public Works again consolidated, and a general shuffle of portfolios follow.

Mr. Foster has gone down to Victoria to take part in the last two days of the campaign.

It is understood that the estimates will contain a considerable sum to increase the rolling stock of the Intercolonial Railway and bring it up to the level of the splendid service of the Canadian Pacific.

The Cabinet meeting on Saturday lasted from 11 in the morning until 6 in the evening. The estimates were under discussion.

Mr. J. D. and Mrs. Edgar have issued invitations for a dinner party on Thursday next.

Lord Lansdowne, Sir John Macdonald and Nicholas Flood Davin all attended St. Alban's Church this evening.

Lady Macdonald arrived home from Banff Springs on Saturday. Miss Macdonald will remain there a couple of months yet. Lady Macdonald is an enthusiast over Banff.

The relations between the Northwest and Manitoba contingents have become strained over the question of the leadership. Internecine war with the most malignant symptoms has broken out, and a caucus has been called in Room 32 to elect another leader. The friends of both parties are very anxious.

The Rideau floods have entirely subsided and once more contentment reigns, except in the heart of the man who has discovered his last beecoop in the upper branches of an apple tree. The Ottawa is rapidly rising, however. The Chaudiere Falls present a magnificent appearance. Between the water that goes to waste at the falls and the wind that goes to waste in the Commons and Senate Chamber there is enough power wasted in Ottawa every year to drive all the machinery between Dan and Beersheba.

WAR ON PARNELLITES

THE COERCIONISTS ASSAILING THE HOME RULERS OF ALL SIDES.

LONDON, April 18.—The feeling on both sides is rising higher. The scene last night in the House of Commons was most deplorable. Nobody can say how it might have ended but for the efforts of the Speaker, whose conduct wrung exhaltations from the Irish members themselves and from their organ this morning. Major Saunderson's accusations against a portion of the Parnellites was one of which he did not himself seem to feel the force. The Times has, during the last few weeks, continually assumed the leading Parnellites of consorting with criminals. They sat silent under the printed charge which, uttered in the House, they met with cries of "Infernal liar" and "Coward" and threats of personal violence to Maj. Saunderson. The question what may and what may not be said in Parliament is perplexing. The feeling of the House was that the Speaker went very far from his wish to stop what he rightly called a disgraceful scene before the passions had become uncontrollable. The Parnellites insist now that they shall have full time to reply to the charges brought against them by Maj. Saunderson of complicity with the "Invincibles." In addition to last night's riotous scenes, the language of the Unionist Liberals outside of Parliament is raising the passion of the Nationalists to a white heat. The incessant reiteration by Unionist speakers everywhere that the Parnellites are thieves and murderers and a sham, is enraging the latter beyond all bounds. Pamphlets containing statements to the same effect are being scattered broadcast all over the country and are vastly enhancing the volume of feeling on both sides. The war against the Parnellites is being carried even into club circles, where the Unionist cabals are endeavoring to bring about the expulsion of all Irish members from Liberal organizations. Parnell, Gladstone and the other Home Rule leaders are privately exerting their utmost influence to restrain the Home Rulers. They are fully aware that the object of the coercionists is to worry them into an outbreak of violence. Hitherto they have maintained an admirable calmness and reserve. After the Saunderson incident the Parnellites held an informal meeting at which they decided to adopt an attitude of vigorous retaliation during the remainder of the debate on coercion.

The Suspension of Mr. Healy.

LONDON, April 16.—The Conservative Irish members of the House of Commons and the officials of the House met last night after the adjournment of the House and effected an understanding with the Government to have the suspension of Mr. Healy rescinded on Monday next. Mr. Healy spent a great deal of time in the House of Commons library to-day searching for precedents covering his case. He declares that his entire party are prepared to follow his example. Ten Union Liberalists voted with the Tories last night to suspend Mr. Healy. Twenty-seven Gladstone Liberals voted with the Parnellites.

Conflicting Opinions.

LONDON, April 16.—Gen. Sir Redvers Buller has had a conference with Mr. Balfour and Mr. Smith, and has consented to retain his post in Ireland until the Coercion Bill has been put in full operation. He took a sanguine view of the condition of Ireland. He declared that the agitation is diminishing and that the mass of the people are becoming tired of their position and are beginning to believe that the action of the National Land League is driving traders and industries out of the country, and would be glad to be rid of the agitators by almost any means. Buller thinks that if the Crimes Bill becomes an act, and were once more in full swing, Ireland would at once enter upon a quieter and more prosperous era. On the other hand the official opinion of the Dublin Executive is directly at variance with the reports from every Irish source. The country, according to these, is simmering in revolt and needs only such an act as the Crimes Bill to burst into a terrible conflagration of revolution.

A Demonstration in Limerick.

DUBLIN, April 17.—At Limerick to-day 60,000 persons joined in a demonstration against the Coercion Bill. The Mayor presided. A long procession, led by the municipal authorities, marched to the place of meeting. A resolution denouncing the Coercion Bill was passed.

Egan Denounces Saunderson.

LINCOLN, Neb., April 16.—Mr. Patrick Egan, ex-President of the Irish National League of America, and formerly treasurer of the Land League of Dublin and Paris, in an interview to-day regarding the attack made upon him in the debate in the English House of Commons last night, said:

"On several occasions Maj. Saunderson, who is brutal, aggressive and unscrupulous, has been convicted by Mr. Healy and others of deliberately stating that which is not true, and finally he was justly and properly branded by Mr. Sexton as a wilful and cowardly liar. Maj. Saunderson last night charged Mr. Sexton with being present when I was elected president of what he called the Clan-na-Gael Murder Association. What this man refers to is the occasion of my election at a national convention in Boston in 1884 as President of the Irish National League of America, an organization which embraces some of the very best citizens of this country, both lay and clerical, of all religious denominations. But it is the custom with the party and the class to which Major Saunderson belongs to misrepresent Ireland before not only Irish-America, but America generally, its people, its manners, its customs, and its institutions. Saunderson pretended to quote from the Irish World an account of a supper given in celebration of the Phœnix Park murders, at which he had the audacity to say I presided. Not only did I never preside at such a supper, but I never even heard of any such celebration as that indicated. The foul-mouthed attack of a Saunderson and a Chamberlain are the strongest evidences of the desperate straits to which those men and their cause are being driven, and such scenes as that of last night must greatly hasten the inevitable triumph of Ireland's struggle for Home Rule."

TOPICS FROM TORONTO.

Death of the Venerable Dr. McCaul—The Toll Bonds Denounced.

TORONTO, April 18.

John McCaul, graduate in arts and divinity and doctor of laws of Trinity College, Dublin, and for more than forty years connected with the University of Toronto, died in this city on Saturday at the ripe age of 88. The Doctor was a man of remarkable individuality, beloved by all with whom he came in contact. His rich native Irish humor, the playful irony of his sniff, the intimate companionship that existed between the Doctor and his snuff-box, and his many other characteristics, will readily suggest themselves to the minds of all his old students and friends.

The condition of the Attorney-General was decidedly improved last night and it is expected he will take his seat in the House this afternoon.

Rev. T. W. Campbell, who has been rector of the Reformed Episcopal Church for the past year, was formally inducted into that denomination yesterday morning by Bishop Stevens of Charleston, S.C.

A VERY SUDDEN CALL.

DEATH OF A PROMINENT TORONTO CITIZEN.

TORONTO, April 18.

About 3 o'clock Saturday afternoon Sheriff Frederick William Jarvis left his office in the Court House and walked to the corner of Church and Adelaide-streets. As was his custom, he called Cabman R. Paul to drive him to his residence at the southeast corner of Jarvis and Wellesley-streets. The carriage proceeded up Church-street, and when near Gerrard Mr. Jarvis tapped on the window and told the driver to walk his horses, saying that he felt ill and could not stand the jar of fast driving. Then in a minute or two he again tapped on the window, saying that he was feeling much worse. He told Mr. Paul to stop at the residence of Mr. James H. Rogers, at 295 Church-street, at which locality the cab had then reached.

The Sheriff was assisted into a parlor and he lay down on a sofa. He looked very ill and fatigued. His physician, Dr. H. C. Burritt of 84 Wellesley-street, was at once summoned. The doctor knew in a moment what was the trouble, and administered medicines for the disease from which Mr. Jarvis had suffered for a number of years. He rallied several times before death intervened, which occurred at 10 o'clock in the evening. Dr. Burritt did not anticipate a fatal ending when he left his patient at 9.30, and it was intended that Mr. Jarvis was to be left where he was during the night and removed home Sunday morning. Death resulted from fabrosis, a fabroid or fatty growth on the heart. Sheriff Jarvis had suffered from this disease for a number of years, and it was well known to his physician and his family that his end would be sudden. He remained conscious up to the moment of death, which came shortly after raising on the sofa for a moment and then lying down again. Mrs. Jarvis and two of the Sheriff's sons were present during the last few hours of life. The remains were conveyed to the family residence shortly after death.

The office of Sheriff of the County of York, which includes the City of Toronto, is the most lucrative position in the gift of the Ontario Government; in fact it is doubtful if in the whole Dominion there is one more so. The gross receipts of the office for several years back have been in the neighborhood of $20,000, about half of which is disbursed in expenses, the other half going to the sheriff. In the days when all the bankrupt estates went through the sheriff's office the emoluments have been known to run as high as $15,000 per annum.

Of course the news of the death of such a prominent official as the sheriff of York spread through the city rapidly. The question of a successor was freely talked about in the clubs, hotels and among the members of the Legislature who remained in the city over Sunday. At the Reform Club a long list of prominent Liberals was discussed as likely aspirants or gentlemen who have claims on the Government. Among them were Hon. A. S. Hardy, John Leys, M.P.P., Peter Ryan, A. F. Irving, J. A. Proctor, Alex. Boyd, Rev. Dr. Burns of Hamilton, Adjutant F. F. Manly, Col. Allen, Major R. Hamilton, J. Gordon Brown, Hon. T. W. Anglin, Harry J. Nolan, Dr. J. H. Widdifield, M.P.P., Robert Jaffray, ex-Ald. George Evans, Ald. McMillan, W. H. McMurrich, John Scully, G. B. Smith, M.P.P., John Hallam, Ald. Elliott and others equally well known in the party.

A prominent (a very prominent), Conservative said to a reporter: "Hon. S. C. Wood holds a strong claim on such an important office." An equally prominent Reformer said he did not think Mr. Wood would seek the position, "but it might seek him," he added.

Said a member of the Legislature: "The shrievalty of York is the finest office in the gift of any government in Canada, a place that ought to go to a man of provincial reputation and one of undoubted service to the party. Of all the men in the House, Hon. T. B. Pardee is the one who would have first claims if he saw fit to take it. He is the oldest member of the Assembly and of the Government, and a long life Reformer. I do not think myself that Mr. Pardee would care to retire, and I know the Government would hardly consent to his going, but should he think that the time had come for him to drop the turmoil of politics no one could say him nay in the office, and the entire party would give it him by acclamation."

Still another member said: "I think the Legislature ought to pass an act dividing the office between two, a city sheriff and a county sheriff. The fees are healthy and robust enough to support two sheriffs handsomely."

A PERILOUS POSITION.

MRS. RYCKMAN OF THEDFORD HELD ON A GRAVE CHARGE.

SARNIA, Ont., April 16.—Excitement over the Ryckman poisoning case still prevails. Interest in the case is increasing and it is the principal topic of conversation throughout the county. The report of the analysis of the stomach of the late Mrs. Hendricks by Dr. Ellis of Toronto is awaited with eagerness. Mrs. Ryckman's incarceration at Sarnia since Good Friday, when she was remanded to jail for eight days pending the result of the inquest, has had such a depressing effect on her that she was too ill to appear before the judge at Sarnia yesterday. The judge informally remanded her for another eight days. Before the end of that time it is expected that the coroner's jury will return a verdict. If that verdict implicates Mrs. Ryckman she probably will be taken to Thedford for a preliminary investigation into the case. If the verdict does not implicate her then it is likely that she will be held in order to see what action the authorities in Virginia will take in the Laura Ryckman case.

Mrs. Ryckman had accompanied Laura and Gray Ryckman to Virginia last fall, and while there Laura died under very suspicious circumstances. It is stated that Mrs. Ryckman took from Thedford to Virginia with her sufficient poison to kill 300 men, and that when she remainder of it was produced a few weeks ago and was weighed it was found that which was missing would, if judiciously used, kill 150 men. Many people in Thedford think that the circumstances attending the deaths that have occurred in the Ryckman family would have justified an investigation years ago similar to the present one. Mrs. Ryckman, however, had many friends in the church which she attended. The family was well off and met without some influence in Thedford, and apparently no one cared to take any steps in the matter till the suspicious death of Mrs. Hendricks moved Caleb Kennedy to request a post mortem examination on the body of his niece, Laura Ryckman.

The Ryckmans came to Thedford about twenty-five years ago from Kincardine. The family consisted of three sons and three daughters. The couple worked hard and accumulated considerable wealth. Their farm of 100 acres, now within the corporation of Thedford, is worth $3000 or $4000. The couple did not live happily together. Mrs. Ryckman, whose maiden name was [illegible] was married [illegible] and [illegible] was married for [illegible]. The Attorney-General's Department is in communication with Virginia authorities as to the death of Mrs. Laura Ryckman in that state.

THE PARLIAMENT BUILDINGS MATTER.

During and since the provincial elections the Conservative stumpers and journals made and have made an extravagant ado about the Parliament buildings "job" as they are wont to call the contract for new buildings. All sorts of iniquities were darkly hinted at, and it was asserted that a terrible state of things would be disclosed when the Legislature met, and the papers relating to the matter were brought down. Well, Parliament has met, and the papers have been brought down, but the mare's nest has been found to be empty. At the elections the people expressed their disbelief in the charges that the Government had pursued an unconstitutional and dishonest course in connection with the matter of the Parliament Buildings and endorsed their action in relation thereto, by returning the government to power by a very largely increased majority. And the submission of the papers, and the full explanation of the Commissioner of Public Works, gives ample justification for the public confidence in the Government. By a majority of nearly two to one the contract was ratified. In the resume of the proceedings of the Legislature published on Saturday, in the EXAMINER, the facts in connection with the matter are explained, and he must be a very narrow minded partizan who will condemn the Government for the course it took in connection with the preparation of the plans and the signing of the contract for the erection of the new Provincial Government buildings. It is not to be expected that suitable Parliament buildings for the Province of Ontario can be built for a trifle, and it is expected that the cost will amount to something like a million of dollars, half a dollar a head for the population of the greatest Province of the Confederation, and the past record of the Ontario Government leads to the belief that not one dollar, but what is absolutely necessary in the public interest, will be expended.

The apologists of the Dominion Government who can easily bring themselves to the defence of the most ruinous and scandalous extravagance, are doing their little best to discredit the Mowat Administration in respect of the new Parliament buildings, and are disposed to deplore their large cost. It is true the buildings will cost a considerable sum of money, but there is no ground for contending that the buildings will not be worth every cent of the cost. At the outmost extent of possible cost, the buildings will have cost less than the Parliament buildings of Quebec, a less important Province, and so long as Parliament sanctions a large expenditure for necessary work, the Government cannot be properly charged with blame in the matter. It has been the aim of the Government to proceed as economically as possible consistently with efficiency. In 1880 the Government proceeded on the assumption that $500,000 would be sufficient to erect suitable buildings, and the Legislature authorized the expenditure of that amount. According to invitation, sixteen designs were sent in, but it was found that of these only three were worthy of attention. According to the reports of experts who examined them these plans would have cost $2,500,000, a wide discrepancy between what competant architects thought was required in the way of parliament buildings, and the estimate of the Legislature. In 1885 the House by a majority of two to one decided to appropriate $750,000 for new buildings, but on examination, it was found that the plans which could be carried out for this amount were entirely unsuitable, and the Government felt themselves bound to do the best they could for the people of Ontario. Accordingly, Mr. Waite, of Buffalo, was insured to prepare the new plans that were necessary. Mr. Waite, though residing in Buffalo, is an Englishman, an English architect, and the son of an English Engineer —and stands at the head of his profession on this continent. The government made a close bargain with Mr. Waite, stipulating that he would have commission only on the amount appropriated, $750,000, no matter what excess might be necessary. Tenders were invited, and the lowest—for the brick work and masonry, was $752,000. The contract was let, and the Legislature has ratified it, and in addition, the people of Ontario at the recent elections endorsed the action of the government in the matter in prosecuting in so overwhelming a manner in favor of the general course. Now every member who voted for the ratification of the contract, and many who voted against it for political reasons, believe that the country will get full value for every cent expended. The buildings in question are designed to last for all time, and there can be no doubt that it would be false economy to erect insufficient buildings under such conditions, for the purpose of saving a little present outlay. What is worth doing, is worth doing well, and no Ontario elector will grudge the money, within the limits required, necessary for the erection of public buildings that will be a credit to the most progressive province of the Dominion.

LEGISLATURE OF ONTARIO.

Sixth Parliament—First Session.

FRIDAY, April 15th.

The Speaker took the chair at three o'clock. The following bills were read the third time and passed:—Respecting the city of Ottawa, to incorporate the Fort Erie Ferry Railway Company; to incorporate the town of Gravenhurst, Westport and Sault St. Marie Railway Company; respecting the city of Toronto.

A bill was introduced to further amend the Act relating to the new Parliament buildings, and further correspondence relating to the plans of the Parliament buildings was brought down.

Several private bills were advanced a stage.

The bill to unite Toronto Baptist College and Woodstock College under the name of McMaster University was read a second time.

The House went into committee on bill respecting distress for rent and taxes, and reported the bill.

The House went again into committie on the University Federation bill. A substitute for section 57 provides that there shall not be any transfer of subjects between the University and University College without the unanimous consent of the members of the Senate present at a special meeting. He stated that the Methodist Conference Special Committee asked that the consent of the federating minority should be necessary to a transfer, but he preferred to put it in that form. The suggestion was adopted and the committee rose and reported.

The bill respecting the taxation of patented lands in Algoma was passed through committee.

The following bills were read the second time:—To amend the Ontario Factories Act, 1884; to make further provision for the Public Health; to amend the Workmen's Compensation for injuries. Hon. Mr. Pardee moved that when the House adjourn it stand adjourned till Monday. The motion was carried, and the House adjourned at 10.30 p.m.

The Queen's Jubilee.

To the Editor of the Examiner:

As there seems to be little or no move on the part of our citizens towards celebrating the Queen's Jubilee, I would like to make a suggestion. Now, sir, I would be pleased to see all the musical talent of Peterborough brought together for the occasion and have one grand musical festival on that day, say all the choirs of the different churches, the band, for purposes of accompaniment, and all singers outside the church choirs. I think we ought to raise about two hundred singers. What a grand effect that would have! This would be something Peterborough has never had before. I am sure if our church choirs and their leaders would think favorably of it and go into it with a will, we might have something on that day that would be a credit to our town. I would like to see this accomplished, and the concert given in the Court House Park, so that every one could enjoy it, and everybody join in singing our National Anthem, "God Save the Queen." I would also suggest the following pieces be taken up by the band and singers:

Gloria—12th Mass.....Mozart
"But the Lord is Mindful of His Own."—St. Paul.....Mendelssohn
"Hallelujah"—Messiah.....Handel

The band could fill up the programme. I would like to hear from other musicians of the town on the matter. Thanking you, sir, for your valuable space, I remain

Yours, etc.,
F. W. MILLAR,
Bandmaster.

COUNCIL MEETING.

The regular meeting of the Village Council was held in the Council chamber on Monday evening, the 11th inst.

Present—the Reeve in the chair, Councillors Cox, Henderson and Watson.

Minutes of last regular meeting read and adopted.

A numerously signed petition was presented to the Council requesting them to grant a sum to erect a band stand on the village square, so that the band would have a place to play in public during the summer evenings.

Moved by Mr. Henderson, seconded by Mr. Cox, that, in compliance with the petition of Messrs. Casement, Madill, Sherin, Eastland and others, asking the Council to build a stand for the band on the market square, this Council grant the sum of $40, provided that a stand be erected in accordance with plans to be submitted to this Council, with specifications and estimates showing cost.—Carried.

Moved by Mr. Henderson, seconded by Mr. Cox, that Mr. Peter Baptie's tender for plank at $11.25 per M, and stringers at 3c. per lineal foot, is hereby accepted.—Carried.

Moved by Mr. Watson, seconded by Mr. Cox, that the clerk is hereby instructed to write to A. F. Wood, Esq., Dominion Government Commissioner requesting him to name day to meet the Council for the purpose of fixing the amount of damage done to certain streets in this corporation by raising the dam at Lakefield.—Carried.

Moved by Mr. Henderson, seconded by Cox, that the time for returning the assessment roll by the assessor to the village clerk is hereby extended until May 15th, 1887.—Carried.

Moved by Mr. Henderson, seconded by Mr. Cox, that the clerk is hereby authorized to procure two assessment rolls.—Carried.

Moved by Mr. Watson, seconded by Mr. Cox, that the following accounts be paid, and that the Reeve's order do issue for the same:—

Jas. Watson, wages.....caretaking of Hall	$6 75 / 5 25
Village Clerk, quarter's postage, &c	2 85
Total	$14 85

—Carried.

Moved by Mr. Henderson, seconded by Mr. Watson—That this council grant Mr. David Smith the privilege of building a platform at the north end of his shop, overhanging Concession street, provided he does such erection with the public injured.—Carried.

Moved by Mr. Watson, seconded by Mr. Henderson—That the Clerk be hereby instructed to stop the firing of firecrackers on streets or sidewalks within the corporation.—Carried.

Moved by Mr. Henderson, seconded by Mr. Cox—That the Clerk prepare a by-law to prohibit the firing of firecrackers within the corporation. Also one to appoint a village constable.—Carried.

Moved by Mr. Watson, seconded by Mr. Cox—That Councillors Cox and Henderson be a fire committee to look after the engines, ladders, &c., with power to make any repairs required.—Carried.

Moved by Mr. Henderson, seconded by Mr. Cox—That the Clerk call a public meeting for next Monday night to organize a fire brigade.—Carried.

Moved by Mr. Henderson, seconded by Mr. Cox—That this council do now adjourn to meet at the call of the Reeve.—Carried.

GOUGH'S

Fresh Arrival of Spring Overcoats and Suits are the Newest, Nobbiest, and Cheapest under the Sun!!

Those High-Priced Clothing Dealers can't see the funny about Gough's GIFT Department, and Claim such things are beneath them—Yes, low Advertising is beyond their comprehension, because they don't understand the first principles of Low Price System. We freely admit that we are fallen Clothiers, wallowing in the lowest depths of Bed Rock Prices, while our exalted brethren look down upon us from their high places, and go wild because we Capture the Trade.

Farmers, Mechanics, Merchants, Bankers and Laboring Men, come in and see us. Take no man's word, investigate and believe your own eyes, and you will be convinced that GOUGH is the cheapest Clothier on Earth.

THIS WEEK we will offer Extraordinary Inducements. All our Departments have been augmented with new features and choice Stock, which will justly excite the admiration of all visitors. Call, it will pay as well as please you to see—

GOUGH, the WONDERFUL CHEAP MAN!

BRIGHT PROSPECTS
FOR A BIG SPRING TRADE AT
THE CITY CLOTHING STORE.

I have completed my Stock of Cloths, Clothing and Furnishings, for Spring and Summer Wear. The Cloths are the Pick of the best markets and of the most Fashionable Patterns.

SPRING OVER-COATS. I have a large line of handsome and durable materials so Cheap that any one can afford to have a Spring Overcoat. Nothing is more needed at this Season of the year than Light Weight Overcoat.

CUSTOM WORK. OUR CUSTOM WORK will still keep its high rank. Fit, Style and Finish is our hobby. Our Cutter, Mr. DRESSER, is as painstaking and exact as ever, and we undertake to turn out suits equal to any in the Dominion. Suits made up to Order on Short notice.

READY-MADE CLOTHING. I can now show a Stock which has the Style and Finish of Ordered Clothing, in Men's, Boys and Youth's Suits, and at Prices that will astonish you. For example: TWEED SUITS at $5.00, $7.00, and $9.00; WORSTED SUITS at $10.00 and $12.00. BOYS SUITS actually as low as $2.00. If you don't understand how we can do this, and give a good article, too, come in and see for yourselves. The percentage on all our Clothing is close, to be sure, but our facilities for buying at lowest market prices are unsurpassed by any in trade. Bear in mind, too, that our Clothing is all good. Undergrade Clothing may be offered to buyers elsewhere, but not at the City Clothing Store. Sign of the Golden Horse Shoe, symbolical of Good Luck to all who pass in under.

GULF MONSTERS.

Stories of the Rapacious Shark and the Gigantic Devil Fish.

The gulf of Mexico and Galveston bay are both favorite resorts of many members of the shark family, some of which attain large size, there having been on exhibition at the sheriff's office for months the jaws of one of these monsters, armed with three rows of savage teeth, which when opened could easily be placed over the shoulders of a large man, says the Galveston News. The monster to which these sanguinary appendages pertained measured when in good health seventeen feet from tip of nose to end of tail. Of the hundred different species known perhaps a half-dozen inhabit these waters, and although both formidable and repulsive in appearance there are no well-authenticated instances since the settlement of the city of their having attacked men, although they are both voracious and fearless when hungry, as the following incident will show: Last summer as the quarantine steamer Hygeia was coming in from outside the bar a large school of porpoises were playing round the vessel, when the engineer, "Billy" Bristol, opened fire on them with an old-fashioned 45-calibre revolver, and by a chance shot killed one. The vessel was stopped, the porpoise, which would weigh several hundred pounds, secured by a noose round the tail and left hanging over the ship's side head down in the water. Within a very few moments a huge shark, probably eighteen feet in length, made a rush for the porpoise and, although fired upon, cut it in twain, and then shortly after made another rush for the remainder and bit that in two just above the tail, which was left hanging, and made off, despite the fact that two pistol shots were fired into its head without any apparent effect. On the last rush the shark's head was well out of water, and when fired on was not more than three or four feet from the pistol's muzzle.

No small degree of excitement was caused in the city during the latter part of July, 1885, by the visit to the gulf shores of a school of fish known as the cephaloptera vampyrus, or devil fish, one of which was captured and placed on exhibition. The fish captured measured 8 feet in length and 16 feet 4 inches in breadth, and weighed several thousand pounds. A description given at the time was as follows: "Head truncated in front and provided with a pointed wing-like process separate from the pectoral fins, and seemingly capable of independent motion. These wings, or horns, provided on either side of the head, are 2 feet 2 inches in length, triangular in shape, resembling wings, making the transverse diameter of the fish greater than the longitudinal, with tail included. These pectorals from tip to tip measure 16 feet 4 inches, while the body proper is only 8 feet in length and the tail about 3 1-2 feet. The jaws are at the end of the head, the lower the more advanced, and the transverse diameter of the mouth measures 2 feet 10 inches. The eyes are small and lateral, resembling those of an elephant, and are situated on either outer side of the protruding wings, or frontal horns, and are consequently about three feet apart. The tail is elongated like a whiplash, armed near the root with a prominently serrated spinal protuberance. The teeth are small, numerous, flat, and arranged in many rows. The mouth when opened could easily accommodate a flour-barrel. The nostrils are small, and are situated near the angles of the mouth, and openings, which are probably the ears, are situated on the dorsal aspect of the appendages of the head behind the eyes. Several large linear openings (five on each side) are in the stomach. The skin is rough to the touch, of a blackish brown, and the belly is white and very slimy.

"For contemplation he, and valor formed,
For softness she, and sweet attractive grace."

John Milton in his "Paradise Lost" thus distinguishes woman from man. Diseases fall to her lot that do not to man's, peculiar to her soft and more refined nature. A remedy adapted to the cure of her peculiar diseases is found in Dr. R. V. Pierce's "Favorite Prescription," for women. Thousands who have used it attest its great worth. 6dw17

A Severe Attack.

"I never felt better in my life than I have since taking Burdock Blood Bitters. I had a severe bilious attack; I could not eat for several days, and was unable to work. One bottle cured me." John M. Richards, Sr., Tara, Ont. For all bilious troubles use B. B. B. 2w17d

Happy Life.

What a truly beautiful world we live in! Nature gives us grandeur of mountains, glens and oceans, and thousands of means of enjoyment. We can desire no better when in perfect health; but how often do the wretchedly of people feel like giving it up disheartened, discouraged and worn out with disease, when, [illegible] Burdock Blood Bitters, will make them feel like new beings. Dyspepsia and Liver Complaints are the direct causes of seventy-five per cent. of such maladies as Biliousness, Indigestion, Sick Headache, Costiveness, Nervous Prostration, Dizziness of the head, Palpitation of the Heart, and other distressing symptoms. Three doses of August Flower will prove its wonderful effect. Sample bottle, 10 cents. Try it. 6dw17

Have You Thought About It?

Pain is one of the sure things of life, and it becomes then a most important question to have at hand the quickest and most efficient remedy. Polson's NERVILINE cannot fail to cure cramps, toothache, neuralgia, headache and all pain, internal or external. Nerviline is the most perfect combination ever offered to the public for the relief of pain. It will not cost you much to try it, for you can buy at any drug store for 10c. a trial bottle, which will convince you of its mighty pain relieving power. 6dw17

There are many remedies for coughs and colds, but there are few that prove so satisfactory as Hagyard's Pectoral Balsam, which is a pleasant and reliable cure for all throat and lung troubles, including bronchitis, asthma, croup, whooping cough and the pulmonary complaints of young or old. 2w17d

An Assuring Reply.

All druggists. dwd

The breath of a chronic catarrh patient is often so offensive that he cannot go into society and he becomes an object of disgust. After a time ulceration sets in, the spongy bones are attacked, and frequently, entirely destroyed. A constant source of discomfort is the dripping of the purulent secretions into the throat, sometimes producing irritative bronchitis, which in the term has been the exciting cause of pulmonary disease. The brilliant results which have attended its use for years past properly designate Ely's Cream Balm as by far the best, if not the only real cure for hay fever, rose cold, and catarrh. eodw17

Catarrh of Years' Standing Cured.

N. WASHINGTON, M. D., Throat and Lung Surgeon, Toronto.

DEAR SIR,—I am pleased to be able to state to you that I am now free from Catarrh. It is almost incredible that in so short a time I could have been cured of Catarrh, which was a part of my health for years. A little over two months ago I took treatment from you, and to-day the Catarrh is entirely cured. Your treatment is simply a marvel. I will heartily recommend any of my friends personally, and would suggest to all who troubled the advisability of consulting you immediately. Accept my many thanks.

Yours etc.,

J. P. DUNN,
C. P. R. Agent, Peterborough, Ont.

P.S.—Use this as you deem prudent.

Oddfellows Anniversary.

A social entertainment will be given in the Hall of Otonabee Lodge No. 13, I.O.O.F., corner George and Hunter Streets, on the evening of the 69th anniversary of the Order in America, April 26th. Members of the Order will be supplied with tickets this evening, at No. 13.

"Old Soldiers."

This is the title of a sparkling comedy-drama, by H. J. Byron, which is to be presented in Bradburn's Opera House, on Thursday evening, April 28th, under the auspices and for the benefit of the Peterborough Amateur Athletic Association. The cast has been made and the piece has several times been under rehearsal. It will be well put on, and will, no doubt, receive the cordial support which the merits of the play and the Association are deserving of.

Call at Turnbull's for Hosiery and Gloves; a choice selection of all kinds always in stock.

A Week Trade.

Last week a farmer came to town and put up at an hotel, while in the yard he was accosted by the stable-boy, a young man of 19 or 20, who wanted to know if he had a watch to trade. The farmer produced his watch, to all appearances of genuine gold, and named the amount of "boot" he wanted. The two parleyed for a while and finally made a dicker, the former getting a silver watch and $10 for his own. In the evening the young man wanted to trade back, alleging that he had been sold, but the farmer refused, and the young man swore out a warrant for his arrest. On Saturday evening he he was arrested by P.C. Pidgeon, and at the police station told his story, which was to the effect that he didn't want to trade, but the boy urged him and pushed the matter until he acquiesced. In making the trade he said he used no illegitimate means or misrepresentations, telling the young man just what he knew about the watch, that he had had it only a short time, and had in his possession a warrant of its value. He was released on bail as the matter was settled before coming into court. This should act as a warning against the two-free indulgence of one's trading fancies.

Puzzled Out, if You Can.

"I have been very much bothered lately," said a horse dealer recently, "with a question arising out of a deal, which has been to me a source of greater annoyance than the 16-puzzle. I sold a horse to B for $80. In a few days he came back with the horse, and I repurchased the animal for $70. I then immediately resold him for $85. The question is, 'How much did I gain or lose on the transaction?' When I bought the horse back for $70 I certainly made $10, and when I sold again for $85 I assuredly lost $5. Now, if I gain $10 and lose $5, my net gain is, it seems to me, $5. But, on the other hand, after my first sale I had no horse and $80, while after my second sale I had no horse and only $75, consequently I must have lost $5. At one time, when I think over the matter, I congratulate myself on having pocketed a 'V' through sharp dealing, while at another I feel like going around behind the barn and kicking myself for having been such a blank fool."

Repairing.

Mr. H. LeBrun's store has been in a disordered state consequent upon extensive repairs being made, but as these are now about completed, the store will soon be in a better condition than ever. A new birch floor has been laid, the counters topped, new plate glass windows are being put in alongside the door, and a new glass door will be swung. Besides these, other minor repairs have been made, which go to make the store one of the best equipted and neatest in town.

A change is being made in the interrial arrangements of the uptown C. P. R. office. The ticket office, located near the door, has been transferred alongside the telegraph department. A handsome front has been erected along the counter which runs across the floor, behind which are the two departments side by side. The re-arrangement will result in greater convenience for all parties.

A Good Idea.

It may not be generally known in the community that a man and his wife can get a joint life policy, payable to the surviving partner, at one-third less in cost, which policies are issued by the British Empire Mutual Life Insurance Company, represented by Mr. E. E. Henderson, general agent, a very desirable provision to make for the domestic firm. The policies have no conditions whatever, being absolutely free and indisputable. The cost is within the reach of all, and the security is beyond question. Office established in 1847. Those to whom this is commended are invited to call at the office, over Tully's drug store, George street, and get the rates. Women can insure independently if they wish in this office. Policies payable as directed.

Turnbull is showing a good, unlaundried White Skirt at 40c. each.

Fruit Crop Prospects.

It is asserted by persons who have observed the weather signs for many years that the present year will be a good one for large yields of all kinds of fruit. They base their faith in this from the fact that the snow and ice this year has clung tenaciously to the barks of the trees. Whenever this is the case, it has been noticed the ensuing season is marked by large fruit yields.

Peterborough's Progress.

Building operations are promising this season. One of Peterborough's most enterprising and successful contractors told the Examiner that he had booked more contracts so far this season than he had at the same time last year. This looks well, and if it can be taken as a criterion of the season's building operations, prospects are indeed excellent for an active building season this summer.

Baseball.

The baseball club was reorganized on Wednesday evening, and the following officers elected:—Honorary President, Mr. Wm. McFarlane; President, Mr. P. P. Young; Vice-President, Mr. J. Belleghem; Secretary-Treasurer, Mr. F. J. Young; Captain, Mr. Thos. N. Lee.

Ground committee:—Messrs. P. P. Young, J. Belleghem, and J. A. Johnston.

Property committee:—D. Godfrey and H. J. Harvey.

The club embraces material enough for a first-class nine, and if our citizens only give it the moral and pecuniary support which it deserves, we are sure it will prove a credit, both to its members and the village.

The Berlin Amateur Athletic Association, with a capital stock of [illegible], has been incorporated.

Cobourg Bicycle Club has organized for the season. There are now twenty-eight wheels in Cobourg.

A club was formed in Toronto a few months ago, under the name of the "Boys' Homing Club," for the purpose of cultivating a taste for breeding and training the homing pigeon.

The first bicycle club in Canada to become incorporated is the "Wanderers' Bicycle Club of Toronto," whose incorporation is dated April 16 last. The first five named officers in the charter are C. H. Riggs, Chas. Robinson, G. M. Orr, L. A. McIlrien and F. J. Morphy.

The annual meeting of the Aurora Cricket Club was held Wednesday evening when officers were elected: Hon. President, Richard Wells; President, W. H. Perram; First Vice-President, F. T. Deville; Second Vice-President, Dr. Rutherford; Secretary and Treasurer, W. H. Nelson; Committee, Messrs. Stevenson, Fleury, Wheadon, Quarrie and Braund; Captain, D. McDonald.

Edward Hanlan has begun training for his race with Gaudaur on the Charles River, Boston, May 23. He is thirty pounds over weight at present, but as he is easily conditioned he will be in good trim for the event. With good water and a pleasant day Hanlan predicts that the three-mile record will be beaten. Aside from the general interest that attaches itself to a match between such first-class oarsman, the race will be still more attractive from the fact that Hanlan will row a new style which he recently discovered. This method involves a peculiar way of making the stroke. Hanlan leaves for Australia Aug. 1.

New Tug of War Rules.

Members of athletic clubs will be interested in the following new rules for the tug-of-war framed by the English Amateur Athletic Association:

The teams shall consist of equal numbers of competitors. The rope shall be of sufficient length to allow for a "pull" of twelve feet, and for twelve feet slack at each end, together with four feet for each competitor, it shall not be less than four inches in circumference, and shall be without knots or other holdings for the hands. A centre tape shall be affixed to the centre of the rope, and six feet on each side of the centre tape two side tapes shall be affixed to the rope. A centre line shall be marked on the ground, and six feet on either side of the centre line, two side lines parallel thereto. At the start the rope shall be taut, and the centre tape shall be over the centre line, and the competitors shall be outside the side lines.

The start shall be by word of mouth. During no part of the pull shall the foot of any competitor go beyond the centre line. The pull shall be won when one team shall have pulled the side tape of the opposing side over their own side line. No competitor shall wear boots or shoes with any projecting nails, spriggs or points of any kind. No competitor shall make any hole in the ground with his feet, or in any other way before the start. No competitor shall wilfully touch the ground with any part of his person but his feet. If the competition is for teams limited in weight, each competitor shall be weighed before the start. The final heat shall be won by two pulls out of three.

Drove Over an Embankment.

Lindsay, Ont., April 16.—Mr. Barron, M.P., and Mr. A. Mallon, a prominent citizen of Lindsay, left here last evening to speak at a political meeting in South Victoria, held in the interest of Mr. Keedler, the Liberal candidate. The night became intensely dark, and when about three miles from O'Keall's school house the horse and carriage went over an embankment fifteen feet high. Both gentlemen escaped with a few bruises. The bridge of Mr. Mallon's nose was broken. With the aid of a lantern Mr. Mallon started on foot to fulfil his engagement.

London, April 17.—It is reported that an English steamer has foundered off Bonifacio, Corsica, and that 150 lives were lost.

A MISSOURI HANGING.

Ten Thousand Persons Gather to Witness an Execution.

Cassville, Mo., April 16.—E. F. Clum was hanged here yesterday for the murder of Miss Ella Bowe on July 8 last. Fully 10,000 people from the surrounding country gathered to witness the execution. Clum was greatly affected and cried bitterly. At times he would try to cheer himself by singing hymns. On the scaffold he said he was prepared to die. At 2.50 p.m. the black cap was drawn over his head, the noose was adjusted and at 2.55 the drop fell. In thirteen minutes life was pronounced extinct. He fell four feet and died without a struggle. Early in 1886 J. J. White ran away with Clum's wife from Walworth, N.Y., and he followed them. Meeting White in company with Ella Bowe he killed both. He admitted killing White, but denied the killing of Ella, but the testimony of witnesses left no doubt as to his guilt.

THE BIBLE IN THE SCHOOLS.

Two Amendments to Mr. Ross' Bill Before the Legislature.

TORONTO, April 19.—The Legislature sat till 1.35 this morning. Yesterday morning the Minister of Education received a deputation of twenty city clergymen representing the Toronto Ministerial Association, who impressed upon the Minister the duty of proper religious training in the public schools. The deputation also made several protests against the present mode of conducting the separate schools. The Minister informed the deputation that the School Act provided that clergymen of any denomination could give religious training in any public school at least once a week. The Minister held that it was the duty of the teachers to furnish this training. The deputation then withdrew.

The whole of the time of the House, from 3.30 in the afternoon to 1.35 this morning, was taken up in discussing Mr. Ross' bill respecting the Education Department. When the bill was called up for a third reading, Mr. Meredith spoke for an hour. He went over lengthy arguments in rebuttal of the charge that the Conservative party was responsible for the No Popery cry of the late campaign. He then moved the following amendment to the bill:

Moved in amendment by Mr. Meredith and Mr. Creighton, that the said bill be not now read the third time, but be forthwith referred back to the committee of the whole House, with instructions to amend the same by adding thereto the following sections:

2. All regulations of the Education Department relating to the subject of religious instruction in the public schools and high schools are hereby repealed.

3. Every public and high school shall be opened with the Lord's Prayer and closed with the Lord's Prayer or the prayer the form of which appears in the present regulations.

4. If the teachers see fit they may direct that the reading of the Holy Scriptures shall take place in closing instead of in opening the school, and they may prescribe the portions of the Holy Scriptures to be read on each or any day.

5. No pupil shall be required to take part in the exercises referred to in the third and fourth sections of this act against the wish of his parent or guardian, expressed in writing to the master of the school.

6. When required by the trustees the Ten Commandments shall be repeated at least once a week.

7. The trustees shall place a copy of the Holy Scriptures in each department of the high and public schools under their jurisdiction.

8. Where a teacher claims to have conscientious scruples against opening and closing the school as herein provided, he shall notify the trustees to that effect in writing.

9. The portions of the Holy Scriptures read shall be read without comment or explanation.

10. The clergymen of any denomination, or their authorized representatives, shall have the right to give religious instruction to the pupils of their own denomination in each school house at least once a week after the hour of closing the school in the afternoon; and if the clergymen of more than one denomination apply to give religious instruction in the same school house, the trustees shall decide on what day of the week the school house shall be at the disposal of the clergymen of each denomination at the time hereinbefore mentioned; but it shall be lawful for the trustees and the clergymen of any denomination to agree upon any hour of the day at which a clergyman or his authorized representative may give religious instructions to the pupils of his own denomination, provided it be not during the regular hours of school, and the clergymen of several denominations may unite in giving religious instruction to the pupils of all such denominations.

Mr. Ross replied in an hour's speech to Mr. Meredith. He said the organ of the Conservative party, the Mail, had attacked the Roman Catholics of Quebec and Ontario. Mr. Meredith had never repudiated these attacks of the Mail and he (Mr. Ross) would hold the party responsible until such a repudiation took place.

Mr. Mowat was present for fifteen minutes at the evening session. He moved the following in amendment to Mr. Meredith's amendment and left the House:

Moved in amendment to the amendment by the Attorney-General and Mr. Pardee. That all words of the amendment after the word "that" be omitted and instead thereof there be inserted the following: "That there be added to the original motion these words: 'And the Government having announced that before the close of the present session, there will, with a view to the same being under the statute in that behalf, either ratified or disapproved of, be laid before this House the following regulations relating to religious exercises in the public and high schools of this province, viz.:

1. Every public and high school shall be opened with the Lord's Prayer and closed with the reading of the Lord's Prayer, or the prayer authorized by the Department of Education.

2. The Scriptures shall be read daily by each pupil at such time during the school hours as may be determined by the trustees, and the portions to be taken from the books of selections authorized by the Department for that purpose from the Bible, and the trustees by resolution may direct.

3. Trustees may also cause the Scriptures in the Bible version authorized by the Department to be read by pupils and teachers at the opening and closing of the school, and also repeating of the Ten Commandments at least once a week.

4. No pupil shall be required to take part in any religious exercises objected to by his parents or guardians, and, in order to the observance of this regulation, the teacher, before commencing a religious exercise, shall allow a short interval for absence during which the children of Roman Catholics and of others who have similar objections may return.

5. A pupil in virtue of the right to be absent from the religious exercises may avail himself of the school privileges on other days when such exercises are not held, subject to the regulations in force for other pupils in the school in the forenoon, and such pupil shall not be treated as an offender against the rules of the school.

6. Where a teacher claims to have conscientious scruples in regard to opening or closing the school as herein provided, he shall notify the trustees to that effect in writing, and it shall be the duty of the trustees to make such provisions in the premises as the case may demand.

7. The clergymen of any denomination, or their authorized representatives, shall have the right to give religious instruction to the pupils of their own church in each school house at least once a week after the hour of closing the school in the afternoon; and if the clergymen of more than one denomination apply to give religious instruction in the same school house, the trustees shall decide on what day of the week the school house shall be at the disposal of the clergymen of each denomination at the time hereinbefore mentioned; but it shall be lawful for the trustees and the clergymen of any denomination to agree upon any hour of the day at which a clergyman or his authorized representative may give religious instructions to the pupils of his own denomination, provided it be not during the regular hours of school, and the clergymen of several denominations may unite in giving religious instruction to the pupils of all such denominations.

8. Under these regulations no pupil shall be required to be present at religious exercises if his parents or guardians object thereto, but if they do not object they will be entitled to have the same free as at present, and the regulations now in force shall not be altered by this act, and that therefore it is not necessary to consider whether or not said regulations, or any of them, shall be inserted in said bill."

Mr. Wood (Hastings), Mr. H. E. Clark (Toronto), Dr. McLaughlin, Mr. Stratton, Dr. Chamberlain, Mr. French, Dr. Spencer, Mr. Gibson (Huron), Mr. Craig, Mr. Murray and Mr. Fraser spoke. Mr. Fraser's speech lasted two hours, and he was very bitter on the Opposition for their course during the late campaign. The House adjourned at 1.35 this morning without taking a division on the amendments. Mr. Lees (Lanark) will be the first speaker to-day.

A BAD ACCUSATION.

A LETTER ALLEGED TO HAVE BEEN WRITTEN BY MR. PARNELL.

LONDON, April 18.—The Times, as a proof of its assertion at the conclusion of its articles on "Parnellism and Crime" that it had further documentary evidence, prints a fac simile of a letter signed by Mr. Parnell, and supposed to have been addressed to Mr. Egan to pacify his subordinates when Mr. Parnell publicly denounced the Phœnix Park murders. The letter fills one side of an ordinary sheet of note paper, and is in a strange handwriting. "Yours very truly, Chas. S. Parnell," in Mr. Parnell's writing, is at the top of the other leaf. The Times suggests that the signature was thus written so that it could be torn off if necessary. The letter which is dated simply 15, 5, 82, without an address, is as follows:

DEAR SIR: I am not surprised at your friend's anger, but he and you should know that to denounce the murders was the only course open to us. To do that promptly was plainly our best policy. But you can tell him and all others concerned that though I regret the accident of Lord F. Cavendish's death I cannot refuse to admit that Burke got no more than his deserts. You are at liberty to show him this and others whom you can trust also, but let not my address be known. He can write to the House of Commons.

The Times says: "Mr. Parnell cannot expect that a simple repudiation of the letter will have any weight with public opinion. He must bring more solid proofs to annul the effect of the disclosure."

Parnell Interviewed.

LONDON, April 18.—In an interview to-day Mr. Parnell pointed out that although at first sight some of the letters in the Times facsimile, printed this morning, appeared to resemble his autograph a close comparison shows a decided and striking difference in many important points. The forgery slopes upwards, the genuine handwriting downwards. Mr. Parnell always places a full point after the initial "S." in his name, which the forgery omits. The "r" in Parnell, and the "s" in Chas., are quite different from anything he has ever written. The letters "Ch" in "Chas" are abnormally long and "s" and "P" are the only letters in any way resembling his genuine autograph. The pen at the beginning of "a" in the forged "Chas" was evidently taken off the paper, whereas in the genuine signature it is always written without a break. The forgery, Mr. Parnell says, is the work of a person accustomed to penmanship and writing a flowing hand, whereas his own writing is always in a cramped style. Mr. Parnell further said that the letter and signature were impudent forgeries, and that he strongly suspected the identity of the forger. He was undecided whether to prosecute the Times or not.

Said to be a Concoction.

LONDON, April 18.—The Parnellites all declare the letter an infamous concoction and a deliberate invention to publicly slander the leader of the Home Rule party. They say that even on the low ground of expediency, Parnell would be the last man in the world to write a letter containing such damaging admissions. They contend, therefore, that all the reason in the case proves the letter to be a forgery on the face of it, pointing for proof to the contents of the document, especially to the writer's warning the persons not to disclose the address, while no address is given. From the fact that the signature is the only part of the letter in Parnell's writing, and that it is by itself, the Home Rulers argue that the whole thing is a fraud, as, according to them, while it would be difficult to obtain enough specimens of Parnell's handwriting to enable a forger to imitate to the extent necessary to successfully palm off a whole letter as his it is not at all difficult to obtain his signature. Mr. Parnell, the agent of the Associated Press is authorized to state, will categorically deny that he wrote the letter. Mr. Parnell will make this denial in the House of Commons. The editor of the Times will be summoned to the bar of the House to explain the authorship of the letter.

Parnell's Disclaimer.

LONDON, April 18.—Speaking from his place in the House of Commons to-night Mr. Parnell referred to the "vile, barefaced forgery" [cheers from the Irish members]—printed in the Times obviously for no other purpose than to influence the divisions. He thought he was entitled to have an opportunity to expose this deliberate attempt to blacken his character in time to reach the outside world. There was no chance now. In addition to passing this coercion bill the coercionists had to be loaded. Great organs of public opinion were to be permitted to pay miserable creatures to produce these calumnies. Who would be safe under such circumstances? When he heard of the connection in the Times he supposed that some autograph of his had fallen into the hands of a person for whom it was not intended, but when he saw the letter he saw plainly that the signature was an audacious publishing fabrication. He failed to understand how the conductors of what used to be a respectable journal could have been hoaxed and bamboozled into publishing the letter as his. [Cheers.] Members who compared the forgery with his signature would say that only two letters of the forged signature bore any resemblance to his autograph, and the Times could have seen the same. He never heard of nor saw any such letter until it appeared in the Times. [Parnellite cheers.] Its phraseology was absurd and its purport preposterous and every part of it bore evidence of an absolute and irrefragable want of gentlemanism. He did not know anything of the conspiracy of the Invincibles, and nobody was more surprised than himself when the blow fell upon their victims. If he had been in Phœnix Park that day he would gladly have stood between Lord Cavendish and the dagger of the assassin and Mr. Burke. [Irish cheers.] He had suffered more than any other man from that terrible deed, and Ireland had suffered more than any other nation. It was absolutely untrue that the National League had any communication whatever, direct or indirect, with the Fenian organization in America. He never had any dealings with anybody in America in respect to the proceedings or doings of any societies. All his sayings and doings in connection with Irish public life had been open and above board." [Cheers].

TOPICS FROM TORONTO.

A German, Despondent From Drinking, Shoots Himself—Notes of the City.

TORONTO, April 19.

Ernest Julius Meiling came to his death yesterday morning at the Humber from a rifle or revolver shot in the left breast, and the circumstances surrounding the case point to suicide. Meiling lived at 66 Terauley street in this city with a German named Julius Klenke. He has been drinking and was despondent. He has a wife in Germany. There is no doubt he ended his own life.

At Osgoode Hall yesterday a petition was filed in the Common Pleas Division by John Willis against the returns of H. N. Burnham, the Reform member for East Hastings in the Dominion Commons. The charges are corrupt practices and ballot infringement. A petition filed by Col. B. Tremayne of Simcoe was filed in the Court of Appeal against the return of Joseph Jackson in North Norfolk, and a cross petition against the one filed, opposing Col. Tisdale, a few days ago.

CRIMES ACT DEBATE.

THE SECOND READING OF THE MEASURE AGREED TO.

LONDON, April 18.—In the House of Commons Col. King-Harman, the new Parliamentary Under Secretary for Ireland, for the first time since his appointment answered interrogations respecting Irish affairs. Upon rising he was greeted with cheers by the Government supporters and with groans and derisive cheers by the Parnellites. He stated in response to a question that since March 1 only two tenants have been evicted from the Marquis of Lansdowne's estates. These two evictions, however, had involved the eviction of sixteen sub-tenants.

Mr. Sexton asked whether the Government would consent to rescind the suspension of Mr. Healy.

Mr. W. H. Smith replied for the Government that the duty they had to discharge on Friday night was most disagreeable. The Government were sorry they were forced to ask that Mr. Healy be named for transgressing the orders of the House. It would be utterly out of the question, however, when an apology had been given for the breach of the decencies of debate, to rescind the suspension. No motion that might be made to that effect could be entertained without the general concurrence of the House.

Mr. Sexton inquired if it was competent for him to move the rescinding of Mr. Healy's suspension.

Speaker Peel replied that no motion would be competent unless it appeared on the papers of the House.

Mr. Sexton continuing, said that in the absence of Mr. Healy he was authorised for him to say that if Major Saunderson withdrew the offensive charges to which Mr. Healy's language was in reply, Mr. Healy would withdraw the expressions deemed by the House offensive.

Mr. Jacob Bright asked why it was when two members of [the House committed the same offence one of them was suspended while the other was not.

The Speaker said that, in ordinary circumstances, he would decline to answer that question or any question implying that his action was not impartial, but in the present circumstances he would explain that in the second instance in which the breach of the rules of the House had been committed (that of Mr. Sexton), an apology had followed the withdrawal of the expression causing the breach.

Mr. Sexton moved that Mr. Healy be heard at the bar of the House.

The Speaker declared that that could not be done.

Mr. Sexton thereupon asked Major Saunderson to withdraw his assertions regarding Mr. Healy, which had exasperated him into making the responses for which he was suspended.

Major Saunderson remained silent.

Mr. Gladstone put to him direct the question whether he was prepared to render the House any assistance by the withdrawal of his offensive expressions.

The Conservatives cried out: "No," "no!" "Don't," "don't!"

Major Saunderson arose and said he had never alluded to Mr. Healy directly or indirectly, because he had felt as regards Mr. Healy that he was unable to substantiate the charges so as to bring conviction to the minds of members of the House. [Cries of "hear, hear!"] The matter was then dropped.

Subsequently Mr. Sexton, resuming the debate on the Irish Crimes Act Amendment Bill, said Major Saunderson had charged him with direct complicity in crimes. If the accusation were well founded why had the Viceroy of Ireland approved his present appointment as High Sheriff of Dublin? His name as a member of the league had been linked with that of Sheridan the Invincible, but Sheridan was never a member of the Executive Council of the Land League. Did Major Saunderson in pointing to him (Sexton) mean in reality to embarrass Col. King-Harman, against whom the Major had recently unsuccessfully competed for the new Government office of Parliamentary Under-Secretary for Ireland? [Parnellite cheers.] For Sheridan and Col. King-Harman once canvassed the same constituency together. Mr. Egan also, the treasurer of the old Land League, was at one time an intimate friend of Col. King-Harman. [Cheers.] They were fellow-members of the Council of the Home Rule League. Not only that, Mr. Egan wrote for the Colonel his political address to the electors. [Laughter.] It was manifestly an absurdity for Major Saunderson to accuse the executive of the Land League of knowing that men were murderers because their names were mentioned in connection with the Phœnix Park affair. He (Sexton) had never learned of anything that had been proved which would warrant him in changing the opinions he had always entertained. Until Mr. Egan and those associated with him were innocent of the malignant charges brought against them, [Cries of "hear, hear."] [illegible] was both mean and cowardly. It did not contain direct and specific charges, but it was composed of insinuation founded on scandalous rumors. When exposed to the light of day not a rag of these scandalous fabrications would hold together. Not one of them would remain whether they took the shape of a simple lie or that of a manifest clumsy and malignant forgery. [Parnellite cheers.] Whatever shape they might henceforth take the speaker would pay no attention to them. The only way to argue with the sort of people who made such an attack was to horsewhip them or take them before the law. It was hardly worth while to take the former course with them and in the present state of English public feeling an action at law would be a farce if an Irishman were the plaintiff.

Referring to the bill under consideration Mr. Sexton said the measure threatened the existence of the Irish National League. He would remind the House that the league was aided by the prelates and clergy of the Catholic Church and struggled to maintain the moral law, yet the league so supported was stigmatized as a conspiracy maintained by criminals and dynamiters. The bill itself was the grossest kind of an attempt at violation of the moral law. The bill aimed to sweep away at one fell sweep all the cherished rights of the people. It was justified by nothing in the condition of Ireland. The boycotting practiced by the Irish people arose naturally from the irrepressible growth of Irish public opinion. The only way to do without it was to obtain for the laws governing the people of Ireland the sympathy of those people.

Second Reading Agreed to.

LONDON, April 18.—Sir Bernhard Samuelson's amendment to the Crimes Bill, to the effect that the bill, if passed, would increase the disorder in Ireland and endanger the Union and the Empire and, therefore, should be rejected was defeated by a vote of 370 to 268, and the second reading of the Crimes Bill was agreed to without a division.

PLAYING THE HYPOCRITES.

Owing to other pressing demands on our space, we have not been able till to-day to give the full text of Hon. Mr. Blake's withering and sarcastic speech, delivered on the floor of the House of Commons, on the occasion of the nomination of Mr. Ouimet, as Speaker of the House. Mr. Ouimet was, it will be remembered, one of the prominent Rielites, one of the bolting Bleus, and was included by the Tory press and politicians in the same heinous category as Hon. Mr. Blake, because the two took the same position on the Riel question. Residents of this county will recollect how, during the recent Dominion election campaign, Mr. Stevenson, Mr. Carnegie and other Conservative platform orators denounced Hon. Mr. Blake for the position he took on the Riel question, and how the local Tory sheet called for club law on the occasion of the visit of Hon. Messrs. Laurier and Blake. Now their political leaders have not only pardoned the immense villain and traitor, Ouimet, but the Commons member for West Peterborough has joined with them in voting to elevate to the position of the first Commoner of Canada, the man who, according to his election speeches, was as foul a traitor as he characterized Hon. Mr. Blake to be. The most noticeable feature of the affair, is the monumental hypocrisy of the Tory leaders and their followers, in denouncing in one man, or one set of men, as political crimes what they condone in another, and not only condone, but make the excuse for conferring a signal honour. The reader who is anxious to read a withering exposure of the hollowness and hypocrisy of the Tory party, and wishing to be made aware of the falsity of their refuge of lies, should read the text of Mr. Blake's address as reported in Hansard, and published elsewhere. It cuts like a two edged sword.

RACE AND REVENGE CRY.

Hon. Mr. Blake's Scorching Exposure of Tory Hypocrisy.

On the motion to elect Col Ouimet Speaker of the Commons.

MR. BLAKE said—Mr. Bourinot, (clerk of the House, pro tempore in the chair), it is not my intention to oppose the motion. The position which it is proposed we should fill by our unanimous vote, as I hope it will be to-day, is one of high distinction, a worthy object of attainment to the first men on the floor of this Chamber, and it requires the possession of some distinguished and some rare qualities. It requires a reasonable acquaintance with both the official languages, the power of continuous application to it, rapid apprehension, and familiarity with the rules and customs of Parliament and the capacity to apply them upon the spur of the moment. It requires even more than this, a somewhat patience and courtesy, combined with dignity, firmness and decision, and most of all it requires the possession of a judicial spirit, just and determined to act justly between friend and foe, between the highest and the humblest person upon the floor of the Chamber. In 1878 the hon. gentleman who was just proposed this motion, when occupying a position on this side of the House, expressed himself with reference to the position of Speaker: "He is chosen to act judicially between the parties, and has to free himself from all political connection, and therefore the wise rule in practice in England has been, though unfortunately we have not introduced it here, that the Speaker is not to be nominated by a member of the Government." The hon. gentleman had had, before he made these observations two or more opportunities of dictating the course of procedure in the election of a Speaker, in which he had not followed that wise practice, which he said we unfortunately had not adopted. Since moralising, as we are in the habit of doing in Opposition, he has had two more opportunities of changing our practice in accordance with the English model, and I expected by this time perhaps he would have put in practice the views he expressed in 1878; but I observe that, like other great men he is

RARE COMBINATION OF QUALITIES,

than practice. (Laughter.) For my part, I care not little about the form, except as an expression of a principle. It is of little consequence whether a so-called independent member proposes the Speaker who has been the prior choice of the Administration, or whether that proposal is made by a member of the Government, but I quite agree that as a symbol of the principle the form is of importance, and that the principle is vital, namely, the relations of the Speaker to both sides of the House makes it necessary that in order that we may properly do our business, the House should have confidence in the impartiality of the chair, and I have always felt, therefore, that it was important that if at all possible we should avoid division upon the selection of the officer who is to fill that delicate position towards us, and therefore I rejoice that the necessity does not arise on the occasion for such a division. (Cheers.) I may be allowed to repeat here the suggestion made on the last occasion of our choice of a Speaker, and which I regret subsequent events indicate it is not altogether unnecessary to repeat—the great importance which we ought to attach to the spontaneous and prompt repression by the Speaker

OF DISORDERLY LANGUAGE.

In this particular matter I consider that the first word is the worst word, and that the higher the quarter from which the word comes the worse the word. My hon. friend from Laval (Mr. Ouimet) has set us in his position on the floor an admirable example in this regard, and I trust that example which he has set us for thirteen or sixteen years in the past, he will enforce by precept when he is entrusted with the authority to which I refer. I shall not anticipate any weakness in the discharge of this duty on his part, but shall rather hope for the best. The hon. gentleman has referred to the Parliamentary career of my hon. friend. I have watched it with interest and not without sympathy. I have observed in him efforts which I believe to be in the right direction in the discharge of his duty as a Canadian citizen. I have observed aspirations for that interpretation of the Federal pact to which I adhere. If I were disposed to be critical I might say that there have been occasions on which he has hardly pushed his principles fully into action, that he did not agree to the full logical development of the views which he entertained, and I trust that, fortified and ripened by the experience of the position which he is about to occupy for the next few years, we may find—if there be a blemish—that blemish entirely removed when he re-takes his place upon the floor. My hon. friend has at times been rather a disturbing element in the party ranks. I recollect when to him was ascribed a somewhat prominent part in the extraordinary convolutions of the figure "8" in this Chamber some years ago. (Cheers and laughter.) To him is ascribed, not the authorship perhaps, but the application as illustrative of the relations of his colleagues—A quat' pattes Canayens—and to him is ascribed—encouraged no doubt and inspired from a quarter still higher and still nearer the Administration than himself—that resistance which resulted in the

SUBMISSION OF THE FIRST MINISTER—

in his placing himself A quat pattes before the Canayens, and entering their room No. 8 under the Caudine Forks. (Cheers.) I hope there may never be occasion to say of him that he illustrated in his own person the phrase that he is a Canayen a quat' pattes, that he marched through mutiny to Ministerial favor, that he touched the Treasury by treason, that he attained, or could retain, this chair by anything approaching a base subserviency and abandonment of principle. For my part, I feel special pleasure in acceding to this particular choice on this occasion. We have just come from a very severe election campaign, in which the chief Tory slogan and battle cry against myself was my vote on the

and my opinion of the management of the Northwest affairs. I was call upon to express an opinion on that subject, which I did in this place about twelve months ago, when I declared that in my opinion the execution of Riel was a severe blow to the administration of criminal justice in Canada, a cruel act which I felt ought to be regretted. I knew that opinion was unpopular. I knew that it was not shared by many of my own friends. I knew that it was perilous of utterance, that it was liable to misinterpretation. I ask only that it be allowed I was sincere and honest in the expression of my conviction. But the Tory party declined to permit that. They declared that no honest man, no jurist, no parliamentarian, no statesman, could honestly believe that which I, as they said, professed to believe. They declared that by the expression of the opinion to which I have referred I was setting up the French above the English, the Roman Catholics above the Protestants, that I was breaking down the sacred rule of one law for all, that I was rising the cry of that I was destroying the first principle of the administration of Criminal justice. They roused the Orange Tories to madness. I was insulted in the press, in the pulpit, upon the platform. I was called a Rielite, a conspirator against Canadian law, a hypocrite, a coward, a knave and a fool, a rebel and a traitor. As to the half-breeds, the Tories declared that there was no delay, that there was no mismanagement on the part of the Government; that, on the contrary, all was kindness, promptness, diligence and wisdom —(laughter)—that the accusation was false and the accuser a calumniator. A year ago, discussing these questions here, I appealed to a later day and to the next generation for my final verdict—to the judgment of history recorded by posterity. Who at that time could have believed that within these few months I should find these, my accusers, laying the first stone of my vindication? (Loud cheers.) What is the earliest step which they proposed to this Assembly, elected largely under the influence of these cries? They propose for next place here, for the position of Speaker and mouthpiece of the Canadian Commons, for the vindicator of our privileges, for our judical arbiter

A GENTLEMAN WHO VOTED WITH ME

a few months ago:—"That this House thinks it its duty to express its deep regret that the sentence of death passed upon Louis Riel, convicted of high treason, was allowed to be carried out." (Loud cheers.) They proposed for that office a gentleman who a few months ago followed up that vote by thus voting with me:—"That it was the duty of the Government to proceed with diligence, under the authority which it obtained from Parliament in 1879, to settle the claims arising out of the Indian title of the Halfbreeds in the North-west Territories, and also to settle the claims of the Manitoba Halfbreeds who were temporarily absent from the enumeration, and that in this respect the Government has been guilty of neglect, delay and mismanagement prejudicial to the peace, welfare and good government of Canada." These votes of the hon. member for Laval, these votes of censure on his part do give him a title to my support. (Cheers.) These votes of want of confidence in the Administration on important points do lead me to the conclusion that he possesses a soundness of judgment which I hope he will illustrate in his high office. But what is to be said of the men who call me Rielite, conspirator, knave and fool, hypocrite and coward, calumniator, traitor and rebel; because I so voted, and who propose to elevate to the first place in this chamber the gentleman who shared in the votes with me? (Loud cheers.) Put in this one law for all? (Renewed cheers and laughter.) Is this the administration of even handed justice? The highest honors for one, execration and odium for the other. Are they acting thus in spite of the hon. member's vote? If so, it proves that the votes cannot be so bad after all. (Cheers.) But they are acting thus largely because of his votes. We know, and none knows better than the hon. member, that he owes largely his elevation at this juncture to the fact that he occupies the happy position of having united to condemn the execution of Riel and the conduct of the Government with reference to the Halfbreed affairs.

IT IS BECAUSE OF THE VOTES

largely, and not in spite of them, that this motion is made. Tell it not, Mr. Bourinot, on the 12th of July. Name it not in the lodges of the Orangemen, but so it is. Such is the situation, and such being the situation, I extend in advance my hearty congratulations to my fellow-Rielite and my co-conspirator against Canadian law—(cheers)—to my brother foul and knave, my fellow-hypocrite and coward, my associate in calumny, treason and rebellion—I beg to offer my friend from Laval my hearty congratulations on his approaching elevation by the unanimous vote of the Canadian Commons to the position of First Commoner of Canada. (Great cheering.)

John Milton in his "Paradise Lost" thus distinguishes woman from man. Diseases fall to her lot that do not to man's, peculiar to her soft and more refined nature. A remedy adapted to the cure of her peculiar diseases is found in Dr. R. V. Pierce's "Favorite Prescription," for women. Thousands who have used it attest its great worth. 6dw17

A Severe Attack.

"I never felt better in my life than I have since taking Burdock Blood Bitters. I had a severe bilious attack; I could not eat for several days, and was unable to work. One bottle cured me." John M. Richards, Sr., Tam, Oak. For all bilious troubles use B. B. B. 26w17

Enjoy Life.

What a truly beautiful world we live in! Nature gives us grandeur of mountains, glens and oceans, and thousands of means of enjoyment. We can desire no better when in perfect health; but how often do the majority of people feel like giving it up disheartened, discouraged and worn out with disease, when there is no occasion for this feeling, as every sufferer can easily obtain satisfactory proof, that Green's August Flower, will make them free from disease, as when born. Dyspepsia and Liver Complaint are the direct causes of seventy-five per cent. of such maladies as Biliousness, Indigestion, Sick Headache, Costiveness, Nervous Prostration, Dizziness of the head, Palpitation of the Heart, and other distressing symtems. Three doses of August Flower will prove its wonderful effect. Sample Bottle, 10 cents. Try it. eodw4

The Sacrificial Car.

In Asia the people throw themselves under the wheels of Moloch. In America we ride at the rate of sixty miles an hour alongside of a red hot stove.

Have You Thought About It?

Pain is one of the sure things of life, and it becomes then a most important question to have at hand the quickest and most efficient remedy. Polson's NERVILINE cannot fail to cure cramps, toothache, neuralgia, headache and all pain, internal or external. Nerviline is the most perfect combination ever offered to the public for the relief of pain. It will not cost you much to try it, for you can buy at any drug store for 10c. a trial bottle, which will convince you of its mighty pain relieving power. 6dw17

A Good Life Preserver.

T. Milburn & Co., March 16th, 1886.
I was completely relieved from that dreadful disease dyspepsia, with only four bottles of that life preserver—B. B. B., and cheerfully recommend it to any one subject to such disease. P. Devaney, Morrisburgh, Ont. 2w17d Subdued Humility.

We never fully appreciate how much subdued humility there can be found in a man until we see him playing dominoes with his mother-in-law.

Sure to Satisfy.

There are many remedies for coughs and colds, but there are few that prove so satisfactory as Hagyard's Pectoral Balsam, which is a pleasant and reliable cure for all throat and lung troubles, including bronchitis, asthma, croup, whooping cough and the pulmonary complaints of young or old. 2w17d

For the Year 1887.

No better resolution can be made than to resist buying any of the substitutes offered as "just as good" as the great only sure-pop corn cure—Putnam's Painless Corn Extractor. It never fails to give satisfaction. Beware of poisonous flesh eating substitutes.

ST. JACOBS OIL

THE GREAT GERMAN REMEDY WILL SURELY CONQUER PAIN!

Cures Aches and Pains.

Any Rheumatism Can Be Cured.
"Rheumatism," said Mr. A. McFaul, proprietor of the City Hotel, Kingston, used to hold its own pretty well, but the days for that are o'er. I had it badly until a short time ago, but I used St. Jacobs Oil and was cured, and so can any one be cured in a similar manner.

Rheumatism—The Quickest Relief.
Mr. W. E. Weekley, Shelburne, Ontario, says, Had been a sufferer with rheumatism for years and can truly say St. Jacobs Oil produced the quickest relief I ever experienced.

Bad Case of Rheumatism—Cured.
Capt. Harry Piper, Alderman and Superintendent of the Zoological Garden, Toronto, says: I was cured of a bad case of the rheumatism by the use of St. Jacobs Oil in a short while, and my case was a very aggravated one.

Bodily Pains and Toothache—Cured.
Mr. Winnett, one of the proprietors of "The Queen's Own," Toronto, Canada, said: My family have suffered from bodily pains and have been cured on several occasions by use of St. Jacobs Oil. One of my children last night was cured of toothache by it.

Complete Cure of Aches and Pains.
Toronto, Ontario, February 17, 1887.
It is a pleasure for me to testify to the good effects always attained by the use of your popular remedy, St. Jacobs Oil. I have used it for the past three years for sprained back and various aches, and it always gives sure relief. Have also tried it on my horses at various times with complete success. G. W. BANKS.

Stiff Neck Promptly Cured.
Mr. F. Beale, 352 King st., Toronto, says: I have used St. Jacobs Oil for stiffneck, and a few applications cured me.

ST. JACOBS OIL is an absolute cure for all bodily pains for which an external remedy may be applied. It is sold by Chemists and Dealers in Medicine, throughout the Dominion of Canada. Price fifty cents per bottle. The Charles A. Vogeler Co., Baltimore, Md., U. S. A. Canadian Branch, 64 York street, Toronto, Canada.

Anniversary Festivities.

This afternoon, at six o'clock, an anniversary tea will be given the pupils of the Sunday School of the Baptist Church, and at 8 p. m. a concert will be begun in the church, which will consist largely of songs and recitations by the pupils, and a few short addresses. A collection will be taken at the door.

Order of Chosen Friends.

As the list of Charter Members is nearly completed and will be closed this week, persons desirous of becoming charter members of this Fraternal, Benevolent Society can get information as to the membership and rates by applying to the following gentlemen. Dr. Clarke, Medical Examiner, or the organizer Mr. J. O'Donnell. A council will be opened next week.

Getting Ready for the Season.

At a meeting of the Board of Management of the P. A. A. A. last evening, Dr. Burnham was re-elected President, and James Morris and W. Sailsbury were appointed a Finance Committee. Arrangements were made for a caretaker and having the grounds placed in good condition. The matter of preparing the sports for a 24th of May celebration was left to the Sports Committee.

A Paragraph for Farmers.

An EXAMINER representative called at the warerooms of Mr. E. E. Bowie, on Hunter street, and made a cursory inspection of the large stock of agricultural implements which he has imported for the spring trade. His stock comprises almost every known implement, but a few are deserving of special mention, namely, the celebrated J. G. C. (Cockshutt) plow and Masson's double geared spring drill, the only one of the kind made in Canada. Then he exhibits the Champion mower (all steel and malleable, except the two wheels), the Chatham binder, Oshawa rake, and many others too numerous to mention. He also sells the Oshawa steam engine and new "Model" thresher—both machines of superior qualities. Mr. Bowie also keeps on hand buggies, phaetons and waggons of the best make. Altogether his establishment can boast of a display of agricultural implements, waggons and farming material in general not to be excelled in the Midland District. Farmers in want of machinery of any kind can be supplied with the best at lowest rates by Mr. Bowie.

Bridge Building and By-Laws.

Special Meeting of the Town Council—A Sewerage System—The Scott Act Fines Again Up—The Sidewalk Business Settled.

A full board assembled at the Town Council meeting Monday night.

The MAYOR explained his reasons for having called the meeting, which might be considered premature. The recent freshet had done some damage to the bridges, which demanded immediate attention. Then as regards the matter of the Scott Act fines, referred to him. Mr. Stevenson said the Minister before whom he laid the matter had expressed his inability to deal with the question until definite representations had been made to him by the Council. The Mayor said he hoped these matters would be settled to-night.

MATTERS TO CONSIDER.

A communication was read from George Howard, regarding a street sweeping machine.—Referred to the Streets and Bridge Committee.

From E. C. Hill, asking refund of a fine of $2, imposed upon him last summer for alledged injury to a tree in the erection of a bill-board, which he claimed had been wrongfully imposed on him, while others similarly offending were not troubled.—Received.

From Wm. Beavis, asking for a refund of $2.67, costs paid by him to the tax collector.—Referred to the Court of Revision.

Mr. Thomas Beavis notified the Council that he would sue the town for damages caused by the firemen in pulling down a large chimney left standing after the fire in his terrace on Simcoe street, upon a small building alongside of it, which was totally ruined. He also asked pay for collecting some $200 taxes last year. His communication was referred to the Finance Committee.

Messrs. J. C. Turnbull and others, Michael Bolton and others, and M. Evans, asked for street improvements; Wm. Bell asked for a sidewalk. All were referred to the Streets and Bridges Committee.

ACCOUNTS.

The following accounts were referred to the Finance Committee, excepting the last two, which were paid:—

Town's share for preparing Locks bridge	$ 2 75
J. P. Hurley, stationery and tickets	18 75
Nicholl's Hospital	242 95
T. Cavanagh, drawing fire engine	14 00
John Halpin, sharpening picks	11 50
Fire Insurance Association, insurance on town buildings	30 50
Western Assurance Company, insurance on town buildings	30 50

FINANCE.

Mr. DAVIDSON presented the Finance report, which recommended payment of all the accounts referred to them; also that the clerk notify the Water Company to discontinue the use of the hydrant on London street, between George and Aylmer, at the expiration of the year.

Messrs. Moore and Kendry objected to the paragraph referring to the hydrants. On putting the question a tie resulted, which the Mayor voted away in favor of the report, which was carried.

THE QUESTION OF BRIDGES.

Mr. CAHILL after making the report of the streets and bridges committee, made a brief speech in support of the report, going over in detail, and enlarging upon the recommendations contained therein as given below:—

The streets and bridge committee begs leave to report and recommend that authority be obtained to issue debentures to the value of say $25,000, for the purpose of erecting permanent bridges over the creek on the principal thoroughfares of the town, also the Locks Bridge and the oribbing of Crescent street; such debentures to extend over a period of 25 or 30 years, as may be determined upon, and to be issued from time to time as may be required to meet the expenditure upon these works.

And for the purpose of carrying out this recommendation, that the town solicitor be instructed to prepare a by-law to be submitted to the ratepayers at and early date, for their approval.

Your committee ask the authority of the council to take such steps as may be necessary to enter into contract for the erection of bridges on Simcoe and Brock streets, during the current year.

MR. MOORE thought the amount named was excessive, and that the time mentioned was too long.

A little discussion ensued as regarded the borrowing of the money. Was the amount sufficient or too large, and would a by-law by the council be sufficient guarantee for the banks to lend the money required? The latter question was answered in the affirmative.

FIRE BRIGADE APPLIANCES.

MR. A. MCNEIL presented the report of the Fire Water and Light Committee, which recommended that Terence Smith be awarded the contract for supplying one team and man for one year for $649, services to begin May 1st, 1887; also, that the petition of the Fire Brigade for a better fire alarm be granted, cost not to exceed $125; that Mr. J. M. Irwin's offer of $30 for the four-wheeled hose cart be accepted.

MR. MCNEIL went into details and explained that the extra expense incurred by this extra team and man would be made up by their services about town; then arrangement had been made with the telephone office whereby an electric alarm was to be placed in each of the firemen's houses, to be rung in case of fire.

Several of the councillors made enquiries regarding the salary and usefulness of the extra team and man. The general opinion was favorable to the recommendation, if it resulted in raising the efficiency and standing of the Fire Brigade.

The report was adopted.

Mr. MCNEIL stated in response to a question from Mr. Yelland that the men at the fire hall would undertake, during the Summer evenings to teach the horses to recognize the fire alarm and accustom them to the swinging harness, as was done in other places.

FARMING THE MARKET TOLLS.

Mr. YELLAND presented the report of the the market committee, which recommended that the market be let to Mr. John Doherty this year for $800. The report was adopted.

THE MECHANICS' INSTITUTE.

Mr. McNEIL presented a by-law to grant aid to the Peterborough Mechanics' Institute. On the second reading of the by-law, the sum mentioned being $200, Messrs. Davidson and Douglas objected. The sum given was last year $100; they wanted time to consider the by-law before it was passed. Messrs. Menzies and Hartley also favored having the matter left over.

The motion for the second reading of the by-law was lost.

THEY MUST GIVE SECURITY.

Mr. DAVIDSON presented a by-law, brought up in accordance with the resolution of the council, to provide for securities to be given by certain town officials, including the four policemen, license inspector, town solicitor, and all others handling the town's money. It was passed.

AID FOR THE HORTICULTURAL SOCIETY.

Mr. MCNEIL presented a by-law to grant $300 to the Peterborough Horticultural Society, $200 to be expended on the Court House Park, and $200 on the Central Park. The by-law passed.

MR. MILL'S GRIEVANCE.

Mr. E. C. HILL was given a hearing. He ventilated his grievance, and demanded either a refund of his fine or that the parties who have done "as much as he had done" should be brought up and punished.

MOTIONS ON VARIOUS SUBJECTS.

Mr. Kelly moved, seconded by Mr. McNeil, that a special committee of this council be appointed for the purpose of taking action in promoting sewerage in this town, and the best means to pay for same, the said committee to consist of Messrs. Moore, Menzies, Kendry, McNaughton, McNeil, Douglass, and Cahill, the first named to be chairman, and to report to this council.—Carried.

Mr. Davidson moved, seconded by Mr. Cahill, that the Mayor and Treasurer be granted authority to issue debentures to retire those falling due during the present year.—Carried.

Mr. Cahill moved, seconded by Mr. Davidson, that the clerk be instructed to write to Mr. Macklin, Engineer G. T. R., requesting him to have the approaches to the Midland Railway at Wescott and Park streets put in proper order at his earliest convenience.—Carried.

Mr. KELLY gave notice of motion for putting a sidewalk down on the south side of Brock street, between George and Water streets, six feet wide.

THE SCOTT ACT.

Mr. Yelland moved, seconded by Mr. Kendry, that the request of the Scott Act Association, reported on at the last sitting of this Council, be granted. Mr. Yelland stated that all the Association wanted was to have their expenses paid out of the fines secured by Scott Act convictions.

Mr. Moore moved, seconded by Mr. Douglass, that, whereas the Canada Temperance Act 1878 is in force in the county of Peterborough, within which the town of Peterborough is situated, and a misunderstanding has arisen between the county and town as to the correct construction to be placed upon the order-in-council (made after passing a memorial to the Governor-in-Council, on the subject, by this Council) respecting the disposition of fines and penalties that have been or may be inflicted under the Act, the county claiming that it is entitled to all the fines and penalties for breaches of the Act occurring in the county, beyond the limits of the town, regardless whether such fines and penalties are inflicted at a place within or without the town:

The Minister of Justice be and is hereby respectfully requested to inform the Council of this town what is the intention and the true effect of the said order-in-council as to the disposition of said fines and penalties between the county and town, and that he consider the said memorial in connection therewith;

And that a certified copy of this resolution be forwarded to the said Minister.

Some objection was raised to Mr. Yelland's motion on the ground that the money in being granted to the Association was being given to no responsible party.

Mr. YELLAND then withdrew his motion and presented the following:

"That the Town Treasurer is hereby instructed to pay Mr. E. B. Edward's and Mr. Rossiter's wages, both being for the enforcement of the Canada Temperance Act in the town of Peterborough."

Messrs. Hartley, Kendry, Stenson and Yelland supported the request of the Scott Act Association. The money secured in fines could be used for no other purpose than the enforcement of the Scott Act; and who better deserved a grant than the Association, which was the means of so largely increasing the town's revenue. But, if there was any illegality in making a grant to the Association, as not being a responsible or recognised body, they only asked that the salaries of the two officers mentioned be paid.

Messrs. Cahill and Douglass supported Mr. Moore's motion, which if passed, would settle the question.

Mr. MCNEIL spoke in bitter terms against the Scott Act Association. Since the introduction of the Scott Act, there was more drinking and sorrow, and more dives and "hells" in town than before. They had promised that the act would not cost anything, and $4,000 was been subscribed. Where has it gone? Now they were asking for $1,000. It would be his business to prevent this grant if possible.

Mr. STENSON in reply to Mr. McNeil gave some interesting police statistics to show that Mr. McNeil's argument regarding the increase of crime was unfounded.

Mr. MCNAUGHTON condemned in round terms the ministers of the Gospel who did not do their duty, or there would be no need of the Scott Act or Salvation Army. But the Scott Act was the curse and ruination of the town of Peterborough. He offered to conduct Mr. Stenson to 222 dives or "shebeens" in the town, or if he failed to keep his word, he would vote for the grant.

Mr. Moore's motion was finally carried, after a vigorous objection from Mr. Yelland, who couldn't see anything to be gained by it. It did not deal with the subject of Mr. Yelland's motion at all.

STREET IMPROVEMENTS.

A motion by Mr. McNeil, seconded by Mr. Kelly, that the street inspector be instructed to have the stone now lying on McDonell street placed on George and adjacent streets, was referred to the Street and Bridge Committee.

On a motion of Mr. Kendry, seconded by Mr. Hartley, that a sidewalk be built on George street to Mr. Mason's greenhouses, there was considerable discussion.

Mr. Mason was heard on the matter, and was supported by Messrs. Hartley and Kendry. Mr. Cahill objected to the principle involved in the motion, on the ground that Mr. Mason was no more entitled to it than to many others, who had wanted walks for the last 25 years.

The MAYOR called attention to the promise of a walk to Brodie's mill, which had been made three times and never fulfilled.

Mr. Douglass introduced a motion, seconded by Mr. Moore, that a walk be built to Brodie's Mill.

Messrs. Kendry's and Kelly's motions were left on the table as notices of motion, and Mr. Douglass' motion was carried.

Mr. Stenson moved, seconded by Mr. Kendry, that the chairman of the Fire Water and Light Committee have a room in the Fire Hall fixed up for a bedroom—Referred to the Committee.

The Council then adjourned for one week, for the special purpose of giving time to prepare a by-law and prepare plans for the proposed new bridges over the creek.

The Baby was Still-born.

At the adjourned inquest over the dead infant found last week, resumed last night at the police court, Dr. Kincaid testified having held a post mortem examination on the body, and found, upon examination, that the child had been still-born. Willie Lynch, Wllie Moncrief, and Herbie Lush, were examined regarding their finding of the infant the day previous to its discovery by Mr. Bowie, under the sidewalk. They did not closely scrutinize it, thinking it to be merely a bundle of dirty rags. The jury brought in a verdict that the child was still-born, of a party unknown, and recommended the police to use every effort to discover the person guilty of the concealment of the birth.

THE ONTARIO LEGISLATURE.

Rushing Through the Business of the Session—Two New Sheriffs.

TORONTO, April 20.

The House sat from 3.15 in the afternoon until 10.50 last night, with an intermission of two hours for dinner. Nearly the whole of the time was spent in committee, amending and progressing bills. When the House rose the members could justly claim that they "had done a fair day's work" and received a fair day's pay. These bills were read a third time and passed: No. 21, to authorize the City of London to borrow certain monies for separate school purposes. Mr. Meredith; No. 112, respecting the guardianship of minors. Mr. Hardy; No. 12, to incorporate the Fort Erie Ferry Railway Company. Mr. Morin; No. 81, to amend the act incorporating the Girls' Home, Toronto, Mr. Leys; No. 10, to further extend the powers of the Consumers' Gas Company, of Toronto, Dr. Widdifield.

Bills No. 73, to amend the act respecting Public Schools; No. 131, to make further provisions respecting assignments for the benefit of creditors; No. 129, respecting the appointment of police magistrates, and No. 148, respecting the taxation of patented lands in Algoma, all of which stood for third readings, were amended in committee and reported back to the House. Bill No. 135 was amended so as to provide that fees collected by magistrates in Scott Act counties shall go to the municipality and not to the magistrate, as formerly proposed by the Attorney-General. The magistrates will be paid a stated salary.

The word "to-morrow" was inserted in Mr. Fraser's resolution moving the House into committee to provide that $1,050,000 be set apart out of the consolidated revenues of the province for the erection of new Parliament Buildings.

These Government orders were considered in committee and reported: No. 113, respecting distress for rent. Mr. Hardy; No. 63, for consolidating and amending the acts respecting insurance companies, the Attorney-General; No. 125, to extend the operation of the Land Titles Act, the Attorney-General; No. 127, for further improving the law, the Attorney-General; No. 128, to amend the Ontario Factories Act; No. 165, to make further provision for the public health, Mr. Ross (Huron); No. 84, respecting the Niagara Falls Park, the Attorney General.

Bill No. 28 gave rise to considerable discussion. An amendment to Sec. 6 provided that boys under 12 and girls under 14 may be employed during July, August and September in picking fruits for canning houses. Mr. Garson (Labor) and Mr. Wylie moved to strike this amendment out, but it was voted down.

The Attorney-General's bill respecting Niagara Falls Park was bunted on the head by Mr. Meredith. He said the park had always and always would be known as "Niagara Falls Park;" and the prefix "Queen Victoria" to the name was totally unnecessary and hollow. "Why not go further," said Mr. Meredith, "and call it 'The Hon. Oliver Mowat Queen Victoria Niagara Falls Park?'" [Laughter.]

Mr. Mowat said he was surprised that any opposition should be given to a name which was attached out of honor to our Queen in her jubilee year. The name stands.

The Attorney-General's bill for the formation of new counties was withdrawn. Mr. Mowat said he would proceed with the bill next session.

Mr. Creighton: "This bill was the biggest joke of the session."

These bills received second readings: No. 110, to amend the High Schools Act; No. 101, to extend the Land Titles Act to the outlying districts of the province; No. 155, respecting separate school debentures; No. 168, better to provide for the enforcement of the Temperance Laws; No. 173, to amend the act respecting the clergy reserves.

Bill No. 110 provides that an additional high school may be built in Toronto. The Minister of Education said 167 high school pupils were attending Upper Canada College, and when that building was removed from its present site another high school would be necessary. Bill No. 170 provides that the clergy reserves shall be paid to the municipalities along with the school funds to avoid unnecessary labor and expense. The average clergy reserve portion of each municipality is less than $5, and 600 checks and affidavits have to be made for these small sums.

Mr. Mowat introduced an amendment to his bill to improve the law providing that the lieutenant-governor-in-council may appoint a sheriff for the city of Toronto and a sheriff for the county of York.

The farmers who are members of the House are going to hold a meeting in Room 16 this morning at 9.30. The object of the meeting is not stated.

Commencing to-day at 11 the House will hold morning sittings until the close of the session, which may possibly be on Saturday. The House will sit from 11 till 1, from 3 to 6 and the evening session will be unlimited as to time, of course. Notices of these changes were given by the Attorney-General yesterday and carried. A former resolution of the House provides for morning meetings on Saturdays.

Mr. Bronson of Ottawa is the first member to disappear. He has gone home and will not return this session.

The Afghan Rebellion.

BOMBAY, April 19. Parwana Khan, the Afghan commander, who was sent by the Ameer with 5000 men to avenge the recent massacre of Ghelam-Haider Khan, the Governor of Maraf, by the Ghilzais, was met on the route south of Ghuzni by the rebels. The Khan of Dhir has rebelled against the Ameer. He has attacked and defeated the Khan of Badahira and captured two of the latter's villages and a quantity of breech-loading rifles.

A Prosperous Season Promised.

NEW YORK, April 19.—The daily Stockholder says it is confidently claimed that the great activity in the iron ore trade in the Lake Superior region and the operations of interstate commerce will have such a favorable effect upon the lake carrying trade that a degree of prosperity to that trade unknown, at least in recent years, is assured for the coming season. The new tonnage to be added this season will not fall short of 100,000 tons.

The Canadian Mail Route.

LONDON, April 19.—The Colonial Conference to-day took up the consideration of Canada's proposal for the establishment of an alternative mail route from China to Australia via the Canadian Pacific Railway. The discussion was adjourned till to-morrow.

THE TIMES LETTER.

IT IS A MATTER OF MIGHTY CONCERN IN ENGLAND JUST NOW.

LONDON, April 19.—The Times says: "We pay no attention whatever to Mr. Parnell's big words. If he proceeds to apply the only test by which the truth can be brought plainly before the world, we are quite prepared to meet him." Commenting on the letter printed yesterday the Times says: "It is remarkable that Mr. Parnell appeared doubtful on what grounds to impeach the authenticity of the letter. He first seemed disposed to assume that it might be an autograph which he admits he has sometimes given to enquirers, written on the top of a sheet of note paper, or possibly a signature for the use of his private secretary, which fell into unscrupulous hands. Now, however, he asserts that the signature is forged. Such discrepancies as he points out to prove this are extremely little. We possess several undoubted examples of his signature, and in our deliberate judgment there can be no doubt the letter is genuine."

A Writing Expert Called In.

LONDON, April 19.—Mr. Netherclift, an eminent chirographic expert, has compared the signature attached to the Times' Parnell letter with two of Mr. Parnell's signatures, but declines to express an opinion in the absence of further examples. He says there are disparities between the signature to the Times' letter and the two others and that there are also disparities between the latter two. He thinks the fairest comparison would be with signatures of the same date as that of the Times, not with signatures recently written for a test. He says the signature given by the Times, if false, is a very good imitation, but that it would be unfair to give an opinion based upon two signatures written for purposes of comparison.

Churchill's Opinion on the Matter.

LONDON, April 19.—Lord Randolph Churchill, speaking at Nottingham this evening, said that if the Parnellites chose to bring an action against the London Times they need not trust an English jury, because they can take proceedings against the paper in Ireland or Scotland. He would not make himself a party to the accusation, but it might be necessary for the House of Commons, independently of the Parnellites, to take action to clear itself as a body of the grave charges made against a section of its members. Continuing, he said that for forty-five years Mr. Gladstone had not wavered in his resistance to the Irish revolutionary party. It would be difficult to calculate how many persons had been executed or imprisoned during that time. He did not envy the failings of Mr. Gladstone when the latter remembered the numbers of persons whose lives he had contributed to sacrifice because they advocated the same principle he himself was now advocating. From the time the Crimes Bill became law crime would diminish, and outrage, terrorism and intimidation cease. Even now the introduction of the bill and its reception by Parliament had produced in Ireland a most beneficial effect. Irishmen would soon tire of paying double taxes to the National League and the Queen. The moment they saw the Government had the power and intention to suppress the league, all Irishmen would acquiesce in its suppression. In conclusion, he referred to the Liberal-Unionists, denying that he had ever intended to speak lightly of them. He dwelt strongly upon the necessity of keeping them up to the scratch and of combating their natural vacillating tendency.

A Select Committee Asked For.

LONDON, April 19.—In the House of Commons this afternoon Mr. Caldwell, Liberal-Unionist, gave notice that he would move for the appointment of a select committee to investigate the charges made by the Times against Mr. Parnell and other Irish leaders in connection with crime in Ireland.

Gladstone at the Eighty Club.

LONDON, April 19.—Mr. Gladstone spoke at the dinner given by the Eighty Club this evening. He said the time had arrived when it was necessary to measure his own position and the position of the Unionists. He never entertained a suspicion that the Parnellites associated themselves with crime, and his official knowledge was at least as good as that of Lord Hartington. The burden of proof lay upon the accusers, not upon the accused. Unless the accusers showed a rational probability of the truth of their charges they were worthless calumniators and should be shunned as pests of society. Continuing, Mr. Gladstone said he hoped the Liberal-Unionists who had abstained from voting on the second reading of the Crimes Bill would ultimately rally against coercion. Nothing has occurred to make the prospect of Home Rule more hopeless than it was twelve or even six months ago. It was utterly untrue that he had tried to induce the Unionists to work with the Home Rule Liberals for party purposes outside of the Irish Question, but had failed in his endeavors. But bitterest of all was the sight of Liberals supporting the Coercion Bill. He had hoped that a considerable number of the Liberals who had voted in favor of the Crimes Bill would eventually refuse to accept the measure unless they were assured that there would be combined with it a bill for the relief of Ireland. For that reason he had asked in the House of Commons yesterday the question, would the Government stand or fall by its Relief Bill as by its Coercion Bill? The evasive answer he received showed that the Government meant to force through the Coercion Bill and let the Relief Bill take its chances. He briefly criticised the purposes and alleged necessity of the bill and said that the question should be referred to the judgment of the nation. He did not wish an early dissolution of Parliament, but they must arouse reflection on the part of the electors, and he believed a dissolution would produce that effect. Mr. Gladstone spoke for an hour.

King-Harman's Explanation.

LONDON, April 19.—Col. King-Harman, in a speech at Ramsgate this evening, said it was true he was a Home Ruler in 1870, but the meaning of Home Rule then was absolutely different from its meaning now. Then the Loyalist party had been greatly outraged by certain legislation introduced by Mr. Gladstone, and many Loyalists said that if Ireland was to be thus treated it was better to see what her own people could do, but they never hinted at separation.

Sullivan Interviewed.

CHICAGO, April 19.—In speaking of the debate in Parliament last night in which his name was mentioned, Alexander Sullivan said to-day: "While Major Saunderson is a cowardly bully and a brutal calumniator, who has been justly scorned by the Parnellites, Lord Hartington has become a monomaniac, and is evidently prepared to believe any falsehood, however preposterous, on account of the death of his brother, Lord Frederick Cavendish. I knew just as much and just as little about the Phœnix Park affair as Lord Hartington himself, and in that respect am in precisely the same position as Mr. Parnell, Mr. Egan, Mr. Brennan and others of the National League whose names have been untruthfully connected with it. So far as Lord Cavendish was concerned Mr. Parnell perfectly expressed my views, and I believe those of Mr. Egan, Mr. Brennan and their associates, when he says that he would have stood, if he could, between the unfortunate man and the knives of his assailants."

THAT UNENDORSED WARRANT.

Col. Denison's Refusal to Back it Called up in the House of Commons.

OTTAWA, April 20.—On Thursday Mr. Freefountaine will enquire whether the Government or the Minister of Justice has been informed that Mr. George T. Denison, Police Magistrate for the city of Toronto, has refused, contrary to the act, chap. 174 of the Revised Statutes of Canada, chap. 40, to endorse a warrant signed and issued by one of the judges of the Sessions of the Peace for the Province of Quebec, Mr. C. Desmoyers, one of the police magistrates for the city of Montreal, for the arrest of one Edmund E. Sheppard, the said warrant bearing upon its face a criminal charge against the said E. E. Sheppard for having libelled certain officers of the 65th Battalion of Montreal in relation to the expedition to the Northwest in 1885, and if so, was it by the instructions of the Department of Justice such endorsement was refused, and if not, what position do the Government intend to assume in the matter?

A VIGOROUS COMPETITOR.

How the C. P. R. Will Take Advantage of the Inter-State Commerce Bill.

CHICAGO, April 19.—It is stated that in the event of the Inter-state Commission refusing to suspend the long and short haul clause for the benefit of the trans-continental lines, the Canadian Pacific has decided to put on an independent steamboat line between Chicago and Port Arthur, for the purpose of competing for the carriage of Pacific Coast freight both east and west bound. Their tariff rates on through freight will be from forty to fifty per cent. less than the rates established by the American roads.

CANADIAN ART EXHIBITION.

A Meritorious Display by the Royal Canadian Academy.

MONTREAL, April 19.—The exhibition of the Royal Canadian Academy of Arts will open at the Art Association Galleries, Phillips-square, to-morrow. The evening assembly took place at 8 o'clock to-night, when the members and honorary members of the Academy met His Excellency the Governor-General and Lady Lansdowne, and a private exhibition was given. The rooms will be opened to the public to-morrow morning, at 9 o'clock, and a large attendance of spectators is expected. Over 200 excellent works of art are on exhibition. About 100 or these are oils and 100 water colors. A few architectural designs are shown, and three busts represent the work of the sculptor.

HOME AND FOREIGN.

The striking teamsters in Montreal are still out.

The attendance at the Methodist Sunday School, Port Hope, last Sabbath numbered 378.

Twenty-three business houses at Columbus Junction, Ind., have been burned: loss $45,000.

The St. John, N.B., ship laborers are on strike against stevedores employing non-union men.

D. J. Rees & Co., provision merchants Grey Nun-street, Montreal, have made a judicial abandonment of their estate. The liabilities are said to be small.

A despatch from Mandalay says the Decoit leader, Hboo, has been killed by one of his own tribesmen and that the villagers are rejoicing at his death.

The Quebec grand jury yesterday returned a true bill against Ferland, accused by the Attorney-General of mal-appropriating colonization money in Montmorenci.

The Delaware Legislature yesterday passed a high license bill grading liquor licenses from $100 for Wilmington down to $200 for village and country taverns.

William Brown of Tiverton is one of the oldest printers on record. He worked on newspaper, book and job work in Scotland for forty years, and is now 90 years of age.

The Montreal Ministerial Association has entered a protest against the bill before the Quebec Legislature providing for the use of a crucifix in the courts for witnesses to swear by.

A Russian war ship engaged in practice firing off Varna on Sunday and caused great alarm among the people of the town. The Bulgarian authorities have protested against a repetition of such firing.

Mr. Robert Pringle, formerly traveler for W. K. Sandford & Co. of Hamilton, Ont., a resident of St. John, N.B., died suddenly on the Intercolonial train at Point Levis on Saturday night. The remains were removed to Paris.

Protests have been filed at Halifax against the return of Hon. A. G. Jones, Liberal M.P. for Halifax; T. E. Kenny, Conservative M.P. for Halifax, and J. H. Campbell, Conservative M.P. for Digby.

While coupling lumber-laden cars on the Michigan Central Railway at Carnell on Saturday, a brakeman named Daniel Hurley had his head crushed and is believed to have been fatally injured.

Mr. Climie's store at Peffer's Station, near Millbank, was broken into on Saturday night and robbed of a large quantity of clothing and tobacco. The culprits are not yet found out.

The London Military School will be ready for the reception of cadets on July 1. There will be no public demonstration save the formal installation of officers and the calling of the roll of recruits.

Pedro Garcia, editor of the Observador Frontero, has been lodged in Cutting's old cell in Paso del Norte jail for calling Mayor Sprovencle of Paso del Forte a drunkard, and Proberto, Tax Collector of the State of Chihuahua, a robber.

A young woman living in a disreputable house in Winnipeg, attempted suicide by swallowing a dose of carbolic acid, and but for timely medical assistance death would have been the result. Blighted affection is assigned for the attempt.

A new swindle is being perpetrated on the farmers. Two rascals scan the local press for notices of astray animals; one of them visits the farmer advertising such. He then returns to his companion giving a minute description of the animal. The former finally appears on the scene, and to avoid alleged trouble gets it for half-price.

On Saturday James Bryce, aged 27, of Belleville, eloped with Mary Bryce, aged 16, of the same place, and got as far as Shannonville, when they were arrested and brought back whence they came. Bryce will be prosecuted by the father according to the Charlton Act, although both parties are very anxious to be lawfully married.

Mr. Parnell Goes to Ireland.

LONDON, April 19.—Mr. Parnell has gone to Dublin to endeavor to sift the matter of the letter published by the Times.

NORTHWEST MISMANAGEMENT.

The evil effects of the misgovernment of the Northwest, and mismanagement of Northwest matters, has not only been demonstrated by two disastrous rebellions, costing for their suppression, something like ten millions of dollars, but they are also evident in the slowness of settlement, and the tardy development thereby of the magnificent and matchless agricultural and other natural resources of the country. What have been government promise, and government performance on this point? Seven years ago Sir John, in praise of his Northwest land policy, estimated with his usual jaunty confidence, that the net cash proceeds of sales from Northwest lands, would, in the ten years from 1880 to 1890, amount to thirty-eight millions of dollars. In the six years of that time already elapsed the sales in this account have amounted to almost nothing—after paying all expenses and charges. Where is Sir Charles Tupper's big boast that in eight years—from Jan. 1st, 1883, to December 31st, 1891—the receipts from land sales in the North-west would amount to fifty-eight millions of dollars? "The amount realized from sales of Dominion lands in 1886 was not nearly sufficient to meet the expenditure in connection with such lands, to say nothing of the outlay for mounted police, Indians, interest upon purchase money, and other North-west services. The expenditure upon Dominion lands charged to capital, in 1886 was $120,633, and charged to income, $194,965, making $325,618 altogether, while the total receipts from land sales only amounted to $176,795. The total revenue from Dominion lands was not sufficient to cover the salaries of the officials in that branch of the public service. The whole amount received on account of land sales in 1886 was $240,184, but the refunds to settlers amounted to $63,389, leaving the net receipts $176,795. There has been a steady decline in the receipts from this source for a number of years past. In 1885 the revenue was $393,618, in 1884, $931,636; in 1883, $1,009,009; and in 1882, $1,744,456. The receipts for last year from Dominion lands were therefore little more than ten per cent. of what they were five years ago. The whole revenue derived from North-west coal lands by the Dominion Government last year was only twenty dollars." This condition of affairs is deplorably lamentable, and the blame of it rests entirely upon the Dominion Government. Their pernicious policy of disallowance has done more to discourage immigration than would have done a formal proclamation forbidding settlers to enter the community on favorable conditions of settlement. Their cruel and callous neglect of the rights of the settlers has acted as another deterrent. The locking up of immense tracts of the most desirable and fertile of the land has been another stumbling block in the way of North west progress. After ever seventeen years' possession of the North-west—for the most part under Conservative rule—the total actual white resident population of Manitoba, according to the latest returns, was only 94,555.

Every year, the lakes in the vicinity of Peterborough become increasingly popular as places of resort during the summer months, and every year the influx of Americans is increasing. Any attempt to boom the back lakes as a summer resort, and to bring American travellers, especially, within their bounds will, this year, be neutralised by the new regulations of the customs department of the Dominion Government in respect to the personal baggage of travellers. Every American traveller will be required to fill out a formidable blank form, and also be required to swear that the schedule of his personal belongings thus obtained, contains no dutiable article. The regulation is a vexatious one and if persisted in will virtually kill American travel in Canada. A leading New York newspaper, dominion, voices the general sentiment regarding the regulation, when it says:—"Rather than submit to regulations so offensive it will not be strange if citizens of the United States the coming season prefer to remain on this side of the boundary line."

This is about the beginning of the season when nature thinks most about the clothes of the season.

POLITICS AT THE CAPITAL.

A Report from the Striking Committee—Proceedings in the House.

OTTAWA, April 19.

The Striking Committee met yesterday morning and their report was laid upon the table in the afternoon, where it will be left until to-day for such amendments as may be found desirable. At the meeting of this committee the Government members claimed Aymot and Cimon as their own, placing them on the committee among the faithful. All the others of last year's bolters were placed by the Government as though no bolt had taken place. There was no blacklisting, as on a former occasion. By an oversight Noah Shakespeare, the British Columbian, was not placed at all. His case will be attended to before the lists are printed.

The first business in the House yesterday after the receiving of petitions was the introduction of bills. Amid impressive silence, Mr. Nicholas Flood Davin rose to move the first reading of his Northwest bill. He said he wanted to change the title from "an act to establish full representative government in the Northwest Territories," to "an act respecting local government in the Northwest Territories." The House shouted, "Explain!" "Explain!" and Nicholas rose and said: "I do not know that there is anything to explain. (Laughter). I merely want complete local government, not 'full' local government."

Questions of members produced the following results: The gross debt on March 31 was $270,340,140, and the net debt $225,865,831. The amount estimated to complete public works, outside of canals, $964,000. The sums received for the sale of lands in Manitoba and the Northwest in 1886 was $503,341, and for leases $136,618. To April 1 of this year it was $93,873, and for leases $25,179. The actual white resident population of Manitoba is 99,455.

Mr. Landerkin was referred to the Auditors' report for information regarding the cost of the Franchise Act, with the promise that what he could not find there would be prepared specially for him.

Mr. Cartwright got an order for a return of receipts and expenditures in detail chargeable to the consolidated fund from July 1, 1886, to April 1, 1887, for a return of imports and exports and a return of grain and animal products exported from the Dominion between the same dates.

The Public Works and Interior reports were laid upon the table, together with two returns, and the House adjourned, having sat for less than an hour.

The Auditor-general's report is a bulky volume of 860 pages containing an exhaustive analysis of all details of public expenditure, departmental and parliamentary included. It also includes expenditures under the Franchise Act brought down to April 11, 1887. The total cost under the act to the date given was $353,741, of which the expenses of the revision in counties amounted to $124,874. The cost of printing the first lists was $109,482, of the second $83,408, and of the third $17,033, making a total cost of $179,924 for printing.

The report of the Department of the Interior is divided into four parts, the first relating to the geological survey, the second to technical surveys, the third to the Northwest Territories, the doings of the Northwest Council, education, whisky permits and such like public affairs, and the fourth to Dominion lands. Considerable attention is paid to Banff Springs, Mr. Whitcher contributing an interesting account of that district as sportsman's paradise. The Commissioner of Dominion Lands devotes considerable space to agriculture in Manitoba and the Northwest and to municipal institutions in Manitoba. There is a report on the forty-mile belt in British Columbia of interest as showing the capabilities of that region as a mining and grazing country. Superintendent Perce states that on the grazing grounds of the Northwest there are now 110,000 cattle, 10,000 horses and 25,000 sheep, an increase of 75 per cent. over the previous year. The Deputy-Minister reports that the Department has disposed of the greater part of the halfbreed claims under the old Manitoba act and that only a few of these nuisances are left. Homestead settlement increased 50 per cent. over the preceding year and there has been a great shrinkage in cancellation, indicating a substantial increase in bona fide settlers. In 1874 the cancellations were over 62 per cent. of all the homestead entries, last year there were only one half of one per cent. The number of patents issued last year was 600 more than in any previous year. The decrease in cost of lumber and coal is mentioned as of vital interest to settlement. An outline given of the explorations and surveys of Messrs. Bowman & McConnell is of great interest, the one as bearing upon the extent of the still undeveloped wealth of the Cariboo gold region, the other as dealing with the probable mineral wealth of the mountains immediately east and west of the summit of the Rockies.

The report of the Department of Public Works refers to the large number of handsome public buildings constructed at Government expense during the past four years; the great improvements made in harbors and rivers and the extension of the telegraph system on the north shore of the St. Lawrence 2803 miles to Cape Fontein. The expenditures as compared with last year are:

	1885.	1886
Public buildings	$ 1,320,460	$ 1,541,804
Harbors and rivers	801,105	861,503
Dredges and dredging	161,703	151,808
Slides and booms	100,633	127,470
Roads and bridges	23,113	38,292
Telegraph lines	136,273	119,461
Miscellaneous	45,242	30,945
Total	$ 2,682,621	$ 2,867,981

Killed While Fencing.

NEW ORLEANS, April 18.—John T. Fernandez and Henry Bernard engaged in a fencing bout at the Creole Club Saturday night. Fernandez was much the better man of the two, and disarmed his opponent several times. Bernard grew excited and made a vigorous lunge at Fernandez, who parried it, but in doing so the point of the foil entered his eye and penetrated the brain. The wounded man lived a few hours only. Bernard is locked up, charged with murder. The young men had been indulging freely in champagne.

The Schism of the Shoemakers.

NEW YORK, April 17.—About 200 shoemakers of the shops of New York and vicinity met here to-day and organized an open union under the title, "Manufacturing Shoemakers' Benevolent and Protective Union, No. 1." This is the result of a quarrel between Frank Campbell of Local Assembly No. 2073 of Tarrytown and foreman of Harris' shoe factory in this city and Master Workman Quinn of District Assembly 49, also of this city. This action will undoubtedly be followed by the withdrawal of about 6000 manufacturing shoemakers from the Knights of Labor.

Gladstone Eulogizes Beecher.

NEW YORK, April 16.—A letter from Gladstone was received in Brooklyn yesterday by Edward W. Bok, in which the ex-premier passes a high eulogy on Mr. Beecher. Mr. Gladstone's letter will not be made public until it appears in a memorial now being prepared by Mr. Bok for Mr. Beecher's family and friends. The letter is most cordial in tone, of considerable length, and in it the great statesman takes occasion to express his gratification at the tributes paid him in Mr. Beecher's article published in American newspapers some time ago, which he had read.

Shot from Behind a Hedge.

CORK, April 17.—Magistrate Hagarty, returning to Mill-street from a meeting of the Defence Union to-day, was fired at from behind a hedge and was wounded in the head and shoulders with buckshot. Hagarty is unpopular and has been vigorously boycotted. No arrests have been made. Collisions took place between soldiers and civilians at Youghal and Corkhill, and several persons were hurt.

An Astronomical Conference at Paris.

PARIS, April 16.—M. Flourens, Minister of Foreign Affairs, to-day opened the International Astronomical Conference. [illegible]

Astonishing Success.

It is the duty of every person who has used Boschee's German Syrup to let its wonderful qualities be known to their friends in curing Consumption, severe Coughs, Croup, Asthma, Pneumonia, and in fact all throat and lung diseases. No person can use it without immediate relief. Three doses will relieve any case, and we consider it the duty of all Druggists to recommend it to the poor, dying consumptive, at least to try one bottle, as 30,000 dozen bottles were sold last year, and no one case where it failed was reported. Such a medicine as the German Syrup cannot be too widely known. Ask your druggist about it, sample bottles to try, only 10 cents. Regular size, 75 cents. Sold by all Druggists and dealers, in the United States and Canada. eodw4

Draw the Line at Corns.

Damon and Pythias were mighty good friends, but we do not think they would have remained so if Pythias had insisted upon his right to use Damon's razor to cut his corns with.

This is to certify that I have used McGregor's Speedy Cure for Dyspepsia and Liver Complaint, and do honestly say that if it cost me one hundred dollars ($100.00) a bottle I would not be without it, as it has done me more good than all the medicines I ever used, and I feel like a new man.—Yours truly, Alex. Steele, Carleton Place, Ont. This medicine is for sale at 50c. and $1.00 per bottle at John McKee's Drug Store. eodw17

Overworked.

"My husband strained himself with overwork, causing a large swelling in the groin. He suffered great agony, which doctors failed to relieve; he could not eat nor sleep. B. B. B. quickly cured him. He says he never had such quick relief in his life." Extract from a letter from Mrs. George Boak, Cookeville, Ont. 2w17d

A Common Occurrence.

Many bad joints, by which people are crippled for life, are made by neglected or badly treated rheumatism. Ida Plank, of Strathroy, Ont., was afflicted with rheumatism in her fingers so that she could not bend them. Yellow Oil cured her, and is a prompt cure for all painful complaints. 2w17d

SOMETHING NEW UNDER THE SUN!

BE SURE of the Place: Four Life-size Signs on Front of Building. LOOK UP FOR THEM!

GOUGH'S

Fresh Arrival of Spring Overcoats and Suits are the Newest Nobbiest, and Cheapest under the Sun!!

Those High-Priced Clothing Dealers can't see the funny about Gough's GIFT Department, and Claim such things are beneath them—Yes, low Advertising is beyond their comprehension, because they don't understand the first principles of Low Price System. We freely admit that we are fallen Clothiers, wallowing in the lowest depths of Bed Rock Prices, while our exalted brethren look down upon us from their high places, and go wild because we Capture the Trade.

Farmers, Mechanics, Merchants, Bankers and Laboring Men, come in and see us. Take no man's word, investigate and believe your own eyes, and you will be convinced that GOUGH is the cheapest Clothier on Earth.

THIS WEEK we will offer Extraordinary Inducements. All our Departments have been augmented with new features and choice Stock, which will justly excite the admiration of all visitors. Call, it will pay as well as please you to see—

THE IRISH COERCION BILL.

Archbishop Lynch sends a Strong Letter to Public Meeting.

TORONTO, April 19.

Vigorous speeches were made against the Irish Coercion Bill, and denunciatory resolutions were adopted, at the meeting held last night in Temperance Hall. The hall was packed, and the greatest enthusiasm prevailed.

Many prominent Irishmen were on the platform. Mr. J. A. Mallon, President of the Toronto Branch of the Irish National League, was in the chair.

Archbishop Lynch forwarded a contribution of $50 and Bishops Cleary and O'Mahony $25 each.

His Grace the Archbishop wrote as follows:

A higher order of spiritual duties prevents my attending your meeting to protest against the iniquity of the proposed Coercion Bill, introduced into Parliament by the policy of the present unfortunate English government, but I am heart and soul with the object of your meeting. I have said a higher order of spiritual duty, for I deem it a spiritual duty to protest against injustice and the oppression of the poor. I beg to plead a merciful consideration of your meeting for the representative in this country of Her Majesty the Queen of England, solely on account of the sovereign authority which he represents.

Our Lord has said upon the chair of Moses of the Scribes and Pharisees: "Do as they say but do not as they do."

The appointment of this statesman was very unfortunate, for free and virtuous Canada had a right to expect a representative who by character and whose ancestry would not bring disgrace upon her. The book of Sir Charles Russell, ex-Attorney General, who examined Commissions between landlord and tenant on the Lansdowne estates has been published to the world and records an appalling state of injustice and tyranny for generations. You are of course at liberty to expose the abominations of agents and your charity will, I fear, be attributed to its utmost limits in an effort to disassociate their claims from those of their employers.

Remember, too, that there is a multitude of such outrages in Ireland and the most original of them is the Government which, unprovoked, insulted the injustice towards the tenantry which its own act of Parliament judged condemnable.

I am glad to find our excellent Legislature of Ontario entering also their protest in advance of yours. Nearly every legislature of the United States has also protested. All English speaking people should disown such tyranny and save themselves from any imputation of connivance, lest their silence might be interpreted into countenancing, in the slightest degree, tyranny and oppression which deprives people of their just rights.

It is the duty of humanity of a higher moral order to protest against the actions of the lower grades. For there is a solidarity in human nature which presses the good to protest, if they can do a thing else, against wrongdoing whether over or by whomsoever perpetrated. All the millions of exiles Irish spread throughout the world are raising their voices against this perpetual coercion, and against all the past crimes of the English Government. It is true that there are some Irishmen who, from evil associations are enemies and Irish. These of course have little weight and deserve but little honor. This universal cry of regenerated humanity resounds against proud England, now low enough in the estimation of the civilized world.

English rule in Ireland commenced in abetting and upholding the crime of adultery. The rest of the history may be summed up in penal laws against the rights of human society. Their language and religion. The ruins of monasteries, colleges, churches and hospitals all over the land, are the silent witnesses of their crimes. Irish industry and trade were put under a ban in favor of England. Our country today stands the image of ruin and desolation. It is the most unfortunate country in Europe, though renowned for its fertility and other natural advantages. The sighs and groans of millions of the Irish and of her children have ascended to heaven for over seven centuries and a just retribution will follow, and England may be brought down yet to the condition of Ireland.

These resolutions were then moved and adopted, eloquent speeches being made by the gentlemen entrusted with their introduction. Rev. Dr. Burns, who spoke for an hour and a quarter, referred in moderate language to Lord Lansdowne's treatment of his tenants, which evoked hisses.

Moved by Rev. Dr. Burns of Hamilton, seconded by Father McGrath of Kingston, that we hereby emphatically enter our hearty protest against the Coercion Bill with which Ireland is at present threatened, and we declare our conviction that the state of the country does not require it; that it is a wanton insult to the Irish people, and can only tend to increase the oppression and desperation of an oppressed people.

Moved by A. J. Jury and seconded by Patrick Boyle, Resolved that the only remedy applicable to the Irish people is a full measure of legislative independence similar to that now enjoyed by Canada, by the granting of which the peace and safety of the Empire will be secured.

Moved by Bryan Lynch, seconded by Hon. T. W. Anglin, Resolved that the sincere thanks of the meeting be tendered to Gladstone, Morley and the Liberal party, and that this meeting expresses its confidence in Parnell and his colleagues.

This message was ordered to be cabled to Messrs. Gladstone and Parnell. [illegible] zens of Toronto in mass meeting assembled emphatically protest against coercion and [illegible] the endorse your efforts to secure Home Rule for Ireland."

"For contemplation he, and valor formed,
For softness she, and sweet attractive grace."

John Milton in his "Paradise Lost" thus distinguishes woman from man. Diseases fail to her lot that do not to man's, peculiar to her soft and more refined nature. A remedy adapted to the cure of her peculiar diseases is found in Dr. R. V. Pierce's "Favorite Prescription," for women. Thousands who have used it attest its great worth. 6dw17

A DISCOMFITED HIGH CONSTABLE.

Magistrate Denison Refuses to Endorse a Warrant for Mr. Sheppard's Arrest.

TORONTO, April 18.

High Constable Bissonnette of Montreal arrived in the city on Saturday in search of the scalp of Mr. F. E. Sheppard of the News. His scalping knives consisted of two warrants issued by M. C. Dansbyer, Judge of Sessions, Montreal, at the instance of George E. Bennet and Leon Joseph Ethier, captains in the 65th Regiment, who charge Mr. Sheppard with criminal libel. The High Constable called on Police Magistrate Denison and requested him to endorse the warrants so that they might be executed.

The Magistrate declined and gave his reasons for doing so. The alleged offence, he said, had been committed over two years ago, and although Mr. Sheppard had been in Montreal since he had not been arrested. He was not obliged to endorse the warrants, as the statute says he "may," and in this case he was in doubt as to whether or not it was an attempt to get Mr. Sheppard to Montreal on the warrant and then arrest him on a judgment for $1000 damages obtained by Major Dugas of the 65th. The Magistrate instanced a case where a man was taken from Toronto to England on a trumped-up charge, arrested and convicted there on another charge, and afterwards pardoned and sent back to Canada when it was shown that the proceedings were contrary to the principles of British justice. The Magistrate further said that he would endorse the warrant if a mandamus were issued compelling him to do so, but he did not want to be a party to any unjust proceeding.

High Constable Bissonnette returned to Montreal on Saturday night. He intends reporting the matter to Attorney-General Mercier of Quebec in the hope that he will communicate with the Attorney-General of this province

The breath of a chronic catarrh patient is often so offensive that he cannot go into society and he becomes an object of disgust. After a time ulceration sets in, the spongy bones are attacked, and frequently, entirely destroyed. A constant source of discomfort is the dripping of the purulent secretions into the throat, sometimes producing invet-erate bronchitis, which in its turn has been the exciting cause of pulmonary disease. The brilliant results which have attended its use for years past properly designate Ely's Cream Balm as by far the best, if not the only real cure for hay fever, rose cold, and catarrh. eodw17

Assault and Attempt at Rape.

Last Monday a boy aged sixteen, from South Monaghan, (near Wood Duck creek), says the Port Hope Times, attempted a rape on the person of a young girl, aged thirteen years. He was promptly arrested by James Richardson, chief constable of Millbrook, and a preliminary examination was held before A. Ferguson, Esq., Reeve, and Thomas Gillott, J. P. The young girl was 3 or 4 miles from home and was returning from visiting her grandmother when she was assaulted by the young ruffian. It was proven that he used extreme violence, but did not succeed in his purpose. After a careful consideration of the evidence (with closed doors), the magistrate committed him to Port Hope gaol, where he will have time to ponder over matters pending the assizes.

Ostrom's Fruit and Fish Depot.

M. T. Ostrom & Co., the enterprising proprietors of "Smith's Market," not to be one whit behind the general advancement everywhere noted in town, have lately been overhauling and improving their premises on George street, the alterations giving just one-half more working room in the same space than was allowed before. The ceiling and walls have been handsomely papered and the long shelving on the right hand side removed, in its place being a set of drawers on the American pattern. The whole interior has been renovated and cleaned, and as soon as a little more painting is done, the repairs will be complete, making a fruit store not to be excelled in convenience or capacity outside the large cities. With such a fine shop, Messrs. Ostrom & Co. are determined to keep their stock up to a higher standard than ever. Their cellar is packed with cases of oranges, lemons and other fruit, the facilities for preserving which are excellent. Their large refrigerator, capable of containing 10 tons of ice, will furnish storage room for almost any amount of fruit during the hot summer. They have been the first in town to receive bananas and pineapples this season. In the rear a fish-house is being erected, in which will be included every modern improvement known to the business. Ostrom & Co. do a large wholesale trade as well as commanding a lion's share of the retail patronage. For fresh fish, fresh fruit, and fresh groceries, the public are recommended to Ostrom & Co.

Post-Office or Customs Buildings—Which?

The public are wont to regard the new Government building, now going up on the corner of Hunter and Water streets, as "our new post-office," but it appears that belief is only a matter of pure faith, unsupported by any official declaration on the subject. "It is not so nominated in the bond."

In the last report of the Minister of Public Works, Sir Hector Langevin refers to the Government "Public Buildings" in Peterborough as follows:

"Peterborough, in the electoral district of West Peterborough, is situated on the Otonabee River, and is about 94 miles north-east of Toronto.

"At the session of 1883 the sum of $10,000.00 was voted to provide Public Buildings at this place, and the unexpended balance of appropriation for 1884-85, $7,000.00, was carried forward. On 19th October, 1885, a lot was purchased from Mr. E. Phelan, for the sum of $3,900.00, and on 20th October, 1885, a lot at the corner of Hunter and Water streets, containing 6,000 square feet, was purchased from Mr. C. W. Sawers for the sum of $6,000.00. On 13th February, 1886, a contract was entered into with Mr. J. E. Askwith for the erection of a building on the latter lot, for the sum of $16,500.00. The building will be two storeys high, of brick, on stone foundations, 50 feet square, with floors, partitions and roofs of wood, the latter covered with slate and galvanized iron. The two principal entrances will be on Hunter street, and entrance to first floor on Water street. At the close of the fiscal year the building was well advanced. Expenditure, $12,024.22."

It will be observed that Sir Hector does not commit himself to the statement that the Hunter street Government building is intended for use as a post office, and until the magnitude of the public interests involved render such a course advisable, the important state secret must remain locked in the Minister's breast, and the public must possess their souls in patience.

Cupid's Conquest.

A couple of hundred or more pretty feminine faces, with a corresponding number of cute little bonnets and pairs of eager, expectant eyes, by some mysterious means intuitively assembled at St. John's church Tuesday afternoon, it having been whispered about that a wedding was to take place, mention of which alone is sufficient to always attract a large gathering of the fair sex. They all sat as close to the centre aisle as possible, or stood in groups near the doorway. At four o'clock half a dozen cabs drove up to the church and therefrom alighted the bridal party and a large number of invited guests. The contracting parties were Montague A. Anderson, of Ottawa, son of Rev. Canon Anderson of Montreal, and Ellen Stafford, daughter of Mr. T. S. Rubidge, of this town. The bride (plainly attired in a blue travelling dress), was supported by Miss Macdonald, of Ottawa, whose dress was very handsome; the groom by his own brother. Rev. Mr. Beck performed the ceremony. The altar and chancel were profusely and elegantly decorated with flowers. At the conclusion of the impressive ceremonies the newly wedded couple, followed by their friends, departed in their carriages to the family residence. As they were leaving the church, the bride leaning on her husband's arm, both were smiling and happy, apparently unconscious of the close scrutiny of the spectators who on either side formed living walls, between which the party passed. Mr. and Mrs. Anderson left on the evening train for New York to spend the honeymoon, bearing with them the best wishes for future happiness and prosperity of a host of friends, a material proof of their esteem being furnished in the large number of presents to the bride.

The Organ Recital.

Below is published the programme of the organ recital in the George street Methodist Church, to-night. Dr. Davies arrived in town this morning and Mr. Lye on the noon express. Of Dr. Davies nothing need be said—his talent is too well known in Peterborough to need any commendation. Mr. Lye, the tenor soloist, is a member of the celebrated Orpheus Quintette club, of Toronto, and is a singer of note. It is hoped a large audience will assemble in the church to-night, and as the admission fee has been left optional, it is also hoped that their silver offerings will be worthy of the entertainment:—

Overture—"Semiramide" ..... Rossini
Ave Maria—Op 5 ..... Adolphe Henselt
Vocal Solo—"It with all your Heart"... Elijah.
MR. ED. J. LYE, OF TORONTO.
Choruses from Israel: "The Horse and his Rider" ... "But the waters overwhelmed." ..... Handel
Gavotte Characteristique ..... Henri Roubier
INTERMISSION.
Allegro Pracevole—"Violin Sonata" ..... Beethoven
Funeral March of a Marionette ..... Gounod
Concert Fugue ..... Bach
Vocal Solo—Wait her Angels ... from Jeptha.
MR. ED. J. LYE.
Minuet and Trio—Symphony in E Flat, ... Mozart
Wedding March ..... Sir Arthur Sullivan

Admission—Silver collection at the door.

The Proposed System of Bridges.

The proposal of councillor Cahill to borrow money or debentures, to construct permanent bridges over the creek on Simcoe and Brock street, is one worthy of careful consideration. The first idea is, will it pay? Certainly it will pay. It will be cheapest in the long run to cross the creek at Charlotte, Simcoe and Brock streets with permanent iron bridges. Of course there will be an increase of taxes but if the thing is only properly worked the extra payment will not be felt. Every rate payer will save enough money to make up, ten times over, the amount of his extra taxes, if he is only wise enough to buy his clothing of gough the wonderful cheap man. Don't grumble about high taxes for necessary and permanent improvements when you can more than make up the price by buying ready made clothing for boys, youths and men at the sign of the Quadruple Dudes, George street, Peterborough.

20 cents will buy a pair of Ladies Fine Shaped Hose in Black at Turnbull's. Remember his Heavy 8 Knickerbockers for Boys in all the Best Shades.

Sunday School Anniversary.

The Pupils of the Baptist Church S. S. Treated to a Supper—The Concert which followed.

At six o'clock Tuesday afternoon the pupils of the Baptist Church Sunday School were treated to a tea provided in the school room, by the ladies of the church, to which, it is needless to say, close and particular attention was paid by the little folks for the space of half an hour or more. After the debris had been cleared away, the concert was begun at eight o'clock. The programme, though lengthy, was speedily finished, each number being rendered with a celerity and accuracy which betoken both natural talent and careful preparation. Most of the numbers were taken by little boys and girls, of from three to seven years of age, whose tiny hands, lisping voices, and laughing faces, were all made to do service in the rendition of their parts. The room was nicely decorated with red, white, and blue streamers, and flowers, while an unpromptu curtain of large Union Jacks was rigged up in front of the platform—for all of which Sergt. Billings is given credit. Misses Nicholls, Aldridge, Stratton, and Gilmour, and Mr. Lacey, are to be congratulated upon the very gratifying result of their labors in the getting up and carrying out of the programme. Mr. Lacey, the Superintendent of the school, acted as chairman. Following is the programme:—

A Belleville Couple's Trials.

James Bryce, a Belleville artist, and Mary Wright, the pretty 15-year-old daughter of his landlord, eloped from Belleville the other night, but were arrested at Shannonville and returned home. Bryce is now in gaol on a charge of seduction, made under the Charlton Act. The complainant, Archibald Wright, the girl's father, alleges that the offence was committed on January 14th. The magistrate has recommended him to withdraw his objection and allow the young couple to marry, which they are willing to do. Bryce is an artist of some ability, and gets an occasional remittance from the old country and is said to be honest and industrious. As the girl says she is bound to stick to him, and he to her, the father may be induced to give his consent, and all may be happy yet. The Intelligencer adds that Archibald Wright, the girl's father, was formerly of Port Hope, and about seven years ago was head of the Midland shops at that place.

In His Old Stand Again.

It was announced some time ago in the EXAMINER that Mr. J. J. Sheehy had resigned his business in his old stand and assumed the stock of Dolan & Co., but at the last moment the transaction fell through and the final arrangements were not completed. Mr. Sheehy is again in his old stand, ready to receive all old customers and all new ones who will favor him with their patronage, and his stock is being augmented daily by large consignments of the newest and nobbiest dry goods in the market. He pays particular attention to gent's furnishing goods. Mr. Sheehy's goods and prices will be found just right.

PARLIAMENTARY.

THE ONTARIO LEGISLATURE.

Prison Labor Considered by the House—Adjournment on Saturday.

TORONTO, April 21.

The Legislature got promptly to work at 11.15 yesterday, and held three sessions before adjourning at 11.30 o'clock last night. It is understood that the mandate of the Government has gone forth that the business of the House must close on Saturday. This means the slaughtering of a number of the thirty or forty bills that still remain on the paper in a half-baked condition.

When the House met Mr. Fraser moved the third reading of his bill to amend the Factories Act. The bill was allowed to stand till to-day.

The bill incorporating the village of Tilbury Centre was considered in committee and reported, as was also the bill to unite McMaster Hall and the Woodstock College into a university. On motion of the Minister of Education the sum named as the endowment, $600,000, was increased to $700,000.

Mr. Meredith's bill respecting the General Hospital of the city of London was ordered a second reading and referred to committee of the whole.

Hon. Mr. Hardy introduced this resolution, which has been standing on the paper since March 12:

That in the opinion of this House it is inexpedient that the labor of convicts confined in the Central Prison shall, after the expiration of existing contracts in that behalf, be let out upon hire to any corporation, firm or private person."

He pointed out that all legislation recently enacted on this subject in the United States, so far as he could learn, had been of an experimental character. Labor organizations had complained that the employment of prisoners caused an unfair competition with free labor, and there was enough of force in it to demand that some change should be made. The Ontario Government at the present time had contracts with two employers, the Nelson's and the Brandon Company. The Nelson employed 78 persons, of whom only 48 were actually engaged in making brooms, the other 34 being old men and boys who were engaged in the minor processes. The Brandon Company employed 98 men in manufacturing various kinds of woodenware. The amount received by the prison from these two firms in 1885 was $16,701, and in 1886 was $19,320. Then there were other industries not carried on under the contract system. They received from the brickyard in 1885 $12,519, in 1886 $3,005; from the tailorshop $6,700 in 1885, $4,685 in 1886, shoeshop $7,000 in 1885, $4,682 in 1886. As the contracts did not expire until 1889 there would be ample time for the Government to make inquiries about the matter, and they hoped to be able, when the contracts expired, to submit such a scheme as would be in the best interests of all concerned.

When the House re-assembled at 3.15 the debate on Mr. Hardy's resolution was resumed.

Mr. Ingram, Mr. Gibson, (Huron), Mr. Garson, Mr. H. E. Clarke and Mr. Meredith spoke. The only one of these speakers who offered any direct opposition to the resolution was Farmer Gibson, who of course represents a rural constituency and does not fear organized labor. All of the other speakers submitted that free labor suffered from competition with prison labor. Mr. Meredith said it would devolve upon the Government to devise some means of solving this problem.

The resolution then went through without division.

The House went into committee at 3.40 on Bill No. 108, to amend the Municipal Act, and remained in session, with the exception of the dinner hour, until 10 o'clock. This bill was introduced by Mr. Hardy, and covers a variety of subjects, the principal one being the qualifications for seats at municipal boards. The bill contains 56 clauses. Mr. Guthrie got clause 2 amended thus: The qualifications for reeves, councillors, mayors, aldermen, etc., in incorporated villages shall be $400 freehold and $800 leasehold; in counties $600 and $1,200, in townships $400 and $800, in cities $1600 and $2000. The bill received a general overhauling and was reported back to the House.

The Minister of Education moved the second reading of Bill 107, respecting the Income and property of the University of Toronto, University College and Upper Canada College. Mr. Ross spoke for over an hour on this bill and made a brilliant review of the progress made in higher education in Ontario from 1827, when King's College was founded and endowed, down to the present time. Each step was an advancement in liberalizing higher education. Briefly stated Mr. Ross' bill proposes. The present value of the endowment of Upper Canada College, including the site on which the college stands (valued at $325,000) is $600,000. The site is to be sold. The college is to be permanently endowed with $100,000. $125,000 will be spent in erecting a new college building, and $25,000 set apart for a site. The balance of the $600,000 will be transferred to the endowment of the University of Toronto. The university's present endowment is $1,002,000, deriving an annual revenue of $61,000 from capital account and $12,000 from fees. The teaching staff of the university will be increased to 15 professors, 10 lecturers and 8 fellows. The salary of the present staff (7) of professors is $3200 per annum, and the new professors will be paid $2500. This will entail an additional cost of $24,000 for teachers and equipment which will be derived from the disendowment of Upper Canada College, the abolition of nearly $6000 of scholarships, and annual increase in real estate appurtenant to the University, etc. This will bring the annual income of Toronto University up to nearly $85,000, "which," said the Minister, "will put it in enviable competition with the best American colleges." The Minister said the new site for Upper Canada College had not been selected; it might be in Queen's Park or on the outskirts of the city, near a line of street railway.

The Minister made an eloquent defence of the good work accomplished by Upper Canada College from its inception down to the present time. Meredith said the scheme in principle would have his cordial support. [illegible] Waters accepted the scheme, although he has frequently moved to abolish Upper Canada College altogether.

Dr. McLaughlin was very happy to see the endowment question once and for all definitely free, and he approved the proposition of any fees whatever. He regretted that no one from Kent should be apart for the improvement of the library.

Mr. H. E. Clarke said the partial demolition of Upper Canada College's endowment meant the handicapping of the rest of the colleges. However, as his leader was not going to oppose it he would not.

The bill was then read a second time and stands for reference to Committee of the Whole House.

OVER THE SEA.

THE COERCION CAMPAIGN GROWS VERY WARM.

LONDON, April 20.—Lord Salisbury, in an address before the Primrose League at Albert Palace last night, said the hollow agitation carried on during the Easter holidays by the Opposition had failed and the Government's cause was the country's. The Government stood in Ireland facing a vast machine, producing terrorism and crime, against which the Government intended to struggle with all the powers Parliament would grant. Mr. Gladstone's imagination deceived him when he attempted to prove that his party's prospects were very bright. The Irish Crimes Bill would not compare in stringency with Gladstone's bill of 1881. Under the latter measure people were imprisoned without trial. This could not be done under the present bill. The suppression of crime in Ireland did not mean the suppression of liberty. The policeman in arresting Bill Sykes did not interfere with liberty. Yet Mr. Gladstone condemned the Repression Bill. A danger of the present day lay in catch words. Mr. Gladstone, who had spent his life in changing his opinions, mentioned those who separated from him in the tone of a father lecturing his children. He preached at and almost prayed for them, but it never occurred to Mr. Gladstone that perhaps they had something to complain of. They were unable to change their opinions in a night as he could. Lord Salisbury prophesied that Mr. Gladstone would find it difficult to gather around him any new recruits. His present adherents had gone too far to recede. What had Mr. Gladstone gained? He gained the eighty six very devoted followers of Mr. Parnell, who had been charged with having approved murder and who had refused, or whose friends had refused for him, to enter the witness box and deny the charge, and this course Mr. Gladstone approved. Mr. Parnell had been assisted with funds subscribed by men who advocated murder. When a man was accused in such a manner it was not open to him to put the accusation aside with the copious use of the elegant vocabulary his friends had introduced into the House of Commons. He was bound to enter the witness box and deny the charges against him most solemnly. How could Mr. Gladstone go before the country associated with men who refused to submit such a question to the judgment of an English jury? Lord Salisbury did not believe in the Gladstone horoscope. The victory Mr. Gladstone obtained in 1880 was won by a fund of misrepresentation that could not be repeated. The Conservatives were now an organized party, powerful enough to refute falsehood and disseminate the truth. This condition of the party was largely due to the work of the Primrose League. The present Government would, when it left office, hand down unimpaired to their successors the great trust of the Empire committed to their care. [Cheers].

The Parnellites Indignant.

LONDON, April 21.—The Parnellites are indignant at Lord Salisbury's speech at Albert Palace and there is some talk of bringing his remarks under the notice of the House of Commons.

It is reported that as a result of the reiteration of its charges by the Times, an effort will be made to bring the editor and publisher before the House of Commons and make them prove, if they can, the truth of the allegations made by them.

American and Colonial Sympathy.

LONDON, April 20.—Mr. Gladstone writes: "I attach very high value and importance to the manifestations, now incessant, of American as well as colonial sympathy with the Irish people in the crisis created by the causeless, insulting and insidious bill at present before Parliament. Apart from particular and more or less formal acknowledgment a I am not of the opinion that it would be proper or expedient for me to address any general communication to Americans on this subject, which, however, I have noticed and may notice again in Parliament. Still I am very anxious that the people of this country should have the means of understanding how much beyond the range of any sectional impulses and how truly national the movement in the United States has become, and in this view I would recommend that an endeavor should be made to present some estimate of the aggregate numbers of persons by whom recent meetings in America have been attended and likewise, and especially an estimate of the numbers of Governors, Mayors, Senators and representatives, clergymen and other official or highly responsible persons by whom such meeting s have been countenanced or supported."

THE SOUTH VICTORIA CONTEST.

Mr. Hudspeth, the Conservative, Elected By a Majority of 60.

LINDSAY, Ont., April 20.—Hudspeth, Conservative, has been elected in South Victoria by about forty majority.

The Movements of the Queen.

LONDON, April 20.—The royal yachts Victoria and Albert, the Osborne, the Alberta, the Trinity yacht Galatea and the Admiralty yacht Enchantress are all under orders to leave Portsmouth next Tuesday for Cherbourg, where they will embark the Queen either on Thursday afternoon or on Friday afternoon. Her Majesty is to travel direct to Cherbourg from Aix-les-Bains, and she will dine and sleep on board the Victoria and Albert, and cross to Portsmouth on the morning after her embarkation. Princess Louise, who has arrived at Aix-les-Bains from Naples, Princess Beatrice and Prince Henry of Battenberg will travel back with the Queen.

Two Sheriffs Dead.

PORT ARTHUR, April 21.—Sheriff J. F. Clarke died last night. He was sheriff for the Thunder Bay district for 8 years. He formerly represented North Norfolk in the Ontario Assembly.

WELLAND, Ont., April 21, 2.30 a. m.—Sheriff Duncan of Welland county, died here suddenly last night at 11.30 o'clock of heart disease. The funeral takes place on Monday.

O'Brien Cables That He is Coming.

MONTREAL, April 20.—Wm. O'Brien, M.P., has cabled that he will leave Queenstown on Sunday with Mr. Kilbride, an evicted tenant, for Canada, to lecture on the Lansdowne eviction. He will also speak in Toronto, Ottawa and Quebec.

Mr. Biggar Takes Action.

LONDON, April 20.—Mr. Biggar will sue the Times for libel, and make that paper's articles on "Parnellism and Crime," of the series of which the Parnell letter was the culminating part, the basis of the action.

The Australian Cable Project.

LONDON, April 21.—The Colonial Conference to day discussed the proposal to lay a cable between Canada and Australia.

FISHERIES DISPUTE.

A DESPATCH SAID TO HAVE BEEN SENT BY LORD SALISBURY.

LONDON, April 20.—It is officially stated that Lord Salisbury, in a despatch sent to Washington on March 24, said that the British Government, understanding the action of the United States in denouncing the fishery articles of the treaty of Washington to be in a great degree the result of disappointment at being called upon to pay £1,100,000 under the Halifax fisheries award, offers to revert to the old condition of affairs without pecuniary indemnity, which offer it trusts will commend itself to the American Government as being based upon that spirit of good will and generosity which should animate two great and kindred nations whose common origin, language and institutions constitute as many bonds of amity and concord.

Information Refused.

WASHINGTON, April 20.—The Secretary of State declines to either confirm or deny the statement cabled from London that Lord Salisbury has sent a despatch to this Government on the subjec of the fisheries, offering to revert to the old condition of affairs without pecuniary indemnity. Secretary Bayard also declines to express any opinion with regard to the subject of the despatch as cabled.

Salisbury's Proposition Not New.

WASHINGTON, April 20.—The subject matter of the proposition reported to have been made to the United States by Lord Salisbury in relation to the fisheries question is not exactly new in diplomatic circles, the same proposition having emanated from a Canadian source some time ago. Well-informed persons incline to the opinion that the offer referred to in the cablegram has been thus indirectly and unofficially made as a "feeler," to ascertain in advance of an actual tender how such a proposition would be received by the American people. As the representatives of the United States on the commission that negotiated the Treaty of Washington, and the Halifax Commission, which fixed the award made for the use of the Canadian inshore fisheries, expressly denied that the privileges accorded to United States vessels in Canadian waters was more valuable than the concession made to Canadian fishermen of a like privilege in waters of the United States and free entry of their fish, it is safe to assume that the Department of State never entertained the idea of renewing the Treaty of Washington with the understanding that a cash indemnity was again to be paid to Great Britain for the right to enjoy the inshore fisheries of Canada. Secretary Bayard to-day said that he was glad to note the increasing interest manifested in the subject. He felt that the people of the country outside of Massachusetts had never realized the importance or appreciated the gravity of the alternative left to the administration—a declaration of non-intercourse, if it failed to effect a peaceable adjustment of the difficulties between the United States and Great Britain respecting the construction of the treaty rights of our fishermen. It is doubtful, he said, if the interests of San Francisco in maintaining her present source of coal supply from British Columbia, aside from the importance of the great Chicago business connections with Canada and of the vast trade that ebbs and flows across the three thousand miles of our northern boundary, do not exceed the interest of Massachusetts in the results of the application of such an alternative as commercial non-intercourse. The negotiations with Great Britain on this subject were progressing and the Secretary hopes they will result in a harmonious and satisfactory understanding between that country and the United States.

The Report is Incorrect.

OTTAWA, April 20. The report from London that Lord Salisbury has offered, in a despatch to the United States Government, to revert to the old condition of affairs without indemnity for our fisheries is quite incorrect. Lord Salisbury has recently communicated with Washington, but the London message does not correctly represent the tenor of his despatch.

LIEUT. DANENHOWER DEAD.

ANNAPOLIS, Md., April 20. Lieut. John Danenhower, of Arctic fame, was discovered at 10 o'clock this morning dead in his quarters at the National Academy, with a bullet hole in his right temple. He was found lying on his rug in front of his fireplace with a pad tied to his button-hole, saying "Send to my brother at Washington." Although he has had mental trouble since he returned from the Arctic region, what immediately led to the suicide is thought to have been the recent grounding of the Constellation on its way to Norfolk, of which he had charge, and for which, it is supposed, he had a fear of being courtmartialed. Furthermore, he was very intimate with young Robert W. Gatewood, who recently committed suicide on the Carolina, and whom he saw in death. It is supposed this death suggested the mode to him. His wife, formerly Miss Sloan, daughter of Senator George B. Sloan of Oswego, is away with her parents. Lieut. Danenhower leaves two children. He was about 35 years old and an intelligent and polished officer.

QUEBEC "VINEGAR"

It Proves to be Whisky and Custom Officers Take Charge of It.

MONTREAL, April 20.—Custom House officers have just made another seizure after watching their "firm" for fully two years. It seems that last Thursday fifty-one barrels of whisky, marked vinegar, and belonging to E. & A. Robitaille of Quebec, were seized for infraction of the excise laws in that city. On Friday last two car loads, 120 bbls., of "vinegar," consigned to their order, were received at Hochelaga, via Canadian Pacific Railway. An effort was made to test the barrels, but the man in charge refused to allow it. Customs Officer Brosseau kept close watch upon the consignment, and fifty-nine barrels were seized by the exciseman in a vacant store on De Brasales-street, and were all found to contain whisky, all marks, excise and shipping having been obliterated. The balance of fifty-one barrels is being traced. The excise tax on 120 barrels of whisky is nearly $10,800; as vinegar the tax would be $192, a difference of $10618. The amount of tax on that seized at Quebec and in this city gives a sum of $15,000 as a total claim.

When Greek Meets Greek.

POPLAR BLUFF, Mo., April 20.—Saturday night constable Chas. Barfield of Butler county, went to Neelyville with six deputies to arrest two outlaws, and finding them away from the house took possession to await their return. On the same night the Ripley county sheriff came to Neelyville on the same mission. The affairs of both parties were so secretly carried out that neither knew of the other's presence. The Butler county men had hardly taken possession when they heard the Ripley county deputies approaching and supposed they were the outlaws. The Butler deputies opened a fusilade upon them with Winchester rifles. The fire was returned and for several hours the deputies waged a desultory warfare. At daylight the besieged recognized the besieging party and a parley ended the battle. The outlaws escaped.

Degraded and Dismissed.

LONDON, April 21.—An Irish non-commissioned officer of artillery, who had for some time been employed in a confidential capacity in the Ordnance Office at Woolwich Arsenal, has been degraded in rank and dismissed from his position without trial on charge of having sold secrets of the office. A civilian accomplice was also dismissed.

THE PRESSING BURDEN OF DEBT.

During the recent Dominion elections the Ministers who visited Peterborough solemnly asserted that the net debt of the Dominion was only $196,000,000 on June 30th, 1885, leading the people to believe that that was the full amount of the net debt at that time, when they knew that the debt at that moment was over twenty-six millions in excess of the figures with which Hon. Mr. Foster sought to mislead his hearers in the Opera House here. The net debt on the 30th June, 1886, was $223,159,107, an increase of $26,751,000 over the previous year. The gross debt of the country on June 30th, 1886, was $273,164,241, and it has been rapidly growing since that time. The deficit the past fiscal year is $5,834,572, the total receipts being $33,177,040, and the expenditure $39,011,612. The interest payable on the public debt increased last year by the sum of $718,526, and we now pay in interest annually $10,137,008. If to the actual expenditure of thirty nine millions, be added the increase of twenty-six millions in the public debt, we have the appalling sum of sixty six millions, which represents the actual expenditure for a single year. Can the country stand this sort of financial pace? And yet we are told by the Tory politicians that the country is prosperous and that their party is managing the financial affairs of the country with rare prudence and economy. Can the people not see their folly in endorsing the methods of the present administration, and in perpetuating their power to longer mismanage and misdirect the affairs of the country.

THE report of the Auditor-General for 1886 shows that Mr. A. F. Wood, M.P.P. for North Hastings, received $760 last year as valuator on the Trent River Navigation Works and $370 as valuator on the Welland Canal. In the House of Assembly last session Mr. Wood denied that he was in the service of the Dominion Government in any capacity.

THE Toronto Telegram says that "it is as certain as anything in this valley of disappointments can be that Mr. Blake's time will come. The country has confidence in him as a man of character and ability, and in the end character and ability will tell." Honesty of purpose and integrity of aim will, in the long run, triumph. Mr. Blake can well afford to wait. The reign of trickery and sham statesmanship can only be temporary.

MONTREAL is favored with a munificent proposal for becomingly commemorating the jubilee year of Her Majesty's reign, Sir George Stephen and Sir Donald Smith in a joint letter to the Mayor, announcing their decision to give $300,000 each —one million dollars—for the establishment of a hospital to be called the Royal Victoria Hospital, "for the use of the sick and ailing without distinction of race or creed." The corporation of the city has accepted the offer, and the property will be vested in the city. This princely gift will construct and maintain a hospital giving medical attendance to 200 patients free of charge for all time.

IN spite of the emphatic declaration of the Conservative candidate for West Peterborough, in the Dominion election, made on the stage of the Opera House, that there was no lock making in the Kingston Penetentiary, it is the fact that convict labour is still competing with honest labour. The report of the Minister of Justice, as to the Penetentiaries, laid before the house on Tuesday, contains the following paragraph:—

The contract for convict labour at lock making, with Mr. L. B. Spencer, expired on the 30th of June. He has been permitted to employ about ninety convicts on the piece price plan, in order to finish work which had been incomplete on the expiry of the contract.

It will thus be seen that the work is still going on although nearly ten months has elapsed since the expiry of the contract. It certainly requires no such length of time to complete unfinished work, especially as the contractor was notified in due time that the contract would expire on June 30th. If the Dominion Government were as anxious to do justice to honest labour as it is to favour capitalist contractors it would have found some means for speedily stopping the conflict of convict labour with the toil of honest men.

AT THE CAPITAL.

POLITICAL GOSSIP FROM OTTAWA—IN AND OUT OF PARLIAMENT.

OTTAWA, April 20.—The Senate met yesterday, said prayers, gave notice that on Friday it would adjourn until May 10, and quit. The House did a little better, but it was emphatically a day of small things.

The ministers replied to questions that the present railway liabilities assumed by entering upon contracts is $8,266,000, *par*acides $250,000, and canals now under contract about $2,000,000. That the questions of Mounted Police pensions and experimental farms in the Northwest are under consideration, and that the wharves at Longueil will be started as soon as the ice clears away.

In moving for a return of those who have received scrip for services of whatever kind in the late rebellion, Mr. Davin delivered a considerable speech. The trouble appears to be that the Battle House Guards got scrip and medals, while the Regina House Guards did not. The Battle House Guards never moved outside of Battle. The Regina House Guards never moved out of Regina. Therefore the land from the flower clad prairies cannot understand why Battle should be exalted among the hamlets of the plain while Regina should be debased.

Sir Adolphe Caron replied that the strict letter of the law had been complied with in every instance, and the return in a modified form was allowed to pass.

A couple of other unimportant returns were ordered and the House adjourned after laying on the table the reports of railways and canals and amending and adopting the list of standing committees.

The report of the Railway Department deals with the Canadian Pacific Railway in extenso, with the Intercolonial Railway and with subsidized lines. Respecting the Canadian Pacific Railway a succinct history of the transactions of the company with the Government is given, winding up with the order in council of November last authorizing the closing up of all matters outstanding between the Government and the company, and the final agreement signed comprising the acceptance by the Government of the work executed by the company as fulfilling the conditions of their contract; the transfer to and acceptance by the company of the portions of the road constructed by the Government; the payment to the company of the balance of the subsidy; the release of the security held for operation and the deposit by the company with the Government of $1,000,000 of land grant bonds as security that the company will, whenever required by the Government, improve that portion of the line passing Mount Stephen in the Rockies.

Regarding the Government Railway the report shows that 1190 miles are in operation; the total loss on operation last year was $190,637; the total cost to June last was $49,195,000; the gross tonnage of freight carried was 38,500 tons in excess of the previous year. A comparison of traffic returns for ten years shows that the gross earnings have doubled. The amount of freight increased one and a half times and passengers one-third.

Respecting subsidized lines, the report shows that ninety-five lines have secured parliamentary authority for money subsidies and seven for land subsidies. Nine of the first set have been cancelled. The amount for which the other roads have been subsidized is as follows: General subsidies, $14,000,000; special subsidies, $8,750,000. The general subsidies are, as a rule, at the rate of $3200 per mile. Special subsidies are of a twofold character: one to the Short Line Railway of a quarter million a year for twenty years, and the other to the Chignecto Maine Railway of $3,250,000 in yearly payments of $150,000. No portion of the special subsidies has been paid. Of the other subsidies $725,000, or more than half the whole amount, has been paid. All these lines under the several acts empowering the Government to subsidize them must be begun in two years from the passing of the acts. Under the subsidizing acts 35 railways have been begun and have advanced various stages, 22 of them having been paid either in whole or in part according to the progress made. The land subsidies amount to 8,416,000 acres, 6,880,000 to the Hudson Bay Railway and the balance to the Wood Mountain.

The report of the Department of Justice gives details of the crime of the country and the number of convicts in the different penitentiaries. The convict population of Canada on June 30, 1886, was 1200 as against 1112 the previous year, an increase of 88.

Mr. Chisholm, M.P., British Columbia, states that the salmon packing industry, in which he is largely interested, promises to be very brisk during the coming season. The pack last year amounted to 965,404 cases. Each case represents an average of ten fish. Last year the distribution was 363,071 cases to the Eastern Provinces and the United States, 6,600 to Great Britain and 70,744 to Australia and New Zealand. The fishing season begins this month on the Columbia and in July on the Fraser River.

All the Knights of St. Michael and St. George here, including Sir John, Sir Charles Tupper, Sir Hector Langevin, Sir Adolphe Caron and Sir Fred Middleton, received invitations to attend the annual dinner of the order in London on St. George's Day.

So far the Senate leadership is not settled. Senator Botsford of New Brunswick is assisting Hon Frank Smith for the present, but it is likely that the new leader will be selected before the close of the Senatorial vacation.

Sir Leonard Tilley is expected to visit the Capital next week.

The fisheries returns being prepared for Parliament are nearly complete. Part of them will probably be laid on the table to-morrow. There are hundreds of pages that will certainly prove most interesting reading.

The iron and steel men are here in force to-night, with others interested in tariff questions. To-morrow will be a day of deputation. Besides the iron men, the Toronto and Montreal paper makers, the coopers and the electric machinery manufacturers will all have deputations on deck. To-day Mr. Wood introduced a deputation of Gananoque carriage manufacturers to the Finance Minister.

The late customs regulation regarding the examination of passengers' personal effects when crossing the line having been found to work unsatisfactorily, were to-day rescinded by order of the Department.

Hon. Mr. Carling will visit the Northwest, accompanied by Prof. Saunders, immediately after the session. They will select the sites for the experimental farms in Manitoba and the Territories. Hon. Mr. Thompson will go as far west as British Columbia, visiting the penitentiaries.

The Manitoba and Northwest contingents have had an interview with Sir John on the disallowance question. The matter was discussed at length and another day named for a second conference, when the Minister of Justice will be present and the legal aspect of the case taken up.

The Cabinet sat for four hours to-day putting the last touches to the estimates.

C.P.R. Traffic Returns.

MONTREAL, April 19.—The traffic returns of the Canadian Pacific Railway for last week were $188,000, against $187,000 for the corresponding week last year, showing an increase of $1000 for the year.

Sudden Death of a Millionaire.

NEW YORK, April 19.—Alexander Mitchell, the Milwaukee millionaire, died here suddenly this morning. Mr. Mitchell was President of the Chicago, Milwaukee and St. Paul Railroad Company. The cause of death was pneumonia.

The Governor-General's Rank.

When given the full style and title of the Governor-General of Canada is expressed as follows:—

His Excellency the Most Honourable Henry Charles Keith Petty-Fitzmaurice, Marquis of Lansdowne, in the County of Somerset, Earle of Wycombe, of Chipping Wycombe, in the County of Bucks, Viscount Calne and Calnestone, in the County of Wilts, and Lord Wycombe, Baron of Chipping Wycombe, in the County of Bucks' in the Peerage of Great Britain; Earl of Kerry and Earl of Shelburne, Viscount Clanmaurice and Fitzmaurice, Baron of Kerry, Lixnaw Dunkerron, in the Peerage of Ireland; Governor-General of Canada, and Vice Admiral of the same, &c.

The most troublesome of his Lordship's titles are those derived from his Irish estates upon which wholesale evictions are at present taking place, creating intense excitement among the peasants.

Astonishing Success.

It is the duty of every person who has used Boschee's German Syrup to let its wonderful qualities be known to their friends in curing Consumption, severe Coughs, Croup, Asthma, Pneumonia, and in fact all throat and lung diseases. No person can use it without immediate relief. Three doses will relieve any case, and we consider it the duty of all Druggists to recommend it to the poor, dying consumptive, at least to try one bottle, as 60,000 dozen bottles were sold last year, and no one case where it failed was reported. Such a medicine as the German Syrup cannot be too widely known. Ask your druggist about it, sample bottles to try, only 10 cents. Regular size, 75 cents. Sold by all Druggists and dealers, in the United States and Canada. eodwf

Just Received at Turnbull's, a fresh shipment of Scarce Shades in Dress Goods. Everybody visiting the Dress Goods Department is surprised at the Variety in Shades and more than pleased at the Prices.

Overworked.

"My husband strained himself with overwork, causing a large swelling in the groin. He suffered great agony, which doctors failed to relieve; he could not eat nor sleep. B. B. B. quickly cured him. He says he never had such quick relief in his life." Extract from a letter from Mrs. George Bosk, Cookeville, Ont. 2w17d

An Improvement.

An improvement on the chestnut bell has been patented. It rings only on fresh and original jokes, and thus much labor is saved.

A Common Occurrence.

Many bad joints, by which people are crippled for life, are made by neglected or badly treated rheumatism. Ida Plank, of Strathroy, Ont., was afflicted with rheumatism in her fingers so that she could not bend them. Yellow Oil cured her, and is a prompt cure for all painful complaints. 2w17d

Topics From Toronto.

TORONTO, April 20.

The funerals of Sheriff Jarvis and the late Dr. McCaul took place yesterday afternoon, both being largely attended.

Mayor Howland has gone to Ottawa to attend the Dominion Alliance meeting.

The British army and navy pensioners of the city will join the Queen's Jubilee on a large scale.

In the Common Pleas Division of the High Court of Justice, in McLay against the County of Bruce, the defendants demurred to the plaintiff's whole statement of claim on the grounds: 1. That the defendants, being a corporation, cannot be guilty of malice. 2. That a municipal corporation is not responsible in damages for malice. 3. That the defendants being a municipal corporation only, are not liable to be sued for damages for libel. The case, which has attracted considerable interest, was argued at length at Osgoode Hall on Friday last before Chief Justice Wilson; Mr. Shaw, Q.C., of Walkerton, and Mr. B. B. Osler, Q.C., for defendants, Mr. Ed. Meek for plaintiff. Yesterday His Lordship delivered a long and carefully prepared judgment against the defendants on all of their demurrers, thus affirming the corporation of Bruce to be liable for libel. This suit grows out of alleged libel on ex-Registrar McLay of Bruce by the corporation of that county.

The Governor-General's Visit.

OTTAWA, April 19.—Lord Lansdowne, the Marchioness of Lansdowne and suite expect to reach Toronto on May 2 and to remain in that city until after the Queen's Birthday. They will occupy Government House during their visit. Among other things, His Excellency has engaged to attend the Woodbine races on the day the Queen's Plate is run.

The Milton Champion Was Again Committed to Jail.

MILTON, Ont., April 19.—At the Scott Act trial held here to-day on a charge against David Dewar, before Police Magistrate Young, Mr. Panton, a witness, was asked the following question: "Did you drink any intoxicating liquor at Dewar's hotel in the month of January last that was paid for?" Panton answered: "I did not drink any intoxicating liquor in Dewar's hotel in January last, without first making sure that it was not paid for, and that there was no violation of the Canada Temperance Act of 1878 by receiving it." The magistrate did not consider this an answer to his question, and committed Panton to jail

Saunderson Says it Again.

LONDON, April 19. Major Saunderson, speaking at Tunbridge this evening, reiterated his charges against the Parnellites and challenged them to adopt the means of vindication at their disposal.

The New Mahdi Friendly.

CAIRO, April 19.—The delegates of the new Mahdi had an audience yesterday with the Khedive, to whom they presented letters from the Mahdi to the Khedive, the Queen of England and the Sultan of Turkey. In the letter the Mahdi says: "If you will recognize me as the true Mahdi you will be saved and we will be friends; otherwise I will march forward, and the same fate will befall you as overtook your general." The Mahdi addresses Queen Victoria as the favorite of her people.

A Polish Poet's Funeral.

CRACOW, April 19.—Six thousand persons from all parts of Europe attended the funeral to-day of Kroszowski, the Polish poet, who died at Geneva on March 20. Eight hundred wreaths were laid on the catafalque. At the Cathedral of St. Mary a requiem mass was celebrated. Black flags are displayed throughout the city, lamps are swathed in crape, and dense crowds throng the streets.

A Fatal Fall.

OTTAWA, April 19.—Ivano Tache, a clerk in the journals office in the Senate side, was seized with a fit of apoplexy about 6 o'clock this evening and in falling struck his head on the stone floor so severely as to produce concussion of the brain. He is not expected to live until morning.

Primrose Day.

LONDON, April 19.—Primrose Day, the anniversary of the death of Lord Beaconsfield, was generally observed by the Conservatives. The statue of Lord Beaconsfield was handsomely decorated.

"For contemplation he, and valor formed,
For soft sex she, and wisest attractive grace."

John Milton in his "Paradise Lost" thus distinguishes woman from man. Diseases fall to her lot that do not to man's, peculiar to her soft and more refined nature. A remedy adapted to the cure of her peculiar diseases is found in Dr. R. V. Pierce's "Favorite Prescription" for women. Thousands who have used it attest its great worth. 6dw17

Mount Pleasant.

(From our own Correspondent.)

Death has again entered our village and taken Horace Adrian from among us. He took a severe cold early in the winter, and not succeeding in having it removed, it led to the disease which caused his death, on Thursday the 14th. A large number attended the funeral on the following Saturday.

The farmers in this vicinity are becoming anxious to get at their spring work, but old Winter seems very reluctant to give way to the more genial spring.

Have You Thought About It?

Pain is one of the sure things of life, and it becomes then a most important question to have at hand the quickest and most efficient remedy. Polson's NERVILINE cannot fail to cure cramps, toothache, neuralgia, headache and all pain, internal or external. Nerviline is the most perfect combination ever offered to the public for the relief of pain. It will not cost you much to try it, for you can buy at any drug store for 10c. a trial bottle, which will convince you of its mighty pain relieving power. 6dw17

Fool and Madman.

"To call a man a fool is not to make him one," says the Voice. But it may make him mad, and the mad man is the fool's brother.

A Severe Attack.

"I never felt better in my life than I have since taking Burdock Blood Bitters. I had a severe bilious attack; I could not eat for several days, and was unable to work. One bottle cured me." John M. Richards, Sr., Tara, Ont. For all bilious troubles use B. B. B. 2w17d

No better resolution can be made than to resolve buying any of the substitutes offered as "just as good" as the great only sure-pop corn cure—Putnam's Painless Corn Extractor. It never fails to give satisfaction. Beware of poisonous flesh eating substitutes.

Fall Fashions.

Fall fashions have not changed materially with the paragraphers. The same old banana peel does the business.

Personal.

George Legault, of Tayside, Ont., says he can heartily recommend Yellow Oil as the best reliever of rheumatic pain, his father and mother having suffered for years with rheumatism, and all remedies failed except Yellow Oil. 2w17d

The Boom Burst.

Yesterday forenoon the government boom that extends across Little Lake from McDonald's point to the cemetery, for the purpose of massing all the logs until they can be formed into rafts and conducted down the river without interfering with steamboat travel, gave way from the pressure of ice eroed upon it by the strong current, only seven lengths remaining in position. The floe of ice was carried down to the locks where a jam ensued, strengthened by twenty or thirty lengths of the boom.

His recent additions to his manufacturing plant enable him to undertake work of this kind and place him in a position to guarantee perfect satisfaction. To those contemplating the purchase of new furniture Bellegham's superb stock, at moderate prices, presents a chance seldom found outside of large cities.

The Late John Edmison, Sr.

The Eldest of Peterborough's Original Settlers Passes Away.

Thousands of the people of this district will hear with regret of the death of one of the oldest, if not the oldest resident of the county, and one of the most widely known, and most highly respected, Mr. John Edmison, Sr., who passed away at his homestead residence, Smith, on Tuesday, April 19th, at the age of 93 years. The deceased was born in Northumberland, England, in 1794. He first came to Canada in 1818. His first place of residence was Port Hope, where he remained four years. During that time he located a farm in the township of Smith, now known as the Isaac Millburn farm, and had some improvements made on it. After four years in Port Hope he returned to England, remaining six years. While there he married Margaret Ann Hall. He returned to Canada, accompanied by his wife and one daughter, in 1828. He again domiciled at Port Hope, working on shares a farm belonging to the late Thomas Ward till 1832, when he settled on the farm (on which he lived continuously till his death), lot 11, in the 3rd concession of Smith. He followed farming with marked success, adding one farm after another, but for the past 20 years he has lived a retired life on the old homestead. The deceased gentleman was a most exemplary character, enjoying to the fullest extent the respect and reverence of all who knew him. He was an earnest Christian, and fully exemplified in his daily walk, the virtues of the faith he professed, and the full beauty of the Christian character. He never took an active part in municipal or political matters generally. He never sought nor accepted any secular office. For over 50 years, however, he was an active elder of St. Andrew's Church. He took an active part in the erection of the old St. Andrews, at the head of Brock street, and wrought at its erection not a little, with his own willing hands. He was an elder in the church at the time of his death. Mr. Edmison was not a working politician. Always staunchly Liberal in his politics, he never was a biassed partizan; still in professions and practice, he always upheld the principles of the Reform party—even to the time of his death, for his last political act was voting for Mr. Stratton in the December elections, and for Mr. Cox in the February elections. In November, 1885, Mr. Edmison lost the partner of his joys and sorrows for 60 years, and since that time the attraction in a better world loosened his hold on earth, and his decline in health dated from the time of the death of his wife, at the age of 83. His death was a triumphant vindication of the the reality of the Christian religion. He died in sure and steadfast hope of a blissful immortality. Mr. Edmison was peculiarly happy in his family relations. He was blessed with five sons and five daughters, all of whom survive; all married and the heads of families; all in good health; all in prosperous worldly circumstances; all enjoying the respect of the community. His descendants, including children, grand-children and great-grand-children, may be numbered by the score. He never had to mourn the death of a son or daughter, or son-in-law or daughter-in-law, something remarkable in the life of a man who reached the ripe age of 93 years. "The memory of the just is blessed," and long will Mr. Edmison's memory be cherished, as a just man in every relation of life, a faithful, provident, husband, a loving parent, a loyal friend, a kindly neighbour, in fine, a man of solid Christian character, concerning whom, using a familiar phrase, "too much that is good can hardly be said."

The funeral, a very large one, took place to-day at 2 o'clock, to the Little Lake Cemetery.

The death of Mr. Edmison, one of the "colony" settlers of Smith, naturally suggests the recollection of the toils, hardships, and privations of those hardy pioneers, which he shared, and concerning which he might appropriately use the language of Æneas:—

Quæque ipse miserrima vidi
Et quorum pars magna fui

In this connection the following extract from Dr. Poole's "Early settlement of Peterborough, etc.," will be read with interest:—The first requisite to [procure land in those days, was to take the oath of allegiance, on which a certificate was issued as evidence of the fact, a location ticket for the lot was then granted, for which a small fee was charged.

* * * * *

Before a full title to the land was procured, an affidavit, made by two persons, setting forth that the settlement duties had been performed, and a house, at least 18 x20 feet in size, erected, had to be presented at the land office, which for several years rendered a second journey to Toronto a necessity.

The first settlers in Smith encountered difficulties and privations of which we, in after years, can have but a faint conception. Unaccustomed as many of them were to the new scenes in which they found themselves placed; with scant provisions and separated by from their fellow-kind, their situation, with their wives and little ones, must have been appalling; and by less indomitable spirits would have relinquished in despair. Look back upon it now, in the light of their present prosperity, what have they not achieved? Such brave men are the true patriots, whose names deserve to be handed down in the annals of our history to future generations.

During the first few years great difficulties were often felt in procuring the necessary provisions with which to support life. These had to be brought all the way from Port Hope or Cobourg, in the most laborous manner, and in the total absence of even the most ordinary roads, the only guide being the "blaze" upon the trees through the interminable forest, in which they seemed entombed. Under these circumstances, it is not to be wondered at that whole families were often and herbs and succulent roots of the rich woods were often called into requisition to lengthen out their scanty fare.

* * * * *

Not even after their first scanty clearings were made, and they began to sow and reap their tiny harvests, was their condition greatly improved. How they watched the wheat as it grew and tasted of the pulpy grain as it hardened and matured in the kernel! But there was no mill and their utmost ingenuity could not convert it into the bread for which they longed with all the force of early relish.

In this dilemma, the stumps of trees or some of the larger logs were hollowed out into pot-shaped cavities, in which a huge maul or pot was made to fall and crush the grain, the process being aided by the spring of a sapling, bent over for that purpose, or the more widely lever still used for raising the bucket in farm wells. Wheat was boiled and so used for children, was even chewed by their parents, besides being then pounded in order to convert it into food."

"Music, With Its Voluptuous Swell."

A large audience assembled in the George Street Methodist Church last night, and to the delight they were regaled with the most delightful moderate performances they ever listened to. Dr. Davies, who needs [illegible] Peterborough with a magnificent performance, again charmed his hearers by the perfect mastery over music which he possesses. He made the large organ "speak" in tones as soft and melodious that the whispered hush among the audience were hushed while the sweet strains touched their very hearts; or, bursting forth in thunderous peals that shook the very building, the sympathies of all would thrill and vibrate with the grandeur and brilliancy of the music produced. Two or three numbers, "Chorus of Hermit," the "Swedish Wedding March," and others, were exceptionally fine pieces and rendered with a style and finish peculiarly Mr. Davies'. Mr. Lye's singing was also much admired; he has a clear strong tenor voice of wide range and evident culture. His two solos were nicely sung indeed. The organ recital gave every satisfaction to the audience, and also to the managers, whose hearts were made glad by the liberal silver offerings deposited in the basket on entering the door.

Capitular Masonry.

The Grand Superintendent, R. Ex., J. B. Trayes, and M. Ex. Comp., C. D. McDonald, visited Corinthian R. A. Chapter Tuesday evening and installed the following officers. At the conclusion of the installation ceremonies the visitors were entertained to a supper in the ante-room.

After the installation ceremony the Grand Superintendent took occasion to express himself highly pleased with the general proficiency shown by the officers of the Chapter in their various duties. He said that he knew of no Chapter, including those in the cities, who might be expected to rank higher, who evinced more thoroughness and superior knowledge in the higher work of Capitular Masonry than Corinthian Chapter.

Northumberland County Court.

Thomas Irwin was tried before Judge Clark, at Cobourg, on Tuesday for assault with intent to commit rape. The accused was about 15 years of age. The offence was committed in the township of South Monaghan, upon the person of a young girl, aged 13 years, while the latter was 3 or 4 miles from home, en route from a visit to her grandmother. The young villain used extreme violence, but did not succeed in his design. Before the Judge he pleaded guilty to the charge, and, after some consideration, His Honor sentenced him to imprisonment in the Ontario Reformatory for boys at Penetanguishene for a term of two years, and for an indefinite time after the expiration of such fixed term, the object of the latter part of the sentence being if Irwin does not behave himself in the Reformatory, he may be kept for a longer period, as allowed by the statutes. In the case of Queen vs Samuel Plains, the prisoner was also brought before Judge Clark on Tuesday afternoon, charged with having stolen the sum of $9 from Wm. Underwood of Orono. The prisoner, who is a boy of 12 years, pleaded "not guilty," and was remanded for trial until Tuesday next, at 11 a.m.—World.

The Government Building Site.

The extract, published in yesterday's issue, from the report of the Minister of Public Works, Sir Hector L. Langevin, in reference to the purchase of sites for a Government building in town, shows that his report is not always strictly truthful. The report states that the Phelan site was purchased Oct. 19th, and the Sawers site Oct. 20th. The facts, which we should expect to be correctly set forth in a state document, are these:—The Phelan site was purchased three months before the other site, and for the purpose of erecting a post office upon, as was expressly stipulated in the deed of conveyance; the Sawers site was purchased not for any stated particular purpose—simply so many feet of land for so many dollars. It is interesting to note that the proposal to erect two separate government buildings was not made till four months after the Phelan lot had been bought for a site for the post-office, respecting which it may be added that the bargain with the Minister was ratified by an order-in-council, which has so far been disregarded.

Grand Lodge Reception Committee.

A meeting of the above committee was held on Wednesday evening, when the draft of a circular to be distributed throughout Ontario was endorsed. It was also decided to negotiate a provisional promissory note, to provide against a deficit, for signature by all Oddfellows. Should there be a surplus, it would be donated by the Oddfellows to the Protestant Home. The entertainment committee was authorized to ask the assistance of the ladies of church choirs and the leaders of other musical organizations in arranging for a suitable choral jubilee celebration in August next. As it is not imperative that the jubilee celebration should be held in June, it would pe an excellant arrangement if the different choirs could be brought together in August next, on the occasion of the presence of a large number of visitors in town. It is to be hoped that the proposal will meet with that cordial support and co-operation necessary to bringing it to a successful accomplishment.

The Knights of Labor.

At a regular meeting of Labor Assembly 6932, Peterborough, held Wednesday evening, 19th April, the following resolution was passed:—

Resolved, that by the action of Heintzmann & Co., of King street west, Toronto, in discharging some of their employees for no other reason than that they belonged to the K. of L., we hereby refuse to deal with any party handling their instruments.—Carried.

An open meeting of the Lodge will be held in the Lodge rooms this (Thursday) evening for the purpose of discussing the labor question. All workingmen and others interested are invited to attend.

Through Fifty Feet of Rock.
